The Charlton Buckley Collection

Charlton H. Buckley was born in 1937, in San Francisco. He attended UC Berkeley where he joined Phi Delta Theta fraternity and participated in Track and Field, notably the Long Jump. He graduated in 1960 with a BA in Statistics. His long and successful professional career spanned a variety of business interests including Smith Roofing, Bay Service Co., Steele Park Resort, and Henry Broadcasting Co. Mr. Buckley retired to Lake Tahoe in 1996.

After marrying Susan Crammer in 1968, Charlton became a proud father to Sarah Buckley and Sean Buckley, and eventually grandfather to four grandsons. He has enjoyed a number of hobbies in addition to numismatics, including handball at the Olympic Club, tournament bridge – achieving a rank of Life Master, and extensive travel, including attending the annual Wimbledon tennis tournaments, and Wagner Opera Festival in Bayreuth, Germany each year. He also enjoyed collecting slot machines and toy trains.

He joined the ranks of numismatic hobbyists at age 12, filling “blue books” full of pocket change. In 1987, he bought almost filled-in coin books from Curtis Iverson with better coins. Around 2015, he started a new collection of graded coins, working to build a complete set. If the ‘book’ coin appeared to be in good condition, he would have it graded and moved into the graded collection.

In the late sixties, Charlton became interested in paper money. His self-described interest at the time included small size US notes, National Bank notes – large and small, large size US notes, and fractional currency. He was a serious collector of California Nationals and by 1975 he had established quite a large collection of California notes, including California Gold Bank Notes. For the thrill of the chase, he began collecting other states, NY especially, as well as stand-out confederates and other numismatic treasures.

Buckley enlisted the help of his fellow numismatists to refine his collecting activities in pursuit of the truly special notes. As a result, Charlton Buckley possessed a carefully curated array of some of the rarest and most storied pieces in American coins and paper currency. Each item in The Charlton Buckley Collection stands as a testament to American history and numismatic craftsmanship. As Charlton was a decades long friend of both Allen Mincho and Greg Rohan, our hope is that you will find as much enjoyment in perusing and pursuing the spectacular pieces in his collection as he found in assembling them.

20001 Continental Currency November 29, 1775 $1 PMG Choice About Unc 58 EPQ.
The Continental in this lot is very difficult to obtain in high grades. Our current offering is boldly inked with bright, unblemished paper, earning it PMG's "Exceptional Paper Quality" designation. The face features a vignette of a weighted bowl sitting on an acanthus plant with the motto DEPRESSA RESURGIT (Though crushed it recovers), and the back contains a nature print. We last auctioned this exact piece in September 2022, when it brought $2,160.

20002 Continental Currency November 29, 1775 $3 PMG Choice About Unc 58 EPQ.
The second issue comprised $3,000,000 in new notes and $10,000 in replacement notes for worn paper money no longer fit for circulation. A total of 83,611 notes of each denomination from $1 to $8 were authorized. A fascinating depiction of an eagle battling a heron with the motto EXITUS IN DUBIO EST (The outcome is in doubt) is featured at right. We auctioned a PMG 55 in November 2024 that realized $1,920.

The well printed Continental in this lot features a depiction of a boar charging a spear at left with the words AUT MORS AUT VITA DECORA (Either death or an honorable life) surrounding it. We auctioned a PMG Choice VF 35 in November 2024 that realized $504. As this piece is graded much higher, we expect it will easily outdistance that figure.

20004 Continental Currency November 2, 1776 $7 PMG Choice Uncirculated 63 EPQ.
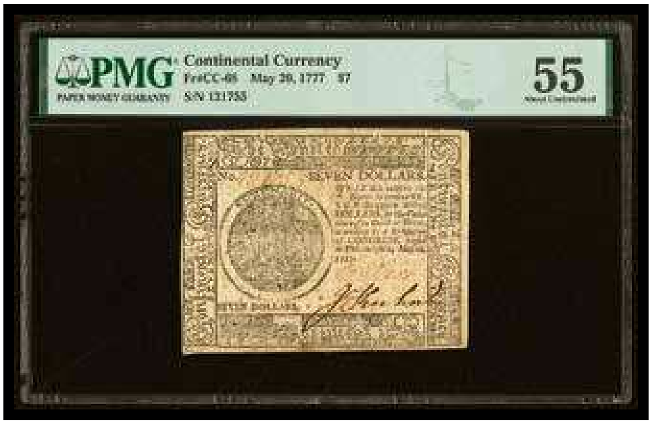
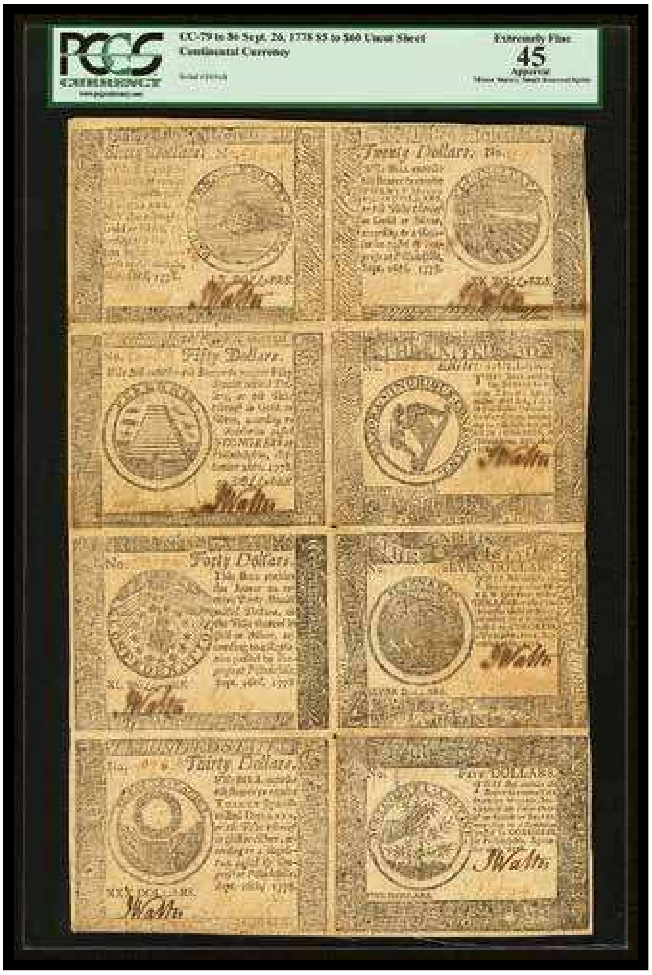
Seldom found at the Uncirculated grade level, this $7 Continental has earned a 63 EPQ grade from PMG. Taking a look at their population report shows us that they have graded only five total Uncirculated examples. However only two of those, including this note, carry the EPQ designation.
Starting Bid: $750



20005 Continental Currency May 20, 1777 $7 PMG About Uncirculated 55.

Part of an issue of $16,500,000 that was authorized by a series of resolutions passed between 1777 and 1778, this $7 note features an emblem of a severe storm at sea with the motto SERENABIT (It will be calm) on the face and a nature print of a buttercup leaf on the back. The May 20, 1777 notes are generally regarded as the second scarcest of the Continental issues. The border cuts were changed from "UNITED COLONIES" to "UNITED STATES" beginning with this issue. Signed by Parr and Kuhn, both Hillegas appointees. In our last Central States auction, a PMG Choice AU 58 example realized $13,200.

Starting Bid: $2,000



20006 Continental Currency September 26, 1778 $5-$7-$8-$20-$30-$40-$50-$60 Uncut Half Sheet of Eight PCGS Apparent Extremely Fine 45.

This pane of eight notes is comprised of various denominations from the September 26, 1778 emission. Vignettes include various nature prints on the backs and symbols of America with several designs on the face, such as a hand pricking thorns on the $5 denomination and a large globe on the $60 denomination. Our last offering of an uncut half sheet from this issuance was in April 2021, when a PMG AU 50 realized $4,800. PCGS mentions minor stains and small internal splits.

Starting Bid: $1,750

Declaration of Independence Signer F(rancis) Hopkinson

20007 United States Continental Loan Office Commissioner of the Continental Loan Office Second, Third, and Fourth Bills of Exchange $30 May 30, 1780 Anderson US-97/CT-1A PMG Choice Very Fine 35.
We have auctioned four different three note partial sheets from this issue. Two of those graded PMG Fine 12 with negative comments. The second highest graded example is in this lot and it is without negative comments. We first offered it in January 2015 and it realized $3,525. The highest graded example we auctioned was a PMG 40 with negative comments which received a winning bid of $3,600 in April 2018. The sheet in this lot is missing the First Bill of Exchange, which is understandable as Anderson states that no First Bill of Exchange is known to have survived. These were redeemable in Paris. This example was signed by the Treasurer of Connecticut John Lawrence and by F(rancis) Hopkinson as the Treasurer of Loans. Hopkinson signed the Declaration of Independence as a delegate from New Jersey. He also designed Continental paper money and signed Pennsylvania Colonials.
Starting Bid: $1,500

20008 United States Continental Loan Federal Indent September 27, 1785 $1 Anderson US-165 PMG Very Fine 30.
Federal indents were issued by the Continental Congress from 1782 through 1787. Early in the issuing period, their value depreciated by approximately 20%, but as the notes were accepted for taxes, their value quickly recovered. By 1782, Congress was unable to honor the large quantity of Continental notes that were in circulation, and their value fell to nearly nothing. These indents were then issued to circulate and were accepted in payment of taxes, which earlier Continentals were not. The authorized signers were J(ohn) Hardy, Michael Hillegas, and Henry Kuhl, with almost all of the known examples signed by Hardy. Hardy's bold clear signature led early collectors to refer to these then mysterious rare notes as "Hardy Bills." Notes are known only with issue dates of September 27, 1785 and October 11, 1787, with both Newman and Anderson identifying the denominations as $1, $2, $4, $6, $8, $9, $15, $20, $25, $50, and $75 spread amongst the issues of 1785 and 1787. We have auctioned fewer than twenty examples, with an overwhelming majority landing in the Fine or Very Fine grade ranges. Our current offering is a superb example that has earned a strong Very Fine 30 grade with no comments.

20009 Delaware March 1, 1758 18d PCGS Banknote Choice Fine 15 Details.
Issued under the Act of March 1, 1758 that authorized £4,000 in Bills of Credit to pay public expenses, this note has seen extensive circulation resulting in small pieces added, edge and internal repairs, reconstruction. Printed by Benjamin Franklin and David Hall. You easily count on one hand the number of 18d notes that are known. Despite its problems, experienced Colonial collectors will be unfazed by these condition issues, knowing that it may be a long time before another example becomes available in any, yet alone better, condition. Our own Auction Archives as well as the PMG Population Report both confirm what your erudite cataloger has known for years; the highest denomination notes from these early Franklin issues account for an overwhelming percentage of survivors. An absolutely crushing rarity that should not be overlooked.

20011 Georgia 1776 $4 PMG About Uncirculated 50.
The 1776 emission was quite elaborate, with many varieties of border designs and seal colors present. This $4 is printed in black and red with a light blue seal depicting a liberty cap on a pole, caduceus, and cornucopia with the motto LIBERTAS CARIOR AURO (Freedom is more precious than gold). The note is printed on bright paper with bold design elements as well as decent margins. The signatures of George Houstoun, Peter Bard, William Gibbons, William Ewen, and William O'Bryen are dark and legible. This note is currently the highest graded example in the PMG Population Report.

GEORGIA. No. 5026
THIS BILL intitles the Bearer to FORTY DOLLARS, to be paid within the Space of Twelve Months, out of the Monies ariſing from the Sales of the forfeited Eſtates, purſuant to an Act of Aſſembly, paſſed the Fourth Day of May, One Thouſand ſeven Hundred and Seventy-Eight.

20012 Georgia May 4, 1778 $40 PMG Choice Uncirculated 64.
The highest denomination, large format note printed on two sides by Lancaster in Savannah. The blue Dove Holding Olive Branch and Hand Holding Sword seal at the lower right is clear. The five signers include Charles Kent, William Maxwill, Richard Wylly, William O'Bryen, and Nehemiah Wade. A truly fascinating example that is missing the intricately engraved "GEORGIA" that is placed vertically in the rectangular box at left. As far as your cataloger is able to discern, this is the only error of this type to have appeared publicly. The $40 denomination is the scarcest of the three from this series, and is particularly elusive at the upper reaches of the grading scale. A typical near Gem would be worth several thousand dollars in today's market; with the aforementioned error thrown into the mix, it is safe to say the sky is the limit.

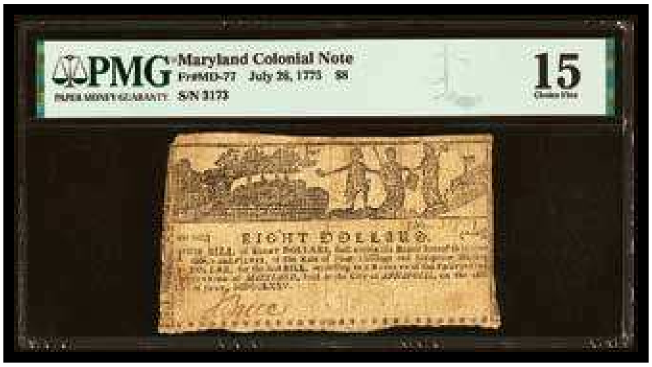
MARYLAND



20013 Maryland July 26, 1775 $8 PMG Choice Fine 15.
The Resolve of August 14, 1775 authorized £100,000 in Maryland money of account. Unlike most Maryland emissions, this issue used highly symbolic allegorical scenes that spoke to the political events of the time. The face has Britannia receiving a petition from the Continental Congress labeled CONG PETI and an allegorical figure representing perhaps either America or Liberty standing in front of American troops. To the left, a man representing George III tramples on the Magna Carta while applying a fire brand to a colonial city under attack by a British fleet. The back contains a vignette of Britannia and America holding an olive branch with the motto PAX TRIUMPHIS POTIOR (Peace is preferred to Triumphs). The note has clear design details on solid paper, with tightly cut left and right margins and minor edge roughness. The signature of John Brice is quite legible, but the other faded signature is not. PMG notes minor repairs, primarily limited to small, sealed edge tears. A rare opportunity to acquire a rare and historically significant Colonial note.

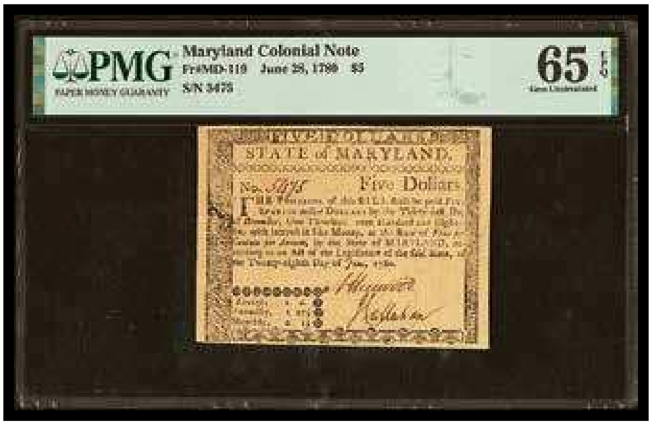
Sole Finest Known Maryland Colonial



20014 Maryland June 28, 1780 $5 PMG Gem Uncirculated 65 EPQ.
N(icholas) Harwood and John C(allahan) were the signers on this magnificent Maryland Colonial. The guaranty on the back was signed by Harwood. When we auctioned this piece as part of our September 2020 Currency Signature Auction for $4,320, it was sole finest known, and that affirmation is still accurate today. The Track & Price census records a grand total of ten examples. PMG has graded six pieces, according to the PMG Population Report. The back was printed in orange and black inks and features a vignette of a hand being pricked with thorns. The motto SUSTINE VEL ABSTINE (either survive or give up) is present around that depiction. We have no doubt that this "top pop" piece will exceed our conservative estimate.

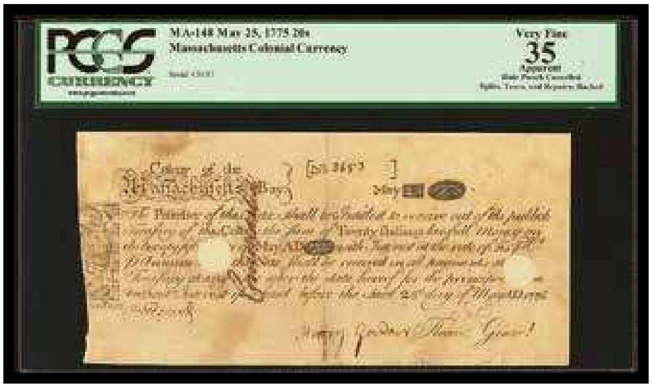
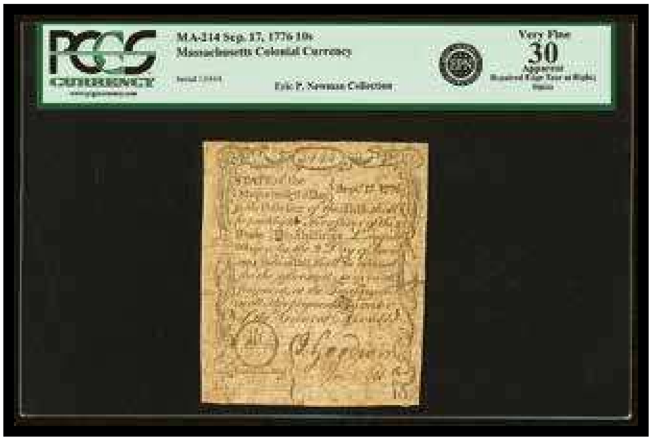
MASSACHUSETTS



20015 Massachusetts May 25, 1775 20s PCGS Apparent Very Fine 35.
This is only the second time we have auctioned a 20s from this May 25, 1775 issue. The first time we offered a note of this denomination was in April 2015, and that piece was the same as the note in this lot. It realized $2,115. Engraved by Colonial silversmith Paul Revere, a codfish in the midst of vine designs is at left. This particular example has an adequate portion of the indent remaining, as it shows the last three letters of the word "American" and the full word of "Paper." PCGS comments on splits, tears, repairs, and backing. There are also two hole punch cancels at right and left. This is the sole example listed in Track & Price and should be heavily pursued tonight.
Starting Bid: $750



20016 Massachusetts September 17, 1776 10s PCGS Apparent Very Fine 30.
The Act of September 16, 1776 authorized £50,004 in legal tender Bills of Credit payable on December 7, 1781. This note, from the third Revere "Sword in Hand" series, is many times rarer than the first two dates. Paul Revere made modifications to the copper plates for these notes, changing the issue date on both sides and substituting STATE for COLONY in two places on the face. The back design features a soldier brandishing a sword holding a document labeled MAGNA CHARTA gives this note its "Sword in Hand" designation. The note is well printed on paper with decent margins and has clear bold signatures of Ichabod Goodwin and John Lewis. PCGS notes a sealed edge tear at center right that does not touch the back vignette. Formerly part of The Eric P. Newman Collection.

20017 Massachusetts May 5, 1780 $7 Contemporary Counterfeit PMG Gem Uncirculated 65 EPQ.
The $20 denomination of this date is the most common counterfeit from the issue. The $7 however, is much scarcer. A lovely counterfeit and the highest-grade example we have auctioned. The diagnostic in Newman's reference for this $7 counterfeit is that the far right "S" in "MASSACHUSETTS" is poorly formed, being top heavy with a narrower bottom curl. This note is alone as "top pop" for any denomination counterfeit from this later series.

NEW HAMPSHIRE

Excessively Rare New Hampshire Colonial

20018 New Hampshire June 20, 1775 40s PCGS Apparent Extremely Fine 45.
There are 20 Fr. NH-130 notes listed in the Track & Price census. However, of those, 16 pieces are Cohen reprints. That leaves a mere four genuine examples for collectors to vie for. Our current offering is the finest of that group of four, with the other three, all certified by PCGS as well, graded Apparent VF 30, 35, and XF 40. The 40s denomination was the highest in the June 20, 1775, emission. We auctioned the PCGS Apparent VF 30 example in January 2017, and it realized $6,462. PCGS mentions splits, tears, repairs, pieces added, and design redrawn on our current offering. Despite the comments, one will be hard pressed to obtain another example.

20019 New Hampshire August 24, 1775 £3 PMG Very Fine 20.
The Resolve of July 5, 1775 authorized £8,000 in indented Treasury Notes bearing 6% interest and payable on December 20, 1776, 1777, or 1778 (this note was payable in 1777). The interest provision was revoked a month later by August 22, 1775 Resolve. The note is typeset on thin laid paper with clear design details, decent margins, and legible signatures of Nicholas Gilman and E. Thompson. The notes were called early for redemption on June 17, 1777. PMG notes tears, primarily at the vertical centerfold and the bottom margin, but these are not overly distracting.

NEW JERSEY

John Hart Signature

20020 New Jersey March 25, 1776 3s PMG About Uncirculated 55.
First approved on May 10, 1768, £100,000 in legal tender Bills of Credit in Proclamation Money was scheduled for issue. The Crown rejected the issue due to legal tender issues twice in 1769. After the legislation was reworked, the Crown finally conditionally approved the issue in 1775. When the American Revolution began, these conditions were essentially considered void and the issue was finally made. The note is well printed with clear design details, including the nature print on the back, on bright paper with mica flakes and a NEW JERSEY watermark. The signatures of Robert Smith, John Stevens, Jr., and John Hart are clear and dark. Hart's signature is, of course, historically important as he was a signer of the Declaration of Independence less than three years before his death in 1779.

NORTH CAROLINA

Rarely Encountered EPQ North Carolina $6 "Goat"

20021 North Carolina April 2, 1776 $6 Goat Fr. NC-163a PMG Very Fine 30 EPQ.

This 56 note 1776-dated issue has justifiably been a Colonial Currency favorite for generations. The numerous denominations, vignettes, artistic styles, paper types, and countless variants make it worthy of its own studies. This series has no known high-grade hoards (like so many from northern colonies) and the vast majority were hard used in circulation, endorsed heavily, worn out or worse. It has only been two decades or so, but certified grading raised awareness of condition rarities, across all American currency. It has opened the eyes of many collectors to rarities that may be hiding in plain sight. All the services, now and retired, appear to have an abundant census of VF 30 notes of this engaging type and auction records viewable on the internet. However, our long experience with Colonial Notes tells us this is one the best looking we have ever seen with its EPQ paper and other merits. In many ways its superior to the Kings Mountain Collection-Tar Heel Collection example (PCGS Extremely Fine 45PPQ) we auctioned years ago. A beautiful note that will be difficult to improve upon, especially if working upon a top quality set of this esteemed issue. We consider our estimate conservative.

The Act of May 30, 1764 authorized £55,000 in legal tender Bills, good until October 1, 1772. The 3d note features the royal coat of arms and was printed by Benjamin Franklin and David Hall. 20023 Philadelphia, PA- Bank of North America August 6, 1789 $1/90 (1 Penny) Uncut Sheet of Twelve PMG About Uncirculated 53. We are offering an uncut sheet of these interesting change notes for the first time. This issue is listed in Friedberg and Haxby as individual notes, but Haxby does not list any uncut sheets for this bank. However, we have an uncut sheet in this lot with plate letters A-M (minus J) lettered from right to left. The Bank of North America was the first commercial bank founded in the United States having been chartered in 1781. It opened in Philadelphia the following year and served as the fledgling nation's de facto central bank for a period of time, after which it continued in business as a private institution and later a national bank. Small fractional notes in $1/90 and $3/90 denominations were issued by the bank to provide a means for making change, as the US Mint did not strike coins for circulation until 1793. Also, this issue was printed by Benjamin Franklin's grandson, Benjamin Franklin Bache. This example was previously mounted and has an approximate half inch split along the left border of the plate letter A note.

A well margined and very attractive example of this rare note. Unlike many other notes, the population of 1330s is concentrated at the high end of grading as these were clearly not intended to be issued for circulation. They are signed by John Allison as Register and John New as Treasurer. However, Allison and New were in office together from June 30, 1875 until January 7, 1876, long after Third Issue notes had ceased to be issued. Apparently, they were signed to be given to friends or as some act of patronage. In any event, they became Legal Tender once signed, as Allison and New were legal signers. This example has excellent color, strong signatures, and a bright red back.

An incredibly well-margined example of this Spinner 50¢ that has earned every bit of the Gem Unc 66 PPQ grade by PCGS Banknote. Although PMG has graded two 67 EPQ's, the example in this lot is the highest graded on PCGS Banknote's population report. Four massive margins and ideal centering alongside incredible bronze surcharges make this a highly desirable note fit for the advanced Fractional collection.

The striking Fractional in this lot sits atop the PMG Population Report. There is a single note graded higher at PCGS Banknote, a 68 PPQ. We auctioned the aforementioned higher graded PCGS Banknote 68 PPQ example in October 2022, and it realized $3,360.

ENCASED POSTAGE

20070 HB-1 EP-1 Reed-AB01 1¢ Aerated Bread Extremely Fine-About New.
The 1¢ is the only collectable denomination for this bakery that was headed by Stephen F. Ambler. Mr. Ambler patented a process to bake bread with carbonated gas in order to make the bread rise instead of using yeast. This company passed from the scene in 1864 due to a lack of customers. Fred Reed lists the 1¢ denomination as an R-7, 11 to 15 known, in his opus, Civil War Encased Stamps The Issuers and Their Times. The Hodder-Bowers reference agrees, stating, "...very rare, with under 15 different specimens believed to survive." While 15 known usually does not command a very high premium for an Encased Postage piece, the Aerated Bread 1¢ is in a different category. It is the only denomination available for the merchant other than the unique 5¢, as no other denominations were produced. This is one of the nicer examples we have offered from this issuer. The stamp is nicely centered while displaying a couple of wrinkles. The mica is in excellent condition whether viewed with direct or angled light as we can see just a touch of crazing. The brass color encasement is attractive on this delightful example. We had an About New HB-1 bring $3,240 in October 2022.

20071 HB-44 EP-5 Reed-BC01 1¢ Bailey & Co. Very Fine.
Reed considers this 1¢ Bailey to be an R-8, indicating five to ten known. In fact, Reed has assigned R-8 for the four lowest Bailey denominations, while the 12¢ has two known, and there was one 24¢ piece recorded many decades ago, but it has never surfaced. In summary, this Philadelphia jeweler is elusive. The stamp in this example is nicely centered, with a light spot within Franklin's hair. Direct light makes a few small cracks visible behind Franklin, while tilting reveals a large amount of crazing in the mica. The olive-green casing has a tiny dent in the left tab and the advertising side shows handling. The last HB-44 that we auctioned was in January 2017. It graded VF and realized $1,410.
Starting Bid: $750

20072 HB-47 EP-100 Reed-BC10 10¢ Bailey & Co. Extremely Fine.
Five to ten examples of this number have been traced by Fred Reed making it a R-8. The stamp is well centered with "Ten Cents" fully visible, while only a small part of "U.S. Postage" is obscured by the inside rim. A small lamination in the mica is observed at 9 o'clock and titling the piece exposes crazing in the area of Washington's portrait. The brass color case exhibits toning in the area of the advertising lettering, while the slightest bent is detected during examination. It is still a rare enough number to command a premium.
Starting Bid: $750

20073 HB-62 EP-7 Scott-31 Reed-BT01 1¢ Brown's Bronchial Troches Extremely Fine.
It has been 13 years since we last offered an example of this number, and this century has seen us auction only one other piece. Fred Reed's 104 year auction survey shows only six appearances of One Cent Brown's. He rates this number as an R-8+, indicating five to seven known. This number stymies many collectors as the above figure of six appearances can attest to. The stamp remains attractive even with the faintest spot within Franklin's portrait. A few small laminations of varying sizes plus crazing are observed in the mica along the inside rim with the help of indirect light. This leaves Franklin's portrait mostly clear of this interference. The advertising side of the encasement is rotated 90 degrees which has a tone spot below "wn's" in "Brown's." There is no telling when another example will make itself available to the collecting community.
Starting Bid: $1,500

20074 HB-67 EP-8 Scott-38 Reed-BU01 1¢ F. Buhl & Co. Very Fine.
Reed's tally of appearances for this rare number from this elusive merchant during the years of 1891-1994 totals up to 38 with an R-8 rarity rating. This equals a population of five to ten different pieces. The stamp component this example has a couple of wrinkles, but is nicely centered with the complete "One Cent" visible. The mica looks clear with direct light, but tilting the piece shows crazing throughout. The olive-brown encasement is attractive for this Detroit hats and furs dealer.

20075 HB-69 EP-68 Reed-BU05 5¢ F. Buhl & Co. Extremely Fine.
The 5¢ denomination has a rarity rating of R-8. Numerically, that is five to ten pieces that have been accounted for by Fred Reed. The Hodder and Bowers reference classify this number as extremely rare with under ten pieces known. The unfaded stamp is nicely centered, just a touch high, which leaves the denomination entirely in sight. Head on the mica is clear, while tilting the piece in several directions produces a visible cloudiness over the left half of the piece diagonally from approximately 1 to 7 o'clock. The charming olive-brown encasement has toned with Buhl's advertising lettering retaining traces of luster.
Starting Bid: $1,500

Possibly Finest Known Burnett's Standard Cooking Extracts 12¢

20076 HB-86 EP-143 Reed-BE12 12¢ Burnett's Standard Cooking Extracts About New.
A rare number with the last two examples that we entertained being part of The Frederick Mayer Collection that Heritage auctioned in September 2007. Fred Reed's rarity rating is R-8, translating to 5-10 known, and with only 22 appearances in a little more than a century of tracking that ended in 1994. The consensus of leading experts is that the population figure is much closer to five for this number. Our consignor purchased this wonderful piece as lot 446 in the Part IV auction of The John J. Ford, Jr. Collection held in 2004. In that catalog description, it was described as, "a lovely specimen, quite possibly the finest known of the denomination (for the issuer.)" In fact, it is a nicer example than the two we offered almost 18 years ago. The unfaded, attractive stamp is centered a touch high, but this allows both "U.S. Postage" and "Twelve Cents" to be completely readable. The mica is clear in direct light, while tilting the piece exposes only a minute amount of crazing along the inside edge. The toned medium golden brown case is sound in every detail. Simply, it is definitely a jewel within this collecting domain.
Starting Bid: $2,500

Rare H.A. Cook 5¢ Denomination Encased Postage

20077 HB-94 EP-72 Reed-CO05 5¢ H. A. Cook Very Fine.
The 5¢ on this Evansville, IN merchant is the rarer of the two denominations issued by Cook. Reed considers this number to be an R-8, five to ten known. Also, the Hodder-Bowers reference states, "...fewer than six specimens have been traced." We believe that a population figure in the five to eight range is accurate for this important rarity. The light brass color encasement has some form of minor environmental damage on only the advertising side. However, each letter is completely legible. The stamp is fully bright and the mica is perfect save for some very minor non-distracting natural separations. We have now had three auction appearances for this number in the 21st century. All three have been the piece in this lot with the first occurring in our September 2002 Cincinnati auction. We next offered it in our January 2012 FUN auction as part of the The Honorable William H. Kelly Collection. Thirteen years later, it is back once again for a new generation of collectors to pursue.

20078 HB-95 EP-108 Reed-CO10 10¢ H. A. Cook Very Fine.
We last entertained this example in January 2012 when the William H. Kelly Collection crossed our auction block. Cook is an elusive merchant having issued only two denominations. This number is a R-7 in Reed, 11-15 known. The Hodder-Bowers reference concurs with their statement of, “About twelve 10¢ pieces are known.” Our current offering is a very respectable VF with considerable wear on the olive-green case, but no mentionable problems. The attractive stamp is both well centered and unusually bright. The mica, although having considerable circulation caused surface defects seen in indirect light, remains substantially clear in direct light. The last example that we auctioned was a different VF piece which brought $4,560 in January 2023.

Dougan the Hatter About New Encased Postage

20079 HB-96 EP-12 Reed-DO01 1¢ Dougan Choice Very Fine.
The 1¢ Dougan is considered to be an R-7 by Reed with 11 to 15 known. However, the Hodder-Bowers reference states that the 1¢ denomination is rarer and represented by, "fewer than ten" pieces. John A. Dougan was one of three hatters that commissioned orders for Encased Postage. However, for all of the issuers, no matter what their occupation, Dougan the Hatter was the only one to use an illustration of his product on the encasement as a top hat adorns the advertising side of all of his very desirable pieces. The stamp in this example has a couple of light bends. The mica exhibits a crack behind Franklin's head and almost all of the crazing of the mica occurs on the inside of the encasement rim and away from the portrait. The advertising side of this light brown encasement remains reflective with a few small carbon spots. Overall, a rare merchant in a nice collector grade.
Starting Bid: $2,500

Rare, Genuine Dougan the Hatter 5 Cent

20080 HB-98 EP-73 Reed-DO05 5¢ Dougan Very Fine.
The 5¢ Dougan is considered to be an R-8+ by Fred Reed, with around five to seven examples known as discussed in his reference Civil War Encased Stamps The Issuers and Their Times. Reed was able to compile a total of 21 appearances for this number from 1891-1994, and this figure certainly includes multiple reappearances. The Standard Catalogue of Encased Postage by Hodder and Bowers states on page 93 that the 5¢ denomination is represented by "fewer than five" known pieces and it is not valued in any grade. The Dougan the Hatter example in this lot has a postage stamp that is centered a little high and to the left. The mica displays tiny cracks from the right tab to Jefferson's left side of his face. Tilting the piece permits a large amount of crazing to be seen. The case is an attractive dark brown with lighter areas due to protection by the lettering on the advertising side. The last example of this number that we offered graded XF and realized $9,600 in October 2022. Also, this example has been examined by the Philatelic Foundation Expert Committee. They state that the Encased Postage piece in this lot is genuine.
Starting Bid: $3,500

One of Two Known 10¢ Drake's Plantation Bitters Ribbed Frame

20081 HB-105 EP-111 Reed DR10 10¢ Drake's Plantation Bitters Ribbed Frame Extremely Fine.
An extreme rarity with Fred Reed's population figure on page 465 of his reference being 2-3 known, while the Hodder-Bowers tome states, "fewer than three known" on page 97. We know of only two ribbed frame 10¢ pieces from this very successful patent medicine issuer. The example in this lot was previously lot 441 in the Part IV auction of The John J. Ford, Jr. Collection and therefore it is more than likely that this great Encased Postage rarity was once in The F.C.C. Boyd Collection. Reed's tally of appearances for this number from 1891-1994 is seven.

The well centered stamp has retained its dark green color. Tilting the piece allows only a small amount of crazing to come into view and that is mostly along the inside rim. We also see a light crack in the mica running from 2 o' clock to Washington's jaw. The encasement is a light golden-brown with a few thin scratches in the field above the top line of the advertising inscription. We have not auctioned this example of this number previously, however, we did offer the other HB-105 three times between September 2007 and January 2012. It graded About New and realized $9,847 in January 2012. Our current offering is graded a little lower, but it may actually become the first of this number to crack five figures.
Starting Bid: $5,000

20082 HB-112 EP-76 Reed-EM05 5¢ Ellis McAlpin & Co. Very Fine.
Fred Reed tracked down 26 appearances for this denomination during the years 1891-1994. However, many were duplicate appearances by the same pieces as Reed's rarity rating is R-8, five to 10 known. We have auctioned five different examples of this number in the 21st century. We originally offered the piece in this lot as part of The William H. Kelly Collection in January 2012. The stamp is nicely centered. There are imperfections in the mica when examining it head-on and titling the piece displays much crazing. The brown encasement has some dark toning on the advertising side. Most examples of this rare number are in similar grades. An XF example can command a price tag three times greater than a VF. John Washington Ellis later became the president of the First National Bank of Cincinnati, charter number 24 during the years of 1863-66 and again during 1868-69. In fact, the other principal of this business, George Washington McAlpin, also became a director of charter number 24.
Starting Bid: $1,000

20083 HB-122 EP-77 Reed-TH05 5¢ Gage Brother & Drake (Tremont House) About New.
We originally auctioned this high-grade example in September 2007 as part of The Frederick Mayer Collection. The encasement has about 90% of its silvering on the advertising side, which puts it very near the top for the most silvering we have ever seen on this number. The well centered stamp is fresh and gorgeous even with a couple of wrinkles. The mica shows some crazing at the top and a thin crack running from about 10 o'clock into Jefferson's forehead. It is a superior piece for this denomination and merchant.
Starting Bid: $875

One of A Mere Four Known 2¢ J. Gault "Black Jack" Encased Postage

20084 HB-128 EP-31 Reed-JG02 2¢ J. Gault "Black Jack" Very Fine.
This number is the only 2¢ denomination within the field of Encased Postage. Fred Reed refers to it as "enigmatic" on page 401 of his Civil War Encased Stamps The Issuers and Their Times. The example in this lot is also plated on page 401. We were able to photo match it with lot 980 in the Stack's catalogue of the Arnold Perl Collection that was auctioned on December 5-6, 1969. It realized $2,100 in that auction, a massive winning bid for the time. The Perl Encased Postage Collection was praised then as being the most extensive offered for sale outside of the Josiah K. Lilly Collection.

There are only four known of this number, the former Perl example in this lot, the piece formerly residing in the collection of the Massachusetts Historical Society, the John J. Ford, Jr. representative, and the Raymond M. Waltz example. It is unknown whether any "Black Jack" 2¢ stamps were put into encasements by the Scoville Manufacturing Co. at the direction of John Gault. The "Black Jack" stamp earned its nickname from its President Andrew Jackson portrait and its ink color. This stamp was not issued until July 1, 1863, well after most or all of Gault's encased pieces had been produced. It seems unlikely that experimentals would have been produced at the end of the Encased era, rather than at the beginning. The full story may never be known, but Reed records the first appearance of this number in 1886. The last example of this highly desirable Encased Postage to cross our auction block was in January 2020. It was the former Ray Waltz example. It graded VF-XF and realized $13,200. Our current offering is attractive possessing a brown encasement with a tiny dent in the right tab, crazing of the mica around the inside rim, and a couple of scratches starting at bottom center. One of these scratches is clearly seen in the 1969 auction plate. Almost seven years later, it would be prudent to budget more than the above figure if you are serious about taking this Encased Postage rarity home.
Starting Bid: $7,500

20085 HB-135 EP-148 Reed-JG12 12¢ J. Gault About New.
A delightful example with a centered stamp with both "U.S. Postage" and "Twelve Cents" in full view. The mica is near-perfect even when the piece is tilted, as only a very small amount of crazing pops up. The olive-brown encasement is nicely preserved. This is an ideal example for representing either J. Gault or the 12¢ denomination. We auctioned a similar About New for $3,600 in May 2022.
Starting Bid: $1,400

20086 HB-139 EP-178 Reed-JG30 30¢ J. Gault Plain Frame Very Fine.
An excellent candidate for a denomination set. John Gault was the inventor of this numismatic niche that succumbed to the influx of bronze cent size tokens that entered the marketplace soon after Gault got his Encased Postage program on its feet. Fred Reed considers the rarity of this piece to be an R-6, indicating 16-20 examples known, as stated on page 467 in Civil War Encased Stamps: The Issuers and Their Times. We feel that 20 or so is probably just about right. The stamp is well centered with Thirty Cents almost entirely visible. The stamp is a little muted with a few wrinkles. The mica is completely clear head-on, while tilting brings crazing into view for the most part in the area above Franklin's head. The encasement is mostly a uniform olive-brown. Only eleven different issuers had this denomination produced by Gault.

20087 HB-164 EP-152 Reed-KG12 12¢ Kirkpatrick & Gault About New.
The earliest recorded auction appearance for this 12¢ Kirkpatrick & Gault piece was as lot 1075 in the Stack's December 5-6, 1969 auction of The Arnold Perl Collection. The winning bid on that distant Saturday afternoon was $130. We first offered it at our September 2007 auction of The Frederick Mayer Collection where it brought $1,092. Reed's rarity rating is R-8, five to 10 known, far fewer than needed in order to satisfy the collectors of Encased Postage. Hodder and Bowers concur as they state, "under 10 pieces traced." The slightly aged stamp is centered a bit high, thereby unveiling the "Twelve Cents" denomination and "US" at bottom. The mica has some separations and two overlapping chipped areas where the upper layers of mica are missing, but the lower layers remain intact. It has a lovely high-end encasement with considerable silvering remaining at the center of the advertising side.

20088 HB-166 EP-181 Reed-KG30 30¢ Kirkpatrick & Gault Very Fine.
The Kirkpatrick & Gault 30¢ is rated as an R-6 by Reed, indicating 16 to 20 known. Along with the J. Gault issue, this is the most available of the 30¢ examples. The case has a considerable amount of actual circulation wear, which is unusual for any piece of Encased Postage, but particularly so for a high denomination. However, the olive-brown case remains solid for the grade. The mica remains virtually perfect in direct light, exhibiting only some minor, scattered natural separations when the piece is rotated. The stamp has almost all of "Thirty Cents" in sight and is very attractive, with most all of its original natural orange color.
Starting Bid: $1,500

Very Rare Ninety Cent Kirkpatrick & Gault Encased Postage - 5-10 Known

20089 HB-167 EP-187 Reed-KG90 90¢ Kirkpatrick & Gault Extremely Fine.
We have auctioned just two examples of this highly important number in the 21st century with the latest being in January 2012. Fred Reed in his Civil War Encased Stamps The Issuers and Their Times assigned this very rare number an R-8 rarity rating, indicating five to ten known. The example in this lot is one of the higher graded pieces of this exclusive club. The stamp has retained its dark blue color, while acquiring three folds. The mica has most of its crazing from 11 o'clock to 3 o'clock extending into Washington's portrait. The case is an attractive medium-brown with just a trace of circulation found on the lettering. Ninety Cent encasements always bring the closest of scrutiny, and this piece is without a doubt genuine.

20090 HB-170 EP-84 Reed-LT05 5¢ Lord & Taylor About New.
A delightful example that possesses many quality characteristics. The Reed rarity rating for LT05 in his reference is R-7, 11 to 15 known. The stamp is centered high, revealing not only "Five Cents," but also much of "U S" at lower left and right. The stamp does have a slight wrinkle. Our consignor had a penchant for seeking out pieces with superior mica and that is certainly true in this case. The mica is entirely clear head on and tilting and rotating the piece reveals only a minor amount of scattered crazing along the inside rim. The encasement is an attractive olive-brown and the advertising side displays just a hint of handling. The last high grade example of this number to cross our auction block was in January 2012 and that XF fetched $2,070. Our higher grade current offering will easily outdistance that 13 year old figure.
Starting Bid: $1,250

Richly Toned John W. Norris 5¢ Encased Postage

20091 HB-186 EP-87 Reed-NO03 5¢ John W. Norris About New.
Reed gives this number a rarity rating of R-9, two to four known. Hodder and Bowers have traced four examples. We have now auctioned six different pieces, with the example in this lot originally crossing our auction block in January 2007. This attractive piece shows virtually no wear to the case, which is richly toned in several different shades of brown, from light tan to deep mahogany on the advertising side, while the toning also extends itself on to the edges of the left tab. The mica is close to perfect in direct light, while tilting this example reveals crazing along the inside rim. The stamp is fully bright with the "Five Cents" denomination unobstructed. An exceptional piece of a still extremely rare newsstand and newspaper distributor.

20092 HB-187 EP-124 Reed-NO10 10¢ John W. Norris Very Fine.
The 10¢ Norris is considered to be an R-8+ by Fred Reed, indicating only five to seven known. We think the actual count is likely around ten. The 10¢ denomination from this Chicago merchant was first recorded in 1907 according to Reed. In fact, Reed was able to locate only ten appearances for it from 1891-1994. This piece was previously Lot 1059 from the December 5-6, 1969 Stacks sale of The Arnold Perl Collection where it realized $180. That price reveals to us that it was regarded as rare back then, no matter what the condition. Our first encounter with this piece was when it was part of The Frederick Mayer Collection that we auctioned in September 2007. The winning bid was $1,035 that night. The case is heavily circulated and somewhat worn. The stamp is quite soiled in the center, where it is uncovered, and the mica is substantially missing, with perhaps 20% of it present around the edges. Nonetheless, its rarity is unquestioned.
Starting Bid: $750

20093 HB-190 EP-53 Reed-NA03ST 3¢ North America Life Insurance Straight Insurance Inscription About New.
Luster remains on the encasement due to the protection of the lettering on the advertising side. The vast majority of the mica is clear when the piece is tilted, but there is crazing at top along the inside rim. The nicely centered stamp has several wrinkles. Reed's rarity rating is R-5, 21-30 known.
Starting Bid: $500

20094 HB-218 EP-92 Reed-SH05 5¢ John Shillito & Co. About New.
The brown stamp is fresh and almost perfectly centered with "Five Cents" completely visible. The mica is very clean no matter what angle your light source is directed, with just a small amount of crazing near the inside rim. The olive-brown encasement exhibits a slight rub on the advertising side due to handling, but remains very attractive even with the minor rim bump at 1 o'clock. The Reed rarity rating is R-4, 31-40 known. However, very few of those can be equal to or better than our current offering.

20095 HB-221 EP-27 Reed-ST01 1¢ S. Steinfeld About New.
Retail liquor dealer, saloon owner, and patent medicine distributor Simon Steinfeld is one of the keys for a merchant set of Encased Postage, with an enumerated population of around 20 for all denominations combined. In fact, the 1¢ has a Reed rarity of R-7, 11 to 15 known, and is the only collectable denomination from this elusive merchant. This example has a stamp that is centered a little high, but that only allows for a prominent display of the "One Cent" denomination. We also see a few wrinkles and just a touch of fading to the blue ink of the stamp. The nearly perfect mica has just a trace of crazing no matter how the light is directed. The case is a light olive gold color with a small spot of toning on the advertising side. This example was lot 608 in the Part IV auction of The John J. Ford, Jr. Collection and therefore it is more than likely that this piece was once in The F.C.C. Boyd Collection. The lot tag for the Ford sale is included with this lot. In May 2024, we had another HB-221 grading About New realize $5,280.

20096 HB-226 EP-57 Reed-TA03 3¢ N. & G. Taylor & Co. Extremely Fine.
Philadelphia metals merchant N. & G. Taylor pieces are among the rarest encasements with only the 1¢ and 3¢ denominations being collectable. The Reed rarity rating for the 3¢ is R-8, five to ten known. We previously auctioned the piece in this lot as part of The William H. Kelly Collection in January 2012 where it realized $3,450. Of the few accounted for, this example is one of the nicer ones. The case is a problem free XF with much silvering remaining at center protected by the lettering. The lightly faded stamp has a few wrinkles and the mica is mostly clear with the typical minor crazing. There is also one short crack at bottom center.

20097 HB-233 EP-133 Reed-WL10 10¢ Weir & Larminie Extremely Fine.
A private banking and specie brokers firm that was the only John Gault customer on foreign soil. It is said by some that the Encased Postage pieces purchased by these Montreal bankers were for advertising purposes only. The Reed rarity rating is R-5, 21 to 30 known, while Hodder and Bowers give a population figure in the 20-30 range, making this denomination for this issuer, the only one that is collectable. The stamp is dark green and we also see a few wrinkles. It is centered a little high and therefore the denomination is entirely readable. The mica is in wonderful shape and looks the same whether in direct or angled light and that includes the small crack at 2 o'clock. The mica is an excellent feature of this piece. The encasement exhibits a small amount of silvering in the center of the advertising side. It is surrounded by brass coloring with toning that turns darker closer to the edge and a small amount also finds its way on to the obverse rim. This toning is often seen on this issuer's 10¢ examples. We auctioned a VF example without toning in October 2022 for $3,360.

20098 HB-234 EP-30 Reed-WH01 1¢ White the Hatter About New.
The 1¢ White the Hatter is by far the most collectible denomination of this merchant. He was a premier hatter and was located at 216 Broadway within P.T. Barnum's Museum building. Reed rates this number as an R-7, indicating 11 to 15 accounted for, and we are inclined to agree. This one is a real beauty. The high-grade case is an appealing medium-tan color, with a splash of silver behind some of the lettering. The stamp is almost fully bright, and the mica shows no serious problems, but it does have a line of light surface marks from the upper left to the lower right when tilted. The last About New example that we offered had more silvering on the back and brought $2,640 in May 2022.

CONFEDERATE NOTES

20099 Military Endorsement "Maj. W. J. Anderson QM" T5 $100 1861 PF-1 Cr. 5 PMG Choice About Unc 58.
One of Secretary Memminger's first actions after federal officials terminated production for the Confederacy in New York City in April 1861 was to send an agent to New Orleans, armed with the final sheet of $50 and $100 Montgomery notes, whose task was to find a replacement printer. The New Orleans Branch of ABNCo, operating under the banner of the Southern Bank Note Co., an old trade name that was revived for the purpose of obscuring the identity of the actual printer in the North, was tasked with producing a replacement $50 and $100 Treasury note. The tiny branch had neither the personnel nor the equipment to quickly produce new designs (its role had been to serve local existing customers prior to the war) and the design/production cycle dragged on with first deliveries of the $50 and $10 not happening until August 1861. The design utilized pre-war vignettes of a passenger train, Justice standing at left and Minerva standing at right used by ABNCo and its predecessor company Rawdon, Wright, Hatch & Edson. A green HUNDRED protector panel and two green C protectors were added to deter counterfeiting. Only 5,798 examples were issued before production was terminated as the small branch shifted focus to smaller denominations. This note has a military endorsement: Issued by me / Sept 13, 1861/ Maj W(illiam) J. Anderson / Q M Memphis, / Tn. Anderson served as the quartermaster for General Leonidas Polk at this time. A well printed note on red fiber paper with decent margins, great colors, and bold handwritten information.

Bold Choice AU T5 with Endorsement

20100 Manuscript Endorsement "Ferdinand Molloy, Capt. & ACS" T5 $100 1861 PF-1 Cr. 5 PMG Choice About Unc 58.
This bright, impairment free T5 Confederate with an issuance number of 5,798 bears the endorsement of Captain Ferdinand Molloy, which reads "Disbursed Sep. 22nd, 1861 - Ferdinand Molloy, Capt. & A.C.S." Captain Molloy was employed as part of the staff of General Pierre Gustave Toutant Beauregard. In the Executive Session of Confederate Congress on April 2, 1862, it was recorded that Molloy was to be appointed a brigade commissary with the rank of a major. This $100 establishes a direct link to the short lived Confederate Army of the Potomac (whose only major engagement was the First Battle of Bull Run) that operated from April 1861 to March 14, 1862. On the latter date, it was renamed the Army of Northern Virginia, with Robert E. Lee as its commander. The T5 note upon which this endorsement resides is also steeped in history. At left is a depiction of Justice with her scales and sword, at right is Minerva with a spear, and at center is a large passenger train coming around a bend in the tracks. Green "HUNDRED" and "C" protectors complete the design. All three vignettes were utilized on various Southern obsolete notes; the Justice image appeared on notes such as the $4 Commercial Bank of Wilmington, the Minerva vignette was present on notes such as the $20 Bank of Louisiana, and the train depiction was featured on 1863-64 State of Florida $2s. Robert Tyler signed our current offering for Register, while Edward Carrington Elmore signed for Treasurer. The forbidden relationship between the Southern Bank Note Co., a small New Orleans offshoot of the ABNCo, and the Confederate government gave way to the production of the T5 and T6, as well as the T15, T19, T22, and T31 Confederates. This beautiful type note is well deserving of a strong bid, and we expect the final hammer price will reach beyond our conservative estimate.

20101 T5 $100 1861 PF-1 Cr. 5 PMG Choice Very Fine 35.
The T5 $100 and the companion T6 $50 were the first notes designed and produced for the Confederacy by the New Orleans Office of the ABNCo which was doing business as the Southern Bank Note Company in order to partially mask the identity of the company, given that it was producing paper money for a belligerent after April 12, 1861. As had been the case in New York with the Montgomery notes, all pre-war vignettes were used for both denominations. In the case of the $100, vignettes of a train, Hope, and Minerva were selected and a green HUNDRED protector panel and two green C protectors were added. Only 5,798 examples were issued before production was terminated.

Choice Uncirculated Early Confederate Type Note

20102 T6 $50 1861 PF-1 Cr. 6 PMG Choice Uncirculated 63 EPQ. The T6 and its sheetmate, the T5, were the first Confederates to be issued in Richmond, VA after the capital of the Confederacy was moved from Montgomery, AL. The Southern Bank Note Co. designed and printed both of these types, though they were technically forbidden by the Union government from doing so. At center is a detailed depiction of Pallas (Industry) and Ceres (Agriculture), and at right is George Washington, who was considered a "Father of the Confederacy" by many for his leadership during the American Revolution. At left is a portrayal of Justice with her scales and sword. A green FIFTY protector at lower center and two green Roman numeral "L" overprints complete the design. According to Confederate Treasury Notes: The Signers and Their Stories by Charles Derby and Michael McNeil, the signers of this piece are Robert Tyler for Register and Edward Carrington Elmore for Treasurer. Tyler, whose father was President John Tyler, was involved with the White House while his father was president. However, after the Civil War began, he moved to Virginia, where he signed Confederate Treasury Notes as register until the end of the war. Elmore hailed from South Carolina and held the position of Confederate Treasurer from March 6, 1861 to July 18, 1864. After he resigned, he settled in Alabama, staying there until his death in 1873. The T6 in this lot possesses even margins and a nearly full inner frame line. PMG has bestowed its sought after "Exceptional Paper Quality" designation for lovely paper surfaces and natural paper wave. Swathes of red silk fibers grace the back. Our estimate could very well be exceeded tonight for this beauty.

20103 T6 $50 1861 PF-1 Cr. 6 PMG Choice Uncirculated 63. The New Orleans office of the ABNCo received an order to produce this $50 and a companion $100 shortly after Federal authorities shut down work at ABNCo and National Bank Note Company in New York. It began quietly doing business under the name of Southern Bank Note Co., an old trade name that had been resurrected to provide some cover for the New York parent. After April 12, 1861, the Confederacy had transitioned from being a customer to a belligerent and ABNCo did not need the bad press that one of its offices was actively printing notes for the "enemy." The $50 design used pre-war readily available vignettes of Industry and Commerce seated at center flanked by a vignette of Justice standing at left and a portrait of Washington to right. Green protective design elements were added to discourage counterfeiting. Only 5,798 notes were produced before production was halted, likely because the focus changed to producing smaller denomination notes. This note is accompanied by a Confederate note information card published by Whitman Publishing Company circa 1963 that features an image of the note type and text describing the note and some of its history. The information card is not graded.

20104 T6 $50 1861 PF-1 Cr. 6 PMG Choice Uncirculated 63.
This $50 and its sister T5 $100 denomination were produced by Southern Bank Note Company (in reality the New Orleans branch of the ABNCo) after federal authorities raided and shut down Confederacy-destined production at the New York plants of both ABNCo and National Bank Note Co. in April 1861. The last sheet of Montgomery $50 and $100 notes (serial number 1607) was sent with an agent to New Orleans to serve as examples of what was wanted. In order to expedite production, stock vignettes that the New Orleans office had access to were used. The small office had neither the manpower nor the equipment to efficiently turn out large quantities of new designs. As a result, progress was painfully slow with the first notes not reaching Richmond until shortly before late August 1861. Only 5,798 notes were issued before production ceased. Deliveries were so tardy that the Confederate Department of the Treasury had to order poorer quality lithographed notes from Hoyer & Ludwig to fill the breach. This example is an attractive green and black note featuring Manufacturing and Commerce flanked by Justice standing and a portrait of Washington. PMG mentions an annotation, which is an old penciled attribution on verso.

20106 T11 $5 1861 PF-4 Cr. 44 PMG Very Fine 25.
There were 73,355 T11 $5s dated July 25, 1861 that were issued. At left is a vignette of a sailor leaning on a capstan which was also featured on the T18 Confederate, another type lithographed by Hoyer & Ludwig of Richmond, VA. At center is a depiction of Liberty seated beside an eagle and a scroll with the number "5" inside it. This example is printed on thick bond paper, as all known T11s were, and a printed "for" is before "Treasurer." This thick bond paper did not wear well. This is supported by the fact that PMG has certified just five examples higher than VF 25. There are minor stains and staple holes present, neither of which are major impairments.

A total of 73,355 notes of this type were issued between July 29 and September 7, 1861. This particular variety saw around 47,000 examples issued. Unlike many examples, this note has decent margins and is reasonably well framed. Printed on thick bond paper, very few higher grade examples have survived to the present day; even fewer that have not been restored or repaired. Aside from being previously mounted, this note is repair-free and without any meaningful impairments.

20108 T12 $5 1861 PF-1 Cr. 49 PMG Very Fine 20.
The T12 was the first type to feature a back design. Displayed on this piece is plate letter I, which is listed by Pierre Fricke as the toughest plate letter to acquire for the type. The controversy behind the note begins with Jules Manouvrier, the printer. His foray into banknote lithography began in 1839 through a partnership with P. Snell. By the time of the Civil War, however, he had gone on his own, and after a brief stint with the Confederate Postmaster General's office, Secretary of the Treasury Memminger called upon him to produce notes of both a $5 and $10 denomination. By 1861, Manouvrier had produced around 80,000 $10s and 16,000 $5s, and the sheets were shipped to the Confederate government. Because of poor packaging, the contents of the shipment were revealed at a station in Petersburg, VA, less than an hour away from their destination (Richmond). An employee of that station decided to keep a few for himself, and just over $150,000 in $10s and $5s were stolen. All stolen $5s were accounted for, but the $10s were not, and to this day, 1,956 remain missing. None have been discovered as of yet. Unfortunately, Manouvrier's employment was terminated shortly thereafter because of this debacle and because of fears that his simple design would be a prime target for counterfeiters. Only 15,556 notes of this design were issued, making it a highly sought after type. Two neatly executed hammer cut cancels are present on our current offering.

Jules Manouvrier, a small New Orleans lithographer, was able to secure a contract to print $5 and $10 Treasury Notes when Secretary Memminger was casting about for alternative sources for printing after being cut off from his New York sources in late April 1861. Manouvrier produced an interesting product with no vignettes on the face, but with a blue back design. No other Confederate Treasury Notes at the time included back designs, and all had at least some vignettes. Ironically, the concerns that this note would be easy to counterfeit never materialized. No counterfeit T12s have been encountered. Manouvrier's downfall was faulty packaging which led to a shipment of $5s and $10s being pilfered enroute to Richmond with enough $10s being liberated that the design was withdrawn. That theft was a contract-ending event. It is interesting to note that Manouvrier later repurposed the back design for a note he printed for the Bank of Whitfield in Dalton, GA. This note, having what Fricke identifies as the scarcest "I" plen, is fully framed and has a deeper blue back. It is repair-free and one of the keys to the Confederate series, with only 15,556 notes issued before production was terminated.

Charming T12 with Lovely Blue Back

Only 15,556 examples of the T12, dated July 25, 1861, were issued. This type was the only 1861 issue to employ the use of a printed back. Confederate Secretary of the Treasury C.G. Memminger, dissatisfied with the simple design that Jules Manouvrier, the printer, utilized, terminated Manouvrier's printing contract. This termination was also due in part to the printer's poor shipment methods of the sheets of T12 $5s and a $10 denomination which was never issued. While in transit, the packages were broken into, and the thief whisked away $150,000 in face value of both $5s and $10s. All T12 $5s were eventually recovered, but it is unknown whether all $10s were returned to the Confederacy and destroyed. Our current offering is a wonderful mid-grade example with excellent eye appeal and dark signatures and serial numbers. A vivid blue back is also featured, which is a rare occurrence for the type as most backs are faded because of the very light blue color utilized. The note has survived circulation without attracting any significant problems. This piece should enhance any Confederate collection to which it is added.

Printed and shipped to the Confederate Treasury before the fall of New Orleans placed the SBNCo back into the hands of the Union, this T15 is highlighted by three iconic vignettes. At right is a depiction of Justice with her scales and sword, at center is a steaming locomotive, and at left is Hope with her trademark anchor. All three vignettes were utilized on myriad Southern Obsoletes, including several from New Orleans. The design is finished by a colorful red-orange overprint at bottom center. There are no forms of cancellation present on this piece. Fricke states in his 2014 book that "this type is very rare in uncut [not cut cancelled] VF." PMG mentions minor rust which is on the back at left.

Extremely Scarce Choice AU Grade

The T17 Confederate Treasury Note was the first type in the Third Series of Confederate notes to be printed. Only 43,372 examples were issued before production was cut in favor of the T18 $20, which had a much higher issuance number of 2,366,486. Hoyer & Ludwig, the lithographing firm behind this design, mimicked the work they completed while printing Virginia Treasury Notes. Similar to several denominations from that Virginia series, an intricate green underprint which features cherubs and lathework was added to enhance aesthetic appeal. The vignettes on the face include a depiction of Liberty at left and a trio of allegorical females at center. This trio is comprised of, from left to right, Commerce, Ceres, and Navigation. The condition of our current offering is a rarity, with four notes of this type certified by PMG at Choice AU 58 and only nine higher. We have auctioned just over a dozen of this type in AU condition, with several of those having problems or repairs. The note in this lot possesses a beautiful underprint with bold handsigned signatures and serial numbers. There is little indication of handling. A PMG Choice AU 58 EPQ made an appearance in our January 2024 FUN auction, and that note realized $3,840.

Fricke Plate Note

20116 T19 $20 1861 PF-1 Cr. 137 PCGS Very Fine 30.
The T19 Confederate Treasury Note in this lot is a conditional rarity. We have auctioned only a handful of this type in VF 30 or higher, and many of those pieces were cancelled. In fact, we have offered a single example over VF, and that note, from The Eric P. Newman Collection, realized $30,550 in October 2015. The piece in this lot has fortunately survived without any forms of cancellation present. T19 notes were dated September 2, 1861, with issuance commencing on January 8, 1862, and ending on May 15, 1862. A total of 14,860 notes were emitted for public use. Southern Bank Note Co., whose operations were halted after Union Major General Benjamin Butler's forces took back New Orleans in the spring of 1862, printed this aesthetically pleasing example. The face is adorned with vignettes of Minerva at left, Navigation with a globe and sailing ships at center, and a blacksmith with hammer and anvil at right. Unoxidized orange protectors complete the design. This piece bears the signatures of T(homas) J. Miller for Register and R(ichard) H(enry) L(odge) Tighe for Treasurer. Both individuals' histories are detailed in Confederate Treasury Notes: The Signers and Their Stories by Charles Derby and Michael McNeil. Miller was a physician and also worked in the pension department of the U.S. government. When war began, he resigned and joined the Confederacy as one of its first Treasury note signers. He often signed with either Tighe or R.M. Payne. R.H.L. Tighe was a principal and schoolteacher for several Richmond schools. He signed Confederates until he was replaced by Bennet DeWitt in 1862. After the Civil War, he was ordained as an Episcopalian minister and involved himself in church work until his passing in 1893. This particular piece served as the plate note on two editions of Pierre Fricke's book Collecting Confederate Paper Money. It was included on page 175 of the 2008 Field Edition and page 200 of the 2014 Field Edition. We last auctioned our current offering as part of our January 2015 FUN auction, when it fetched $7,637. We expect our estimate to be outdistanced tonight for this magnificent Confederate rarity.

20117 T19 $20 1861 PF-1 Cr. 137 PMG Very Fine 30.

T19 Confederates were produced by the Southern Bank Note Company on a sheet with four notes, the T15 $50, T19 $20, T22 $10, and T31 $5. Printed on red fiber paper, the T19 was issued from January 8 through May 15, 1862. The type had a total emission number of 14,860 notes. At left is a depiction of Minerva seated beside a shield, and at center is a detailed vignette of Navigation with a caduceus and globe. In the background of that central illustration are ships at full mast. Finally, at right is a machinist/blacksmith with his hammer and anvil. Ornate orange 20 counters are at right, left, and bottom center, and surrounding the counter at center is a rectangular orange protector with small TWENTYs inside it. In his 2014 book Collecting Confederate Paper Money, Pierre Fricke affirms that this type is more difficult to acquire in grades VF or higher than its T15 $50 counterpart. Our current offering, which has been certified by PMG as a VF 30, possesses marvelous color and bright white paper. The orange protectors remain relatively free of oxidization, which is an uncommon occurrence for examples of this type. Darkly penned signatures of T(homas) J. Miller for Register and R(ichard) H(enry) L(odge) Tighe for Treasurer are located at bottom right and left. In addition, broad margins are noticed on three of the four frame lines, with the right margin being trimmed a bit close. PMG mentions two neatly executed hammer cut cancels as well as minor restoration which can be found on the back at right. Neither minor issues are overly distracting. We should see strong competition for this wonderful representative of a scarce type.

20118 T20 $20 1861 PF-5 Cr. 141 Uncut Sheet of Ten PMG Extremely Fine 40.

In Pierre Fricke's 2014 book, Collecting Confederate Paper Money, the author estimated on page 46 that there were 21-50 sheets of T20 $20s extant. We have seen nothing that would challenge that estimation, even today. That number could actually dwindle as sheets are broken up to satisfy collector demand. The T20 features a portrait of Alexander Stephens, Vice President of the Confederacy, at left, Industry with a cherub at center, and Hope with an anchor at right. The last comparable piece we auctioned was a PMG Choice VF 35 sheet in May 2022 for $2,040. Our current offering is repaired and has tears. The majority of both these problems is confined to the top and bottom margins.

The T22, dated September 2, 1861, had an issuance number of 58,860. Printed by the Southern Bank Note Co., it shared a sheet with the T15 $50, T19 $20, and T31 $5. At right is a female holding an X, which denotes the denomination, and an ear of corn, at left is Thetis, one of the 50 daughters of the ancient Greek sea god Nereus, and at center is a Native American family. Red-orange protectors complete the design. T(emple) Ellett, who often endorsed with H.H. Goodloe (as demonstrated on this note), signed for Register. Ellett's sister, Sarah, was also a Confederate Treasury Note signer. H(arvel) H(arris) Goodloe's signature appears for Treasurer. One of the first Confederate signers, Goodloe signed notes until September 1861, when he asked for a transfer to the Office of Chief Clerk of the War Tax. Our current offering is a conditional rarity for several reasons. First, the "Exceptional Paper Quality" commendation awarded is an extremely scarce designation for this type. Only six percent of all examples of this type certified by PMG carry the EPQ modifier. Secondly, just twelve percent of all PMG graded T22s are certified VF 30 EPQ or higher, with six at the VF 30 EPQ level. Third, this piece possesses a full frame with wide margins. Finally, the exceedingly vibrant red-orange overprints are completely free of any signs of oxidization. In Pierre Fricke's 2014 book Collecting Confederate Paper Money, he lists market value on page 218 for a VF 30 EPQ/PPQ at $1,700 to $2,500. PMG mentions an as made serial number correction, which contributes further to the historical aspect.

The T23 note design was derived from a plate donated by the Farmers & Mechanics Bank of Savannah in 1861. Formerly known as the Mechanics Savings Bank of Savannah, the bank had no need for plates engraved with its former name on them. The basic layout was retained, with the text and title being reworked and a X - TEN - X protector added, replacing the red TEN protector which had been used on the original note. This example is a pleasing repair-free note with no meaningful distractions. The orange security elements of the design have retained virtually all of their original, unoxidized, color. Of the 119 T23s presently listed in the PMG Population Report, only four examples have received a higher grade.

Only 20,333 examples of the T23 $10 were issued. This beautiful type was engraved by Leggett, Keatinge & Ball, a printing firm located in Richmond, VA. At left is a portrait of John Elliot Ward, an American statesman who served as a diplomat to China under President Buchanan. Before the Civil War, he was elected as the 31st Mayor of Savannah and was also a president of the Mechanics Savings Bank of Savannah. At center is a horsedrawn wagon hauling cotton bales, and at right is the Corn Gatherer vignette. This is an extremely bright example with a full inner frame line and great color. The orange underprint displays little signs of fading or oxidization, which is a rare occurrence on this type. PMG mentions the presence of minor rust on the back. We auctioned another PMG VF 25 with an annotation in September 2024 for $2,220.

The Scarcest of All Confederate Types

20122 T27 $10 1861 PF-2 Cr. 225 PMG Fine 12.
The T27 is the rarest of all Confederate types. Pierre Fricke states in his 2014 book Collecting Confederate Paper Money that this type is rare in anything above VG condition. Our current PMG Fine 12 offering is even tougher to obtain because of its variety. The PF-2 variation consists of an A plate letter followed by a number from 9-16. This note's plate is A12. Each plate's rarity is in the 2-5 extant range, according to Fricke. The design of the T27 includes a vignette of Liberty seated beside an eagle with cotton bales in the background at left and a passenger train depiction at right. Handsigned signatures of R.J. Delony for Register and J.W. Jones for Treasurer remain bright and clear. PMG mentions restoration which is nearly impossible to discern through the third party holder. The serial number has also faded away and is forever lost to history. This piece possesses excellent eye appeal for its grade and should outperform our estimate.

Uncancelled T27 Confederate Rarity

20123 T27 $10 1861 PF-1 Cr. 221 PMG Fine 12 Net.
The T27 Confederate Treasury Note is the rarest of all surviving Confederate types. A total of 8,576 notes were issued over a period of nine days. It is a mystery why the issuance number was this limited. Experts theorize that damage to the plate could have contributed. Hoyer & Ludwig lithographed many Confederates, including this example. They were based in Richmond, VA, on 12th Street. At left is an illustration of Liberty with her pole and cap seated by an eagle and shield. This vignette was utilized on numerous other notes in previous eras, including the $5 Valley Bank of Maryland and $5 Commercial Bank of Wilmington obsoletes. The right end of the piece features a depiction of a passenger train traveling through the Southern countryside. In Pierre Fricke's 2014 Collecting Confederate Paper Money, the note in this lot was not listed in the census of extant T27s. PMG mentions the presence of repairs, which can be found along the center horizontal fold. Our estimate could very well be exceeded tonight for this scarce representative of Confederate monetary history.

20124 T28 $10 1861 PF-11 Cr. 236A PMG Very Fine 25.
This is, perhaps surprisingly, one of the classic rarities of the Confederate series. The note is printed on paper watermarked CSA in vertical block letters (although that watermark is very difficult to locate). In 2014, Fricke estimated a surviving population of perhaps 6-10 examples and in 2005 listed this note, serial number 126290, Plate A13, as the second highest reported grade with a storied provenance including time in the Grover Criswell, Douglas Ball, and Arnold Cowan collections. While PMG mentions stains and there is a pin or tack hole in the upper right corner, those relatively minor impairments will be forgiven by experienced CSA collectors who understand the rarity of this note and the opportunity to acquire it.
Starting Bid: $600

20125 T32 $5 1861 PF-1 Cr. 246 PMG Very Fine 20.
A total of 20,333 T32 $5s were issued from November 15 through December 30, 1861. The design was slightly modified for use by the Confederate Treasury from the plates donated by the Mechanics Savings Bank. The design and plates for their $5 denomination were no longer required by the bank after they altered their name from the Mechanics Savings Bank to the Farmers & Mechanics Bank of Savannah. Leggett, Keatinge & Ball printed this type before Leggett was expelled from the firm for associating with a Union informant. At left is a portrait of a young boy and at right is a machinist with a hammer and anvil. Factory buildings populate the background of the vignette at right. A bright orange underprint at center completes the design. This piece's underprint displays minor indications of oxidization at right, but it remains much more colorful than the underprints on the majority of other examples offered. There are no meaningful condition impairments.

20126 T33 $5 1861 PF-19 Cr. 257b PMG Choice About Unc 58.
This high quality note was produced after Richard Leggett was forced out of Leggett, Keatinge & Ball, leaving the company operating under the banner of Keatinge & Ball. The paper used for this note has a large FIVE watermark. More than five reams of this paper were "acquired" (expropriated?) from the Southern Bank Note Company in New Orleans by the Confederacy and given to Keatinge and Ball who used it for this T33 note as well as some Commonwealth of Virginia state notes. This well printed green and black note printed on excellent paper with original colors and decent margins currently is (along with four others) tied for the sixth highest graded note out of 236 examples of this type registered in the PMG Population Report. This is a very scarce variety, with Fricke estimating a surviving population of between 16 and 50 examples a decade ago, and that number has not changed appreciably.

20128 Military Endorsement "Jesse H. Sikes Captain-QM" T39 $100 1862 PF-5 Cr. 291 PMG Fine 12.
Sikes enlisted in 1861 and was elected Captain of what ultimately became Company D of the 7th Regiment Claiborne's Partisan Rangers also known as the 7th Regiment Confederate Cavalry. He apparently was not a quartermaster but acted in that role for his unit. When he issued this note on September 9, 1862, the unit was located in Wilson, NC. Sikes fell ill in early 1865, was admitted to the hospital, and was subsequently furloughed on March 17, 1865. The note is well circulated, with PMG noting pinholes and that the note has been repaired (a sealed tear in the lower right corner). The note is certainly quite presentable and fully intact with a dark and clear endorsement as well as IP stamps from Savannah and Augusta paying interest to January 1, 1863 and 1864 respectively. This note is one of three examples known to us at present with Sikes' endorsement.

20129 Military Endorsement "Richard M. Mason Maj. & AQM" T40 $100 1862 PF-20 Cr. 308 PCGS Banknote Choice Unc 63.

When this note was issued to the field on March 10, 1863, Mason was serving as Major and AQM at the Headquarters of Polk's Corps, Army of Tennessee. This places him in the vicinity of Tullahoma / Shelbyville, TN. The 1863-dated note is well printed on bright paper with decent margins and legible handwritten information. Mason's endorsement is dark and bold. It is accompanied by a large Richmond Treasurer's office issue stamp issuing the note originally on January 23, 1863 and an indistinct second IP stamp. We are aware of around ten notes with this endorsement (without "Polk's Corps" added).

In fact, we have only offered one uncut sheet of this type once prior to now. That piece, which graded PMG Choice XF 45 Net with restoration, realized $2,640. Our current offering has edge damage, stains, and a small hole.

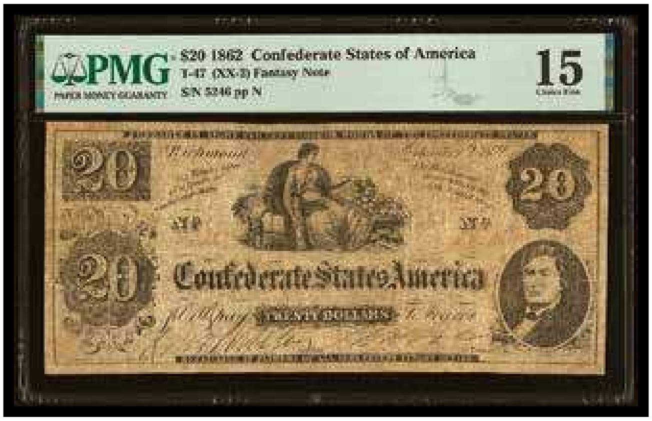
Bright Confederate Fantasy Note



20131 T47 $20 1862 PF-1 Cr. 345 PMG Choice Fine 15.

The T47 is an enigmatic Confederate type. George Tremmel, the author of A Guide Book of Counterfeit Confederate Currency: History, Rarity, and Values, affirms that this type, as well as its T48 counterpart, are fantasy emissions in the same category as the Female Riding Deer $20 notes. Other scholars have speculated that the two types could have been essays or trial notes of some sort. Still others theorize that they are postwar creations. Whatever the case, it is well known that this is a very desirable note. At right is a portrait of R.M.T. Hunter, and at center is a vignette of Ceres with a vertically striped shield. The comically botched printer's imprint of Keatings & Ball, Columbus, SC, is at lower left. Our current offering is comprised of boardwalk margins, outstanding eye appeal for the grade, and bright pink handwritten serial numbers. PMG mentions restoration which is well hidden in the design and has little affect on the appearance. In this January 2025 FUN auction, we have the privilege of offering two examples of this type. Both the note in this lot and the other piece should attract considerable attention.

CONFEDERATE BONDS

20139 Confederate 8% Stock Certificate $50 1861 Ball 11 Cr. 1A PMG Choice Very Fine 35.
An excessively rare Confederate bond, its rarity was reflected by the assigned value in the 1979 Criswell and the 2015 Ball-Simmons references. Ball 11 is characterized by "Montgomery" being crossed-out and "Richmond" penned in its stead. Further research reveals that the extensive John J. Ford, Jr. Collection auctioned in 1997 at the Memphis International Paper Money Show was lacking an example. Our current offering is only the fifth Ball 11 that we have auctioned. The last time we auctioned a Ball 11 was in January 2020. We actually auctioned two that night with both graded by us. The XF piece realized $3,000 and the VF example with small holes brought $1,500. This piece with serial number 368 is dated "Oct. 2, 1861" and signed by Register of the Treasury Ro(bert) Tyler. We also see that this bond was entered by Chief Clerk to the Treasurer H(enry) D. Capers and recorded by the Chief Clerk of the Register's Office C(harles) T. J(ones). Mr. Jones was the one who, when he earlier left a similar position with the United States government in Washington, DC, absconded with many of the Treasury forms that a new government would need. Overall, a great piece of early Confederate financial history and certainly at the top of many bond want lists. This example has a pinhole in each of the lower corners within the the ornate border. A couple of tiny splits are noticed at center.

20140 Confederate 8% Stock Certificate $100 1861 Ball 13 Cr. 2A PMG Very Fine 30.
Alex(ander) Clitherall signed this $100 bond. It is in a comment free PMG holder and was printed by the ABNCo in New Orleans. It was issued at Richmond as Montgomery has been neatly crossed-out in pen and replaced with a penned "Richmond." The Ball-Simmons second edition states on page 13 that just a few Ball 13 bonds were signed by Clitherall and approximately 500 examples were issued at Richmond. Crutch Williams informs us that Clitherall went to Richmond for a brief period. According to Crutch, "The last day of business in Montgomery for Secretary of the Treasury Memminger, as evidenced by a letter, was May 28th when he wrote to George Trenholm. Memminger told Trenholm he would be, "in Charleston on Thursday the 30th and would spend a day there with him and bankers &c." The move up to Richmond likely began prior to the 28th and Treasury Department business began on June 5th as evidenced by another letter where Secretary Memminger wrote a railroad official in Mississippi. Clitherall did not resign until June 20th and he was in Richmond working through that Saturday. His resignation took effect Monday the 22nd." This chain of events explains why so few of this Ball number are signed by the first Confederate Register of the Treasury.

Numbered 24 and dated May 10, 1861, this is one of only approximately 177 $500 certificates that were part of the Montgomery issue. It was entered by H.D. Capers and recorded by C.T. Jones. Register of the Treasury Alex(ander) B. Clitherall was the signer. It is payable to one Amelia Rose. Speculation has been that Ms. Rose is related to Charles A. Rose, Assistant Register of the Treasury. We checked the 1860 Census and found 44 different Amelia Rose's listed, but none were a good fit. We also could not find a good fit with any Charles A. A total of 1,000 of these 8% transferable stock certificates (registered bonds) were printed and shipped to Montgomery from the ABNCo in New York City, during the first day or two after the start of the Civil War. Around 810 of these instruments were issued, datelined Montgomery, between April 17 and June 30, 1861. This example with serial number 660 was issued on May 14, 1861, and features a portrait of Jefferson Davis during his first term (1847-51) as a United States Senator from Mississippi, and a vignette of John C. Calhoun dressed improbably in a toga holding a scroll inscribed, "Truth, Justice and the Constitution." Both of these are antebellum era engravings that were pressed into service by the ABNCo to expedite deliveries. The back has a form that was to be used if the registered owner of record wished to transfer the stock to someone else. All Ball 16 bonds were signed by the first Register of the Treasury, Alexander B. Clitherall. When the Confederate capital moved to Richmond in July 1861, Clitherall decided to resign and stay in his home state of Alabama. Therefore, Clitherall's signature is only found on the Montgomery issues of 1861. The Comprehensive Catalog and History of Confederate Bonds second edition by Douglas B. Ball and Henry F. Simmons, Jr. assigns a rarity number of R(6-) to Ball 16 with 76 to 100 surviving examples known. At left center is a tape repair and a couple of small tears are also observed.

20143 Confederate 8% Stock Certificate $1,000 1861 Ball 16 Cr. 4 PMG About Uncirculated 55.
This certificate was part of the original order placed by Secretary Memminger with ABNCo via G.B. Lamar who was acting as the government's agent in New York City in early March 1861. These were referred to 8% transferable certificates of stock at the time, but were essentially bonds. The certificates were bound in books of 250, with four books of each denomination ($50, $100, $500, and $1,000) shipped to Montgomery. Some books went permanently or temporarily missing, but all four books of the $1,000 certificates arrived safely. This certificate was issued from Montgomery on May 10, 1861 to the Bank of Charleston and is one of about 810 so issued from that city (with the remaining 190 or so certificates issued from Richmond). The piece has a portrait of Jefferson Davis and a vignette of John C. Calhoun, improbably wearing a toga, standing by a column holding a scroll inscribed Truth, Justice, and the Constitution. Both of these are of pre-war vintage and were used in an effort to expedite the design/production process due to the anticipated impending commencement of hostilities. The certificate has a large red 1000 protector on the face and a large framed transfer authorization printed in red on the back. Interestingly, the ABNCo imprint lists New Orleans as the company location. While this was common practice for the period, it may have been chosen as the location of record in order to distance the company a bit from this potentially controversial work in the event a war started. PMG notes a couple of pinholes in the lower corners and some inconsequential tears. It is estimated that there are between 76 and 100 surviving examples at present, making this a very scarce example of Civil War and Confederate monetary history.

This is a second example of the $1,000 8% transferable certificate of stock issued on May 10, 1861 in Montgomery to the Bank of Charleston. Additional background information on this issue can be found in the previous listing for this denomination in this auction. This example, as noted by PMG, has some toning and a tiny bit of corner damage at lower right that does not impact any printed elements of the design. PMG additionally indicates a spindle hole; while that has not been located, there are two pin or needle holes that are located in the lower corners.

In 1862, the owners of Noble Brothers Foundry in Rome, GA built the Cornwall Furnace in nearby Cherokee County, AL to increase the supply of pig iron needed for Confederate military orders. Financed with Confederate assistance, the facility had minimal impact on supplies of pig iron as it was overrun and destroyed by Union forces in the summer of 1864. The note was payable at the Agency of the Planters Bank of Savannah in Rome (some banks established so-called agencies in more distant points that served as "branches"). It featured vignettes of Justice and a large passenger train as well as red-orange 2s, a red-orange TWO, and a red-orange TWO DOLLARS protector. The note has numerous small edge nicks, splits, and tattering, but its large margins mean that these impairments are confined, for the most part, to outside of the framelines.

This $5 was part of the second postwar emission made by the state, authorized by the Act of March 16, 1871. The notes, which bore 5% interest, were receivable for all state and county dues except interest on the public debt. Printed by National Bank Note Co., the design features a vignette of three children studying at a table titled The Young Students. This is flanked by a vignettes of a hunter at left and a farm wife and her daughter feeding barnyard fowl at right. The note has brown secondary design elements on the face and an elaborate brown back containing details of the authorization. Simply listed in Shull's Southern States book as Extremely Rare. This is a pleasant Very Fine example with PMG only mentioning an edge tear at right center that extends just into the vignette. We have only auctioned one other example, a heavily worn and damaged note, in recent memory. Not surprisingly then is the fact that this note is presently the highest graded example of this design in the PMG Population Report.

Printed by National Bank Note Co., this brown and black note has a center vignette of a wagonload of cotton bales on a wharf and a striking vignette of America at left. This latter vignette also appeared on the T3 Confederate $100 "Montgomery" Treasury Note with minor alterations done to "defederalize" it. This Arkansas note, which has one hole cancel in the signature, is quite rare, with Shull estimating a surviving population of perhaps 16-50 notes. The title was aptly given, as the Falls Village area was well known for its mining and manufacturing industries. The note in this lot features a vignette of farmers with their livestock at center flanked by depictions of a thoughtful Benjamin Franklin at right and a blacksmith at left. This is one the most handsome examples, of any denomination, from the entire series we have cataloged or encountered. Faint handling is what separates it from a Choice "as made" designation. Its trimming is superior to most seen and the vibrant paper is inspiring; well deserving its "EPQ" assigned. A historic Second Territorial issue note, finely engraved by N.S.S. Jocelyn, New Haven, with top vignettes of Mercury and Raleigh. Blue face endorsed as commonly done and so noted by PMG as cancelled. A gorgeous note for a Florida or Southern States type set or any collection desiring the finest quality. Our estimate may seem conservative upon the fall of the hammer for this difficult type.

20150 63rd Regiment Georgia Volunteers, GA- Claus Hartman, Sutler 25¢ ND Keller GA-SE025 PMG Very Good 10.
According to Civil War service records, Claus Hartman was actually a Private in Company B of the 63rd Georgia Infantry who enlisted in early December 1862 and was almost immediately detailed to serve as the unit's sutler. This was undoubtedly due to the fact that he had been a grocer in Savannah before enlisting. The more common situation was for a civilian to serve in this role. Hartman survived the war and remained a grocer in civilian life until passing away in 1900. The 63rd Georgia Volunteer regiment was both an infantry and heavy artillery unit, organized in December of 1862 by combining several units to create a force of more than 1,100 men. Originally, the unit was designated for artillery and coastal defense, and was dispatched in July of 1863 to the defense of Fort Wagner, outside of Charleston, South Carolina. It was there that the unit engaged in its first combat role, defending the fort against a frontal Union attack led by the 54th Massachusetts Colored Infantry Regiment. This regiment was forever immortalized in the statue of its commander, Robert Gould Shaw, which stands across the street from the Massachusetts state house, and in the movie Glory. In August of 1863, the unit returned to Savannah and did not engage in further combat until the spring of 1864, when it was ordered into service with Joe Johnston's army in defense of Atlanta. The unit fought for the remainder of the war under Johnston's command, finally taking part in the surrender of his army on April 26, 1865. By the end of 1864, the unit had 143 effectives remaining. This note served as the plate note in Keller's sutler note catalog. PMG mentions that the note has been repaired which simply consists of repaired tears at top and bottom center. This is one of just two examples known to us; the other is a remainder.

The Bank of Columbus was organized in 1829 and remained in business until April 1, 1866, when all of its assets were turned over to a receiver for the purposes of liquidation. This sheet comprises two $5s and two $10s. The $5 design features a central vignette of a passenger train that is reminiscent of the train vignette used on T40 Confederate $100 Treasury Notes a few years later. The $10 design has a vignette titled Picnic that depicts a farm wife caring for her children in the fields during the harvest. The sheet is printed on India paper with four POCs in the signature lines on each note. PMG notes that there are tears at some of the POCs, with the most noticeable ones being in the top $5 note. The notes were quite impressive looking with a deep red-orange overall tint and red-orange and white denominational protectors. The notes depicted agricultural and slavery-related vignettes as well as portraits of famous personages such as Jefferson and Clay, PMG mentions tears which are primarily very small edge nicks and tears and tiny tears at the POCs. The $1 design features an eagle and shield vignette and a portrait of Washington, flanked by vignettes of a woman with a pail and a Native American mother and child. The $2 design features allegorical vignettes of Justice seated by a shield and another allegorical woman holding a balance scale seated in a large 2 flanked by a female portrait and a vignette of Hebe watering an eagle. The second sheet comprises the red-orange denominational backs for the same layout. Both sheets are printed on India paper mounted on cardstock which appear to have, in turn, been mounted to Danforth Wright archive book pages at one time. 20155 Milledgeville, GA- State of Georgia $5,000 Treasury Certificate Mar. 14, 1864 Cr. TC05 PMG Choice Very Fine 35.
The State of Georgia issued a series of very large denomination Treasury Certificates whose purpose was to reduce the amount of Georgia Treasury Notes in circulation. The Treasury Certificates were issued in $20,000, $10,000, and $5,000 denominations which bore either six or eight percent interest. A total of 49 6% and 34 8% $5,000 Certificates were issued and, all told, the certificates were successful in reducing the amount of Treasury Notes in circulation by $1,465,000. Needless to say, very few of these certificates, have survived to the present day. This certificate, bearing serial number 10 is a large format piece with a bright red-orange $5000 protector and is free of any repairs or meaningful impairments. This is an important opportunity to acquire a rare and historic piece of Civil War fiscal history. At present, we are aware of just two examples of this certificate, with the other being somewhat impaired.

The charter for the bank was amended by the state legislature in late 1851- early 1852 allowing the bank to issue denominations of less than $5 that could be issued without a state officer countersignature and without any provisions for their security in the form of bonds or real estate. Predictably, the bank had a very large over-issue of these low denomination notes, leading to its suspension in October 1854. This sheet comprises two $1s, a $2, and a $3. The $1 design features a vignette of three men solving the world's problems titled Farmer and Mechanics flanked by vignettes of Ceres or Proserpina, an unidentified male portrait at left, and Liberty and America seated at right. The $2 features an unidentified male portrait flanked by an young Native American family and a teacher with her students. A portrait of Washington is at left and Liberty is at right. The $3 features the same unidentified male portrait and a large almost panoramic vignette of an angel with Prosperity and Navigation. The sheet is printed on India paper mounted on cardstock with three POCs in the signature line of each note. This is one of very few $500 Proofs from the Commonwealth and a stellar example. Certainly this is one of the elite Massachusetts black and white Proofs that originated in the 1990 Christie's sale. The sole Wamesit Bank lot was bought by John J. Ford, Jr. there and was not seen again until fifteen years later at those named auctions in New York. The unique $500, an India paper Proof on original card by Danforth, Wright & Co., presents dynamic imagery. At left, allegorical Commerce, Prosperity, and Navigation as later adapted on the T17 Confederate $20 and several Southern State bills. Standing Athena at the right. There are six POC as made, otherwise impeccable. Charles Pease, via his agent, acquired this twenty years ago for $2,530 at the Ford Part VIII Sale. We handled this a few years back in his first named auction where it realized a relatively reasonable sum. However, our admiration for this entire series and its overall beauty has always been high since 1990. Strong individual impression auction records for the past fifteen years bear that out. The most important denomination from a virtually impossible to acquire bank.

An Obsolete note rarity that takes itself to an elite level due by multi-dimensional attributes. To start, it is a great title from a very well collected state. Its immense rarity is confirmed as unpublished in both Haxby and Whitman. Adding more layers is its riveting layout and style. At the upper left, a wide sweeping view of The Presentation of Declaration of Independence engraved by the New England Bank Note Co. Lower right corner with train at depot. Red TEN Protector. Unique to our knowledge and it was acquired privately fifteen years ago for a significant sum from Tom Denly. The paltry issued notes from the bank we know of or have handled are low grade. This prize is part of a specialized collection of "Presentation" vignetted notes assiduously formed across three decades. We offer several from the collection today and will continue to catalog notes from it during 2025. It is perhaps the toughest "Presentation" vignette-imprint type based on the consignor's experience and we concur as catalogers. Crisp and bright, the cut quite "New England" in execution, but evenly so. Beautifully penned throughout its serial no. "4" bold. It stands high on its own, but in the context of that cited advanced collection it hails from, it shines brightest.

This "odd of odd" denomination was plated in Durand's "Denominations" 1988 volume and also in the Wallace Lee Michigan encyclopedia. India paper Proof by Rawdon, Wright & Hatch, New-York. Four small POC as made. Transportation vignettes flank the "18 ¾" die top center: shipping left and railways right. Left end with fancy scrollwork. Three other dies. PMG notes an annotation, but this penciling on the back corner is a pedigree mark from long ago. We offered this last at our 2004 FUN auction (lot 17330) for $2,415. Two decades later, a result in excess of that is a worthy pursuit for the astute. It is a beautiful piece from an in-demand state, an impeccable rarity with numerous attributes.

Michigan issued bills and "wildcat" remainders from the late 1830s are a broad topic and widely collected. Two exceptionally researched books, the standards for their times and to this day, by Harold Bowen and more recently Wallace Lee have contributed to that enjoyment. Simultaneous with that was local and national market-making for the notes over many decades. The greatest rarities from this state stood out for decades and recognized early on like this prize $3 which is an incredible opportunity for its winning bidder. A lovely layout by Draper, Toppan, Longacre & Co. An allegorical female representing Agriculture, Commerce and Plenty is seated upon the center of the title. Standing Indian chief left and Justice at the right. Fully signed and issued, serial 1406, making this the Bowen first and then Lee plated notes. Not illustrated in Haxby. Our 2004 Thompson Collection Michigan auction had only a $5 from this issuer. The Lee catalog value assigned at $1,200 is telling as well. PMG notes stains, but we find that it is just some subtle foxing, scattered at that. Winner take all perhaps for this impressive Michigan opportunity.

In 1861, Lewis S. Follett and Seymour G. Renick created a private bank under the banner of the Bank of Hastings which, in turn, became a state-chartered free bank in 1863. After a short period of time, during which the bank issued $25,000 in notes, it was decided to convert the institution to a national bank. The First National Bank of Hastings was organized on July 15, 1864 and chartered on August 18, 1864. The state bank circulation, which was redeemed by the national bank when presented, stood at just $441 in 1868. The $1 design features a marvelously detailed steamboat vignette flanked by others of a farmer with his dog at left and a farm girl at right. A large green ONE protector completes the design. The note was apparently redeemed by its national bank descendant as evidenced by a somewhat blurry PAID rubberstamp and multiple POCs in the signature lines. PMG additionally notes a small tear that is not readily apparent through the holder. Hewitt was aware of four surviving $1s in 2006 and we have offered only one other $1 in our public auctions. That piece was from The Eric P. Newman Collection. This is a great opportunity to acquire a rare piece of Minnesota banking history.

There were several iterations of the Army of Mississippi. Based on the date of August 1862 on this note issued by S.K. Smith, one of the sutlers, this was the so-called first Army of Mississippi formed in March 1862. It fought in several major engagements including Shiloh, Corinth, and Perryville (KY). This note would have been in use after the evacuation from Corinth, but before the battle of Perryville in early October 1862. The note is printed on the back of a Julius Hessee letterhead or similar document. Hessee was a commission merchant located in Mobile, AL circa 1860. PMG mentions a minor repair which appears to be a short sealed edge tear in the top margin just left of the eagle's wing.

Based upon the date of this note, it was probably used during the Iuka/Corinth, MS campaign. The Army of the West was made up primarily of members of the old Missouri State Guard and was under command of Sterling Price during this time period. We know from the uncut sheet listed in Shull's Southern States Catalog that a full sheet comprised a blank space in the upper left corner plus one $50 and two each of the $20, $10, and $5 denominations. Current thinking is that the blank space had been provided for the printing of a $100 denomination that ultimately was not produced, leaving a seven subject double pane sheet. The sheet in this lot then appears to be the right half of a sheet of this configuration. The notes on this four subject sheet are completely filled in and were ready for issue. The sheet seems to have gotten to the point of then being roughly trimmed down to note size and separated into two panes. For unknown reasons, that seems to be where everything stopped. The sheet shows folds between each note suggesting that it was saved and folded down to the overall footprint of one note. Your cataloger believes that it is highly unlikely that the previously known full seven subject sheet has been cut and suspects that this half sheet joins it as one of now only two sheets known at present of the Faith of the State Pledged emission. PMG notes several relatively minor imperfections. The sheet has been previously mounted with four spots of adhesive residue visible. A small tape repair has been made to a split between the $20 and $10 notes at left. There is a small body hole in the $50 in the adhesive residue spot at right. These minor distractions do not, however, diminish the rarity of this state issue sheet and knowledgeable collectors will appreciate the equally rare opportunity to acquire this historic Mississippi item. Value estimates of great rarities such as this can be problematic, but we believe that our conservative estimate will allow the market to determine this sheet's worth in today's environment.

MISSOURI

20172 Granby, MO- Major Geo. W. Clark - Lead Mines Scrip, Payable at Fort Smith, AR 50¢ February 1, 1862 Rothert 228-2 PCGS Very Fine 30.

Grandy Lead Mine Scrip notes are historically significant currency from this strategic lead mining region. Lead, besides its many other uses, was essential for the manufacture of ammunition, and the Confederacy wanted to maintain control of the lead mines in Granby and elsewhere. The Union wanted to seize the Granby mine for the same purpose. The lead mining "rush" at Granby, in Newton County, began in the 1850s. In less than ten years there were 8,000 residents, and the mines produced over 25,000,000 tons of lead. It was the largest source in Missouri and one the largest in the nation. When this note was printed, Granby was still under Confederate control and the note was payable to Major George W. Clark at Fort Smith, Arkansas (therefore, it also has a Rothert listing). Clark organized supplies for General McCulloch from Fort Smith. The Union took control of Granby in October 1862, but the smelter was destroyed shortly after during the Battle of Granby. During that battle, Stand Waitie commanded Native American soldiers for the Confederacy. This note was printed on the back of violet exchange forms without imprint. A farmer is at the left end with Clark's titles and payable above. At the right, an arched LEAD MINES SCRIP title is above a steamboat vignette. A red FIFTY CENTS protector is across the face of the note, with "Redeemable in Confederate Notes" below. The city and date are to the left of the signature line. Although a signature of Clark is present, it may not be in his hand or from the period. Well margined and bright. An important artifact from the strategic and historic Missouri lead mining region.

Handsome Discovery Note With EPQ

20173 Hillsborough, NH- Valley Bank $5 June 21, 1861 as G8 PMG Very Fine 30 EPQ.

The Valley Bank was chartered in 1860 and opened the same year. It remained in business until 1868-69 when it was succeeded by the First National Bank of Hillsborough which was chartered in December 1868 and opened in January 1869. The $5 design, printed by ABNCo, features a portrait of an attractive young woman holding a fan flanked by two large red 5 protectors. The style of this portrait is quite similar to that of a portrait titled Beaming Eyes based on a painting by Charles Baxter and engraved by Henry Cousins circa 1856. The modifications include the addition of a handheld folding fan, a head covering similar to a mantilla, and a different style dress. The engraver of the banknote portrait seen here remains unknown but the resemblance is quite compelling and suggests that this was a later adaptation of the original portrait which appeared on a $5 note of the City Bank of Poughkeepsie, NY. This is flanked by a vignette of a farmer seated with a large scythe at left and another of an allegorical woman seated by an incense burner at right. This note was signed by John G. Fuller as President less than a week before his unexpected death. This note was unknown to both Haxby and Bowers, with this likely being the discovery note. As a result, it is obviously one of the keys to the state and would be an outstanding representative for New Hampshire in any fifty state or New Hampshire / New England collection.

Famous Santa Claus Vignette

20174 Lancaster, NH- White Mountain Bank $2 May 1, 1860 G8a PMG Fine 12.

The White Mountain Bank was established with two different charters; the first, which was issued on January 1, 1849, was followed by a second charter on July 12, 1850. Operations did not begin until 1852, but lasted until January 1, 1875. The deuce in this lot with a vignette of Santa Clause lifting off from a roof with his reindeer is a highly popular Obsolete. This bank was the only organization in New Hampshire to utilize a Santa Clause vignette on their paper money. There is also a depiction of a passenger train at lower right and an illustration of two allegorical females at lower left. A red TWO overprint at center is also present. PMG mentions minor repairs to several small body holes which do little to take away from the overall appearance. We auctioned a PMG VG 10 with minor repairs in May 2024 for $2,040. Our current offering should easily top that realization.

Possibly a Unique Proof from the bank's initial series of unregistered demand notes. Its membership in this intriguing group of all different types from the bank someone collected for decades from several sources, confirms many Haxby listings and other diagnostic facts of this bank's rarities. In all our lengthy auctioning tenures (and that includes Gordon Harris NY sales and all the Eric Newman notes), we have handled only one obsolete from the bank and that was a note confirmed as a Haxby type already. India paper Proof, mounted upon thin yellow paper sheet, by Rawdon, Clark Albany / Rawdon, Wright & Hatch, New-York. Central vignette in square, a canal boat dragged by horses on shore; in the foreground a stream. Identical ends, girl churns butter under floral canopy. Four small POC in the India paper only. The paper mounting is later, but similar to many Proofs from this imprint family sold long ago in NASCA sales and the like. Quite elegant and sharply printed.

High grade, issued Registered series note; can't imagine a nicer one. Though listed, it's much superior to the Haxby Plate Note. Interestingly, it's serial 6000 and maybe was saved as the last note in this entire issued run? Center, cattle and sheep trading in small die. Intricate "5" at right with seated Justice. At the left, rotated New York Comptroller's Office seal. Very crisp note with bold details. These were mostly redeemed for new Nationals in 1865 when the bank converted (Ch.1344, liquidated in 1878). American Bank Note Company color Proofs have been among the elite of that genre for decades; especially so if from the South. A gorgeous India paper example with a full block imprint along the bottom edge. The layout designed for branch issuance with line at the lower left. The black printing lyrically complements its vermillion color curved titling bottom "20" protector pairing, and upper die counter surrounds. Central, a man hoists hay to his horse with trusty dog to side. Cupped into curves of title are Washington and Marshall. Lower, left cotton being picked. At the right end, under the die, a rarely encountered scene of a younger Franklin at his typesetting machine. Six small POC as made. We have only handled one other, not as nice as this, in 2004 in our Sazama auction. PMG notes as previously mounted, tear. The bold color is overwhelmingly attractive and dwarfs those comments. Louis Froelich, a Bavarian mechanic, founded the CSA Arms Factory in Wilmington, NC in November 1861. The business, which employed seventy workers, produced edged weapons for the Confederacy including swords, sabers, knives, and bayonets. The factory was largely destroyed by fire and many of the workers died during a Yellow Fever epidemic, resulting in Froelich moving the business to Kenansville, NC in mid-to-late 1862. Once there, the company operated as Louis Froelich & Co. and produced a wide range of products for the military. In late 1863, the facility was largely destroyed by Union military forces, but apparently resumed production before the end of the war. This appears to be a note printed when the company was being organized in late 1861, perhaps using a name that was later discarded in favor of the adopted CSA Arms Factory. The note features vignettes of Crawford's Freedom at left and a dog head representing Fidelity at bottom center. There is part of an intriguing letter, which is written in German, on the back of this note datelined Camp Richardson May 1864. One has to wonder if perhaps Froelich, a Bavarian, was using sheets of unused notes (since only part of the letter appears) to write letters in his native language by 1864. This seems to be more than coincidence and makes this note an important and historic Civil War artifact. PMG mentions stains and that the note has been repaired, but we suspect that serious collectors of North Carolina and Confederate-related material will not be put off by these fairly minor impairments. We last auctioned this example in 2017 when it brought just under $2,000. It should test that level again tonight.

Rare Kirtland ANTI-BANK-ING $3

20187 Kirtland, OH- Kirtland Safety Society Anti-Bank-ing Co. $3 Jan. 4, 1837 G6 Wolka 1422-03 Rust 14 PMG Very Fine 25.
An effort to organize the Kirtland Safety Society Bank was launched by Joseph Smith and other Mormon leaders in 1836. While the chartering effort was rebuffed by state authorities, arrangements for notes had been completed in parallel and resources were available to open the bank, with or without a state charter, on January 1, 1837. The organizers decided to move forward and, for a short period of time, even resorted to changing the bank title on some of its bank notes. This was accomplished by applying two stamps with "ANTI-" and "ING CO." to the existing notes so that the name appeared on notes like this as the Kirtland Safety Society ANTI-BANK-ING CO. In addition, bank officer titles were blacked out to further suggest that this was a Company rather than a Bank. Needless to say, this ploy did not buy the enterprise much time, with it ultimately failing in November 1837. One source indicates that $15,688 in $1s, $2s, and $3s stamped in this manner were issued and were redeemed in specie for about two weeks. The PMG Population Report currently records sixteen examples of this stamped $3, with four notes in higher grades. A very historic piece of Mormon numismatic history in pleasant condition without any repairs or meaningful impairments.

All Kirtland notes have been alluring for perhaps a century. Ads in The Numismatist magazine sought to buy them long ago from several dealers. In the foundational Obsolete Currency auctions, all Kirtland notes and other Mormon items were avidly sought building a strong collector and value base. It is no surprise the highest denomination $100 from the Kirtland Safety Society Bank has held great esteem among all numismatics. Cataloged here is a majestic example we were honored to catalog in 2015 at our first Eric P. Newman Collection currency auction (Newman Part VI, Heritage Auctions #3533 2015 CSNS Currency Signature Auction). Engraved and printed by Underwood, Bald, Spencer & Hufty. At the top center is their well-known rendition of the Presentation of the Declaration of Independence. Flanking are intricate "100" dies. Each end has very intricate end panels establishing a balanced layout throughout. Adding to its history is its secretarial J [oseph] Smith signature at the left and S.[idney] Rigdon at the right. Interesting "scribe" spacing on the Smith signature noted. The note was issued to Hyrum Smith, murdered in 1844 at Carthage, Illinois while imprisoned with his brother Joseph. Low serial number 23. We believe 40-50 are known, but they have the capacity of staying in collections for lengthy periods. Auction appearances sometimes gap for years and it has crossed over $10,000 numerous times. This is a superior example, which we consider very conservatively graded, both in 2015 and more so today is a beauty. Very well margined, bright with an "as made" appearance. Our consignor acquired this at the Newman sale in 2015 for his "Presentation" vignetted note collection. In that context, it is a major highlight. However, it has stood as pillar type in the Obsolete Currency canon for far longer making it broadly appealing.

The bank ceased payments in 1841 and entered into a liquidation process that extended into 1852. At left is a depiction of Liberty with a scroll denoting the denomination, and at center is the bank's building. A portrait of William Penn, the Quaker founder of the colony of Pennsylvania, is at right. Also present on the face are stamps which detail interest and principal amounts over time. The latest stamp is dated October 1, 1850. PCGS mentions a small edge tear at top left and repaired ink erosion.

A Unique Proof from the 1990 Christie's sale where it was the sole example in lot 1750 acquired by Christian Blom on the second day. The rest of the lot was comparatively pedestrian in appearance (but, rare). However, his exceptional looking and conservatively graded piece more than compensated as its key. India paper Proof on original card by Danforth, Spencer, Hufty/Spncer, Hufty, Danforth. Six POC as made. Upper left, seated Agriculture. Washington lower left and John Marshall to the far right. No denominations were known from this issue until 1990. Very boldly printed and broadly framed. It has a Gem appearance. It sold impressively in the March 2014 Stack's Bowers auction at Baltimore for $8,342. Charles Pease acquired it there and we auctioned it in his exceptional initial public offering at our 2020 FUN Signature auction for $2,340. Evaluating Obsoletes such as these in a re-emerging market place presents opportunities for visionary collectors to augment or create new cabinets of distinction.

Few notes of any type are known from this issuer and not only was the denomination SENC in Haxby, it was not known to Bowers or Durand in their research. Unlisted without a protector, this unique example sold on the sheet in lot 1805 of the 1990 sale and did not get re-sold until 2005 at Schingoethe Part 5 where the consignor acquired it. India paper Proof on original card by Danforth, Wright & Co. A superb, deep black impression of the Presentation of the Declaration of Independence at top center. Lower right, conceived as Columbus portrait. This was the bottom of a visually striking black-and-white sheet from the original auction. The bank ranks as one of the rarest for issued notes from the incredibly well-researched state (Roger Durand missed little in his many decades of expansive currency study). The six Proofs that appeared in the 1990 Christie's sale added considerably to the collections they joined. This $500 is possibly unique and was paired on a sheet with the sole $100 known. An India paper Proof on archive book card by Danforth, Bald & Co. Six POC through the Proof as made. Interesting layout with Justice and Industry, with separated George and Martha Washington portraits. Lower left, Canova's seated Washington. Interestingly, counterfeiters tried to mimic this note with a red protector. Though well-made, how many passed at that high level seems doubtful. Two lower denomination Proofs from this series sold for almost $5,000 ten years ago attesting their rarity. This former Pease collection example is a lovely high denomination Gem.

While small denomination Republic of Texas notes from the popular Lone Star series remain readily available, the same is not true for the largest denomination issued, the $500. The design features a George W. Hatch engraved vignette of Commerce and Prosperity (which is signed in small letters beneath the image) as well as another of Liberty seated by a Lone Star shield and eagle. The namesake Lone Star back retains its original vibrant orange hue. The note has a triangular cut out cancel as well as a round Funded and Canceled rubberstamp, but is printed on bright paper with decent margins. PCGS Banknote mentions some minor mounting adhesive residue on the back corners. This is the only example registered by PCGS Banknote so far, but as a point of reference, were this note to receive the equivalent grade from PMG, there would only be six notes out of a total reported population of 55 that would be in higher grades at present.

This Sam Houston autographed signature warrant was payable to Jas. E. McCord, who was an attorney representing 37 men serving in "Burleson's Company." PMG states that this example has been pen cancelled and has ink burn. The ink burn has a minor impact on Houston's signature as it affects only the "a" in "Sam." Genuine signatures of Texas titan Sam Houston are always in demand as almost all of his signatures on fiscal items were executed by William G. Cooke, who died on December 24, 1847. Governor Houston signed this warrant on the back and his signature matches his signature plated on page 395 of the Criswell/Shull reference, A Guide Book of Southern States Currency. Houston suffered a serious right wrist injury during the Creek War at the decisive Battle of Horseshoe Bend on March 27, 1814.

Although there is no authoritative proof, circumstantial evidence suggests that this was a fairly short-lived merchant venture between Andrew Briscoe and DeWitt Clinton Harris that was active in the 1830s. The $1 design features a large vignette of an early train hauling cotton bales at center flanked by a vignette of two mechanics at work at left and a ONE end panel at right. The $2 features a sailor at the helm of a sailing vessel flanked by a vignette of a mother and child seated in a large 2 fashioned out of a cornucopia and sheaf of grain at left and a TWO end panel at right. The $3 features an scantily clad Native American maiden seated with a steamboat in the distance flanked by a vignette of a maiden seated in a large 3 formed out of leaves at left and a THREE end panel at right. The sheet has some deckled edges which are normal and PMG mentions a tear in the upper left corner that does not impact any of the notes. The bank was organized as a free, or so-called Independent, bank in 1853. Almost alone among the state's banks, it survived the Civil War and became the Charlottesville National Bank in July 1865. Although virtually all of the state's Independent Banks stopped issuing notes secured by state bonds during the course of 1860-61, the bank decided to continue issuing the notes it had in inventory with the state treasurer's countersignature space simply left blank. Your cataloger believes that new notes without the state banking die and countersignature space were not printed for this denomination (and the $7, $8, and $9 notes as well) because the bank did not intend to issue quantities beyond the notes that were in inventory. The $6 features two men conducting business by two large hogsheads of of tobacco, one labelled TOBACCO No. 1 A. This scene is flanked by vignette of a young girl strewing flowers and the state free banking die. Note that the space for the State Treasurer's signature is unused. A large red SIX protector and a small locomotive vignette complete the design. This note is presently the highest graded example of this design in the PMG Population Report.

George Washington and Mount Vernon are on the face, and a panoramic view of the Rocky Mountains is on the back. The Series 701 was the last MPC series printed, but they were never actually released. When Series 701 was printed at the Bureau of Engraving and Printing, Army finance officials had planned that it would replace Series 692 in Vietnam. Between the time Series 701 was ordered and delivered, the restrictions on the use of coins in Vietnam had been lifted, and fractional MPCs quickly disappeared from circulation. Plans were scrapped to release the Series 701 notes, and in 1991 the U.S. Treasury demonetized the series. It had long been believed that all the fractional denominations and all replacement notes were destroyed. Until recent years this was a correct assumption, then a fractional denomination Specimen and a $5 Replacement were unleashed upon the marketplace.

PMG
United States Postal Currency Envelope

20215 Postal Currency Envelope for 3¢ Notes (Washington, DC- Fisk Mills) ND (1869) PMG Encapsulated No Grade.
This example was previously lot 456 when we auctioned the Milton R. Friedberg Collection on January 10, 1997. This is an excessively rare item of great interest to Fractional collectors. The story of this envelope is best told in a short article written by Milt that can be found at www.spmc,org - "Postal Currency Envelope" in Paper Money, Society of Paper Money Collectors, January/February 1980, Vol. XIX, No. 1, Whole No. 85, page 29. The example in this lot is plated with the article. In short, Milt ran across the description of this item in a postal history reference book. It is a postal envelope used to preserve stamps while they are being used as small change. This is a post-Civil War example and U.S. Patent 91,473 was issued to Fisk Mills of Washington, D.C. for a "Postal Currency" envelope on June 15, 1869. A limited quantity of orange (red to this cataloger's eyes) on buff paper examples were prepared. Milt was aware of three examples of the version in this lot surviving when the article was written in 1980. Three other different versions were also known to Milt and he believed that they were the original "working samples" supplied to the U.S. Patent Office with the patent application as was required by the patent law of the period. These samples were later sold by the Patent Office in a house cleaning procedure. An additional variation was known to Milt with an eagle facing left.

When we auctioned Milt's collection in 1997 and before the piece in this lot was third party encapsulated, we described the envelope in this lot as having a short split where the flap meets the envelope. Nonetheless, this item remains rare. As being a post-Civil War example, it was not included in Fred Reed's, Civil War Stamp Envelopes The Issuers & Their Times.

The sole survivor known from this short-lived bank that was chartered on March 18, 1889 and liquidated on January 8, 1895 is offered here. The City NB issued only 334 two note sheets of $50-$100 Brown Backs. After liquidation, the City NB was absorbed by the Berney NB, charter number 3442. The Berney NB was opened only from 1886-1901, but it pursued an aggressive policy of redeeming the City NB's circulation and they almost completely succeeded, as the example in this lot is the only known note to have escaped redemption. This $50 Brown Back, one of only three known from the state, made its way to the Albert A. Grinnell Collection. It became lot 1242 in Part III of the Barney Bluestone auction of Grinnell's holdings held June 16, 1945. Its other two auction stops would not be until 1988 and 2003. This delightful note is a solid representative for the grade. Bold pen signatures are of Cashier J(ames) H(enry) "Jack" Barr and President B(raxton) B(ragg) Comer. They served together during the last years of the bank, 1892-94. Cashier Barr became the cashier at the Berney NB, 1896-98. Next, he served as cashier at the First NB of Birmingham, charter number 3185, followed by a term as president, 1901-14. He also served on the Executive Council of the American Bankers Association during the year 1911. President Comer went on to serve as the 33rd governor of Alabama, 1907-11 and Alabama's US Senator in 1920. This is a trophy National Bank Note if there ever was one.

20219 Evergreen, AL - $10 1902 Red Seal Fr. 613 First National Bank Ch. # (S)7687 PCGS New 62.

This is one of a small group of high grade Red Seals from this bank that was dispersed years ago. While not inexpensive, they provide an opportunity for collectors to acquire a nice example of this tough type from a Southern state. Tonight's offering is a pen signed beauty with deep ink colors and original embossing.

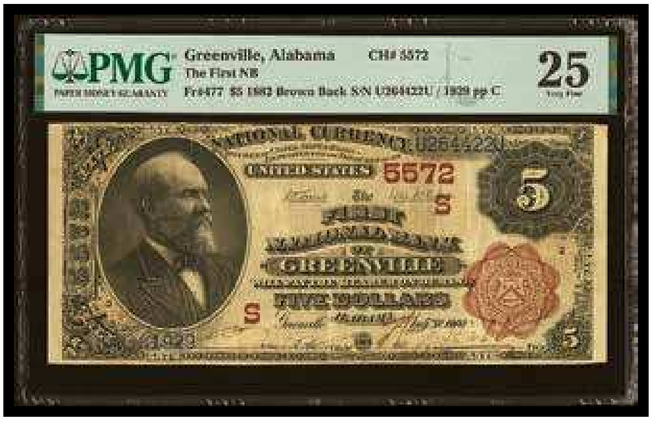
20220 Florala, AL - $20 1902 Date Back Fr. 644 The First National Bank Ch. # (S)8910 PCGS Choice New 63.

From a small town hard by the Florida border and named for a combination of the two states, this pretty note is easily the finest of the dozen or so large size in the census. Displaying bold ink colors and embossing, this well preserved Date Back is only held back from an even higher grade by a slender top margin.

Starting Bid: $875



20221 Greenville, AL - $5 1882 Brown Back Fr. 477 The First National Bank Ch. # (S)5572 PMG Very Fine 25.

A scarce early note, this is only the second Brown Back of any denomination to be reported from this Butler County bank. It displays excellent color and solid paper with its only flaw being that the signatures have been redrawn.

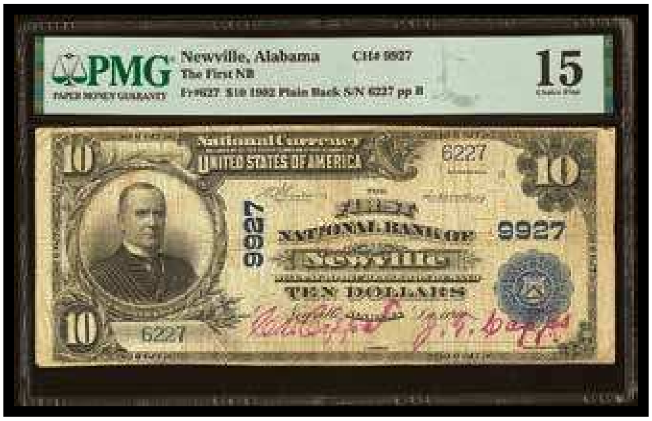
Rare Newville, AL Large Size



20222 Newville, AL - $10 1902 Plain Back Fr. 627 The First National Bank Ch. # 9927 PMG Choice Fine 15.

An evenly circulated large size note from this very scarce charter that was the sole issuer in this Henry County location. This bank was only in business from 1911 until its liquidation in 1931. Tonight's offering is only the fifth large to be reported from here (along with one small). It displays just honest wear along with bold stamped signatures.

20223 Opelika, AL - $5 1882 Brown Back Fr. 469 The First National Bank Ch. # 3452 PMG Fine 12.

This is a lovely and rare uncut serial number 2 Red Seal sheet from this Oxford bank that is being offered to the collecting fraternity for the first time. It is one of just two large size uncut sheets known from all Alabama banks (the other being a Number 1 Red Seal sheet from Evergreen that we auctioned seven years ago for over $30,000). This note has some light handling with light folds seen between each of the notes, but otherwise, it is bright and fresh with excellent color and bold pen signatures. This is truly a great Alabama trophy item fit for the finest of collections.

A wonderful Alabama rarity, this is likely the finest of just three $50 Brown Backs known from all Alabama banks combined. Although this type and denomination was issued by ten banks overall in Alabama, only three survivors have been documented currently - two from this Selma bank and one from Birmingham, according to the National Currency Foundation census. As mentioned, this offering is most likely the finest of the three as the other two known examples were each graded a raw Very Fine in their last respective auction appearances in 2003. This widely margined piece has loads of eye appeal with bold ink colors and signatures and only light circulation. This Alabama trophy note last fetched $18,800 in our 2016 Central States auction and is rare and desirable enough to approach that number again.

A bright and crisp example from our 49th State whose notes are always in strong demand, particularly from the collectors putting together a state set of small size Nationals. This attractive mid-grade $10 exhibits just even, problem free wear. Officers are Cashier W(illiam) A(ugust) (Dietrick) Pries and President J(orgen) E(mil) Berg. They served together in these two capacities from 1929-33. Their printed signatures are the only ones found on small size Nationals issued by this charter number. The third and last president during the National Bank Note era was the founder of the bank, John Koel, who died in 1946. As he was laid to rest, businesses in Ketchikan closed for an hour out of respect for Mr. Koel. He left behind in his will money for scholarships for the youth of Ketchikan.

This is a great new discovery from this outrageously rare Washington County bank that is just the second note to be reported and the first of the pair to ever be offered publicly. Located in northwestern Arkansas, this small community was the host to just one National Bank, a short-lived issuer that was only in business from 1920 until the receiver arrived in 1927. The bank issued only $5 Plain Backs and, prior to this evening, just one note was known from here - a low grade note that has never made a public appearance. That all changes with the surfacing of this pleasing mid-grade piece that has nice color and dark stamped signatures. This is a great note for either the Arkansas specialist or anyone who appreciates rare Nationals.

A great note which is one of only five $50 Brown Backs known from the entire state, this is one of just three to come from this truly rare ethnic titled bank, which has a mere seven recorded notes overall in the census. It is a very well margined piece with strong signatures and overall pleasing color. PMG has noted some minor repaired edge splits which do not detract at all from this rare note's overall eye appeal. This is one of only two notes reported from this short-lived Azusa bank that closed its doors in 1916 after barely ten years in business and which carries an always popular "Forbidden Title." The only other known example, which is rather well circulated, is one we had the privilege of auctioning as part of both the famed Charley Colver collection in 1999 and again in The Lowell Horwedel Collection auction of 2004. By contrast, this offering is bright and crisp with great color and bold pen signatures. PMG has mentioned a repair, but any such repair is minor and not readily noticeable. This significant California rarity should be eagerly pursued this evening.

One of Three Known - First Offering in Fifteen Years

20258 Bay Point, CA - $5 1902 Plain Back Fr. 607 The First National Bank Ch. # (P)11561 PMG Choice Fine 15.
Only three examples, all in just about the same grade, are known from this Contra Costa County bank, which issued large notes only and had but $350 outstanding at its close in 1932. None of the three known notes has made a public appearance since 2010. This offering has not been seen since John Hickman's sale of The Philip Krakover Collection in 1990. Bay Point itself, which no longer exists, has an interesting history. An industrial community in the county, it was founded in 1906 by the C.A. Smith Lumber Company. In 1931, after an attempt was made to change the community's name to Chicago (which was rejected by the Post Office Department), it was renamed Port Chicago. Port Chicago was a major military terminal during World War II, but faded quickly after the war. The site is now abandoned; the Post Office discontinued service in 1969. This is an evenly circulated and solid note with bold stamped signatures.

A wonderful note from this Los Angeles area, this is easily the finest graded of just six large size in the census. Featuring low serial number 2, this lovely Plain Back also bears the signature of F.E. Woodruff as President, a gentleman who also served as the developer of this community. PMG has noted a small as made paper inclusion, but it is indeed minor and of no consequence. Another great California note and destined to be a highlight of the next collection it enters.

A very rare note from the only bank to issue in what was then a sleepy agricultural community in rural Santa Clara County. Only four notes are known from this short lived banking venture, none of which have crossed the auction block since 2007. This is another ex: Krakover note that has been off the market since John Hickman's sale of that collection 35 years ago. This pretty $5, which is the finest of the four reported, may well be the last opportunity for a collector to acquire a note from this tough California location for many years to come.

This bank, while it survived the note-issuing era, chose to issue large size only and had a mere $475 outstanding in 1935. To date, just three notes are reported, none of which have appeared at auction since John Hickman's sales of The Philip Krakover Collection in 1990. This offering was in Part I of the sale that year and is now finally available for one fortunate collector to enjoy. It is a bright and crisp $10 with nice color for the grade. A great California rarity, this note is unique for this short-lived Imperial County bank. El Centro has always been one of the toughest California towns from which to obtain a note. It was the host to two national banks, both of which were chartered on the same day in February of 1909 and both of which enjoyed only a brief period of existence. The First National, which received charter 9350, liquidated in 1925 and currently has just five notes in the census, while the El Centro National, which received charter 9349, lasted only until 1920. This note surfaced just over 20 years ago and, in an auction appearance in 2003, fetched $17,825. Fifteen years later, it came back on the market again in our 2018 Central States auction where it brought $15,600. Now, several years later, it is once again available for one fortunate collector to enjoy. Featuring bright paper, great color, and dark stamped signatures, this unique California rarity should, once again, inspire serious bidding interest.

It is a bright, well printed Plain Back with just light folds and a few small rust stains.

This bright note has excellent color, which comes from these being printed on yellow paper with a red overprint. The details of the all important gold coin vignette on the back are sharp and clear. National Gold Bank Notes are usually found in VG or worse grades due to the extensive amount of time spent in circulation. That is obviously not the case here, as this note, with low serial number 77, has loads of eye appeal and, most importantly, is housed in a comment-free holder.

This well margined serial number 2 note made its last public appearance in our 2019 Long Beach auction and is now once again available for one fortunate collector. Tracing its provenance to The Philip Krakover Collection that John Hickman sold in March of 1990, this number 2 note is a bright, well margined, pen signed piece with just a small, inconsequential stain. A fantastic California rarity that is certainly one of the highlights of tonight's auction. It is one of just two Serial Number 1 Red Seal uncut sheets reported from California which also represent the only uncut Red Seal sheets known for the entire state. Both of the uncut sheets from California are from this San Francisco bank - a sheet of four $5s and the $10-$10-$10-$20 sheet we are offering tonight, neither of which have ever appeared at public sale.

To further emphasize the extreme rarity of this sheet, there are only six other Serial Number 1 Red Seal uncut sheets known for the entire country (although with two uncut pairs from Minnesota), according to the National Currency Foundation census - one each from Alabama, Georgia, Kansas, Missouri, New York, and Pennsylvania. Of that half dozen, just three have appeared at public sale, with only the Alabama sheet having been auctioned in the past 15 years. That lone occurrence was in our 2018 Central States auction where it realized$31,200.

This offering is a beautiful sheet that has retained its full original colors along with bold pen signatures, including that of Wm. H. Crocker as bank President. There are some light storage folds along with minor pencil annotations in the selvage area and a few staple holes, but those imperfections are mere trifles when considering the significance of this rare California trophy item that is worth whatever price it brings tonight.

This is a great note from one of San Francisco's rarest banks. This charter was only in business for barely three years before closing its doors in 1908. It issued just a handful of Red Seals and Date Backs with just four pieces known today - all Red Seals. However, of that quartet, only tonight's offering has made a public appearance in the past 20 years. It is a pleasing, mid-grade $5 that has solid paper and retains a bold red overprint and dark printed signatures. Add in the fact that it also bears a popular "forbidden title" and this is a real winner of a California National.

This is a great California rarity that is one of only 17 National Gold Bank Notes reported from this Santa Barbara bank and the only $20 survivor out of a mere 800 issued. Like all early California banks, The First National Gold Bank of Santa Barbara has an interesting history. Established in May 1873, it was the successor to the town's first bank, a private institution. The founding president was Mortimer Cook, and the cashier was Amasa L. Lincoln. According to the December 10, 2014, Santa Barbara Independent, "Mortimer Cook came to Santa Barbara in 1871, bringing with him the only iron safe in town."

This offering is a well circulated but intact example that remains attractive for the grade with pleasing color and legible pen signatures. The all-important Gold Coin vignette also remains quite distinct. It is a more than acceptable example of a great National Gold Bank Note rarity.

20338 Santa Barbara, CA - $100 1873 Fr. 1164 The First National Gold Bank Ch. # 2104 PMG Fine 12.
An incredible California rarity and certainly one of the highlights of the sale this evening, we are pleased to offer the unique $100 Santa Barbara National Gold Bank Note. This is one of the few National Gold Bank Notes that can trace its provenance back to the Grinnell holdings, where it sold in Barney Bluestone's March 1945 sale for the then strong sum of $225. It then passed to the Robert F. Schermerhorn Collection and later appeared in auctions in 1990 and 2001, before finally crossing the auction block again in our 2017 Central States auction. It is one of only nine hundreds known from all National Gold Banks combined, and the sole representative from Santa Barbara. PMG mentions pinholes along with a missing upper left corner tip, but the colors are quite sharp for a note in this grade and the overall appearance is one of an even higher graded piece. Almost eight years ago, it fetched $282,000 when we last offered this California trophy note and it could certainly approach that level again.

A just plain rare California type for both the state and this bank, there are barely thirty examples reported for the entire state, according to the National Currency Foundation census. Of that number, just three come from Santa Barbara, one of the most avidly collected locations in the state. This $10 is one of the reported three and is easily the finest of the trio as neither of the other two notes grades above Very Good. This pretty note, which is crossing the auction block for the first time, displays bold ink colors, dark pen signatures, and plenty of eye appeal. PMG mentions a tear repair and pinholes, but any such flaws are minor and not at all distracting. This is a great California note fit for the finest of collections. Three years ago, we auctioned the other 1875 $10 from this bank, in a PMG Very Good 8 holder, for $7,800.

20344 Sausalito, CA - $5 1902 Plain Back Fr. 609 The First National Bank Ch. # 12453 PMG Fine 12 Net.
This offering is a great California rarity that is a bit unusual in several respects. First of all, it comes from an excessively rare, one-bank Marin County location and is the first note from here to make a public appearance since 2009. Second, this community's sole issuer was only in business from 1923 until 1927, and today, just four notes are reported from this issuer. Although now known for its houseboats and incredibly high-priced real estate, Sausalito was, in the 1920s, a somewhat down at the heels community that struggled to support even one national bank. Over the years, even the most determined of California collectors such as Charley Colver, Phil Krakover, and Lowell Horwedel were never able to obtain a note from Sausalito. Third, this note, which turned up in a local New Jersey auction years ago, has a rather unique feature. At some point in the past, a previous owner attempted to "improve" the note and, in the course of having it repaired, spliced a letter "C" over a damaged "S" in the town name causing it to appear as "Saucalito." This purported "error" created quite a bit of excitement in the numismatic press a few years ago but further research determined that the misspelling was simply a mistake by a "note doctor" rather than an engraving error by the BEP. Either way, despite the mistake and other repairs, this $5 is still a very rare California note and remains quite presentable for the grade. The background of this piece, including the controversial repair, just adds to its appeal.

A great Florida rarity from a panhandle bank that issued Red Seals and Date Backs only during its brief nine-year existence. To date, just four notes are reported from this tough charter - all Red Seals - with none having made a public appearance since we auctioned tonight's offering in our 2012 ANA auction. This $5 has seen its share of circulation but retains good color and solid paper, and is actually the finest of the four notes in census. It took $25,000 to bring home this treasure twelve years ago, and considering that it is still just as rare and desirable today, it could well approach that number again.

20384 Arcadia, FL - $5 1882 Date Back Fr. 537 The First National Bank Ch. # (S)5534 PMG Very Fine 25.
This is a very attractive example of a rather scarce type and denomination for the state of Florida as fewer than two dozen pieces are known for all banks combined, according to the National Currency Foundation census. Moreover, this offering hails from a tough DeSoto County bank that has fewer than a dozen large size overall reported with this piece easily the finer of two 1882 $5 Date Backs extant. It is a hugely margined note with even wear, nice color and legible signatures. Eight years ago, we auctioned a $10 Date Back in a PMG Fine 15 holder from this bank for over $8,500.
Starting Bid: $5,000

20385 Arcadia, FL - $20 1902 Plain Back Fr. 652 The De Soto National Bank Ch. # 8728 PMG Very Fine 20 EPQ.
Rather available in small size, this De Soto County bank is much tougher to locate in large, with only nine pieces in the National Currency Foundation census. One of that number, this $20, which was last on the market in our 2014 Central States auction, is a bright and clean note that retains nice color and original surfaces. It is clearly superior to most of the known large survivors from here, a few of which are very low grade.

This is a great Florida rarity that is not only just the fourth reported large size from this popular charter but, more importantly, it is the first such piece to ever cross the auction block. Opening in 1926, this community's sole issuer was able to release large size notes for only three years before the small size era. As a consequence, just $310 in large size was left outstanding in 1935. While three notes had been reported from this bank, they have all been in long-term holdings with none of them having ever been publicly offered. That all changes with the emergence of this fourth note which should generate some serious bidding interest from the many Florida collectors. Fortunately, it is a bright and crisp piece with great color and legible stamped signatures. This $5 will certainly be a highlight of the next collection it enters.

This great Florida rarity is one of just four notes reported from this now-booming Broward County community. However, in the 1920s, Fort Lauderdale was just a backwater of 3,000 souls surrounded by swampland. It was the host to just one national bank which opened in 1921 and which was closed by the receiver shortly before Christmas in 1928. As mentioned, tonight's offering is one of just four pieces recorded from this tiny issuer and the first of that quartet to cross the auction block in almost eight years. It is a pleasing, evenly circulated $10 displaying nice color and just honest wear. Considering the number of south Florida collectors, this rare note should generate serious bidding interest tonight.

20395 Jacksonville, FL - $10 1902 Red Seal Fr. 613 The Atlantic National Bank Ch. # (S)6888 PMG Very Fine 25.
This is a scarce state for Red Seals, with the current National Currency Foundation census showing 35 examples from all banks in Florida combined. This piece is one of the nicer examples, with a vivid red overprint and pleasing, even wear.

A great Serial Number 1 example from this very scarce Jacksonville bank that is crossing the auction block for the first time. The Fourth National was only in business from 1910 until 1913 and, consequently, only issued Date Backs. This offering is one of just seven pieces reported from this charter and the only Number 1 example. In fact, it is one of only twenty Serial Number 1 large size notes reported for the entire state of Florida. This is an absolutely wonderful Florida rarity that comes from a short-lived Key West bank that issued Red Seals and Date Backs only during its brief ten-year existence. It is one of just two pieces reported from this charter - one being a $5 Red Seal that is listed in the census without a serial number and which has never appeared at public sale and this $10 Date Back which surfaced in 2013 and was subsequently offered in our 2014 FUN auction. This pleasing mid-grade example, which just had a minor restoration, fetched $35,250 in its previous public appearance. Considering it is just as rare today as it was eleven years ago, it could very likely approach that number again.

Just two banks were open in Florida during the First Charter Period - one in Jacksonville, which remains unreported and one in Pensacola, which issued only 1875 $5s. 20422 La Grange, GA - $20 1929 Ty. 2 The La Grange National Bank Ch. # 7762 PMG Choice Uncirculated 64 EPQ.
Serial number A000006. This Troup County institution certainly is not scarce, with roughly 50 small notes listed. According to the National Bank Note census, the only Uncirculated examples are part of a trio of Type 2 sheets. So far as your cataloger is aware, the $5 and $10 sheets remain intact since they have not appeared at auction. Of the triumvirate of Serial #1-6 sheets, only the $20 sheet has been cut up. The serial #1 note grades AU 50 and the serial number #3 note is just listed as "Uncirculated." It is entirely possible that tonight's near-Gem offering is the finest known and will no doubt be highly sought after by the state's avid collectors.

Excessively Rare $50 Georgia Brown Back - One of Three Known

20425 Newnan, GA - $50 1882 Brown Back Fr. 513 The First National Bank Ch. # (S)1861 PMG Very Fine 20.
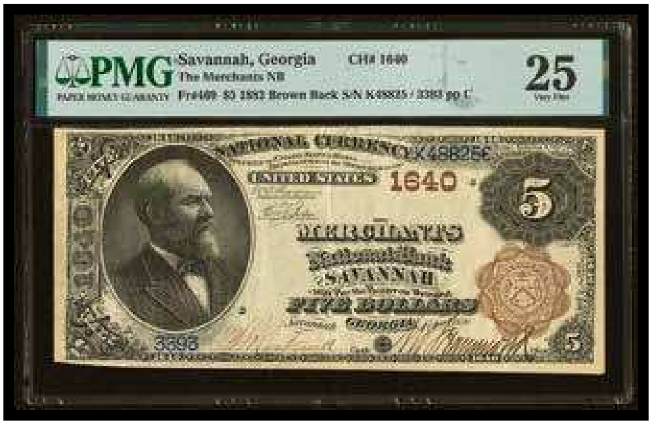
A wonderful Georgia rarity, this is one of only three $50 Brown Backs reported for the entire state and the only one of the three to have ever appeared at public sale. Two of the three reported notes are from this Newnan bank, while the third is from a bank in Macon, but, as mentioned, only this Newnan $50 has ever made a public appearance. That lone occurrence was when we auctioned this note as part of The Rome Collection in our 2004 FUN auction. It is a pleasing, well margined piece with sharp ink colors and bold pen signatures. PMG has noted a sprinkling of pinholes but they are a mere trifle when considering the extreme rarity of this Georgia trophy note. With the other two Georgia $50 Brown Backs tied up in long-term holdings, it may be many years before any opportunity to acquire this rare type and denomination presents itself again.
Starting Bid: $10,000

Attractive Savannah $5 Brown Back



20426 Savannah, GA - $5 1882 Brown Back Fr. 469 The Merchants National Bank Ch. # 1640 PMG Very Fine 25.

This is a great new addition to the census of this scarce large-only Savannah bank that is the first $5 Brown Back to be reported. It represents a better type and denomination for this southern state as only five dozen $5 Brown Backs for all Georgia banks are listed in the National Currency Foundation census. This pleasing, pen signed example was previously mounted which likely accounts for its survival today. However, it faces up quite nicely with balanced margins and excellent color.

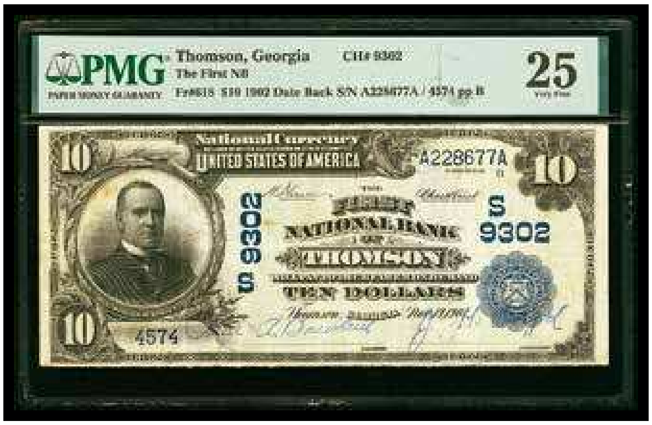
20427 Sparta, GA - $10 1902 Date Back Fr. 616 The First National Bank Ch. # (S)7067 PMG Very Fine 20.

This offering is from a very tough Hancock County bank that was only in business from 1903 until its liquidation in 1923. To date, just five pieces are reported from the charter, including this piece, which is the only $10 Date Back in the census. Of the other four notes extant, three are very low grade with various problems, leaving very few options for collectors seeking a quality representative from this institution. This offering is a solid mid-grade note displaying just honest wear and retaining nice color for the grade.

Starting Bid: $1,250

Newly Reported Thomson, GA Large Size First Offering Since 2008



20428 Thomson, GA - $10 1902 Date Back Fr. 618 The First National Bank Ch. # (S)9302 PMG Very Fine 25.

This is a great new addition to the census of this extremely scarce bank that was the only note issuer in rural McDuffie County. Just four large size (along with three small) were reported from here, none of which have been publicly offered since 2008. This newly surfaced $10 Date Back, therefore, provides a great opportunity for today's generation of collectors. It is a bright and crisp note with sharp ink colors and bold stamped signatures. Some minor staining has been noted by PMG, but it is not at all distracting.

Rare Georgia Serial Number 1 1882 $5 Date Back

20429 Valdosta, GA - $5 1882 Date Back Fr. 532 The First National Bank Ch. # (S)4429 PMG Very Fine 25.
Another spectacular Georgia note that is one of only two Serial Number 1 1882 $5 Date Backs reported for the state and one of just 22 Number 1 1882 $5 Date Backs in the census for the entire country. Both Number 1 notes from Georgia are from this Valdosta bank, but the other reported example, from the "G" plate position, is only an impaired Very Good. That is not the case here as this "F" position note, which is crossing the auction block for the first time, is a pleasing mid-grade example with great color and signatures along with only problem free wear. This is a quite appealing Number 1 note fit for the finest of collections.
Starting Bid: $10,000

Newly Reported Waycross, GA Large Size

20430 Waycross, GA - $5 1902 Plain Back Fr. 605 The First National Bank Ch. # (S)4963 PMG Very Fine 20.
While small size Waycross notes are scarce but occasionally available, large examples from this one bank community are just plain rare, with this piece only the fifth large note reported. Of the other four known examples, most are tied up in long-term holdings with just one example having been publicly offered since 2004. That lone occurrence was in our 2015 FUN auction when another $5 Plain Back, also in a PMG Very Fine 20 holder, fetched $4,230. Tonight's offering is an attractive mid-grade example with pleasing color and even wear.
Starting Bid: $1,500

HAWAII

20431 Honolulu, HI - $5 1882 Value Back Fr. 574 The First National Bank of Hawaii Ch. # (P)5550 PMG Very Fine 30.
While territorial examples from this bank are hardly rare, any Hawaii Territory Value Back is a scarce and desirable item. This is a pleasing mid-grade $5 Value Back with very nice color and legible stamped signatures. The top margin is cut slightly into the design and there is minor ink writing on the back.
Starting Bid: $1,250

IDAHO

20432 Blackfoot, ID - $5 1902 Plain Back Fr. 598 The First National Bank Ch. # 7419 PMG Very Fine 20.
An evenly circulated and problem free example from this always in demand Idaho bank, this is one of only a dozen large size in the census. This note traces its pedigree to a 1979 Hickman-Oakes sale, and then to its appearance in the massive Bob Knudsen collection which we auctioned back in 2001.
Starting Bid: $875

20433 Boise, ID - $20 1902 Plain Back Fr. 658 The Overland National Bank Ch. # (P)10751 PMG Very Fine 30.
This institution was Boise's shortest-lived bank, lasting only from 1915 through 1921. Just ten notes are known from this issuer, along with one uncut sheet (which has never been publicly offered). This $20, which was last on the market in a 2003 auction, is a bright and attractive note with great color and legible stamped signatures.

Scarce Moscow, ID Large Size

20435 Moscow, ID - $10 1902 Plain Back Fr. 625 The First National Bank Ch. # (P)3408 PMG Very Fine 30.
A rare large size example from the home of the University of Idaho, this is one of only six pieces in the census. This community was not named after the major Russian city, but rather the hometown of the local postmaster who came from Moscow, Pennsylvania. This is a bright mid-grade example with bold ink colors and dark stamped signatures.
Starting Bid: $1,500

20436 Saint Anthony, ID - $20 1882 Date Back Fr. 555 The First National Bank Ch. # (P)5764 PMG Choice Fine 15.
This is a very rare type and denomination for Idaho, as tonight's offering is one of just three 1882 $20 Date Backs reported for all of this state's banks. The only note reported from this large-only Fremont County charter, this piece has solid paper for the grade with decent color and just honest wear.

First Reported Clifton Large Size

20444 Clifton, IL - $10 1902 Plain Back Fr. 624 The First National Bank Ch. # 6318 PMG Very Good 10.
A wonderful new discovery, this is the first large size note to surface from one of the smallest National Banks to issue in the state of Illinois. It comes from the sole issuer in an Iroquois County community near the Indiana state line - a bank that opened in 1902 and whose circulation never exceeded $12,500. In 1935, just $730 in large size was left outstanding. Prior to this evening, while a dozen or so small size were reported, no large example had ever been known to exist. That all changes with the emergence of this $10 Plain Back. It is well circulated with some tape residue, but it retains decent color and bold pen signatures. A great opportunity for one collector to finally acquire a large note from this heretofore unavailable one-bank town.

20467 Serial Number 1 Auburn, IN - $10 1902 Red Seal Fr. 613 The City National Bank Ch. # (M)6509 PMG Very Fine 25.
A great Serial Number 1 Red Seal, this is the lone Number 1 note of any kind reported from this DeKalb County institution. We had the privilege of offering this note previously in our 2012 ANA auction and are pleased to make it available again to the collecting fraternity. It is a pleasing, pen signed $10 from the "A" plate position. It has acquired some circulation and folds, but retains its bold red overprint. It also did not have its top selvage cut off, therefore the initials of several BEP workmen who worked on the printing plates are observed at back upper left. Much more on this subject can be gleaned from the article at www.spmc. org - "Initials in the Margins of Large Size Proofs and Sheets" in Paper Money, Society of Paper Money Collectors, September/October 2012, Vol. LI, No. 5, Whole No. 281, pages 333-42.

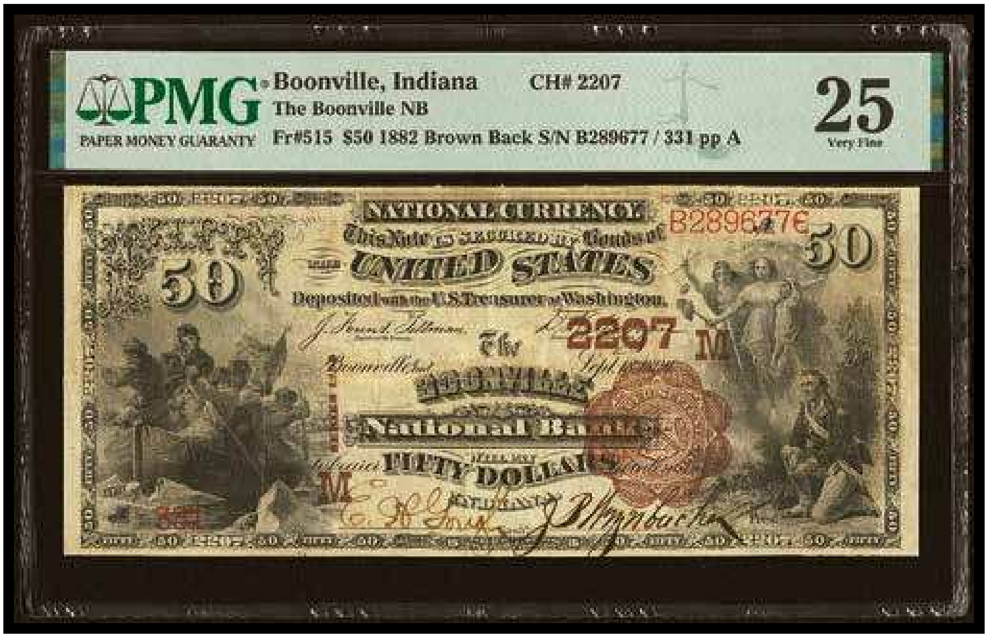
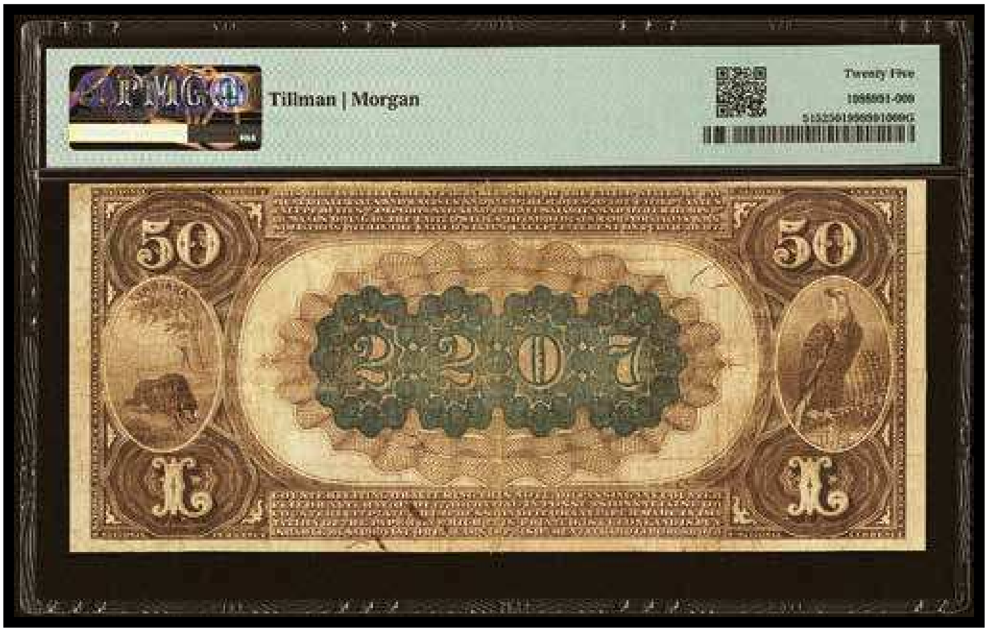
Rare Indiana $50 Brown Back





20475 Boonville, IN - $50 1882 Brown Back Fr. 515 The Boonville National Bank Ch. # (M)2207 PMG Very Fine 25.
A great Indiana rarity that is one of only nine $50 Brown Backs reported for all banks in the state combined, one of which is locked away in the Federal Reserve Bank of San Francisco. Two of that scant number are in the census from this scarce Boonville bank, including this offering which is making its first public appearance since a 2001 auction. It is a lovely example for the grade with balanced margins, sharp ink colors, and bold pen signatures. It is truly a pleasing mid-grade example of this very scarce type and denomination.

Newly Reported Cloverdale Small Size

20485 Cloverdale, IN - $20 1929 Ty. 1 The First National Bank Ch. # 10465 PMG Choice Fine 15.
Last year, we were fortunate enough to offer the second reported small size from this excessively rare Putnam County bank and the first note from here to ever appear at public sale. It was a $10 housed in a PMG Very Fine 35 EPQ holder and fetched a strong $12,000. As is often the case, strong realizations tend to bring more notes "out of the woodwork" and that is the situation tonight. This $20 becomes the third note reported from this tough charter and presents a great opportunity for last year's disappointed underbidders. It exhibits a bit more circulation than last year's $10, but maintains solid paper for the grade. The back right margin holds a numeric annotation.

This is one of just six notes known from this very scarce bank, which received its charter at the very end of the First Charter period. The institution issued First Charters, Red Seals, and 1902 Date Backs before bowing out in 1910. Interestingly, four of the six known notes are 1875 $20s, including this example that is making its first appearance since our 2006 FUN auction. A lovely Serial Number 1 Red Seal from this scarce large-only bank, this piece is crossing the auction block for the first time since 2003. Called Choice CU back then, this pen-signed beauty hides any evidence of circulation very well within its PMG holder as it displays bright paper and bold ink colors. It is one of only about three dozen Number 1 Red Seals reported from all Indiana banks.

20568 Trafalgar, IN - $10 1902 Plain Back Fr. 624 The Farmers National Bank Ch. # (M)7491 PMG Choice Fine 15.
A very scarce note from this community's only issuer, it represents a bank that was only in business from 1904 until the receiver arrived in 1931. It is one of just five large size reported (with no small) and it is being publicly offered for the first time. The only $10 in the census, it is a circulated but solid note that retains a bold stamped President's signature.

One of fewer than a dozen pieces reported, this is a more than acceptable example of this scarce type and denomination. This Porter County bank issued 1875 $10s and $20s only between 1882 and the expiration of its charter in 1902. It faces up nicely with pleasing color and dark pen signatures. It does have some tape repairs and rust stains, but those flaws are confined primarily to the back.

A bright and attractive example of a much tougher denomination from this popular hoard bank that is known for a sizable quantity of 1875 $5s and $10s. However, this offering is one of just three 1875 $20s reported from this charter and it is crossing the auction block for the first time since a 2003 Smythe sale. A great note from a scarce southern Indiana bank, this is one of just three Red Seals in the census and one of just nine large size overall reported. It is the first Red Seal from this charter to be publicly offered in over ten years and is also a note that traces its provenance to a 1987 Hickman-Oakes sale. The Inter-State lived up to its name as it moved from Kansas City, Kansas to Kansas City, Missouri in 1911. Tonight's offering is an attractive Serial Number 1 example bearing this bank's first title. It is the only Number 1 note known from its Kansas location. Obviously a family affair, this note is signed by bank officers D.C. Lake and Anna Lake. Just three single notes are reported, along with an uncut sheet that is in wretched condition. That scant total includes this piece that has an unusual distinction - it is from the last sheet of notes issued by this bank shortly before its liquidation on February 1, 1898. Very Rare Bethel, ME Small Size - Finest of Four Reported

20609 Bethel, ME - $10 1929 Ty. 1 The Bethel National Bank Ch. # 7613 PMG About Uncirculated 55.
This lovely note is easily the finest of four small size reported from this very rare Maine bank. It was the only note-issuing bank that operated in this remote mountain locale that had just $9,900 outstanding in both large and small size in 1935. It is a bright and fresh note with wonderful color and only light handling. Based upon the skewed position of its serial numbers, it also has the distinction of being from a replacement sheet. Close observation also reveals that the "C" prefix letter in each serial number was printed in a different font. Two years ago, we auctioned another $10 from this always popular charter, in a PMG 25 holder, for $6,000.

It is one of just three small size reported from the sole issuer in this remote Maine location and the only one of that trio to have ever graced one of our auctions. Hailing from a bank that was closed by the receiver in 1934, this pleasing mid-grade $10 exhibits just honest wear.

A simply spectacular note from a rare Massachusetts bank which issued First Charters and Brown Backs only before liquidating in 1905. The census shows just six examples extant, including this piece, which is one of four Series 1875 tens from the same sheet. The first note from this bank to be publicly offered in almost twelve years, this example traces its provenance to The Amon Carter Collection and was last on the market in 2007 when it fetched almost $20,000. (Interestingly, Track & Price says it sold for $18,400 while the National Currency Foundation census claims it brought $19,200.) While that price (whatever the actual number) might seem high, this is truly a monster of a note, with near perfect face centering, fantastic color, gorgeous pen signatures, incredible eye appeal, and great historical significance, as its title refers to the Bunker Hill memorial monument in Charlestown. This is a real peach of a note fit for the finest of collections.

This note possesses the very rarest of Treasury signature combinations, that of Noah L. Jeffries and Francis E. Spinner. A great Minnesota rarity, this piece hails from a Minneapolis bank that was only in business from 1902 until its liquidation in 1911. Just three notes, spread across two titles, are known from this short-lived charter. This beautiful Red Seal represents the “more common” of the two titles, as it is one of just two notes reported bearing the bank’s first title which was used from only 1902 to 1905. It is a lovely note with rich ink colors, dark pen signatures, and fancy serial number 888 as a bonus.

One of Two Known

20662 Ackerman, MS - $10 1902 Date Back Fr. 618 The First National Bank Ch. # (S)9251 PMG Very Fine 25 EPQ.
This is a great Mississippi rarity that is one of just two examples reported from the only issuer in rural Choctaw County. The First National was a short-lived affair, opening its doors in 1908 and operating only until the receiver arrived in 1923. At that time, the bank had a mere $920 outstanding. To date, just two notes have been reported - a $10 Plain Back in a PMG Very Fine 20 holder, with mention of impairments, that we auctioned in 2022 for $3,120 and this $10 Date Back, which is crossing the auction block for the first time since a 1983 Herb Melnick sale. It is an attractive, well printed piece with excellent color and fully original paper surfaces. It presents another opportunity for the Mississippi collectors to obtain this very rare charter.

This great note hails from a very rare northern Mississippi bank. It is one of just three pieces reported, all three of which we have now been privileged to offer in the past five years. It comes from Iuka's only National Bank, an institution which was in business for a mere three years before bowing out in early 1915 after issuing what can charitably be described as "pocket change." This $20 is the finest of the three as the other two known notes are both housed in PMG Very Fine 25 holders. It displays bright paper and bold ink colors with just some paper scuffing in the President's signature area. Two years ago, we auctioned one of the PMG 25-graded notes from here for $4,500.

It is an evenly circulated piece with a sharp red overprint and bold pen signatures, and would make a perfect example for any advanced Mississippi or state capital collection. PMG does mention pinholes, but they are not at all distracting.

20672 Jackson, MS - $50 1902 Date Back Fr. 674 The State National Bank Ch. # (S)10463 PMG Choice Fine 15.
This great Mississippi rarity is not only one of just three $50 Date Backs reported for the entire state, it is also one of just two pieces reported from an obscure capital city bank that was only in business for eleven months in 1913 and 1914. It is a true miracle of survival as this short-lived institution issued only 40 examples of this high denomination. Bearing low number 39, this $50 displays nice color, even wear, and legible pen signatures. An extremely rare note from the only bank in this small Claiborne County town. This bank, which issued Brown Backs only before disappearing in 1907, was unknown prior to the discovery of a pair of notes two serial numbers apart in 2005. This offering was one of that pair and it last crossed the public auction block in our 2005 Long Beach auction. An incredible rarity, this is the only note reported from this small southern Mississippi town that is located near the Louisiana state line. Summit was the host to two note-issuing banks - Charter 9753 which opened in 1910 and closed three years later in 1913 and its successor, Charter 10338, which itself closed just two years later in 1915. To date, the latter charter remains unreported while just one piece is recorded from the first chartered bank - the $5 Date Back we are pleased to offer this evening. Crossing the auction block for the first time, it is quite attractive for the assigned grade with bright paper, bold ink colors, and legible stamped signatures. This is a great Southern note that should generate serious bidding interest tonight.

Another example of this incredibly rare Mississippi type and denomination that is one of just four 1902 $50 Date Backs reported from this southern state. The only such piece in the census from this Vicksburg bank, this moderately circulated example faces up nicely for the grade with some evidence of a previous mounting on the back.

20695 Rolla, MO - $5 1875 Fr. 406 The National Bank of Rolla Ch. # 1865 PCGS Very Fine 30.
This attractive note hails from a popular Phelps County bank that has an interesting census compilation. Just five First Charter notes - all 1875 $5s - are reported from this institution - one of which is in the Higgins Museum while the other four, including this offering, are all from the same sheet. Even more interesting, of the four notes from that cut sheet, only this piece has ever appeared at public sale. To further add to its appeal, the signature combination found on this note, that of Bruce and Wyman, is very rare with only five examples reported for Friedberg number 406. It has a small edge tear and its margins are slightly miscut, but, otherwise, this is a bright example with great color, bold signatures, and an exceptionally ornate title layout for a First Charter.

It is one of only 13 1875 $10s reported for the entire state and one of just four from any St. Louis bank, according to the National Currency Foundation census. Three of the four come from St. Louis, with one piece extant from The Third National Bank and two hailing from The Valley National Bank. Interestingly, the only two surviving notes overall from the Valley National, a short-lived issuer from 1871 to 1885, are both Original Series $20s. This offering has a litany of flaws enumerated on the PCGS holder, but this rare piece still displays bright paper, bold signatures, and attractive color.

Scarce Reserve, MT Small Size First Public Offering Since 2001

20702 Reserve, MT - $10 1929 Ty. 1 The First National Bank Ch. # 10986 PMG Very Fine 30.
This is a great Montana note that hails from one of the smallest communities to ever host a National Bank. Located in the northeast corner of Montana and named for the nearby Fort Peck Indian Reservation, this tiny locale had a population of a mere 33 souls in the 2020 Census. It was home to one note-issuing bank which currently has a surviving population of just one large and a dozen or so small size examples. However, they must be tightly held, as no small size has made a public appearance since a 2001 auction. This new addition to the census therefore provides a great opportunity for today's generation of collectors. It is a bright and crisp $10 displaying just even wear.

20710 Guttenberg, NJ - $10 1902 Red Seal Fr. 615 The First National Bank Ch. # (E)8390 PCGS Very Choice New 64.
This is a truly lovely Red Seal from this large-only Hudson County bank that we had the privilege of offering in our inaugural auction in November of 1990. It is a pen-signed beauty with bright, white paper and a bold red overprint that appears to have been applied this morning. We later offered this pretty note in our auction of The Tom Flynn Collection in 2008 where it fetched a very strong $12,650. We certainly do not expect that realization tonight, but considering it is just as beautiful today as when we first laid eyes upon it 35 years ago, it should still generate plenty of bidding interest.

A great South Jersey note from one of the scarcest banks in the entire state. This was the sole issuer in this small Atlantic County community, with appearances from here of any kind few and far between. In fact, tonight's offering is one of only six small size reported, and the only piece that has crossed auction block since 2007. This attractive $10 displays even wear and original surfaces.

This very appealing set of three Serial Number 1 notes from this late-chartering Albuquerque bank represents all three denominations issued by this charter for the Type 2 series. While long listed in the census, each of these Number 1 notes is crossing the auction block for the first time. They have varying degrees of storage folds and the $20 has minor evidence of a previous mounting, but all three still display bold ink colors and plenty of original embossing. Settled a century earlier than the Nevada version, this town was the host to two national banks, including the First National which issued large notes only before the receiver arrived in 1925. This is one of a dozen Territorial notes reported from this charter, just four of which are 1882 Date Backs. Nice color and solid paper are found on this pleasing mid-grade note.

This is a quite lovely example of this very rare type and denomination that, surprisingly, hails from a small upstate New York bank. The National Currency Foundation census enumerates just 43 Original Series $100s for the entire country with seven of those pieces coming from California National Gold Banks, while three others are ensconced in institutional holdings. Just eight are reported from New York State banks - six from New York City charters (one of which is held by the Federal Reserve Bank of Richmond), one from Kingston, and the note we are offering this evening. PCGS Banknote has mentioned minor restorations on this pretty note but any such repairs are not at all distracting. The center vignette with the signing of the Declaration of Independence on the back is bold and fully detailed. On the face, not only are the printed details sharply defined, the Treasury seal is very bold as are the bank officers' pen signatures. By way of comparison, we auctioned a PMG Very Fine 30 example from Williamsport, PA four years ago which brought $66,000. This clearly superior piece should certainly exceed that realization.

While the serial numbers of all four notes are listed in the census, neither Track & Price nor the National Currency Foundation census has it designated as an uncut sheet. This offering hails from a very scarce Broome County bank which issued First Charters and Brown Backs only before being forced to liquidate in 1903 under less than ideal circumstances. This Original Series Ace is one of only six pieces in the census and is one of just two notes from here to have crossed the public auction block in the past 50 years. It is an attractive, mid-grade example with a bold red overprint and dark pen signatures. PCGS has noted a small edge split at bottom center which can only be found after close scrutiny.

An excessively rare Erie County example, this piece comes from one of the most difficult locations in the Empire State from which to obtain a National Bank Note. This community's sole issuer was only in business from 1911 until 1916. Just three notes are reported extant from this charter: the $20 we are offering this evening, a $10 which last appeared on the auction block in 2010, and a $20 which was Lot 2190 in the fabled Albert Grinnell sale and which has not been seen in the intervening 80 years. This moderately circulated $20 has had some repair work, but retains a pleasing appearance with good color and clear pen signatures. This is a great Upstate New York National.

As is typical of many communities on Long Island, Huntington had a population of 10,000 when this Red Seal was issued, but today, it has a population of 200,000. Gem Uncut Large Size Sheet

20731 New York, NY - $5-$5-$5-$5 1902 Plain Back Fr. 598 The National Park Bank Ch. # 891 Uncut Sheet PMG Gem Uncirculated 65 EPQ.
The National Park Bank issued over 999,999 sheets of 1902 $5s. Therefore it became one of the few banks in the country that had to go to having an “A” prefix tacked onto its later serial numbers for $5 notes. The “A” prefix serial number sheet presented here also carries U4-V4-W4-X4 plate letters. This shows how many plates were used to print this denomination for this bank as this is at the very end of the fourth time through the alphabet for $5 plates. This well preserved sheet, which displays bold embossing, wide margins, and nice color, is one of three uncut sheets documented from this bank with the A prefix serial numbers.

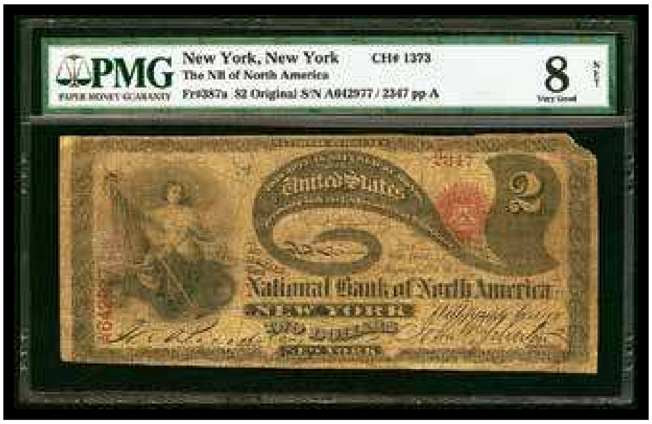
Very Rare Ch. 1373 New York City Lazy Deuce



20733 New York, NY - $2 Original Fr. 387a The National Bank of North America Ch. # 1373 PMG Very Good 8 Net.
This is a very rare note that represents one of the tougher New York City banks, a charter that was only in business from 1865 until 1869. To date, just four notes are reported - three Original Series Aces and the Lazy Deuce that we are offering this evening. It has seen its share of circulation and has a missing corner, but it is also the only note from this rare charter to have been publicly offered in over ten years.

Croton River National Bank
South East

20739 South East, NY - $1 Original Fr. 380a The Croton River National Bank Ch. # 830 PCGS Fine 15.
This offering is from a very scarce Putnam County bank that issued only Original Series notes for nine years before liquidating in 1874. Eleven survivors are listed in the latest census with most of them in rather well worn condition. On the other hand, this Ace displays even wear, ample margins, and attractive signatures. PCGS has noted a couple of repaired edge splits, but they can only be found after close examination.

This beautiful offering is certainly an extraordinary North Carolina note in every respect. First, it is the one of only a dozen Original Series Fives reported from all North Carolina banks, according to the National Currency Foundation census. Second, the colors are wonderful and the note displays only the barest traces of any real circulation, making it one of the finest First Charter Fives known from the Tarheel State. PMG mentions a minor repair in the right margin which does nothing to affect the overall eye appeal of this great North Carolina note.

While this is hardly a rare bank, this is one of just four recorded $5 Brown Backs from this major Charlotte issuer, and bears a great "circus poster" title layout, a rare occurrence for a North Carolina bank. This is a pleasing, moderately circulated example with nice color and dark signatures. PMG mentions a minor tear which is not at all distracting.

A very nice example with great eye appeal, this is a very scarce type and denomination from North Carolina. It comes from a bank that issued only 1875 $5s during its brief existence from 1876 to 1896, and, thanks to a small hoard of about ten notes (now well dispersed), it is much more available than a typical bank of such short duration should be. This offering is one of the better survivors from that group and is a solid, well margined note with great color and signatures. It is an ideal candidate to represent the Tar Heel State in a set of state First Charter notes.

A significant North Carolina rarity that is newly reported and which is being offered to the collecting fraternity for the first time. It comes a bank that issued only Red Seals and Date Backs during its brief existence from 1907 until 1913. Prior to the surfacing of this Red Seal, no notes had been reported from this charter that had maintained a circulation of just $25,000. It is an attractive, well margined note with solid paper and a bold red overprint. Its only flaw is some staining, which is unimportant given the note's rarity. This rare North Carolina note should generate serious bidding interest tonight.

This is a lovely note from a very scarce High Point bank which issued Brown Backs and Red Seals only before liquidating in 1907. Fewer than a dozen notes are known, spread over two titles with this pretty $5 Brown Back representing the more "common" first title. PMG has added a comment about margin tears, but they appear to be a couple tiny splits in the wide top margin which do not detract at all from the overall appearance of this boldly printed, well signed note.

This offering is a very scarce note from a bank that was the only issuer in this tiny Griggs County location. This $10 features attractive color and bold stamped signatures.
Starting Bid: $1,000

20790 Harvey, ND - $10 1882 Date Back Fr. 545 The First National Bank Ch. # (W)5488 PMG Very Fine 30.

20791 Hatton, ND - $20 1929 Ty. 1 The Farmers & Merchants National Bank Ch. # 7905 PMG Very Fine 30.
A very tough Traill County bank, this issuer currently has only around a dozen small size reported. It also has a mere two large in the census, neither of which has ever made a public appearance which leaves the 1929 Series notes as the only viable option for today's collectors. This offering is a crisp mid-grade $20 with some light staining on its back.
Starting Bid: $500

20792 Hebron, ND - $20 1902 Plain Back Fr. 657 The First National Bank Ch. # 10741 PMG Very Fine 25.
A very rare large size note from the only bank to issue in this tiny Morton County locale, this is one of just four pieces in the census. However, of those four notes, two have never appeared at public sale, one other was last seen in the dispersal of The Glen Jorde Collection in 2013, and the fourth, the piece we are offering this evening, was last on the market in our 2010 Central States auction. It is a bright and crisp $20 displaying bold stamped signatures with its only flaw being a small tear in the bottom margin.
Starting Bid: $1,000

This piece is the only 1882 $20 Date Back reported and it is making its first auction appearance since our 2010 Central States auction. This is a tougher type and denomination for North Dakota with fewer than two dozen examples reported for all banks.

20795 Kulm, ND - $10 1902 Plain Back Fr. 632 First National Bank Ch. # 11069 PMG Very Fine 25.
A moderately circulated note, this piece hails from a downright rare La Moure County bank that was only in business from 1917 until 1931. To date, just four large have been recorded from here, only one of which has ever crossed the public auction block. Kulm is an obscure spot on the map of the North Dakota prairie with a current population of 354 and, needless to say, the First National was its only issuer. This evenly circulated $10 exhibits nice color and bold purple stamped signatures.

20801 Lisbon, ND - $50 1902 Date Back Fr. 669 The First National Bank Ch. # (W)3669 PMG Very Fine 25.
For some unknown reason, this small town bank in rural southeastern North Dakota elected to issue only fives, fifties and hundreds during the Third Charter period. Three fives are reported, none of which have ever been publicly offered. That trio of fives is accompanied by two $50 Date Backs and two $100 Date Backs in the census. Interestingly, the two $50 Date Backs are the only examples of this type and denomination reported from North Dakota. One of those two pieces, in a PMG Very Fine 30 Net holder, sold for over $7,500 in the dispersal of The Glen Jorde Collection in 2013, while the other is being offered this evening. It is a pleasing mid-grade example with nice color and clear pen signatures.

20804 McClusky, ND - $10 1929 Ty. 1 The First National Bank Ch. # 8881 PMG Choice Fine 15.

It is just the fifth small size to be reported from here (along with a solitary large note) and is the first 1929 Series example to be publicly offered since the sale of The Glen Jorde Collection in 2013. This $10 exhibits just plenty of honest wear.

Starting Bid: $750

Although seven large examples from this one bank town are known, just two have ever appeared at public sale, including this $10 that has been off the market since our 2010 ANA auction. This pen signed example displays just plenty of honest wear.
Starting Bid: $1,000

20809 Page, ND - $20 1929 Ty. 1 The First National Bank Ch. # 6463 PMG Very Fine 20.
While nine small size are reported from this Cass County bank, they must be tightly held as just one piece has ever crossed the public auction block and that offering was over ten years ago. This moderately circulated $20 has solid paper with some staining noted by PMG.
Starting Bid: $625

20810 Petersburg, ND - $10 1902 Plain Back Fr. 632 The First National Bank Ch. # 11185 PMG Extremely Fine 40.
A lovely note from this very rare North Dakota bank, this is one of only six large reported and easily the finest known. The First National was the sole issuer in this obscure community of 200 people and was only in business from 1918 until its closure in 1930. This pretty note is a bright and original piece with vibrant color and dark pen signatures. Its only flaw is an insignificant edge tear in the bottom margin which is undoubtedly the sole reason PMG did not award its EPQ designation to this North Dakota rarity.

20814 Scranton, ND - $20 1902 Date Back Fr. 648 The First National Bank Ch. # (W)10405 PMG Very Fine 25.
A very rare note from the sole issuer in this tiny community in southwestern North Dakota. The First National, which operated in this locale (current population 284) from 1913 until 1931, presently has just four large and one small extant, including the $20 Date Back we are offering this evening. It exhibits nice color and bold stamped signatures. PMG just mentions a minor restoration. However, after close scrutiny, the restoration appears to be nothing more than a closed edge split which truly affects nothing on this great North Dakota rarity.

One of only nine large to be enumerated from this Butler County bank is offered here. The village was named for the Sevenmile (sic) Creek that runs in the area. Bold pen signatures are of Cashier J(ames) E(dward) Bell and President C.K. Jacoby. They served in these two capacities from 1919-31. Mr. Bell's wife, Anna Kirkland Bell, was the Assistant Cashier of this charter number during this time period. Series 1902 notes are also known with her penned signature. Stains mentioned on the back label appear to be soiling as we were able to originally view this note in hand before it was recently sent to PMG.

This is a great new discovery from one of the most difficult Oklahoma locations from which to obtain a National Bank Note. This tiny Ottawa County community (current population - 700) was the host to two note-issuing banks, one of which is unreported while the second has just two notes in the census. Neither of those two notes has ever been publicly offered. Therefore, this welcome new addition from the second bank finally provides an opportunity for one collector to obtain a note from this heretofore unavailable locale. It is a pleasing, evenly circulated example with just plenty of honest wear.

A lovely note from this Woods County bank, this is easily the finest of three Territorial Brown Backs reported from this charter. It bears the second title from this scarce bank and is one of two Brown Backs with this title. More importantly, this is the only one of those three Territorial notes to have made a public appearance since we auctioned a Serial Number 1 example of the first title for $48,875 in 2009. This piece, which features wonderful color and fully original surfaces, fetched $22,325 in our 2015 Long Beach auction and, considering its rarity and beauty, could certainly approach that realization again.

20858 Frederick, OT - $10 1902 Red Seal Fr. 614 The City National Bank Ch. # (W)8206 PMG Very Fine 30 EPQ.
A great note that will surely excite the many Oklahoma and Territorial collectors, this is the first piece to be reported from this short-lived SW Oklahoma issuer that was only in business from May of 1906 until its liquidation in June of 1909. During that brief three-year period, this charter issued a mere 259 sheets of both Territorial and State Red Seals and it had only $2,830 outstanding as of 1910. Not surprisingly, until recently, no surviving examples had ever been reported from this institution. That all changed with the discovery of this very attractive Territorial Red Seal that we are pleased to offer this evening. It is a bright and original $10 that retains virtually all of original ink colors as well as displaying bold signatures, including that of the bank's assistant cashier. It appears to have never really circulated, but just acquired some storage folds when it was likely tucked away by a proud bank employee. Any estimate of a unique Territorial Red Seal is a simply a guess, so we will be conservative and let the bidders decide who takes home this Oklahoma trophy note tonight.

A significant Oklahoma rarity, this is one of only 35 Serial Number 1 Territorial Brown Backs reported for the entire country. Almost half of that number are from Oklahoma banks, a statistical anomaly that is not surprising due to the unusually large number of thinly capitalized banks that opened (and quickly closed) their doors in the early days of Oklahoma (and Indian) Territory. Nonetheless, this is a very rare piece of Oklahoma history that should generate serious bidding interest tonight. From the "A" plate position, this pretty note still retains its full top selvage as well as excellent color and dark pen signatures. PMG has noted some slight toning to the paper which was likely the result of spending some time in a picture frame in the office of a proud bank employee, but it does not detract at all from the rarity and desirability of this rare Territorial note.

Unique for the Bank

20905 Lock Haven, PA - $5 Original Fr. 397a The Lock Haven National Bank Ch. # 1273 PCGS Banknote Very Fine 25.
A unique note from the second of three national banks chartered in Lock Haven. Track & Price lists an incorrect population of two known for this charter number. However, our current offering is the only note that has ever surfaced from this Clinton County bank. The reason for the incorrect census listing is because the serial number of 2838-B on the PCGS Banknote holder is incorrect, while earlier this note had the correct serial of 2338-B stated when it was in a PCGS Currency holder. We will notify T&P to correct their enumeration. Also, the National Bank Note Census is correct for charter number 1273. PCGS Currency noticed restorations when they graded this note, but the sealing of the center vertical tear was well executed and is only detectable when the note is backlit. Officers are Cashier L(yons) Mussina and President L(evi) A. Mackay. They managed this bank from the time it opened in 1865 until its demise in 1877. Cashier Mussina lived to be 94 years old and died on November 9, 1921. His obituary in part reads, "as Cashier of the Lock Haven National Bank and through the experience thus gained in handling paper currency, he became so expert that he could instantly detect a counterfeit bill, about the genuineness of which other bankers would be in doubt. It has been said of him that he could distinguish a counterfeit bill from a good one with his eyes closed. He came to be regarded as an authority on currency far and wide, and was frequently called upon by bankers from a distance to pass judgement on bills."

20922 Carthage, TN - $10 1902 Date Back Fr. 617 The First National Bank Ch. # (S)7928 PMG Very Fine 25.
A wonderful Tennessee rarity, this is the sole example known from this obscure Smith County location. Best known as the hometown of former Vice President Al Gore, Carthage once briefly hosted one national bank - the only note issuer in the entire county. That entity opened in 1905, issued a handful of Third Charter notes for 13 years, and then closed its doors in 1918. Despite decades of searching, only this $10 has surfaced from this very rare bank. It is as attractive as it is rare with bright paper, a bold blue overprint, and black pen signatures. Its only flaw is a repaired top right corner which is hardly noticeable. This is a great note for the Tennessee specialist or anyone who appreciates rare Nationals.
Starting Bid: $5,000

20923 Centreville, TN - $20 1929 Ty. 1 The First National Bank Ch. # 3288 PMG Very Fine 25.

A scarce western Tennessee bank, this institution is represented in the census by two large notes and a dozen small size, six of which are tied up in an uncut sheet that has not been seen in decades. Tonight's offering is the first 1929 Series example to make a public appearance since 2012. It is a well margined $20 showing just even wear.

Starting Bid: $750

20924 Chattanooga, TN - $10 1875 Fr. 416 The First National Bank Ch. # 1606 PMG Choice Fine 15.

A great Tennessee note, this is not only one of just a dozen First Charter $10s known for all banks in this state, but it is also the only First Charter note of any denomination recorded for this major Chattanooga bank. Crossing the auction block for the first time, it is pleasing, evenly circulated, and solid with attractive color and legible pen signatures.

Starting Bid: $1,500

20925 Chattanooga, TN - $5 1882 Brown Back Fr. 469 The First National Bank Ch. # (S)1606 PMG Very Fine 20.

Certainly not a rare Chattanooga bank, but this offering is only the second Brown Back to be reported and the first $5. It is a pleasing, well margined example with nice color and dark printed signatures.

Newly Reported and Very Attractive Chattanooga Red Seal

20926 Chattanooga, TN - $5 1902 Red Seal Fr. 588 The First National Bank Ch. # (S)1606 PMG Choice Very Fine 35.

Certainly not a scarce Chattanooga bank, but this lovely note is just the third Red Seal to be reported from this charter and is easily the finest of that trio. Crossing the auction block for the first time, it is a bright, well embossed note with a bold red overprint and clear stamped signatures.

Starting Bid: $1,250

Tonight, we are pleased to offer this great Tennessee rarity that is not only just one of two notes known from this short-lived issuer but also one of only ten 1875 10s recorded for the entire Volunteer State, according to the National Currency Foundation census. The Third National opened in 1871 and then shuttered its doors forever in 1902 leaving just two survivors - this $10 and a 1875 $20 which has not made a public appearance since the sale of the Albert Grinnell collection in the 1940s. This $10 is also an attractive note with balanced margins, pleasing color, and bold pen signatures. PMG has mentioned some minor edge repairs but they are not readily apparent and have no impact on this note's rarity and desirability.

This is a very important Tennessee rarity that is one of only four $100 Brown Backs reported for the entire state. Even more important, it is the only one of the four to have appeared at public sale since 1984 when an example from Memphis appeared in a Herb Melnick sale. This offering traces its provenance to Hickman-Oakes' sale of the Bob Medlar Brown Back collection in 1987 and was last on the market in a 2009 auction where it sold for over $50,000. It is a beautiful note with bright paper, blazing ink colors, and dark pen signatures. PMG has mentioned minor ink burn and pinholes, but those trivialities are of no consequence when analyzing the overall eye appeal of this Tennessee trophy note. This wonderful example will be a centerpiece of the next collection it enters.

This is a very rare note that bears one of the greatest names to be found on a National Bank Note. This bank was the sole issuer in this eastern Tennessee community that was the site of a protracted labor struggle in the 1890s that became known as the Coal Creek War, as miners attempted to prevent the use of unpaid convict labor in the nearby coal mines. This offering is just the fourth large size to be reported from this charter and only the second example to ever be publicly offered. It exhibits just plenty of honest wear and retains decent color and solid paper.

That is not the case here as this $10 is a crisp mid-grade note with nice color and bold stamped signatures.

The only bank in this small community, this charter was in business from just 1912 until its liquidation in 1931. This offering is a bright and crisp $10 with sharp ink colors and dark pen signatures. PMG has noted some rust stains that have been lightened, but which are not distracting at all on this appealing example.

First Ever Small Size Public Offering

20935 Elizabethton, TN - $20 1929 Ty. 1 The Holston National Bank Ch. # 10976 PMG Very Fine 30.
Rather available in large size, but this Elizabethton bank, which failed in 1932, has been virtually unobtainable in small as none of the six pieces in the census has ever appeared at public sale. This newly reported $20, therefore, provides an opportunity for one collector to finally obtain a 1929 Series note from this Carter County bank. This offering is a crisp mid-grade piece with even wear.

A wholly original and boldly inked Serial Number 1 example from this Tennessee bank, this note certainly has enough margins to qualify for its assigned Gem grade. The census number is misleading for this bank, as it includes three sheets, at least one of which was cut. The Hamilton portrait matches the bank title on this boldly embossed $10.

20940 Kingston, TN - $5 1929 Ty. 1 The First National Bank Ch. # 12319 PMG Very Fine 30 EPQ.
A wonderful new addition to the census of this obscure one-bank location in rural Roane County is offered here. This short-lived issuer was only in business from 1922 until the receiver arrived on Christmas Eve in 1931. Prior to this evening, just two small size were reported, only one of which had ever made a public appearance. This new entrant is a bright and original piece that exhibits just even wear. It certainly compares favorably to the PMG Very Fine 35 example that we auctioned two years ago for $3,240.

20949 Spring City, TN - $10 1902 Date Back Fr. 618 The First National Bank Ch. # (S)9470 PMG Very Fine 20.
Another wonderful Tennessee rarity that is only the third note to be reported for this bank and the first to ever appear at public sale. The First National was the only bank to issue in this rural east Tennessee location and it was only in business from 1909 until 1916. To date, just two pieces had been reported, both of which have been tied up in long-term holdings. Therefore, this new entrant to the census is a great opportunity for one fortunate collector to finally acquire a note from this rare town. It is a bright, pen signed $10 Date Back with bold ink colors and a fancy solid bank serial number of 777. Repairs of rust holes were well executed on this Rhea County $10. Backlighting the note brings into view a solitary repair in the right margin. There are also several repairs in the left margin and extending into the portrait frame, but not affecting McKinley's portrait. There is also a repair immediately to the left of the Spring City tombstone.

The last appearance of a note from here was in our 2016 Long Beach auction where an impaired PMG Very Good 10 Net Plain Back realized $9,600. UTAH

20966 Layton, UT - $20 1929 Ty. 1 The First National Bank Ch. # 7685 PMG Choice Very Fine 35.
A most attractive small size $20, this piece hails from an elusive Utah bank that was managed by family members L.E. and E.P. Ellison. The only Series 1929 example from this charter to have made a public appearance since 2015, it is a bright, well margined note with traces of original embossing.

Scarce Utah Territory Brown Back

20967 Salt Lake City, UT - $10 1882 Brown Back Fr. 487 The Deseret National Bank Ch. # 2059 PMG Fine 12.
An evenly circulated and well margined Territorial Brown Back from this always popular Utah bank which is well known for a sizable quantity of surviving First Charter aces, this note represents a much scarcer type and denomination as it is one of only four Territorial $10 Brown Backs reported. It exhibits decent color and solid paper for the grade along with legible pen signatures.
Starting Bid: $2,500

20968 Bennington, VT - $5 1882 Brown Back Fr. 466 The First National Bank Ch. # 130 PMG Choice Very Fine 35 EPQ.
A lovely example from this early-chartering Vermont bank, this is the finest of four Brown Backs of any denomination known from this charter by a wide margin. It is a bright, boldly printed $5 with original surfaces.

Newly Reported Chelsea Original Series Ace

20969 Chelsea, VT - $1 Original Fr. 380a The Orange County National Bank Ch. # 1004 PMG Very Fine 25 Net.
A wonderful new discovery from this very rare Vermont bank that was only in business from 1865 until 1873, this is the first of three great notes from this Orange County community that we are pleased to offer this evening. Prior to this auction, just one note from here had ever crossed the public auction block - a Deuce that we auctioned in 1995 and which is being offered in the next lot tonight. Track & Price does record a very low Ace that purportedly appeared on an internet auction site several years ago, but which is not listed in the National Currency Foundation census. Therefore, this newly surfaced piece presents a great opportunity for today's Green Mountain State collectors. It is a bright and attractive note with great color and bold pen signatures. PMG has noted some repaired tears and a reattached corner, but those flaws do little to detract from the overall eye appeal of this rare Vermont note.
Starting Bid: $1,250

Attractive and Rare Chelsea Lazy Deuce - First Offering Since 1995

20970 Chelsea, VT - $2 Original Fr. 387a The Orange County National Bank Ch. # 1004 PMG Very Fine 25.
A second note from this excessively rare Chelsea bank, this piece is making its first public appearance since we were privileged to offer it in our October 1995 PCDA auction. It has the typical New England trim and minor repairs, but, otherwise, it has great eye appeal with wonderful color and beautiful pen signatures. This is a truly rare Vermont note that will appeal to the Green Mountain State collectors or anyone that appreciates attractive Lazy Deuces.
Starting Bid: $3,700

20971 Chelsea, VT - $1 Original Fr. 382a The First National Bank Ch. # 2120 PMG Very Fine 20.
An evenly circulated and solid Original Series Ace from this very scarce Vermont bank that issued First Charters only between 1873 and 1893. It is an attractive mid-grade piece with nice color and has somehow avoided the typical New England trim.
Starting Bid: $1,250

Newly Reported Chelsea Lazy Deuce

20972 Chelsea, VT - $2 1875 Fr. 393 The First National Bank Ch. # 2120 PMG Very Fine 30.
A third attractive and rare note from this Orange County location, this beautiful Lazy Deuce hails from a charter that was only in business from 1873 until 1893. It is just the fifth note to be reported from this issuer and the first example of this denomination to surface from this bank. While its margins are tight, it remains a quite lovely note with bold pen signatures and virtually all of its original ink colors. Another great Vermont rarity fit for the finest of collections. New England trim is mentioned on the PMG back label as this $2 was trimmed down in order for it to fit in the New England cash drawers of the era.
Starting Bid: $4,000

20973 Chelsea, VT - $5 1882 Brown Back Fr. 474 The National Bank of Orange County Ch. # 4929 PMG Very Fine 20.
This is just the third $5 Brown Back to be reported from this scarce Orange County bank that was closed by the receiver in 1934. It is a pleasing, pen signed example with solid paper and attractive color.
Starting Bid: $1,000

20974 Chelsea, VT - $5 1882 Date Back Fr. 534 The National Bank of Orange County Ch. # (N)4929 PMG Very Fine 25.
Another scarce early note from this tough Orange County bank, this 1882 $5 Date Back is the only such example reported from this institution. Last on the market in a 2001 auction, it is a colorful, well margined note with solid paper and clear signatures, one stamped and one signed.

A lovely Serial Number 1 example from this very tough Bedford County bank that is the only Number 1 note reported from this charter. Virginia is a very challenging state for Number 1 large size notes as evidenced by the fact that only four Number 1 Blue Seals are reported for all banks combined. This is a very important Virginia note fit for the finest of collections.

20988 Serial Number 1 Esmont, VA - $5 1902 Red Seal Fr. 588 The Esmont National Bank Ch. # (S)8003 PMG Very Fine 30.
A spectacular new addition to the census of this rare Albemarle County bank that is just the fifth Serial Number 1 Red Seal to be reported for all Virginia banks. It hails from a tough charter that was only in business from 1905 until 1933 and is also the first example of this type to be reported from here. This "A" plate position $5 has retained most of its top selvage with just a small piece missing that does not affect the note. PMG has also noted a few small rust stains which are trivial and do not affect the rarity and desirability of this great Virginia note. This wonderful Virginia rarity is certainly one of the highlights of tonight's auction and is worth whatever it takes to bring it home tonight.

Very Rare Virginia Original Series $20

21017 Richmond, VA - $20 Original Fr. 427 The First National Bank Ch. # 1111 PMG Very Fine 20.
This is an extreme Virginia rarity that is one of only five Original Series $20s reported from all banks in the state combined. Furthermore, according to the National Currency Foundation census, this is the first of that group to ever cross the public auction block. The only example of this rare type and denomination reported from this capital city bank, it is an attractive, evenly circulated note that has managed to avoid the problems usually encountered on these early Nationals. Displaying nice colors and signatures, this is a truly great note from the Old Dominion State.
Starting Bid: $3,700

21018 Richmond, VA - $10 1902 Red Seal Fr. 613 The First National Bank Ch. # (S)1111 PMG Very Fine 25.
This is a well printed Red Seal from this capital city bank that bears an always popular "Four Aces" charter number. Some light staining has been noted by PMG.

21019 Richmond, VA - $10 1902 Red Seal Fr. 615 National State Bank Ch. # (S)8666 PMG Very Fine 25 Net.
This is a moderately circulated example of a scarce capital city Red Seal that displays a bold red overprint and dark printed signatures. PMG has assigned a net grade for some repairs as well as a bit of staining on the back.
Starting Bid: $750

Finer of Just Two Reported for the Title

21020 Richmond, VA - $10 1902 Plain Back Fr. 628 The Manchester National Bank Ch. # (S)9663 PMG Very Fine 20.
This bank was originally organized in Manchester, a suburb of Richmond which later became part of the City of Richmond. It was only in business for eight years, using the Manchester location for just the first two. Just four notes are currently reported, split evenly between the two titles. This $10 is one of the two reported examples with the second title and is the finer of that pair. Its colors remain bright with some minor repairs in the margins and the signatures have been retraced.
Starting Bid: $2,000

Newly Reported Virginia Uncut Sheet

21021 Richmond, VA - $5-$5-$5-$5 1902 Plain Back Fr. 602 The Central National Bank Ch. # 10080 Uncut Sheet PMG Very Fine 30.
A great new discovery, this is the first reported large size uncut sheet from this capital city bank. It joins just two other large size uncut sheets known for the entire state of Virginia - a Third Charter sheet from Hot Springs and an uncut pair of high denomination Brown Backs from Lynchburg. It does have several folds, but its colors remain bright and the BEP-engraved signatures are dark and bold. This is definitely a quality item from this popular state.

While merely scarce in small size, this Loudon County charter is downright rare in large, with tonight's offering one of just three pieces in the census. However, of that trio, just one note has ever been offered at public sale and, with a minuscule $820 outstanding in 1935, few pieces are likely awaiting discovery. This example, which is crossing the auction block for the first time, is a bright and crisp $10 with nice color and legible stamped signatures. Its only flaw, save honest wear, is a small amount of a foreign substance on the back.

While this bank is not especially scarce in large size, small notes are another matter entirely, no doubt due to the bank's limited issue before entering receivership in 1931. This is one of just five Series 1929 examples reported and the only one of that quintet to have been publicly offered in over a dozen years. It is a pleasing mid-grade note showing just even wear.

Attractive and Rare Virginia 1875 $20

Another great Virginia rarity that is only the seventh 1875 $20 to be reported from all banks in the state. This is also the first piece to surface from this Staunton bank as all of the other six known examples of this type and denomination are from either Lynchburg or Roanoke. It is as pretty as it rare with bright paper, a bold red overprint, and dark pen signatures. This is a significant Virginia note fit for the finest of collections.

First Reported Victoria, VA Small Size

21033 Victoria, VA - $5 1929 Ty. 1 The First National Bank Ch. # 12183 PMG Very Fine 20.
A wonderful new discovery, this is the first small size to be reported from this Lunenburg County bank. This short-lived institution issued only the $5 denomination during its brief existence from 1922 until the receiver arrived in 1932. Prior to this evening, no Series 1929 examples had ever surfaced. This evenly circulated and well margined note, therefore, provides the chance for one fortunate collector to finally acquire a small size from this very tough charter.

We are pleased to offer this fantastic Virginia rarity that is making its first public appearance in 35 years. It is the only reported note from this short-lived issuer that was only in business from 1920 until 1929, when Vienna was a quiet little village of several hundred souls rather than the bustling DC suburb of today. This $10 Plain Back is from this community's sole issuer and is making its first public appearance since it last crossed the auction block in 1989. Fortunately, for collectors, it is an evenly circulated piece with just honest wear and bold pen signatures. For the first time in a generation, this offering presents a great opportunity for the many Virginia collectors to finally own a note from this rare and unique charter.

Salmon Chase appears on this 1862 $1 Legal Tender note. Chase, formerly Governor of Ohio, at this time was serving as Secretary of the Treasury and was one of the masterminds of the National Bank system which, in the space of a few years, completely supplanted the nation's previous state bank dominated system. It is also interesting to note the denomination medallion in the bottom margin. A close inspection reveals that the government had seriously considered issuing a $3 Legal Tender note. This example is clearly printed on good paper with excellent colors and decent margins and centering. The face margins are a bit askew, leaving the note not quite completely framed in the upper left and lower right corners. Still, this note need make no apologies for its condition.

"Series of 1880" is found in the top margin at center on the back, and the BEP imprint is located in the back bottom margin. Friedberg 28 notes have the series date in the back left margin, and the BEP imprint is found in the back right margin. So far, very few Fr. 28a pieces have been documented, with just eight examples listed in Track & Price, including this note which displays great color and just some light folds.

We auctioned one of those 66 EPQ notes in September 2020 and it brought $4,320. That was the last example at the 66 Gem grade level of any grading service to cross the auction block.

While not a particular rarity as a type, this note has several things going for it. It is well printed on bright paper with good surfaces and vibrant colors. 21088 Fr. 69 $5 1878 Legal Tender PMG Choice Uncirculated 63 EPQ.
Here is an attractive example of this one-year type that was represented by a total print run of just over six million notes. Serial number A1432222 hints at being slightly intriguing.

21119 Fr. 126c $20 1863 Legal Tender PCGS Very Fine 25.
Fr. 126c is one of the scarcest of the 1862 and 1863 Twenties. It is the variety with two serial numbers, both printed high on the note. This was a minor error on the part of the American Bank Note Company. The intention had been to place the right and left serial numbers at two different levels to increase the chances of a damaged fragment retaining its serial number. One of just nine serials listed in the census, this moderately circulated and still attractive example has just had some minor repairs.

21132 Fr. 151 $50 1869 Legal Tender PCGS Banknote Good 6 Details.
While this note will not win many beauty contests, the Series 1869 $50 "Rainbow" note has always proven to be very popular with collectors. The note features a vignette titled Return of Peace engraved by Charles Smith and a portrait of Henry Clay engraved by Alfred Sealey. A total of 604,000 examples of this design were printed. With this new addition, the Track & Price census now stands at around 72 surviving notes. The note's issues are pretty obvious. There are numerous tatters, tears, edge roughness, stains, and a tape- repaired reattached upper left corner. For collectors who can get past these impairments, this is an opportunity to own a major rarity at a more attractive price point.

An attractive, mid-grade example of the unusual-sized Refunding Certificate is offered here. Friedberg 214 notes were really circulating bonds that could be purchased by the average person through the Post Office. Banks put them aside in order to earn their interest, too. The interest was capped by Congress in 1907 and their value set at $21.30 each. At that time, there was no longer a need to hold onto them and most all were redeemed. This example has solid paper and nice margins with PMG citing a closed pinhole. It realized $6,600 in our October 2022 Long Beach auction.

The 1899 $2 design was the last large size $2 Silver Certificate type issued. Typical of the time, the design was a bit minimalist in character with lots of white space on both the face and back. Nonetheless, this note is still quite striking with vibrant colors, excellent paper, and margins and centering consistent with its grade.

A tougher $2 Silver star, this is one of only 16 replacement notes recorded for this Friedberg number. Its only grade limiting factor is a handful of light folds.

Vice President Thomas Andrews Hendricks, who passed away while serving his term, was commemorated with this $10 Silver. This note served as a memorial of sorts to Vice President Thomas Hendricks who died in office in November 1885. Ironically, the frame around Hendricks' portrait resembles a tombstone leading to this note being known as the Tombstone Note. The note features a large red spiked Treasury seal and retains it original colors including that of the very ornate green back. PCGS notes that the edges have been trimmed and that there is a small edge tear at right that is not glaringly obvious.

21206 Fr. 295 $10 1886 Silver Certificate PMG Very Fine 30.
The note in this lot is crossing our auction block for the first time. This Tombstone retains much of its original color, and both the green back and the large brown, scalloped treasury seal are especially bright. We have auctioned just a handful of VF 30s over the years, with the most recent, a PMG VF 30 with minor repairs, realizing $2,640 in October 2022. Finest Known $50 Richmond FRN

21320 Fr. 1041 $50 1914 Federal Reserve Note PCGS Extremely Fine 45.

Only 33 notes, including this piece, are recorded in the Track & Price census of this scarce Friedberg number from the Richmond district. There are none listed above a grade of Choice VF 35, making our current offering the sole finest known. The PMG Population Report offers a similar account, stating that PMG has graded no example above a VF 30. This piece is bold, with pleasing centering on both the face and back and bright swathes of blue and red silk fibers cascading down the back. The most comparable piece that we have auctioned in recent memory was a PMG VF 25 that realized $720 in August 2023. Our current offering, which has achieved a higher grade, should certainly attract considerable attention and attain a much higher bid.

A beautiful representative of the St. Louis district, this high denomination FRN possesses brilliant color and lovely serial number embossing. At center is a portrait of Ulysses S. Grant, the 18th President of the United States. He is also remembered for his service as the Commanding General of the U.S. Army, a position he held from 1864-69. PMG has bestowed upon this beauty its coveted EPQ designation. Opportunities to acquire this type in high grade are not afforded often.

The $50 Gold in this lot features a bright orange back which declares that this note was redeemable in “Fifty Dollars in Gold Coin.” There no meaningful condition impairments, and the note has minimal indications of circulation. We auctioned a PCGS Banknote AU 50 example in September 2024 for $4,080.

About Unc

21370 Fr. 1215 $100 1922 Gold Certificate PCGS Banknote About Unc 53 Details.
The $100 Gold Certificate depicts Missouri Senator Thomas Hart Benton who was known as "Old Bullion" due to his support for "hard money" rather than paper money during his political career. It seems quite fitting that he ended up on this $100 Gold Certificate. The note is quite colorful with the serial number panels and the word GOLD printed in gold, the treasury seal in red, and the back in a brilliant orange-gold hue. PCGS observed that a contemporary handwritten annotation has been partially removed in the back left margin and that there is a repaired edge tear in the bottom margin just to the right of the left serial number that goes through the frameline.

Very Bright and Attractive Fr. 1225c $10,000 Gold Certificate

21372 Fr. 1225c $10,000 1900 Gold Certificate PCGS Extremely Fine 40.
An exceptionally clean XF note with paper originality that hails from a tougher Friedberg number for this unredeemable note. Fr. 1225c is often found payable to a national bank. In this case it is the Farmers & Mechanics National Bank of Philadelphia. The note does have the usual hole punch cancels, as that was the fate that awaited all examples of this design with the Vernon-Treat Treasury signature combination, but it has managed to avoid any splits, stains, or other mishaps.
Starting Bid: $1,750

21373 Fr. 1225h $10,000 1900 Gold Certificate PMG Choice Uncirculated 63.
This Fr. 1225h was a witness to the fire at the Old Post Office Building in Washington, DC. The large fire started late on Friday December 13, 1935 and was not put out until the next morning. This example has the usual roulette cancellation along with a secondary roulette cancellation of, "U(nited) S(tates) T(reasury) / 9 14 (19)16." It also has a "Federal Reserve Board" rubberstamping on the back followed by two signatures. The note also shows toning from the water used to put out the fire. The corner tip damage is a tiny tear at upper left, but the tip has broken free and remains within the encapsulation. For more information on the fire that enabled many of these notes to escape into collector hands read the article, "Add a Fr. 1225 Gold Certificate to Your Collection," Paper Money, Society of Paper Money Collectors, September/October 2009, Vol. XLVIII, No. 5, Whole No. 263, pages 382-83.

On December 13, 1935, a severe fire erupted at the "Old Post Office" in Washington, D.C., and thousands of these $10,000 Golds were damaged or lost forever. Fortunately, this survivor remained virtually untouched, with great serial number embossing and eye appeal. As is normal with this type, our current offering is hole punch cancelled. PMG also mentions the presence of a tear.

$5 Legal Mule with Several Accolades

22353 Fr. 1530 $5 1928E Mule Legal Tender Note. PMG Gem Uncirculated 66 EPQ.

This H-A plate letter mule example has been awarded three commendations from PMG. The first accolade, which is the "Exceptional Paper Quality" designation, indicates wholly original, bright white paper is present. Secondly, "Exceptional Embossing" is noticed, especially on the cherry red serial numbers. Finally, "Exceptional Color" is present, as can easily be detected on the red overprint and also the Lincoln Memorial vignette featured on the back. We auctioned a PMG 65 EPQ in January 2023 for $1,440, and in January 2020, a PMG 67 EPQ realized $3,720. However, neither of those examples possessed the accolades that our current offering has been granted. We expect this piece's hammer price will be somewhere between those two figures.

However, only two different Fr. 1603 uncut sheets have crossed our auction block, including this example. It is also the only example of the two to be third party graded. It is a nicely centered uncut sheet with a repair of a tear to the F plate letter note at lower left. Exceptionally framed with four balanced margins, this charming 1928E $1 Silver is an excellent representative of and key to the Funny Back series. Series 1928E started with serial number F72000001B, making this well preserved piece with serial F72000245B the 245th note of the series. Face to back registration is nearly perfect, and serial number embossing is present on this plate E example. An inspection of the PMG Population Report reveals that the firm has graded six other pieces in 67 EPQ, with only one finer (a 68 EPQ). 22377 Serial F72000021B Fr. 1605 $1 1928E Silver Certificate. PMG Choice Uncirculated 64 EPQ.
The key 1928E Series for $1 Silvers began with serial number F72000001B which makes the note in this lot with serial F72000021B the 21st note of issue and originally a part of the second sheet of twelve. This sheet was eventually cut up and only three of the notes have been documented individually since then. The charming note in this lot has "as made ink annotations" in the left margin. This ink is a portion of Secretary of the Treasury Henry Morgenthau Jr's signature. We also know that serial F72000016B has part of Mr. Morgenthau's signature in the right margin and it too is in this auction session, but serial F72000023B does not have any ink annotations. This leads one to believe that the second sheet for the 1928E Series was a presentation sheet. It was signed by Mr. Morgenthau in the center gutter and his signature did not come into contact with all of the notes on the sheet. Later, the sheet was cut into individual examples. This auction is an opportunity for one collector to keep together these two low serial number notes that share a common history.

A lovely example from this very scarce $1 Silver series, this note was cut from the second sheet of the series after it had been autographed down its center gutter by Henry Morgenthau, Jr. Some of Mr. Morgenthau's signature is visible in the right margin of this single note. The black ink of the signature is described by PMG on the back label with the comment of, "as made selvage signature ink." Not counting the Serial Number 1 note for Series 1928E, F72000001B, the example in this lot is the lowest serial number for the series to ever appear at auction since at least the year 2000. Our consignor also owned serial number F72000021B from the second sheet. It has part of Morgenthau's signature on it and it is in this auction session, too.

This is an excellent example for the sheet collector or for the collector who wants just one to add to their collection. FEDERAL RESERVE BANK NOTES

Tied for Finest Known and New Addition to Census

22391 Fr. 1850-G★ $5 1929 Federal Reserve Bank Star Note. PMG Choice Uncirculated 64 EPQ.
Easily one of the highest graded examples that we have handled, this beauty with four balanced margins sits atop the PMG Population Report as sole finest graded by the firm. The Track & Price census shows only one other piece in this grade extant. We auctioned that note, a PCGS 64PPQ, in April 2017 for $2,820. Lovely serial number and bank title embossing is observed on our current offering. We expect this choice representative to see spirited bidding tonight.
Starting Bid: $1,100

22392 Low Serial Number 33 Fr. 1850-I $5 1929 Federal Reserve Bank Note. PMG Gem Uncirculated 66 EPQ.
Not only is this lovely, well margined and well embossed Minneapolis $5 one of just four pieces graded at this lofty level by PMG with none finer, it has the added appeal of low two-digit serial number I00000033A.
Starting Bid: $1,250

22395 Fr. 1870-I $20 1929 Federal Reserve Bank Note. PMG Superb Gem Unc 67 EPQ.
The Federal Reserve Bank of Minneapolis was established on May 18, 1914. Our current offering from this district possesses excellent framing with four even margins. Cutting guidelines are still present, and embossing of the serial numbers and bank title is noticed. We have not auctioned this piece since January 2010, when it was offered as part of that year's FUN auction. The most recent note in comparable grade to cross our auction block was a PMG 67 EPQ that realized $1,560 in May 2024.

Low Serial Number 29 Minneapolis Star

22396 Low Serial Number 29 Fr. 1870-I★ $20 1929 Federal Reserve Bank Star Note. PMG Extremely Fine 40.
The FRBN star in this lot possesses balanced margins, serial number and bank title embossing, and a low two digit serial number I00000029★. Only trace amounts of handling are present. We auctioned a similar low serial number 98 example in July 2024. That piece, graded PMG VF 30 EPQ, realized $900.

22400 Fr. 1890-K $100 1929 Federal Reserve Bank Note. PCGS Gem New 65PPQ.

Our consignor acquired this Richmond serial number 11 note out of our January 2000 auction held in Orlando. It was lot 1276 and consigned by a southern banker. Serial number and treasury seal embossing is strong on this example that was carefully put away almost a century ago. Add dark inks and white paper to the equation, plus being fully margined, and you have a winner in every respect. Twenty-five years later, one can look forward to spirited bidding in order to bring this charming $5 FRN home.

PCGS Banknote has not graded a single example equal or higher. PMG has graded just one equal and none higher with a total population of six. Track & Price lists seven different serial numbers for Fr. 1951-L★ and that does not include the note in this lot. All seven listed in T&P have been graded by PMG with the sole highest grade being a 30. We auctioned a PMG 25 in September 2024 for $900. We also auctioned two different PMG 25 pieces in 2021 and they brought $1,680 in January and $1,500 in April. Likely Unique 1928B Richmond $5 Star

22423 Fr. 1952-E★ $5 1928B Federal Reserve Star Note. PMG Very Fine 25.

A fantastic small size rarity, this is the only $5 FRN star for this series and district to have been graded by PMG. Track & Price purportedly lists one other star, but that piece appeared on an internet auction site years ago and allegedly carries a serial number that is wildly out of range for the 1928B Series. Tonight's offering made its lone previous public appearance in our 2005 auction of The Taylor Family Collection and is now once again available for one small size specialist to enjoy. It is an evenly circulated and problem free replacement note that is worth whatever it takes to bring home tonight.

Superb Gem $10 Cleveland FRN Sole Finest Known

22442 Fr. 2001-D $10 1928A Federal Reserve Note. PMG Superb Gem Unc 67 EPQ.
The Track & Price census records our current offering as the sole finest piece extant of this Friedberg number. The PMG Population Report supports this, as it affirms that this is the only example that PMG has graded in 67 EPQ, with none higher. Bold embossing of the dark green serial numbers and treasury seal, impeccable face to back registration, and brilliant white paper are all traits. Our consignor acquired this beauty from our January 2015 FUN auction, where it realized a record breaking $3,055. It was the single finest known Fr. 2001-D $10 FRN from the Cleveland district back then, and it was even the sole finest known when we offered it in January 2011. This lofty Superb Gem note will certainly excite any collector of small size notes.

22445 Fr. 2001-K $10 1928A Federal Reserve Note. PMG About Uncirculated 50.
Dallas is a challenging district to obtain for this type, even more so in high grades. This lovely FRN is characterized by excellent color and a bold dark green overprint. No Uncirculated examples have been reported as of yet, so AU is the highest grade that is available for collectors to pursue. We auctioned a PMG AU 55 EPQ piece in May 2024 that realized $3,000. Our current offering should approach that figure.

22446 Fr. 2002-C $10 1928B Federal Reserve Notes. Fifty Consecutive Examples - Half Pack. PCGS Banknote Choice Unc 63.
This consecutive run of 50 notes with serial numbers C10229051A-C10229100A is encapsulated with a $500 bank band on The First National Bank of Ambler, PA. Charter number 3220 went into receivership on March 26, 1934, a couple of years after these Philadelphia $10s were issued. This bank was robbed on February 16, 1933. The stolen loot was recovered less than an hour later as the police cornered the gang in their apartment's bathroom. The police proceeded to pump machine gun bullets through the bathroom door killing one and the other three lawbreakers promptly surrendered. Pinholes are cited on the back label. (Total: 50 notes)

22579 Missing Print Error/No Third Print Fr. 1911 $1 1981 Federal Reserve Notes. Single Note (Mule) PMG Very Fine 25 Net; Uncut Strip of Four Partial Notes Mules PMG Not Graded.
We have not offered any error notes like these previously. Both the single note and the uncut strip of four partial notes have the same error of missing the third printing and therefore the Federal Reserve District is unknown. The single plate letter D1 note was graded by PMG with the comments of edge damage and stained. The uncut strip of four with plate letters E1-F1-G1-H1 is without any comments, but it also has edge damage and is stained. All notes in this lot have mule back plate number 3246, except for the H1 note and that is because the paper where the back plate number would have been printed on the H1 note is missing. For these reasons and the similar appearance of all the notes, we believe these errors originally came from the same sheet and the D1 note would have been to the immediate left of the H1 note before they were separated. These are perplexing errors to say the least. (Total: 2 items)

22582 Inverted Third Printing on Back Error Fr. 2080-G $20 1993 Federal Reserve Note. PMG Choice Uncirculated 64.
When this note was in our auction in 2021, we said, "The inverted overprint on the back is referred to as a major "sleeper" in United States Paper Money Errors by Dr. Frederick J. Bart on page 216 of the fourth edition. The note in this lot is plated on page 133 of US Error Note Encyclopedia first edition by Stephen M. Sullivan." Today it is still a major error and will be a wonderful addition to any error collection. Type II inverts came into being within the middle of printing Series 1974 $50 and $100 FRNs as the BEP began to trim the selvage paper from the top of the sheet prior to the third printing. Earlier, this trimming step was done after all printings were finished. Type I inverts are from earlier series and the face and back are correctly centered.

A plate letter N $5 Silver that was marked for rejection by an inspector and still managed to get into banking channels. However, probably due to its rejection markings, it did not reach circulation and is still in pristine condition with bold embossing. The rejection marks include a BEP red and white rejection sticker/tag at lower right and a large red crayon "X" applied to Lincoln's portrait. Its serial number of B17100000A is also marked with red crayon in both locations as the serial number is wrong. The red crayon markings tell us that the correct serial number should have been B17200000A. This is a very interesting error that allows a glimpse into the inspection process.

The first of two consecutive doubled back print errors with the plate letter F example in this lot having serial number L16176528A. Series 1950 was the last series where twelve-subject sheets were printed and therefore every note on the sheet is consecutively serial numbered. The second printing of the back is shifted approximately 2 mm up and 1 mm to the left. The second printing back plate number of 1752 is clearly in view, while the first printing back plate number is also 1752, but well hidden by the second printing. This produces a dramatic example of this error with distinct doubling of both "5" counters in the upper corners, both "Five" counters in the lower corners, the Lincoln Memorial building, "The United States of America," and "Five Dollars." We also offered three different examples of this error from the same sheet in our September 2024 Long Beach auction. Their grades were in the 53 PPQ-55 PPQ range and the winning bids were in the $2,880-$3,120 range.

22596 Doubled Back Print Error Fr. 1961-L $5 1950 Federal Reserve Note. PCGS Banknote About Unc 50 PPQ.
A wonderful example of a doubled back printing error. The second printing of the back is shifted approximately 2 mm up and 1 mm to the right. This produces a dramatic example of this error with distinct doubling of both "5" counters, both "Five" counters, the Lincoln Memorial building, "The United States of America," and "Five Dollars."

22597 Doubled Face Print Error Fr. 1919-L $1 1993 Mule Federal Reserve Note. PMG Choice Uncirculated 64 EPQ.
The face is much darker than usual as it received two complete second printings. Both printings are separated by a tiny margin. The design elements that best exhibit the results of the two printings are the legal tender clause, "Washington, D.C.," left plate letter H1, and right plate letter H42, plus the "FW" colophon.

Two distinct face printings by two different plates have caused a double printing error on this $10 that has seen light circulation. The separation between the two prints is the key to value to this error and this piece is a wonderful example.

Face plate number F351 is printed immediately above face plate number F334 creating the visual appeal for which these face/second print doubled errors are famous. The doubling is especially pronounced on this lightly circulated example as both sets of engraved signatures show a definite separation of 1mm. In addition, as made ink is observed on the face. Our example has front plate H, but we previously auctioned a note with the matching serial number but different plate letter F in our most recent Long Beach Auction in October 2024.

Terms and Conditions of Auction

Auctioneer and Auction:

1. This Auction is presented by Heritage Auctions, a d/b/a/ of Heritage Auctioneers & Galleries, Inc., Heritage Auctions, Inc., Heritage Collectibles, Inc., Heritage Luxury Property Auctions, Inc., Heritage Numismatic Auctions, Inc., Heritage Vintage Sports Auctions, Inc., Currency Auctions of America, Inc., Heritage Auctions (HK) Limited, or Heritage Auctions – Europe Cooperatief U.A. as identified with the applicable licensing information on the title page of the catalog or on the HA.com Internet site (the "Auctioneer"). The Auction is conducted under these Terms and Conditions of Auction and applicable state and local law. Announcements and corrections from the podium and those made through the Terms and Conditions of Auctions appearing on the Internet at HA.com supersede those in the printed catalog.

Buyer's Premium:

2. All bids are subject to a Buyer's Premium which is in addition to the placed successful bid. The Buyer's Premium for each Auction is published by Auctioneer in the printed catalog and on the Internet. In addition to the Buyer's Premium, all successful bids placed through third-party platforms including LiveAuctioneers.com, Invaluable.com, or similar third-party platforms shall be assessed a fee of five percent (5%) of the Hammer Price ("Third-Party Platform Fee").

Bidders:

3. Any person participating or registering for the Auction agrees to be bound by and accepts these Terms and Conditions of Auction ("Bidder(s)").
4. All Bidders must meet Auctioneer's qualifications to bid. Any Bidder who is not a client in good standing of the Auctioneer may be disqualified at Auctioneer's sole option and will not be awarded lots. Such determination may be made by Auctioneer in its sole and unlimited discretion, at any time prior to, during, or even after the close of the Auction. Auctioneer reserves the right to exclude any person from the auction.
5. If an entity places a bid, then the person executing the bid on behalf of the entity agrees to personally guarantee payment for any successful bid.

Credit:

6. In order to place bids, Bidders who have not established credit with the Auctioneer must either furnish satisfactory credit information (including two collectibles-related business references) or supply valid payment card information along with a social security number, well in advance of the Auction. Internet bids will only be accepted from pre-registered Bidders. Bidders who are not members of HA.com or affiliates should preregister at least 48 hours before the start of the first session (exclusive of holidays or weekends) to allow adequate time to contact references. Credit will be granted at the discretion of Auctioneer. Auctioneer may, in its sole discretion, require a deposit in good funds of twenty-five percent (25%) of the amount of each bid prior to acceptance of the bid. Additionally Bidders who have not previously established credit or who wish to bid in excess of their established credit history may be required to provide their social security so a credit check may be performed prior to Auctioneer's acceptance of a bid. Settlement via check and immediate delivery of merchandise may also be determined by pre-approval of credit based on a combination of: HA.com history, related industry references, bank verification, a credit bureau report and/or a personal guarantee for a corporate or partnership entity in advance of the auction.

Bidding Options:

7. Auctioneer accepts bids from the Internet, telephone, fax, mail, floor, and HeritageLive! from registered clients.
8. Bids in Signature® Auctions may be placed as set forth in the printed catalog section entitled "Choose your bidding method." For auctions held solely on the Internet, see the alternatives on HA.com. Review at http://www.ha.com/c/ref/web-tips.zx#biddingTutorial.
9. Presentment of Bids: Non-Internet bids (including but not limited to podium, fax, phone and mail bids) and floor bids must be on-increment or at a half increment ("Cut Bid"). Any podium, fax, phone, or mail bids that do not conform to a full or half increment will be rounded up or down to the nearest full or half increment and this revised amount will be considered your high bid.
10. Auctioneer's Execution of Certain Bids. Auctioneer cannot be responsible for your errors in bidding or entry of bids. When identical mail or fax bids are submitted, preference is given to the first received. To ensure the greatest accuracy, written bids should be entered on the standard printed bid sheet and received by Auctioneer at least two business days prior to Auction start. Auctioneer is not responsible for executing mail bids or fax bids received on or after the day the first lot is sold, nor Internet bids submitted after the published closing time; nor is Auctioneer responsible for proper execution of bids submitted by telephone, mail, fax, email, Internet, or in person once Auction begins. Bids placed electronically via the internet may not be withdrawn until your written request is received and acknowledged by Auctioneer (FAX: 214-409-1425); such requests must state the reason, and may constitute grounds for withdrawal of bidding privileges. Lots won by mail Bidders will not be delivered at the Auction unless prearranged.
11. Bid Increments. Bid increments (over the current bid level) determine the lowest amount you may bid on a particular lot. Bids greater than one increment over the current bid can be any whole dollar amount. It is possible under several circumstances for winning bids to be between increments, sometimes only $1 above the previous increment. Please see: "How can I lose by less than an increment?" on our website. Bids will be accepted in whole dollar amounts only. No "buy" or "unlimited" bids will be accepted.

Current bidding increments (see HA.com/c/ref/web-tips.zx#guidelines-increments) are:

Current Bid	Bid Increment	Current Bid	Bid Increment
< $100	$5	$20,000 - $49,999	$2,000
$100 - $199	$10	$50,000 - $99,999	$5,000
$200 - $499	$20	$100,000 - $199,999	$10,000
$500 - $999	$50	$200,000 - $499,999	$20,000
$1,000 - $1,999	$100	$500,000 - $999,999	$25,000
$2,000 - $4,999	$200	$1,000,000 - $1,999,999	$50,000
$5,000 - $9,999	$500	$2,000,000 - $9,999,999	$100,000
$10,000 - $19,999	$1,000	≥ $10,000,000	$200,000

12. If Auctioneer calls for a full increment, Bidder may request Auctioneer to accept a Cut Bid only once per lot. After offering a Cut Bid, Bidder may continue to bid on lot only at full increments. Off-increment bids may be accepted by the Auctioneer at Signature® Auctions. Bids solicited by Auctioneer at other than the expected increment will not be considered Cut Bids.

Conducting the Auction:

13. Notice of the consignor's liberty to place bids on his lots in the Auction is hereby made in accordance with Article 2 of the Texas Business and Commercial Code. A "Minimum Bid" is an amount below which the lot will not sell. THE CONSIGNOR OF PROPERTY MAY PLACE WRITTEN "Minimum Bids" ON HIS LOTS IN ADVANCE OF THE AUCTION; ON SUCH LOTS, IF THE HAMMER PRICE DOES NOT MEET THE "Minimum Bid", THE CONSIGNOR MAY PAY A REDUCED COMMISSION ON THOSE LOTS. "Minimum Bids" are generally posted online several days prior to the Auction closing. Any successful bid placed by a consignor on his property on the Auction floor, by any means during the live session, or after the "Minimum Bid" for an Auction have been posted, will require the consignor to pay full Buyer's Premium and Seller's Commissions on such lot. Auctioneer or its affiliates expressly reserve the right to modify any such bids at any time prior to the hammer based upon data made known to the Auctioneer or its affiliates.
14. The highest qualified Bidder recognized by the Auctioneer shall be the Buyer. In the event of a tie bid, the earliest bid received or recognized wins. In the event of any dispute between any Bidders at an Auction, Auctioneer may at his sole discretion reoffer the lot. Auctioneer's decision and declaration of the winning Bidder shall be final and binding upon all Bidders. Bids properly offered, whether by floor Bidder or other means of bidding, may on occasion be missed or go unrecognized; in such cases, the Auctioneer may declare the recognized bid accepted as the winning bid, regardless of whether a competing bid may have been higher. Auctioneer reserves the right after the hammer fall to accept bids and reopen bidding for bids placed through the Internet or otherwise. Regardless of placed bids, Auctioneer reserves the right to withdraw any lot, or any part of a lot, from Auction at any time prior to the opening of any such lot by the auctioneer (crier), or in the case of Internet-only auctions when the bid opens for either live Internet bidding or the beginning of any extended period.
15. Auctioneer reserves the right to refuse to honor any bid or to limit the amount of any bid, in its sole discretion. A bid is considered not made in "Good Faith" when made by an insolvent or irresponsible person, a person under the age of eighteen, or is not supported by satisfactory credit, references, or otherwise. Regardless of the disclosure of his identity, any bid by a consignor or his agent on a lot consigned by him is deemed to be made in "Good Faith." Any person apparently appearing on the OFAC list is not eligible to bid.
16. Nominal Bids. The Auctioneer in its sole discretion may reject nominal bids, small opening bids, or very nominal advances.
17. Lots bearing bidding estimates shall open at Auctioneer's discretion (generally 40%-60% of the low estimate). In the event that no bid meets or exceeds that opening amount, the lot shall pass as unsold or the Auctioneer may place a protective bid on behalf of the consignor.
18. All items are to be purchased per lot as numerically indicated and no lots will be broken.
19. Auctioneer reserves the right to rescind the sale in the event of nonpayment, breach of a warranty, disputed ownership, auctioneer's clerical error or omission in exercising bids and reserves, or for any other reason and in Auctioneer's sole discretion.
20. Auctioneer occasionally experiences Internet and/or Server service outages, and Auctioneer periodically schedules system downtime for maintenance and other purposes, during which Bidders cannot participate or place bids. If such outages occur, bidding may be extended at Auctioneer's discretion. Bidders unable to place their bids through the Internet are directed to contact Client Services at 877-HERITAGE (437-4824).
21. From time to time, the Auctioneer, its affiliates, or their employees may consign items to be sold in the Auction.
22. From time to time, the Auctioneer, its affiliates, or their employees may place bids on lots in the Auction.
23. The Auctioneer may extend advances, guarantees, or loans to certain consignors.
24. The Auctioneer has the right to sell certain unsold items after the close of the Auction. Such lots shall be considered sold during the Auction and all these Terms and Conditions shall apply to such sales including but not limited to the Buyer's Premium, return rights, and disclaimers.

Payment:

25. All sales are strictly for cash in United States dollars (including U.S. currency, bank wire, cashier checks, travelers checks, eChecks, and bank money orders, and are subject to all reporting requirements). All deliveries are subject to good funds; funds being received in Auctioneer's account before delivery of the merchandise; and all payments are subject to a clearing period. Auctioneer reserves the right to determine if a check constitutes "good funds": checks drawn on a U.S. bank are subject to a ten business day hold, thirty days when drawn on an international bank. Clients with pre-arranged credit may receive immediate credit for payments via eCheck, personal, or corporate checks. All others will be subject to a hold of 5 business days, or more, for the funds to clear prior to releasing merchandise. (Ref. T&C item 7 Credit for additional information.) Payments can be made 24-48 hours post auction from the My Orders page of the HA.com website. Payment via card (Visa, Mastercard, and Discover) will be accepted upon prior approval by Auctioneer. All payments by card will incur a surcharge of 2.9%. Payment by eCheck, wire transfer, or check will not incur a surcharge. This fee only applies to credit transactions, and does not exceed Auctioneer's cost of processing.
26. Payment is due upon closing of the Auction session, or upon presentment of an invoice. Auctioneer reserves the right to void an invoice if payment in full is not received within 7 days after Auction close. In cases of nonpayment, Auctioneer's election to void a sale does not relieve the Bidder from their obligation to pay Auctioneer its fees (seller's and buyer's premium) on the lot and any other damages pertaining to the lot or Auctioneer. Alternatively, Auctioneer at its sole option, may charge a twenty (20%) fee based on the amount of the purchase. In either case the Auctioneer may offset amount of its claim against any monies owing to the Bidder or secure its claim against any of the Bidder's properties held by the Auctioneer.
27. Purchased lots may be subject to taxes or fees imposed by various foreign taxing agencies. Buyer is responsible for paying all foreign imposed taxes whether VAT, GST, etc. prior to delivery unless other arrangements are made in writing. Lots delivered to Buyer, or Buyer's representative are subject to all applicable state and local taxes, unless appropriate permits are on file with Auctioneer. Should state sales tax become applicable in the state for delivery prior to delivery of the property on the invoice, Buyer agrees to pay all applicable state sales tax as required by the delivery state as of the shipping date. Buyer agrees to pay Auctioneer the actual amount of tax due in the event that sales tax is not properly collected due to: 1) an expired, inaccurate, or inappropriate tax certificate or declaration, 2) an incorrect interpretation of the applicable statute, 3) or any other reason. The appropriate form or certificate must be on file at and verified by Auctioneer five days prior to Auction, or tax must be paid; only if such form or certificate is received by Auctioneer within 4 days after Auction can a refund of tax paid be made. Lots from different Auctions may not be aggregated for sales tax purposes.
28. In the event that Buyer's payment is dishonored upon presentment(s), Buyer shall pay the maximum statutory processing fee set by applicable state law. If Buyer attempts to pay via eCheck and Buyer's financial institution denies this bank account, or the payment cannot be completed using the selected funding source, Buyer agrees to complete payment using your card on file (subject to the surcharge detailed in paragraph 25).
29. If any Auction invoice submitted by Auctioneer is not paid in full when due, the unpaid balance will bear interest at the highest rate permitted by law from the date of invoice until paid. Any invoice not paid when due will bear a three percent (3%) late fee on the invoice amount. If the Auctioneer refers any invoice to an attorney for collection, Buyer agrees to pay attorney's fees, court costs, and other collection costs incurred by Auctioneer. If Auctioneer assigns collection to its in-house legal staff, such attorney's time expended on the matter shall be compensated at a rate comparable to the hourly rate of independent attorneys.
30. In the event Buyer fails to pay any amounts due, Buyer authorizes Auctioneer to charge the Buyer's card on file with Auctioneer in the amount required to pay the invoice in full or sell the lot(s) securing the invoice to any underbidders in the Auction that the lot(s) appeared, or at subsequent private or public sale, or relist the lot(s) in a future auction conducted by Auctioneer. A defaulting Buyer agrees to pay for the reasonable costs of resale (including a 15% seller's commission, if consigned to an auction conducted by Auctioneer). The defaulting Buyer is liable to pay any difference between his total original invoice for the lot(s), plus any applicable interest, and the net proceeds for the lot(s) if sold at private sale or the subsequent hammer price of the lot(s) less the 15% seller's commissions, if sold at an Auctioneer's auction.
31. Title shall not pass to Buyer until all invoices are paid in full. Auctioneer shall have a lien against the merchandise purchased by Buyer to secure payment of any and all outstanding Auction invoices. Auctioneer is further granted a lien and the right to retain possession of any other property of Buyer then held by Auctioneer or its affiliates to secure payment of any Auction invoice or any other amounts due Auctioneer or affiliates from Buyer. With respect to these lien rights, Auctioneer shall have all the rights of a secured creditor under Article 9 of the Texas Uniform Commercial Code, including but not limited to the right of sale (including a 15% seller's commission, if consigned to an auction conducted by Auctioneer). Any Heritage foreclosure auction venue is deemed a reasonably commercial sale. In addition, with respect to payment of the Auction invoice(s), Buyer waives any and all rights of offset he might otherwise have against Auctioneer and the consignor of the merchandise included on the invoice. If Buyer owes Auctioneer or its affiliates on any account, Auctioneer and its affiliates shall have the right to offset such unpaid account by any credit balance due Buyer, and it may secure by possessory lien any unpaid amount by any of the Buyer's property in their possession.

Delivery; Shipping; and Handling Charges:

32. Buyer is liable for all shipping, handling, registration, and renewal fees, if any. Auctioneer is unable to combine purchases from other auctions or affiliates into one package for shipping purposes. Merchandise will be shipped in a commercially reasonable time after payment in good funds for the merchandise and the shipping fees is received or credit extended, except when third-party shipment occurs. Buyer on lots designated for third-party shipment must designate the common carrier, accept risk of loss, and prepay shipping costs. Buyer agrees that Service and Handling charges related to shipping items which are not pre-paid may be charged to the card on file with Auctioneer (subject to the surcharge detailed in paragraph 25).

33. Successful international Bidders shall provide written shipping instructions, including specified customs declarations, to Auctioneer for any lots to be delivered outside of the United States. NOTE: Declaration value shall be the item'(s) hammer price together with its buyer's premium and Auctioneer shall use the correct harmonized code for the lot.
34. On all shipments in which Auctioneer charges the Delivery, Handling, and Transit Fee infra, any risk of loss during shipment will be borne by Auctioneer until the common carrier's confirmation of delivery to the address of record in Auctioneer's file, this is the "Secure Location". A common carrier's confirmation is conclusive to prove delivery to Buyer; if the client has a Signature release on file or redirects with the carrier, the package is considered delivered without Signature. Auctioneer shall arrange, select, and engage common carriers and other transportation vendors on your behalf. Transit services are subject to the following terms and conditions:
    a. Scope of Transit Services: Merchandise for transit will be insured under one or more insurance policies issued by an authorized broker to Auctioneer. The merchandise will be insured for the invoice price of the properties (hammer price plus Buyer's Premium) ("Insured Value"). For each shipment, Buyer will provide a Secure Location to which the items will be delivered. NOTICE: Auctioneer is neither an insurance company nor a common carrier of any type.
    b. Auctioneer's Compensation for Transit Services: Auctioneer will provide transit services to Buyer for ¾ of 1% of the Insured Value, plus packaging and handling fees and fees for the common carrier (collectively, "Delivery, Handling, and Transit Fee"). Buyer agrees to pay Delivery, Handling, and Transit Fee and comply with all terms of payment as set forth herein.
    c. Auctioneer's Limitation of Liability for Transit Services: Buyer understands and agrees that Auctioneer's liability for loss of or damage to the items, if any, ends when the items have been delivered to the Secure Location, and Auctioneer has received evidence of delivery. Any claim that property has sustained loss or damage during transit must be reported to Auctioneer within seventy-two (72) hours of the delivery date. Any recovery for loss of or damage to any merchandise is limited to the lesser of actual cash value of the merchandise or the Insured Value. Under no circumstances is Auctioneer liable for consequential or punitive damages.
35. It shall be the responsibility for Buyer to arrange pick-up or shipping in a timely manner (within 10 days). Merchandise will be subject to storage and moving charges, including a $100 administration fee plus $10 daily storage for larger items and $5 daily for smaller items (storage fee per item) after 35 days. In the event the merchandise is not removed within ninety days, the merchandise may be offered for sale to recover any past due storage or moving fees, including a 25% Seller's Commission.
36. A. IMPORTATION RESTRICTIONS AND COMPLIANCE: Please be aware that local laws as to ownership and/or import restrictions may apply on any item auctioned by Auctioneer. It is the Buyer's responsibility to ensure compliance with all applicable regulations and verify that the item may be legally imported and owned by Buyer. While Auctioneer makes a good faith attempt to include in its descriptions any specifications that may affect local laws on ownership and/or import restrictions, Auctioneer makes no representation as to the rights of anyone to own or import any item into any state or country and is not liable if any such restrictions apply to the Buyer. By placing a bid, the bidder acknowledges that he or she is aware of any restriction in their country or place of residence and takes responsibility for: 1) obtaining all information on such restricted items for both export and import; 2) obtaining all such licenses and/or permits; and 3) providing Auctioneer with a shipping address at which it is legal for Auctioneer to deliver the item. The Buyer shall indemnify Auctioneer against any costs incurred, including but not limited to penalties, monetary judgments and attorney's fees, should the shipping instructions provided to Auctioneer be contrary to local laws or import restrictions. Delay, failure, or incapacity to complete delivery due to local laws or import restrictions do not relieve the buyer of timely payment or afford them the capacity to void their purchase or payment.
36. B. The purchase of items made from protected species: Any property made of or incorporating endangered or protected species or wildlife may have import and/or export restrictions, including but not limited to those established by the Convention of International Trade in Endangered Species of Wild Fauna and Flora (CITES) in various countries and domestically. Plant and animal properties include (but are not limited to) items made of (or including) Brazilian rosewood, ivory, whalebone, turtle shell, coral, crocodile, alligator, lizard, wild bird eggs, or other wildlife. These items may not be available to ship internationally or, in some cases, domestically. Auctioneer makes no representation as to the rights of anyone to import any item into any state or country that restricts the importation of items made from protected species. Delay, failure, or incapacity to obtain any such license or permit does not relieve the buyer of timely payment or afford them the capacity to void their purchase or payment. Lots containing potentially regulated wildlife material are noted in the description as a convenience to our clients, to the extent of Heritage's knowledge. Heritage Auctions does not accept liability for errors or failure to mark lots containing protected or regulated species. Domestic bans and restrictions exist in these states: 1) California state law prohibits the importation of any product containing Python skin into the State of California, thus no lot containing Python skin will be shipped to or invoiced to a person or company in California. 2) Fossil Ivory is currently banned or restricted in 5 U.S. states: New York, New Jersey, California, Hawaii, and New Mexico. For further assistance, please contact client services at 1-800-872-6467.
36. C. California State law prohibits the importation of any product containing Python skin into the State of California. No merchandise containing Python skin will be shipped to or invoiced to a person or company in California.
36. D. Auctioneer shall not be liable for any loss caused by or resulting from:
    a. Seizure or destruction under quarantine or Customs regulation, or confiscation by order of any Government or public authority, or risks of contraband or illegal transportation of trade, or
    b. Breakage of statuary, marble, glassware, bric-a-brac, porcelains, jewelry, and similar fragile articles.
37. Any request for shipping verification for undelivered packages must be made within 30 days of shipment by Auctioneer.

Cataloging, Warranties, and Disclaimers:

38. NO WARRANTY, WHETHER EXPRESSED OR IMPLIED, IS MADE WITH RESPECT TO ANY DESCRIPTION CONTAINED IN THIS AUCTION OR ANY SECOND OPINE. Any description of merchandise or second opine contained in this Auction is for the sole purpose of identifying merchandise for those Bidders who do not have the opportunity to view merchandise prior to bidding, and no description of merchandise has been made part of the basis of the bargain or has created any express warranty that merchandise would conform to any description made by Auctioneer. Color variations can be expected in any electronic or printed imaging, and are not grounds for the return of any lot. NOTE: Auctioneer, in specified auction venues, e.g. Fine Art, may have express written warranties and Bidder is referred to those specific terms and conditions.
39. Auctioneer is selling only such right or title to merchandise being sold as Auctioneer may have by virtue of consignment agreements on the date of auction and disclaims any warranty of title to the merchandise. Auctioneer disclaims any warranty of merchantability or fitness for any particular purposes. All images, descriptions, sales data, and archival records are the exclusive property of Auctioneer, and may be used by Auctioneer for advertising, promotion, archival records, and any other uses deemed appropriate.
40. Translations of foreign language documents may be provided as a convenience to interested parties. Auctioneer makes no representation as to the accuracy of those translations and will not be held responsible for errors in bidding arising from inaccuracies in translation.
41. Auctioneer disclaims all liability for damages, consequential or otherwise, arising out of or in connection with the sale of any merchandise by Auctioneer to Bidder. No third party may rely on any benefit of these Terms and Conditions and any rights, if any, established hereunder are personal to Bidder and may not be assigned. Any statement made by the Auctioneer is an opinion and does not constitute a warranty or representation. No employee of Auctioneer may alter these Terms and Conditions, and, unless signed by a principal of Auctioneer, any such alteration is null and void.
42. Auctioneer shall not be liable for damage to frames, frame glass, cases, holders, or third-party grading encapsulations that do not affect the condition of the merchandise presented for auction. Such defects shall not be a basis for return, repair, or reduction in purchase price.

Release:

43. In consideration of participation in Auction and the placing of a bid, Bidder expressly releases Auctioneer, its officers, directors and employees, its affiliates, and its outside experts that provide second opines, from any and all claims, cause of action, chose of action, whether at law or equity or any arbitration or mediation rights existing under the rules of any professional society or affiliation based upon the assigned description, or a derivative theory, breach of warranty express or implied, representation or other matter set forth within these Terms and Conditions of Auction or otherwise. In the event of a claim, Bidder agrees that such rights and privileges conferred therein are strictly construed as specifically declared herein, and are the exclusive remedy. Bidder, by non-compliance to these express terms of a granted remedy, shall waive any claim against Auctioneer.
44. Notice: Some merchandise sold by Auctioneer is inherently dangerous e.g. firearms, cannons, and small items that may be swallowed or ingested or may have latent defects all of which may cause harm to a person. Buyer accepts all risk of loss or damage from its purchase of these items and Auctioneer disclaims any liability whether under contract or tort for damages and losses, direct or inconsequential, and expressly disclaims any warranty as to safety or usage of any lot sold.

Dispute Resolution, Arbitration, and Remedies:

By placing a bid or otherwise participating in Auction, Bidder accepts these Terms and Conditions of Auction, and specifically agrees to the dispute resolution provided herein.

45. Exclusive Dispute Resolution Process: All claims, disputes, or controversies in connection with, relating to, and/or arising out of Bidder's participation in Auction or purchase of any lot, any interpretation of the Terms and Conditions of Sale or any amendments thereto, any description of any lot or condition report, any damage to any lot, any alleged verbal modification of any term of sale or condition report or description, and/or any purported settlement whether asserted in contract, tort, under Federal or State statute or regulation, or any claim made by Bidder of a lot or Bidder's participation in Auction involving the auction or a specific lot involving a warranty or representation of a consignor or other person or entity including Auctioneer {which claim Bidder consents to be made a party} (collectively, "Claim") shall be exclusively heard by, and the claimant (or respondent) and Auctioneer each consent to the Claim being presented in a confidential binding arbitration before a single arbitrator administrated by and conducted under the rules of, the American Arbitration Association. The locale for all such arbitrations shall be Dallas, Texas. The arbitrator's award may be enforced in any court of competent jurisdiction. In the event that any Claim needs to be litigated, including actions to compel arbitration, construe the agreement, actions in aid of arbitration, or otherwise, such litigation shall be exclusively in the Courts of the State of Texas, in Dallas County, Texas, and if necessary the corresponding appellate courts. If a Claim involves a consumer, exclusive subject matter jurisdiction for the Claim is in the State District Courts of Dallas County, Texas and the consumer consents to subject matter and in personam jurisdiction; further CONSUMER EXPRESSLY WAIVES ANY RIGHT TO TRIAL BY JURY. A consumer may elect arbitration as specified above. Any claim involving the purchase or sale of numismatic or related items may be submitted through binding PNG arbitration. 47. Fees and Costs: The prevailing party (a party that is awarded substantial and material relief on its damage claim based on damages sought versus awarded or the successful defense of a Claim based on damages sought versus awarded) may be awarded reasonable attorneys' fees and costs.
48. Remedies: Any Claim must be brought within two (2) years of the alleged breach, default or misrepresentation or the Claim is waived. After one (1) year has elapsed, Auctioneer's maximum liability shall be limited to any commissions and fees Auctioneer earned on that lot. Auctioneer in no event shall be responsible for consequential damages, incidental damages, compensatory damages, or any other damages arising or claimed to be arising from the auction of any lot. Exemplary or punitive damages are not permitted and are waived. In the event that Auctioneer cannot deliver the lot or subsequently it is established that the lot lacks title, or other transfer or condition issue is claimed, in such cases the sole remedy shall be limited to rescission of sale and refund of the amount paid by Buyer; in no case shall Auctioneer's maximum liability exceed the high bid on that lot, which bid shall be deemed for all purposes the value of the lot. In the event of an attribution error, Auctioneer may at its sole discretion, correct the error on the Internet, or, if discovered at a later date, refund Buyer's purchase price without further obligation. Nothing herein shall be construed to extend the time of return or conditions and restrictions for return.
49. These Terms & Conditions provide specific remedies for occurrences in the auction and delivery process. Where such remedies are afforded, they shall be interpreted strictly. Bidder agrees that any claim shall utilize such remedies; Bidder making a claim in excess of those remedies provided in these Terms and Conditions agrees that in no case whatsoever shall Auctioneer's maximum liability exceed the high bid on that lot, which bid shall be deemed for all purposes the value of the lot.

Miscellaneous:

50. Agreements between Bidders and consignors to effectuate a non-sale of an item at Auction, inhibit bidding on a consigned item to enter into a private sale agreement for said item, or to utilize Auctioneer's Auction to obtain sales for non-selling consigned items subsequent to Auction, are strictly prohibited. If a subsequent sale of a previously consigned item occurs in violation of this provision, Auctioneer reserves the right to charge Bidder the applicable Buyer's Premium and consignor a Seller's Commission as determined for each auction venue and by the terms of the seller's agreement.
51. Acceptance of these Terms and Conditions qualifies Bidder as a client who has consented to be contacted by Heritage in the future. In conformity with "do-not-call" regulations promulgated by the Federal or State regulatory agencies, participation by Bidder is affirmative consent to being contacted at the phone number shown in his application and this consent shall remain in effect until it is revoked in writing. Heritage may from time to time contact Bidder concerning sale, purchase, and auction opportunities available through Heritage and its affiliates and subsidiaries.
52. Rules of Construction: Auctioneer presents properties in a number of collectible fields, and as such, specific venues have promulgated supplemental Terms and Conditions. Nothing herein shall be construed to waive the general Terms and Conditions of Auction by these additional rules and shall be construed to give force and effect to the rules in their entirety.

State Notices:

Rev. 11-27-2024

COINS & CURRENCY

COINS & CURRENCY TERM A: Signature® Auctions are not on approval. No certified material may be returned because of possible differences of opinion with respect to the grade offered by any third-party organization, dealer, or service. No guarantee of grade is offered for uncertified Property sold and subsequently submitted to a third-party grading service. There are absolutely no exceptions to this policy. Under extremely limited circumstances, (e.g. gross cataloging error) a purchaser, who did not bid from the floor, may request Auctioneer to evaluate voiding a sale: such request must be made in writing detailing the alleged gross error; submission of the lot to the Auctioneer must be pre-approved by the Auctioneer; and bidder must notify Ron Brackemyre (1-800-872-6467 Ext. 1312) in writing of such request within three (3) days of the non-floor bidder's receipt of the lot. Any lot that is to be evaluated must be in our offices within 30 days after Auction. Grading or method of manufacture do not qualify for this evaluation process nor do such complaints constitute a basis to challenge the authenticity of a lot. AFTER THAT 30-DAY PERIOD, NO LOTS MAY BE RETURNED FOR REASONS OTHER THAN AUTHENTICITY. Lots returned must be housed intact in their original holder. No lots purchased by floor Bidders may be returned (including those Bidders acting as agents for others) except for authenticity. Late remittance for purchases may be considered just cause to revoke all return privileges.

COINS & CURRENCY TERM B: Auctions conducted solely on the Internet THREE (3) DAY RETURN POLICY: Certified Coin and Uncertified and Certified Currency lots paid for within seven days of the Auction closing are sold with a three (3) day return privilege unless otherwise noted in the description as "Sold As Is, No Return Lot". You may return lots under the following conditions: Within three days of receipt of the lot, you must first notify Auctioneer by contacting Client Service by phone (877-HERITAGE (437-4824)) or e-mail (Bid@HA.com), and immediately ship the lot(s) fully insured to the attention of Returns, Heritage Auctions, 2801 W. Airport Freeway, Dallas TX 75261. Lots must be housed intact in their original holder and condition. You are responsible for the insured, safe delivery of any lots. A non-negotiable return fee of 5% of the purchase price ($10 per lot minimum) will be deducted from the refund for each returned lot or billed directly. Postage and handling fees are not refunded. After the three-day period (from receipt), no items may be returned for any reason. Late remittance for purchases revokes these Return privileges.

COINS & CURRENCY TERM C: Bidders who have inspected the lots prior to any Auction, or attended the Auction, or bid through an Agent, will not be granted any return privileges, except for reasons of authenticity.

COINS & CURRENCY TERM D: Coins sold referencing a third-party grading service are sold "as is" without any express or implied warranty, except for a guarantee by Auctioneer that they are genuine. Certain warranties may be available from the grading services and the Bidder is referred to them for further details: Numismatic Guaranty Corporation (NGC), P.O. Box 4776, Sarasota, FL 34230, http://www.ngccoin.com/ services/writtenguarantee.asp; Professional Coin Grading Service (PCGS), PO Box 9458, Newport Beach, CA 92658, http://www.pcgs.com/guarantee.html; ANACS, 6555 S. Kenton St. Ste. 303, Englewood, CO 80111; and Independent Coin Grading Co. (ICG), 7901 East Belleview Ave., Suite 50, Englewood, CO 80111.

COINS & CURRENCY TERM E: Notes sold referencing a third-party grading service are sold "as is" without any express or implied warranty, except for guarantee by Auctioneer that they are genuine. Grading, condition or other attributes of any lot may have a material effect on its value, and the opinion of others, including third-party grading services such as PCGS Currency and PMG may differ with that of Auctioneer. Auctioneer shall not be bound by any prior or subsequent opinion, determination, or certification by any grading service. Bidder specifically waives any claim to right of return of any item because of the opinion, determination, or certification, or lack thereof, by any grading service. Certain warranties may be available from the grading services and the Bidder is referred to them for further details: Paper Money Guaranty (PMG), PO Box 4711, Sarasota FL 34230; PCGS Currency, PO Box 10470, Peoria, IL 61612-0470; PCGS Gold Shield, PO Box 9458, Newport Beach, CA 92658. Third-party graded notes are not returnable for any reason whatsoever.

COINS & CURRENCY TERM F: Notes graded by PCGS Currency between February 4, 2009 and January 30, 2019 were graded and authenticated by K3B, Inc. under license from Collectors Universe, Inc. K3B, Inc., now operating as Legacy Currency Grading, has expressed in writing that notes graded under the license during this time period will still be covered by the full written guaranty of PCGS Currency. Warranties may be available from Collectors Universe, Inc. for all PCGS Currency notes graded prior to February 4, 2009.

COINS & CURRENCY TERM G: Since we cannot examine encapsulated coins or notes, they are sold "as is" without our grading opinion, and may not be returned for any reason. Auctioneer shall not be liable for any patent or latent defect or controversy pertaining to or arising from any encapsulated collectible. In any such instance, purchaser's remedy, if any, shall be solely against the service certifying the collectible.

COINS & CURRENCY TERM H: Due to changing grading standards over time, differing interpretations, and to possible mishandling of items by subsequent owners, Auctioneer reserves the right to grade items differently than shown on certificates from any grading service that accompany the items. Auctioneer also reserves the right to grade items differently than the grades shown in the prior catalog should such items be reconsigned to any future auction.

COINS & CURRENCY TERM I: Although consensus grading is employed by most grading services, it should be noted as aforesaid that grading is not an exact science. In fact, it is entirely possible that if a lot is broken out of a plastic holder and resubmitted to another grading service or even to the same service, the lot could come back with a different grade assigned.

COINS & CURRENCY TERM J: Certification does not guarantee protection against the normal risks associated with potentially volatile markets. The degree of liquidity for certified coins and collectibles will vary according to general market conditions and the particular lot involved. For some lots there may be no active market at all at certain points in time.

COINS & CURRENCY TERM K: All non-certified coins and currency are guaranteed genuine, but are not guaranteed as to grade, since grading is a matter of opinion, an art and not a science, and therefore the opinion rendered by the Auctioneer or any third party grading service may not agree with the opinion of others (including trained experts), and the same expert may not grade the same item with the same grade at two different times. Auctioneer has graded the noncertified numismatic items, in the Auctioneer's opinion, to their current interpretation of the American Numismatic Association's standards as of the date the catalog was prepared. There is no guarantee or warranty implied or expressed that the grading standards utilized by the Auctioneer will meet the standards of any grading service at any time in the future.

COINS & CURRENCY TERM L: Storage of purchased coins and currency: Purchasers are advised that certain types of plastic may react with a coin's metal or transfer plasticizer to notes and may cause damage. Caution should be used to avoid storage in materials that are not inert.

COINS & CURRENCY TERM M: NOTE: Purchasers of rare coins or currency through Heritage have available the option of arbitration by the Professional Numismatists Guild (PNG); if an election is not made within ten (10) days of an unresolved dispute, Auctioneer may elect either PNG or A.A.A. Arbitration.

COINS & CURRENCY TERM N: For more information regarding Canadian lots attributed to the Charlton reference guides, please contact: Charlton International, PO Box 820, Station Willowdale B, North York, Ontario M2K 2R1 Canada.

COINS & CURRENCY TERM O: Financing. Auctioneer offers various extended payment options to qualified pre-approved persons and companies. The options include Extended Payment Programs (EPP) Flexible Payment Program (FPP) and Dealer Terms. Each program has its specific terms and conditions and such terms and conditions are strictly enforced. Each program has to be executed by the purchaser. Auctioneer reserves the right to alter or deny credit and in such case these auction terms shall control.

22001 T1 $1,000 1861 PMG Choice Very Fine 35.

Part of the iconic Montgomery series, this note is clearly one of the keys for anyone seeking to complete a Confederate type set, but it has several attributes that set it apart and make it even more desirable than usual for this type. The note was part of an order originally given to ABNCo by the fledgling Confederate States of America before the start of hostilities. The company sublet a portion of the order to cross-town rival National Bank Note Company. In order to expedite production, National used existing vignettes, accounting for the portraits of Jackson and Calhoun, an unusual pairing given their views on states' rights, on the $1,000. Only 607 notes were printed, part of the first shipment that arrived in Montgomery before April 5, 1861, a week before the war started. This note was processed in Montgomery on May 23, 1861 and was ultimately paid out by A.J. Guirot, Assistant Treasurer of the Confederate States of America, from his post in New Orleans on June 8, 1861 as evidenced by his endorsement on the back. The $1,000 denomination, which paid interest at the rate of 10¢ per day, was not primarily intended for use in day-to-day commerce but was instead envisioned as an investment vehicle that would be held for its interest income. This view is supported by the fact that this note saw very little time in circulation as evidenced by its condition. Finally, this note has a five star provenance. It was once part of the legendary "Colonel" E.H.R. Green collection. When the estate of Green, of 1913 Liberty Nickel fame, was sold, Eric Newman in partnership with B.G. Johnson doing business as the Saint Louis Stamp & Coin Co. acquired the note which remained in the Newman collection and the Eric P. Newman Numismatic Education Society holdings until it was auctioned for $76,375 in October 21, 2015 as part of our Eric P. Newman Collection Part VII Currency Signature Auction. This is a rare opportunity to add a note of great historical significance in premium condition with an equally impressive provenance.

Lowest Known Serial Number T1 $1,000 CSA Treasury Note

22002 T1 $1,000 1861 PF-1 Cr. 1 PMG Very Fine 25.
The history of the landmark Montgomery notes is well documented. Printed in New York weeks before the commencement of hostilities, National Bank Note Company produced 607 $1,000 Treasury Notes, bearing the pre-war portraits of President Andrew Jackson and John C. Calhoun, leading protagonists in the antebellum states rights discussion. In order to provide protection against counterfeiting, the note was printed with a deep green tint intended to foil photographic imitations, then in their infancy.

Of great significance, this note bears serial number 12; the lowest recorded surviving serial number at present. This note was processed in Montgomery on April 25, 1861, less than two weeks after the start of the war. Endorsements on the back indicate that it was then issued to the field in New Orleans by A.J. Guirot, Assistant Treasurer CSA on May 22, 1861 and received the same day by a person whose somewhat illegible signature makes positive identification problematic. The note, which is fully framed, printed on bright paper, with strong colors, has two cut cancels and shows some evidence of previous mounting on the back which is not overly distracting. J. Wayne Hilton has been able to trace this note's provenance all the way back to the fourth recorded auction of this denomination which took place on April 9, 1880 (Sigismund Hartzfeld, Philadelphia, PA) when Ferguson Haines, a noted coin collector from Maine, consigned it and realized the princely sum of $8.00. The market has moved higher in the last 145 years.

Endorsed T1 $1,000 CSA Treasury Note

22003 T1 $1,000 1861 PF-1 Cr. 1 PMG Choice Fine 15.
The story of the Montgomery notes, including this T1 $1,000, is well known. The fledgling Confederate government through an agent G.B. Lamar, contracted with ABNCo to produce Treasury Notes and other fiscal instruments. The Treasury Note portion of the order was subcontracted out to National Bank Note Company which used prewar vignettes in order to expedite deliveries due to the impending commencement of hostilities. A total of 607 notes were printed and issued. Federal authorities raided both New York bank note companies on April 25, 1861 terminating any further production. Many T1s have survived in relatively high grades since most were held as investments and did not actively circulate. This note spent at least some time in commerce as witnessed by an annotation on the back indicating that the note had been received by John C. Ferrill, who was Cashier of the Bank of Commerce in Savannah and later CSA Depositary, along with $26.60 interest. $1,000 notes earned 10¢ / day which indicates that the note was received on March 11, 1862, 266 days after the note was originally issued on June 18, 1861. A historically important note and piece of Confederate monetary history. PMG mentions a restoration which is difficult to discover through the holder.

Premium Condition Note Ex: Green and Newman Collections

22004 T2 $500 1861 PF-1 Cr. 2 PCGS Very Fine 35PPQ.
Part of the fabled Montgomery series, this $500 was executed by National Bank Note Company under a sublet contract with ABNCo. Due to the extreme time pressure, National selected pre-war vignettes that were on hand. In the case of the $500, a vignette titled The Crossing was chosen for the center vignette. It depicts a passenger train crossing a bridge with cattle being driven down a lane into a stream in the foreground. Engraved by James Smillie, the detail is amazing, with even the words on the tiny railroad crossing warning sign legible under magnification. A vignette of Ceres or Agriculture is at bottom left and a dark green anti-photographic tint was added. Only 607 $500s were issued, with the denomination too large for use in day-to-day commerce. Rather the $500 was viewed as more of an investment vehicle, to be held for its 3.65% interest earnings. Bearing serial number 72, this note reached Montgomery around the first of April and was issued from there on May 1, 1861. It found its way to New Orleans, LA and was, in turn, paid out by CSA Assistant Treasurer A.J. Guirot on June 3, 1861. This note's excellent condition supports the notion that these high denomination notes were held as investments rather than used in commerce. It is free of any repairs, restorations, cancellations, and other impairments that are often found on these issues. This note has a legendary provenance, once being part of both the "Colonel" E.H.R. Green and Eric P. Newman Collections. Now is the time to seize this opportunity to add your name to the provenance of this great note and become its latest caretaker. We last auctioned this note for $50,525 as part of our Eric P. Newman Collection Part VII Currency Signature Auction in 2015.

Repair and Restoration-Free T2 $500

22005 Civil Agent Endorsement "A.J. Guirot Asst. Treas. CS" T2 $500 1861 PF-1 Cr. 2 PMG Very Fine 25.
Both the denominations and the size of the Confederacy's first issue of Treasury Notes made from Montgomery at the start of the war are indicative of an unstated belief that the conflict would probably be a short one and might not even be inevitable. The issue only totaled $1,000,000 and comprised only large denomination ($50 to $1000) notes that paid 3.65% per annum interest. These were clearly envisioned as investment vehicles rather than as currency to be used in day-to-day commerce. The dawning realization that this would, in fact, be a long and costly war eventually led to the issue, by some accounts, of over $1.5 Billion dollars in Treasury Notes by the end of the war. The $500 denomination, not issued again until 1864, was part of an order placed with ABNCo in New York in March 1861. The expectation that hostilities could commence at any time, led to the Treasury Note portion of the order being subcontracted to National Bank Note Company which made exclusive use of pre-war vignettes in order to expedite the design and production process. The $500 vignettes chosen included a very detailed view of a train crossing a bridge with cattle drinking in a creek below, titled The Crossing, engraved by James Smillie and a smaller vignette depicting Ceres seated by agricultural products, holding a hand scythe. The Crossing is so detailed that the words on a small railroad warning sign by the horseman can be read under magnification. National made lavish use of green ink as a deterrent against potential photographic counterfeiting efforts.

Only 607 $500s were issued, with this note being processed on May 1, 1861, just a week before the decision was made to move the nation's capital to Richmond. The back of the note bears a manuscript endorsement indicating that it was placed in commerce on June 3, 1861 by A.J. Guirot who was serving as an Assistant Treasurer of the Confederacy in New Orleans at the time.

The note, unlike many of its Montgomery peers, has seen some time in commerce but is still bright and clean with clear handwritten information and vibrant green and black colors. It is fully framed and uncanceled. Importantly, it is free of any restorations and repairs, with no meaningful condition distractions noted. The note's provenance can be traced back to its appearance in Christie's September 7, 1989 sale, consigned by Felix and Henri Weil, founders of Medallic Art Co.

T3 $100 with a Lynchburg VA Military Endorsement

22006 Military Endorsement “T(homas) G. Williams Capt. & C(ommissary) S(ubsistence)” T3 $100 1861 PF-2 Cr. 3 PMG About Uncirculated 53 EPQ.

Like other notes from the Montgomery series, this $100 was printed by National Bank Note Company under contract from ABNCo on the very eve of the Civil War. In order to expedite the design and production process, pre-war vignettes were selected including the center vignette of a passenger train sitting in a busy station flanked by an ornate 100 counter at right and a vignette titled America at left. Interestingly, National took a little time to widen the vertical bars on the shield in this vignette in order to “defederalize” it a bit. A green anti-photographic tint was also incorporated. This note’s serial number places it in the second and last shipment of 1,000 half sheets of $50-$100 that was shipped from New York around the third week in April, after the commencement of hostilities. The first notes from this second shipment were processed in Montgomery on May 4, 1861. This note was processed on May 16, 1861 and was later issued to the field on June 1(?), 1861 by Thomas G. Williams, Captain and Commissary Subsistence. Based on his endorsement on other Montgomery notes, the place of issue was likely Lynchburg, VA. This note has the same storied provenance as several other Montgomery notes in tonight’s auction, tracing its origins to The “Colonel” E.H.R. Green Collection before becoming a long term holding in The Eric P. Newman Collection. We last auctioned this note in 2015 as part of our Eric P. Newman Collection Part VII Currency Signature Auction where it brought $29,375. A great note with a great story and a provenance to match.

T3 $100 Second Lowest Serial Number Known - First Day of Issue

22007 T3 $100 1861 PF-1 Cr. 3 PMG Extremely Fine 40.
The story of the Montgomery CSA notes is well known, but can be briefly recounted. The so-called Montgomery notes were originally ordered by the Confederacy, using an agent in New York, G.B. Lamar, before the war started. Lamar placed the order with ABNCo who, in order to expedite deliveries, subcontracted the Treasury Note portion of the order which included other fiscal instruments to National Bank Note Company. National, using pre-war vignettes, shipped 607 four subject sheets to Montgomery before the war started. It is interesting to note that National took some amount of care and time to “defederalize” the shield leaning by America at left by reducing the number of vertical bars appearing on it to three from the prewar number of thirteen. This note, which bears the second lowest serial number, 12, was issued from Montgomery on April 5, 1861; one of only 19 $100s and 5 $50s issued on that day, the first day of issue for Montgomery notes. This beautiful note has great paper and design details that retain their original bright color. Margins are also quite acceptable, with just the right margin being trimmed just into the design. The note is free of repairs and meaningful impairments, with PMG mentioning only a few closed pinholes. A desirable and historic piece of Confederate monetary history.

Choice T4 $50 Montgomery with Virginia Military Endorsement

22008 Military Endorsement "Thomas K. Jackson Capt CSA" T4 $50 1861 PF-2 Cr. 4 PCGS Extremely Fine 45PPQ.
The $50 was the lowest denomination issued as part of the landmark "Montgomery" series ordered, designed, printed, and delivered in a matter of weeks on the very eve of the Civil War in March-April of 1861. Like the other higher values which follow, the $50 used an existing pre-war era vignette to expedite production, in this case, one of slaves hoeing cotton that appeared on at least one pre-war bank note (Bank of Savannah [GA] $2 G8a) and on a later CSA Treasury Note (T41 $100 1862-63). An anti-photographic green tint was also incorporated. This note's serial number, 888, places it as part of the second shipment of 1,000 two subject sheets of $50-$100 that barely made it out of New York ahead of federal authorities intent on intercepting it around April 22-24, 1861. The shipment made it to Montgomery shorty before May 4, 1861 when the first notes with serial numbers above 607 were processed. This note was processed on May 14, 1861 and subsequently issued to the field by Captain Thomas K. Jackson on July 16, 1861. Jackson was stationed at Lynchburg, VA and had taken over the commissary duties of another officer on June 4, 1861. He was appointed Captain the following day and remained in Lynchburg until July 31, 1861, when he was ordered to report to General McCulloch in Fort Smith Arkansas. By the end of 1861, he was Major and Chief Commissary Western Department, reporting to General Johnston. Jackson survived the war and was paroled on May 13, 1865, with the rank of Major. The $50 Montgomery issue, like its sister denominations, is clearly one of the keys to the Confederate series. As a point of reference, had this note received a comparable grade from PMG, it would currently be in the top 12% of all notes listed in the PMG Population Report. Grading aside, this is an exceedingly attractive note with a clear and legible military endorsement and great historic importance that will attract considerable attention in tonight's auction.

T4 Montgomery Note with "Great Color" Accolade

22009 Manuscript Endorsement "A.J. Guirot" T4 $50 1861 PF-2 Cr. 4 PMG Very Fine 25.
T4 was the last of the iconic Montgomery Confederate Treasury Notes, which were issued before the capital of the Confederacy was moved from Montgomery, AL to Richmond, VA. The example in this lot bears serial number 1365, which indicates, according to Pierre Fricke's 2014 book Collecting Confederate Paper Money, that this note was issued in the second printing. This printing was on a half sheet with the T3 $100, while the first printing was on a sheet with all four Montgomery denominations ($1,000, $500, $100, and $50). The NBNCo, which was located in New York, printed Types 1 through 4. Cyrus Durand, who invented the geometric lathe (a tool utilized to engrave complicated designs), was the individual who made the use of the intricate green lathework present on this note possible. At center is a vignette of workers hoeing cotton with a plantation house in the background. Unlike later emissions, the four Montgomery notes were signed by the actual Confederate Treasury officers. Alexander Baron Clitherall penned his signature for Register, while Edward Carrington Elmore signed for Treasurer. On the back is a manuscript endorsement belonging to A.J. Guirot, the Assistant Treasurer of the Confederate States of America, which communicates that our current offering was issued on June 24, 1861, out of New Orleans, LA. Guirot served in New Orleans for a number of years, having signed many City of New Orleans Municipality issues before joining the Confederacy. PMG has granted this outstanding note its "Great Color" accolade, which is a very rare occurrence. In fact, we have not offered a T4 with this commendation from PMG prior to now. This award is well deserved, especially for the assigned grade, as this example has the look of a note in much higher grade. Bold, rich green inks on the face highlight the bright white paper upon which this piece is printed. Light folds, fresh embossing of the blue serial numbers, and a nearly full frame also characterize this example. The last PMG VF 25 with Guirot's endorsement to cross our auction block realized $11,400 in May 2022. We should see spirited bidding for this rare type before the hammer falls tonight.

High Grade T12 Manouvrier $5

22010 T12 $5 1861 PF-1 Cr. 47 PMG About Uncirculated 50.
Early 1861 found Secretary Memminger casting about for qualified printers after his northern sources (the American and National Bank Note Companies) were emphatically terminated from doing business with the Confederacy in April 1861. A small New Orleans lithographer, Jules Manouvrier, managed to finagle a contract to print $5 and $10 Treasury Notes for the government. The design was a simple, yet out-of-the-box, approach that was unique in two ways for that time: 1. The design had no vignettes of any kind and 2. The design did incorporate a blue back design while all other Confederate Treasury Notes at the time were uniface. Manouvrier's downfall was a completely unsatisfactory approach to shipping finished notes to Richmond. Rather than using wooden boxes, Manouvrier simply wrapped uncut sheets of notes in brown paper and sent them off. Manouvrier's business came to an abrupt halt when a shipment of $5 and $10 notes was damaged enroute to Richmond, with some $10s being pilfered and placed in circulation with falsely added serial numbers and signatures. The $10s were recalled (the $10 design remains unknown to this day) and destroyed while the remaining $5s were issued. A total of 15,556 $5s were issued and today the type is considered one of the keys to the Confederate series. Manouvrier went on to do some work for southern state governments and private issuers, even repurposing his blue back design for this note for the back of a Georgia bank, but was out of the security printing business when New Orleans fell to federal forces at the end of April 1862. The note itself is well printed with decent margins although the left margin is a bit tight. The back is a richer, deeper blue than often found on this note. A very scarce note in nice condition, that is a key to completing a Confederate Type Set. It sits nicely in the top 10% of PMG graded examples.

Total Printing of 1,416 Examples from Eight Subject Numbered Plen Plate

22011 T27 $10 1861 PF-2 Cr. 228 PMG Very Fine 20.
Type 27 $10s comprise two Plate designation varieties. This $10 is from the much rarer A-number plate configuration (A-9 through A-16). The eight subject numbered-plen plate produced only 1,416 notes that were issued before production was abruptly terminated. We are without a good explanation as to why this occurred after only producing 177 sheets. In any case, the numbered plen T27 is extremely rare in any condition, yet alone in a problem-free Very Fine grade. When we auctioned this note in 2015 as part of The Eric P. Newman Collection Part VII Currency Signature Auction, it crossed the auction block for $25,850. Our conservative estimate for this repair-free example with decent paper, margins, well printed design elements, and lack of any meaningful impairments, will allow the market to determine this rare note's present value.

Rare T27 $10

22012 T27 $10 1861 PF-1 Cr. 221 PMG Very Fine 20.
The year 1861 saw a number of unusual low press run designs thrown into circulation by the Confederate government. Overall, this led to great confusion, and to some degree, a lack of confidence from the general public. That was the case with T27 $10s. Printed by Hoyer & Ludwig, only 7,160 Plate Ab notes were issued before production was ended. Four Ab plate notes were paired with four T35 “Indian Princess” $5 treasury notes on an eight subject lithographic stone. It is still unclear why so few notes were printed before production was halted, although the most likely explanation is that there was a catastrophic failure of the plate. Fricke indicates that “the type is extremely rare in grades above Fine.” This is affirmed by the fact that only 12 out of 47 notes have higher reported grades in the PMG Population Report at present. PMG notes a small tape repair in the top margin and that the note has been canceled.

Choice Uncirculated T33 - One of Three Certified by PMG at This Level

22013 T33 $5 1861 PF-19 Cr. 257b PMG Choice Uncirculated 63.
The T33 Confederate Treasury Note in this lot, dated September 2, 1861, is of superior quality. This type was originally produced by the firm Leggett, Keatinge & Ball, but after Leggett was removed from the organization in March 1862 for associating with a Union spy, the printer name was altered to Keatinge & Ball. This later printer name is present on our current offering. The artwork on the T33 is comprised of a portrait of Confederate Secretary of the Treasury Christopher Gustavus Memminger at center and a depiction of the war goddess Minerva with a spear at right. T(homas) L(eiper) Crouch signed for Register, and A(lbert) W. Gray endorsed for Treasurer. This particular variety, PF-19, is characterized by “FIVE” watermarked paper and light green overprints on the face. The note featured in this lot shares the spot with two other T33s for second finest certified by PMG. This Confederate is set apart from other examples of the type because of its vibrant green overprints and natural paper wave. The margins are excellent for the type as well, with the bottom, left, and right frame lines being full. We have not offered any T33 above Choice Uncirculated 63 in our previous auctions. The last comparable piece we offered was another PMG CU 63 that fetched $10,800 in January 2024. T33 $5s of such lofty caliber are rarely put on the market, and they are highly contested for when opportunities to purchase them do materialize.

Repair and Restoration-Free Indian Princess Note

22014 T35 $5 1861 PF-1 Cr. 271 PMG Very Fine 25.
The so-called Indian Princess note had its inspiration from a $5 Bank of Charleston plate that the bank donated to the Confederate government during the war. Hoyer & Ludwig retained the so-called Indian Princess vignette and the oval 5 counters in the upper left and lower right corners, but reworked the rest of the design including the text and the vignette in the lower left corner of two slaves working with cotton bales under the watchful eye of an overseer. Only 7,160 examples were printed before production was permanently suspended. The reason for such a short run is still a mystery, with the most popular theory being that the lithography stone suffered an early catastrophic failure of some kind that made repairs or refurbishment unfeasible. The T35 $5, which shared an eight subject plate with four T27 $10s, in any case, was quickly replaced by T36 $5s, one of the largest printings made at the time, with over 3,694,000 examples issued. So perhaps the T36 plates were already very nearly complete or complete when the T35 plate failed, leading to the decision to scrap the old design. T35s are notorious for having problems, restorations, repairs, damage, and other impairments. This note, once part of Eric P. Newman's collection, is the happy and very rare exception to that rule of thumb, with nice paper surfaces, well printed design details and hand written information, as well as decent margins. This note crossed the auction block for $51,700 in 2015 as part of our Eric P. Newman Collection Part VII Currency Signature Auction with that price recognizing the significance of an example free of any meaningful issues. As we stated when we offered this note in that auction: Treasured for decades for its grace, history and rarity, this famous note is worthy of being the centerpiece of an exceptional Confederate type set or any cabinet of iconic numismatic Americana. Our conservative estimate will allow the market to determine the worth of this rarity in today's marketplace.

Key Indian Princess Type Note

22015 T35 $5 1861 PF-1 Cr. 271 PMG Fine 12 Net.
The T35 is the third rarest Confederate type. This issue was emitted from the Confederate Treasury over a period of just nine days (November 26 through December 5, 1861). The T35 $5 shared an eight subject plate with four T27 $10s. The T35 and T27 were lithographed in a complex process. First, the lithographer bound their design onto a stone plate. After this, the plate was treated with a specialized solution, and lithotine was applied to ensure the design remained on the stone. Ink was spread over it, and finally, the paper was pressed onto the block. This process produced the iconic depiction of a Native American Princess traveling through a forest which is situated at right. That vignette earned this note its “Indian Princess” nickname. Draper, Toppan, Longacre & Co. were the originators of the illustration and utilized it on numerous Obsoletes in the early 1800s. The plate used for this vignette was donated to the Confederate Treasury by the Bank of Charleston, which had used the image on its $5 denomination. T(emple) Ellett signed our current offering for Register. Ellett began as a government clerk in Richmond. He moved in June 1861 to the Treasury Note Department of the Confederate States of America, where he signed Confederate Treasury Notes. Goodloe, who signed for Treasurer, was a clerk as well, but he worked in Washington, D.C. for the United States government. At the outbreak of the Civil War, he contacted the Confederacy and was granted a job as signer of their paper money. T35s are a great rarity in Confederate collecting. PMG mentions a corner added at lower left as well as repairs. Our estimate should certainly be tested tonight for this splendid Hoyer & Ludwig creation.

Famed $20 Confederate Fantasy Note

22016 T47 $20 1862 PF-1 Cr. 345 PCGS Apparent Very Fine 35.
Scholars have published several possible origin stories for the T47 Confederate. The first view held is that these pieces are experimental type notes that were not circulated. Another theory is that they were designed by a separate entity not affiliated with the Confederate Treasury. It is also believed that they could have been produced postwar. Both the T47 and T48 Fantasy Notes are similar to the T46, with a portrait of Robert Mercer Taliaferro Hunter at lower right. Hunter was appointed Confederate Secretary of State in July 1861 by President Jefferson Davis, but he resigned on February 18, 1862, and pursued a job as a Confederate senator until the end of the Civil War. A depiction of Ceres seated by cotton bales and a striped shield is present at center. The printer's imprint mimics that of Keatinge & Ball, whose offices were located in Columbia, SC. However, in a rather satirical fashion, the imprint on this note has been altered to read Keatings & Ball, Columbus, SC, possibly because this piece was designed by Hoyer & Ludwig as a way to deride their rival. Because of their status as a type note in most Confederate collections, and also because of the possibility that they were issued by the Confederate government, T47s are always in high demand. PCGS mentions minor edge repairs which affect little. We have estimated conservatively for this rarity.

Impairment Free Confederate Fantasy Note

22017 T48 $10 1862 "XX-3" PMG Very Fine 20.
The T48 is similar to the T47 Confederate because of its engraved signatures, vignette of R.M.T. Hunter at right, and comically bungled printer's imprint of Keatings & Ball, Columbus, SC. However, the two are distinguished by the central vignette. On the T47, Ceres is seated by a striped shield and cotton bales. On this T48, Ceres glances to her right as cattle graze in the background. The type is, just like the T47, believed to be an experimental note, a fantasy design not affiliated with the Confederate Treasury, or a piece produced postwar. In Pierre Fricke's 2014 book Collecting Confederate Paper Money, the rarity is listed as R10, 21-50 known. We auctioned a PMG VF 20 with stains for $12,000 in May 2023. Our current offering is boldly inked with a full inner and outer frame, and exhibits problem free, even wear. The May 2023 figure should easily be topped tonight.

Auction Lot Description Cut-Out Dec. 8-9, 1933.
Two plates would have been used to print the Treasury Note Chemicograph backs. First was a "Ground Plate", with the denomination (500, 100, FIFTY, TWENTY, TEN, FIVE). Next, a "Surface Plate" would be applied to complete the printing. None of the three high denomination Ground Plates are known to exist, but a TEN and a FIVE were discovered along with four surface plates ($50, $20, $10, $5) by one Charles Chaplin (not the actor) in 1877. These were employed to produce the first printed sets of Chemicograph backs. The whereabouts of those six plates are unknown and sets of those first printings are quite rare.

However, we are now privileged to witness the surfacing of two Ground Plates. First is a previously unknown TEN denomination and second is a new and possibly unique TWENTY denomination. The plates are accompanied by a September 9, 1955 approval invoice rubberstamped as "paid" from the New Netherlands Coin Company of New York and two large envelopes for that firm that have held these two plates for almost 70 years. The buyer was Lucius S. Ruder, part owner of the Cincinnati Sheet Metal and Roofing Company and later Belleair, FL mayor from 1948-51. The first item listed on the invoice is, "2 Rev(erse). CSA Chemicograph plates; TEN, TWENTY, w. metal. Ex: Elder. See Chase p. 123, the $20 unpub(lished). of great historical value. $150." Adjusted for inflation, $150 is about $1,740 today. The approval invoice has edge damage. Along with the invoice is a cutout from a Thomas Elder auction catalog page stating that the TEN (lot 172) and the TWENTY (lot 173) came from the shop of Evans and Cogswell (Charleston/Columbia, SC printers of Confederate Treasury notes during the war.) The Thomas Elder lot description for the TWENTY Ground Plate also states that it is unique. Both lots 172 and 173 have been marked with a pencil signifying interest of a bidder long ago. Prolific auctioneer Elder conducted 292 auctions from March 1903 to May 25, 1940. All of Elder's auctions with highlights are listed in United States Numismatic Literature Volume II by John W. Adams. We started with Elder's last auction and worked our way backwards carefully examining the highlights for each sale and found on page 46 of Adams, Auction 255 December 8-9, 1933, "Plates For Confederate Paper." Next, we visited the Newman Numismatic Portal and they have a scanned copy of the December 1933 Elder auction catalog. We found that this is indeed the auction where these two Confederate Chemicograph back Ground Plates crossed the auction block.

The $10 in this lot is not a plate found by Charles Chaplin. His plates were originally in Boston and were reused circa 1935 to reprint Chemicograph sets of the First Printing. Since the whereabouts of Chaplin's TEN is unknown, and we are not aware of any other TEN Ground Plates, we believe this auction's TEN is, for the time being, unique. It is not graded, but does have a small gouge along the right edge of the printing surface. As to this auction's TWENTY Ground Plate, future research will likely tell us more about it. For now, however, it has recently surfaced, unique, not graded with the printing surface in nice condition, and will certainly be a treasure for the fortunate bidder who takes it home.

Both of these copper Ground Plates measure approximately 7.25 by 3.125 inches. The See Chase p. 123 in the approval invoice refers to the 1947 reference, Confederate Treasury Notes by Philip H. Chase. Pages 123-25 is Mr. Chase's chapter on the Chemicograph Backs. Chase would reprint Chemicograph backs in the late 1940s and late 1950s. Chase donated his Chemicograph back plates to the Smithsonian Institution in May 1958 and they will forever be unavailable to collectors. The Ground Plates in this lot are making just their second auction appearance in over 90 years.

The $10 and $5 uniface color copies were prepared by Brent Hughes in 1990 according to a sticker on the back of each. Hughes was known as "Mr. Confederate" and was SPMC founding member #7. He wrote many Confederate articles for Paper Money, the bimonthly journal of the Society of Paper Money Collectors.

This interesting subject is discussed extensively in The Confederate Chemicograph Backs Revisited second edition by Peter Bertram. We would like to thank the author of that reference for his help with this description.

Rare $5 Confederate Chemicograph Back Surface Plate

22020 $5 Confederate Chemicograph Back Surface Plate Intended for Confederate Paper Money ND ca. 1864 Bertram C669 Not Graded; $5 Confederate Chemicograph Back Surface Plate First Printing Reprint ND ca. 1935 Bertram C169b PMG Choice Uncirculated 64. The faces of the 1864 Confederate Treasury notes were so similar to the faces of the 1863 issue that new back printing plates were needed and ordered from S. Straker & Sons of London, England. The finished plates are known today as the Chemicograph plates. Three separate shipments of plates were made on January 8, February 26, and March 15, 1864 to Nassau in the Bahamas. From here, blockade runners with the plates on board sailed toward the Confederacy. There were three different shipments in case one or two of the shipments were not able to slip through the Union blockade. As luck would have it, none of the three shipments evaded the blockade. Therefore, the Confederate Note Bureau prepared the blue backs for the $5-$100 1864 Treasury notes we are all familiar with. Nonetheless, several of the Chemicograph back plates did somehow survive the war. They were used to produce four different printings and several "enigmatics" or individual notes through the years. These printing plates are rare with perhaps just eight or nine $5 Surface Plates known. The Surface Plate in this lot is one of those and is quite rare indeed. Measurements are approximately 7 by 3 inches. It is not graded, but is nicely preserved as we are unable to find any scratches or gouges on the printing surface. The second item in this lot is a back surface plate first printing reprint. This reprint issue was printed from one of the original FIVE surface plates discovered by Charles Chaplin in 1877. Detailed information on this subject can be found in The Confederate Chemicograph Backs Revisited second edition by Peter Bertram. We would like to thank the author of that reference for the given population figure, too. From The Confederate Treasury Collection (Total: 2 items)

A charming uncut strip of three of this error where the notes are perforated horizontally, but not vertically. The selvage is retained on the left and top indicating this strip is from the top left of the sheet. The notes themselves are sharply printed on buff colored paper and have great eye appeal. Although a few single examples are known, multiples that are documented are a block of nine, a strip of four that previously was owned by Milton Friedberg and later was part of The Frederick Mayer Collection, and the strip of three in this lot which was lot 598 in Session XIX of The John J. Ford, Jr. Collection. Ford acquired it out of the F.C.C. Boyd estate.

22022 Registers and Treasurers Courtesy Autograph Fr. 1226 Milton 3R3.1bs 3¢ Third Issue Uncut Block of Eight PMG About Uncirculated 50.

Milton 3R3.1bs is listed as unique on page 103 of the 2000 sixth edition of The Encyclopedia of United States Postage & Fractional Currency by Milton R. Friedberg. One determined numismatic autograph seeker was able to create this highly unusual Fractional autograph rarity. The signatures have the appearance of being executed in the same fountain pen ink and therefore all four signers were probably at the same event. Both notes on each row have the same signatures. The top row has the signatures of Gabe E. Parker and John Burke, the second row has the signatures of Gabe E. Parker and Frank White, the third row has the signatures of Houston B. Teehee and Frank White, and the bottom row has the signatures of Houston B. Teehee and John Burke. The left signatures on the notes are always of a Register of the Treasury, while the right signatures are of a Treasurer of the US. These four Treasury officials were in office from 1913-28. The officer pairs that served together are Parker-Burke and Teehee-Burke. This autographed block of eight was lot 215 in Part XI of The John J. Ford, Jr. Collection.

One of Two Known Fr. 1373a Uncut Pairs

22023 Fr. 1373a 50¢ Third Issue Justice Uncut Pair PMG Choice About Unc 58 EPQ.
Rare is certainly the word for Fr. 1373a, as the population is composed of two pairs and five singles, for a grand total of nine notes for the many Fractional collectors to vie for. All but one single note comes from a block of eight (from a sheet of twelve) that was lot 958 in the June 3-4, 1903 offering of The Collection of Monroe J. Friedman of United States Fractional Currency. That auction was conducted by S.H. and H. Chapman of Philadelphia and labeled at the time as, "The Finest Series Ever Offered at Auction." The Fractional Currency section of this auction has withstood the test of time into the modern era, as it has earned an "A" rating by John W. Adams in his United States Numismatic Literature Volume 1 published in 1982. The description for lot 958 in the original Chapman Brothers catalog reads, "50 cents. Justice seated. R(everse). Green back. S 2 64. Parchment, fibre (sic) paper. Creased twice through notes. Block of 8. Excessively rare. 8 pcs." The winning bidder was Chicago Numismatic Society member and advanced collector, Judson P. Brenner. Later, Brenner was the ninth president of the ANA from 1911-13, and went on to also own both an 1884 and an 1885 Trade Dollar. Brenner passed away in 1929. The block of eight was cut into four individual notes and two pairs at some point. One pair made its way into the F.C.C. Boyd Collection and was purchased from his estate by John J. Ford, Jr. Its next auction appearance was as lot 944 in Part III of the auction of Ford's collection. For completeness purposes, the ninth example known was a very heavily circulated piece that walked into and out of a Metropolitan New York Spring Show in the early 1980s. The population figure of nine for this number has not budged in over 40 years since that show. The uncut pair in this lot is fully margined with sharply defined S-2-6-4 surcharges, and has only the original handling seen by the Chapman Brothers over 120 years ago. It is fully margined with a partial plate number in the selvage at lower left. We have now auctioned both Fr. 1373a uncut pairs. Our earlier offering graded PMG 55 EPQ and realized $66,000 in January 2024. The example in this lot is the highest single Fr. 1373a note or pair graded, without exception, by PMG and therefore will command extra attention from the collector community.

22024 Fr. TN-2 Hessler X69A United States - Act of June 30, 1812 $100 5-2/5% Treasury Note Unsigned Remainder. PCGS Apparent Fine 15.
The first War of 1812 Treasury Note type and therefore historically important. We are aware of only six confirmed examples, the five including an uncut pair example listed on page 33 of Treasury Notes of the War of 1812 by Donald H. Kagin, PhD plus the plate letter B example in this lot. The financial instruments from the Act of June 30, 1812 bore 5-2/5% interest for a one-year term. They were willingly subscribed to by investors and virtually all were redeemed within two years. All June 30, 1812, notes existing today are unsigned remainders. In total only nine examples, six $100 notes and three $1,000 notes from this initial act have been confirmed by us. These were the only two denominations printed.

Like all War of 1812 Treasury Notes, this issue was printed for the Federal government by Murray, Draper, Fairman & Co. in Philadelphia. A uniface large format note, it is similar in size to period drafts and larger than concurrently circulating private banknotes. They were printed by a two-subject plate letter A and B engraved copper plate onto bond paper with red and blue silk fibers. The first three acts shared a similar design style featuring an eagle and an American shield. The Friedberg catalog reports 15,000 $100 notes were issued, but no issued pieces survive today.

The Apparent grade is due to splits, tears, minor damage, and minor stains. Major design features are impacted minimally and this remainder remains a nice representative for its third party grade.
Starting Bid: $5,000

FEDERAL PROOFS

22025 United States Loan of 1848 Bond $500 18__ Hessler X119E Specimen PCGS Choice New 63.
A highly desirable Specimen without a serial number and not a remainder as stated on the PCGS front label. This is a complete bond printed on both sides and one of only two examples known. The other was lot 440 sold during Part VI of The John J. Ford, Jr. Collection. The complete bond Specimen in this lot is the Hessler plate example on page 172 of An Illustrated History of U.S. Loans 1775-1898 by Gene Hessler. It was engraved by Toppan, Carpenter, & Co. on bond paper and is the much nicer of the two known Specimen bonds.

The Loan of 1848 Act was passed in the event the Mexican-American War continued beyond July 1, 1848. The war ended with the Treaty of Guadalupe Hidalgo effective as of May 30, 1848. Therefore, the entire Loan of 1848 issue became unnecessary with only Proofs and Specimens left behind as reminders.

This Specimen is mounted in such a fashion so that both sides are viewable. The face of the bond is outlined in black ink with shading. This is a perfect example of the telltale Vattemare rim mounting. Alexander Vattemare, a well placed French supporter of the Union who paid a visit to the United States in 1862, met with Secretary of the Treasury Salmon Chase in Washington, DC and with presidents of the main engraving companies in New York City. Vattemare, a student of American financial history and apparently a man of considerable charm, induced Chase and others to part with Proof samples of American bonds and notes. The Vattemare holdings were mounted in albums so that both sides of each item could be observed. Luckily for the collecting community of today, Vattemare was able to secure rare items that we can all enjoy. His collection surfaced at a London stamp auction in 1982. This hole punched Specimen combines history, rarity, and superb engraving into one lovely item.

22027 Fr. 2 $5 1861 Demand Note PMG Gem Uncirculated 65 EPQ.
Sixty-four Fr. 2 notes have been examined by PMG, but the piece in this lot is the highest PMG graded example by 25 grade points. Also, the highest graded example by PCGS Banknote is an XF 45. A further look at Track & Price reveals that they have listed two PCGS 66 EPQ notes, but one is a Proof and the other has a serial number that cannot be a Fr. 2. Therefore, we will crown our current offering the finest Fr. 2 known. It is a Series 7 $5 that is strictly original with both excellent color and natural paper wave that rolls across the back. The "for the" signatures of W.A. Croffit and H.H. Hall are dark and easily readable.

Demand notes were printed on thin paper that did not take kindly to everyday circulation. Luckily, the note in this lot must have been put aside immediately in order for it to earn PMG's rarely seen triple accolade of, "Exceptional Paper Quality, Color & Embossing." A great note that was once part of The Brookdale Collection that was auctioned in 1979. Its next offering was Heritage's June 1987 auction as lot 4029. We speculated that it was the finest known example in that long ago catalog description and that holds true today. It would have three more auction appearances in the 21st century culminating with a winning bid of $408,000 in March 2023. In the year 2014, we had three different unique or Serial Number 1 $10 and $20 Demand Notes in PMG grades of 15 Net-30 EPQ receive winning bids in the neighborhood of $305,000 to $411,000. Our current $5 offering should be included in that select club due to being the finest Fr. 2 known.

Boston PMG VF 25 Demand Note

22028 Fr. 3 $5 1861 Demand Note PMG Very Fine 25.
A nice representative for the grade of VF 25, this offering made its first public appearance at a 1982 auction. PMG has commented that this Boston issued Series 5 note has been repaired. There are a few sealed small edge splits, two small holes close to the right edge have been filled in, and a replaced upper right corner tip. The repairs were executed with skill and can only be observed when the note is candled/backlit. The inks are quite nice for the grade and the penned signatures are present with the "for the Register" signature being dark and clear and the "for the Treasurer" less so, but still legible. Demand Notes were issued at the beginning of the Civil War and saw extensive circulation. They are hard to find without third party comments, too. PMG has graded 57 Fr. 3 notes with only eight examples graded higher than our current offering.

A truly exceptional example of one of the most sought after type notes from an even more popular series. The famed “Rainbow” series of 1869 introduced Legal Tender notes that boasted vibrant and exceptionally bright colors that immediately capture the interest of the viewer. The example presented in this lot is home to four massive margins and great centering, resulting in the well deserved grade of Gem New 66PPQ from PCGS. The rainbow colors are as bold and attractive as ever, and will certainly please this note’s new owner. Last September, we offered an equivalently graded PCGS example which brought over $16,000.

Widely Margined Gem Rainbow Ace

22030 Fr. 18 $1 1869 Legal Tender PCGS Gem New 65PPQ.
A well preserved Rainbow Ace with wide margins, this was part of our August 2016 ANA Auction where it realized $9,987. Since then, winning bids in our auctions for Fr. 18 examples in this third party grade of Gem 65 have been in an upward climb with an occasional small dip. In 2024, we had three different Fr. 18 notes all graded PMG 65 EPQ receive winning bids of $16,800 to $18,600. We see nothing to dispel this trend for either $1 Rainbows or quality notes in general.

Popularly known as the Rainbow $1 thanks to the extravagant use of color, this example displays vibrant green, black, and red colors (including a striking oversize red treasury seal) complemented by a blue security stain. The note is well printed on bright paper with original surfaces and has excellent margins. It currently occupies the top spot in the PCGS Banknote population data (tied with two others), with 83 examples recorded at present. To provide some reference, had this received the same grade from PMG, it would currently be part of a population of 1,143 examples of this Friedberg number, with fifteen notes receiving a higher grade. A worthy addition to any collection.

The note checks all of the boxes for its assigned grade with excellent paper possessing original surfaces, vibrant colors, and very nice evenly proportioned margins and face-to-back registration. With an approximate print run of around 56,000 notes, the Fr. 33 with the Rosecrans-Huston signatures and large brown seal is the rarest of the 1880 $1 Legal Tenders, and by a significant margin. Well Preserved Rainbow Deuce

22037 Fr. 42 $2 1869 Legal Tender PCGS Gem New 65PPQ.
Red, blue, and green inks give this Friedberg number its affectionate Rainbow Deuce nickname. Serial number embossing is seen on this well preserved plate letter C example with original paper surfaces. The previous year was a banner year for Fr. 42 at this third party grade level. January 2024 saw us auction a PMG 65 EPQ for $38,400. This was followed up by a PCGS Banknote 65 PPQ that we offered in September 2024 which also realized $38,400. These were the highest two prices that we have ever achieved for this Friedberg number at the third party 65 grade level. A new year just may bring an even higher realized winning bid. This note is listed in Track & Price as having minor ink. That is certainly not the case and that typo will be corrected in the next release of T&P.

Krause-Lemke Plate Note

22038 Fr. 42 $2 1869 Legal Tender PCGS Gem New 65.
A well preserved Rainbow Deuce sure to please, as it sports excellent color, and the right serial number exhibits embossing on the back. Serial number U6797403 in this lot was chosen to be the plate note for the Standard Catalog of United States Paper Money by Chester L. Krause and Robert F. Lemke. It has appeared at auction only once before, to the best of our acknowledge, and that occurred in 2016. Since then, we have auctioned a different Fr. 42 in PCGS 65 which realized $9,600 in January 2019. More recently, we auctioned a PCGS Banknote 65 PPQ example for $38,400 in September 2024. That result leads us to believe that there is plenty of value in the PCGS 65 with embossing note that is in this lot.

Very Choice Rainbow Deuce

22039 Fr. 42 $2 1869 Legal Tender PCGS Very Choice New 64.
An always popular note due to its lavish color palette, this Rainbow Deuce, the first $2 to feature Thomas Jefferson, is darkly printed on solid paper with broad margins. The left margin is a bit tight, which probably restrained this note from an even higher grade, but the overall visual appeal is still excellent. A nice add for any type note collection. While this grade would not be a contender for "top pop" status, it would still rank in the top 4% of the reported population of this Friedberg number in the PMG statistics.

Fully Uncirculated Fr. 45 1875 Legal Deuce

22040 Fr. 45 $2 1875 Legal Tender PMG Uncirculated 62.
In 1875, the Bureau of Engraving and Printing decided to sequence each series with a letter. This was done for each 1,000,000 notes printed of $1 and $2 Legal Tenders. Thus, Series A was the first million notes printed, Series B the second million, and so on. The practice was quickly abandoned and only used on this issue. For aces, Series A through E were used before simply reverting back to "Series of 1875." Just Series A and B were used on the $2 Legals before returning to the simple series date. The Series A is scarcer than B, despite being printed in the same quantity, and far rarer than the simple Series of 1875 deuces. This example has full margins and excellent color, though there is a small repaired edge tear noted. Aside from a PMG 65 EPQ note that we auctioned for over $20,000 four years ago, we have not been able to offer any other CU examples of this Friedberg number since 2008.

A horizontal center fold and a trivial corner fold is the only circulation we can find through the third party holder. PMG has not graded any equal and only six higher of this number. This is also one of the much scarcer numbers for this design that consists of Frieberg numbers 42-60. 22045 Fr. 56 $2 1880 Legal Tender PCGS Superb Gem New 67PPQ.
This top notch Fr. 56 last crossed the auction block at our January 2016 FUN auction. At that time we called it an exquisite deuce from a consecutive run of beautifully original and well preserved examples, each of which drips with vivid colors and shows excellent paper wave. None of the above qualities have changed in the last nine years when it comes to this beauty. Also, the last 67 on this Friedberg number to participate in an auction occurred in 2017. That PMG 67 EPQ piece realized $6,462. PMG has graded in total only three at this third party grade level and none higher. PCGS Banknote has not examined a single example above 66 PPQ. Quality prevails for this Friedberg number and the piece in this lot should surpass the earlier eight-year-old figure.

Exceptionally High Grade 1862 $5 Legal

22046 Fr. 61a $5 1862 Legal Tender PCGS Gem New 66PPQ.
Issued over 160 years ago, this simply remarkable $5 Legal Tender has defied the odds by remaining in such pristine condition. PCGS has assigned a well deserved grade of Gem New 66PPQ, and upon first glance this note appears that it could have graded even higher. The colors found throughout are as bright and vibrant as ever, making this early $5 Legal a prime candidate for any collection. Just last January, we auctioned an equivalently graded PMG example for $10,800.

Full Margined 66PPQ Rainbow Woodchopper

22047 Fr. 64 $5 1869 Legal Tender PCGS Gem New 66PPQ.
A full margined Woodchopper with excellent color and natural paper wrinkles from the drying process. It was acquired by our consignor out of our August 2016 ANA Currency Auction. The last Fr. 64 that we auctioned in this third party grade was a PMG 66 EPQ that fetched $13,200 in September 2024. Our current offering compares very favorably to the PMG graded example and has a good chance to make a serious run at that earlier figure.

22048 Fr. 64 $5 1869 Legal Tender PCGS Gem New 66PPQ.
Flawless is one word of many that could be used to describe this ever so popular type note that has achieved an even more incredible grade. PCGS has awarded this Rainbow Woodchopper with a sought after Gem New 66PPQ grade, which will certainly call for spirited bidding. The all original paper qualities and embossing are easily observable through the holder. During our 2024 FUN Signature Auction, we offered an equivalently graded PMG example which brought nearly $17,000.

A splendid Rainbow Woodchopper Fr. 64 with serial number K3547414★, this piece has earned the PMG grade of 64 EPQ. This plate letter B example has all the vibrancy of a Gem and would only require a slightly wider top margin in order to attain that grade level. We auctioned three different PMG 64 EPQ examples from September 2023 to September 2024 and they brought in auction date order $5,280, $6,000, and $5,280. All three previously offered pieces and our current offering are comparable in appearance. Serial numbers of all Rainbow denominations end in a solid star. The solid star does not signify a replacement note, but in this case, it is a printer's embellishment mark that indicates the end of the serial number.

This 1878 Woodchopper $5 is always popular with collectors thanks to the extravagant red floral embellishment at right that complements the red Treasury seal and serial numbers as well as the blue security stain. The note's bright paper with original surfaces, bold color palette, as well as excellent margins and centering, have earned it the assigned grade. As a frame of reference, an equivalently graded note in the PMG statistics serves as the "top pop" note at present.

22053 Fr. 95b $10 1863 Legal Tender PMG Choice Uncirculated 64.
A charming New Series 52 note that was first documented when it participated in a Hickman & Oakes 1981 auction. The broad top margin at center on both sides reveals a paper guide line marker and the bottom portion of a plate number. The color is excellent on this nicely preserved $10 Legal. However, we do see a closed pinhole to the left of center just below the top margin when the piece is backlit. This example originally crossed our auction block in April 2016 to the tune of $8,812. That figure should be topped nine years later in order for this piece to be added to a new collection.

A spectacular Rainbow $10, this lovely example displays a rich palette of vibrant colors including the deep red oversize Treasury seal. It is sharply printed on excellent paper with an eye-catching deep blue security stain. The margins and face-to-back registration are completely consistent with the assigned grade, making this note a most desirable addition to any collection. This note and five others share the top position in the relatively small reported PCGS Banknote population. First Appearance Since 2000 - Gorgeous Rainbow Ten 22058 Fr. 96 $10 1869 Legal Tender PCGS Banknote Choice Unc 63.

The Rainbow $10 is a one Friedberg number design that sports blue, green, and red ink on the face. We have no record of the note in this lot appearing at auction since the year 2000. The serial number is H8360614★, where the "★" is a solid star printer's embellishment mark to signify the end of the serial and not a hollow star to designate a replacement note. The hollow star for replacement notes was first used much later in 1910. Our current offering is nicely margined and resides in a comment-free holder. The last Fr. 96 in the third party grade of 63 without any comments was auctioned for $4,800 in 2021.

Pristine $10 Legal Tender Bison PCGS Banknote 67 PPQ

22059 Fr. 114 $10 1901 Legal Tender PCGS Banknote Superb Gem Unc 67 PPQ.
A pristine Bison that made its first auction appearance in 1984. We later auctioned it in May 2009 for $11,500 when it was in a PMG 66 EPQ holder when we said, “The margins are unusually broad and even all the way around. The corners are razor-sharp, the colors are spectacular, and the note has retained all of its original embossing.” It has since been graded by PCGS Banknote as a 67 PPQ and is tied with one other example as the finest Fr. 114 that they have examined. A further look at the PMG Population Report finds that they have graded five equal and two higher, with the latter two higher graded examples earning PMG 67 EPQ★ grades. We offered the other PCGS Banknote 67 PPQ in September 2024 and it charged all the way to a $28,000 winning bid. Our current lovely offering should repeat that performance, if not improve on it.

22060 Fr. 119 $10 1901 Legal Tender PCGS Banknote Superb Gem Unc 67 PPQ.
The 1901 Bison Note, as we know it today, was issued as a commemorative of sorts honoring the Lewis and Clark Expedition (1804-1806) and featured portraits of Meriwether Lewis and William Clark flanking a large vignette of Pablo, a bison from the National Zoo, engraved by Marcus Baldwin. This note checks all of the boxes for its lofty grade with vibrant colors, excellent paper with original surfaces, generous well proportioned margins, and nice face-to-back registration. This example is presently the highest graded example of this Friedberg number in the PCGS Banknote population of forty-one notes and would also hold that position (shared with three other examples) in the PMG database, which records 347 notes for this Friedberg number, if it were to receive the equivalent grade from that service.

An excellent, carefully preserved plate letter A example from the final Friedberg number of the Bison design. The well margined face is a highlight, while turning the note over reveals punch through embossing of the serial number and Treasury Seal on the back within the unprinted area at left. The PCGS Banknote Certification Database states that this is the sole finest for the Friedberg number that they have graded. We have auctioned only one example at this third party grade level recently and that was a PMG 66 EPQ piece that realized $26,400 in May 2024. This near-Gem example of this popular one-Friedberg number type note has managed to elude the census takers until this evening. It is a well margined and boldly printed note that, according to PMG, has just had a minor restoration. A New Series 17 example with fully original paper surfaces that we have auctioned twice before. The first time was at our May 2002 CSNS auction before it was encapsulated. We described the note as, “being unusually well margined for the type, with strong ink color. It is printed on the naturally darker paper that is sometimes seen for these early Twenties, and it is distinguished by a very large number of small wood chips embedded in the paper, much like the red and blue fibers which were used on later issues. The note has a number of folds, but they are all extremely light.” Later, it was part of our January 2016 FUN auction after being encapsulated. At the time, it was “top pop” at PCGS Currency. Today, we are studying Track & Price and see that out of 53 Fr. 126 notes enumerated, only three pieces have earned either the PPQ or EPQ grade modifier. They are a second 40 PPQ and a 66 EPQ. Neither of these two notes has been offered by an auction house. Therefore, if you are looking for this number with paper originality, there are very few to pursue.

22075 Fr. 139 $20 1880 Legal Tender PMG Extremely Fine 40.
A mere 20 different serial numbers are documented in the Track & Price census and one of those is outside the reach of collectors as it is part of the San Francisco Federal Reserve Bank Collection. This is easily the second rarest Friedberg number of the Alexander Hamilton design that includes numbers 127-147m. PCGS graded only one Fr. 139 higher, a 55, and none equal. Over at PMG, this note occupies the "top pop" spot, having been reholdered from a PCGS holder, after it crossed the auction block for $6,000 in our 2018 CSNS Currency Signature Auction. Today, this is the nicest Fr. 139 to be offered since the PCGS 55 crossed the auction block in 2018. It features great paper, bold colors including the huge brown Treasury seal and detailed green back, and very nice margins. Take home a note that will elevate any collection to which it is added.

High End Fr. 141 $20 Legal

22076 Fr. 141 $20 1880 Legal Tender PCGS Banknote Gem Unc 66 PPQ.
A most attractive high end example of this earlier $20 Legal, this offering is well margined all around, with bright paper, flashy ink colors, and fully original surfaces. It first appeared in a 1980 auction, then a 1986 fixed price list, and its third stop was John Hickman's June 1990 Memphis International Paper Money Show auction as lot 382. We first entertained this Fr. 141 at our May 2011 CSNS auction. It resided in a PCGS 66PPQ holder then, and today, serial number A9652810 is in a PCGS Banknote 66 PPQ holder. We auctioned serial A9652870 graded PMG 66 EPQ for $5,520 in May 2024.

First Auction Appearance in Nearly Ten Years

22077 Fr. 142 $20 1880 Legal Tender PCGS Superb Gem New 67PPQ.
Broad margins, paper originality, and excellent inks help define this Superb Gem 67PPQ $20 Legal Tender. The last three times this example has been auctioned, the winning bid has increased. In the year 2005, it fetched $5,060, in 2014 it brought $8,225, and in April 2015 it realized $9,400. Track & Price lists five Fr. 142 notes that have been graded 67PPQ/EPQ by the major third party grading services. The latest Fr. 142 in 67PPQ/EPQ to cross the auction block was in 2022. That PMG 67 EPQ example closed at $20,400. After almost ten years since the piece in this lot last crossed the auction block, look for an increase in the winning bid once again.

A well margined plate letter A $20 Legal, this note enjoys a high degree of preservation and has rightfully earned a 66 EPQ grade. Embossing is observed in the unprinted circle on the back, while the rest of the note exhibits dark inks against contrasting white paper. It has serial number A11904173. Incredible Color for the Grade - PMG Very Fine 20 EPQ

22080 Fr. 151 $50 1869 Legal Tender PMG Very Fine 20 EPQ.
A well margined plate letter A $50 Legal, this piece possesses incredible color for the grade. The incredible color makes it highly desirable, and the VF 20 grade put its within reach of many more wallets. Notes at the VF 20 level seldom earn the EPQ qualifier as PMG does not have a "20 EPQ" column in their population report. We are convinced in this case that the note won its positive accolade for both margins and color. Rainbow $50s are rare and extremely popular, with only about 70 different serial numbers enumerated in the Track & Price census, and that includes the piece in this lot. However, we know ten of those serials are locked away in the following institution and government collections. The ANA and the Smithsonian each have a single Fr. 151. Also, these Federal Reserve Banks have eight examples in total in their collections, Philadelphia, Richmond (3), Chicago (2), and St. Louis (2). That 70 population figure also includes pieces that have been reported by serial number, but never offered at auction. Further pushing the likely true number of survivors down in number is that fact the census likely includes a few contemporary counterfeits, which were some of the best that were ever executed. In closing, we have in this lot a rare type note that is a premium example for the grade.

22081 Fr. 155 $50 1880 Legal Tender PMG Very Fine 20.
One of the rarest Friedberg numbers for the Ben Franklin $50 Legal design, this pleasing mid-grade piece is one of a paltry ten serial numbers in Track & Price. This is a very nice representative for the VF 20 grade, and, most importantly, it is housed in a comment free third party holder. None of the folds are harsh, and they are spread out along the note making for one evenly circulated $50. A popular design, with both Benjamin Franklin and America peering out from the face of this note. A total of 300,000 of this Friedberg number were printed, with just 270 survivors now numbered in the Track & Price census. This example is well printed on bright paper with excellent color as well as very nice margins and face-to-back registration. Comment Free PMG 35 $100 Legal Tender Spread Eagle

22086 Fr. 167a $100 1863 Legal Tender PMG Choice Very Fine 35.
One of two dozen serial numbers recorded in Track & Price, however, that number can be drawn down further as two Fr. 167a notes call the Smithsonian Institution home, one is held by the ANA Museum, and one each is in the collections of the Federal Reserve Banks of Chicago and Kansas City, leaving just 19 for collectors to pursue. This comment free VF 35 with serial number 92055-C is a very nice representative with minimal circulation for the grade. Also, the inks remain bold on both sides of this fully framed New Series 1 example. Friedberg 167a with the Spread Eagle design was printed by the National BNCo and is comprised of notes only from New Series 1 and 2.

The $100 Legal in this lot begins its recorded numismatic journey as part of the collection of Robert F. Schermerhorn. He was a Dallas oilman and Dallas Coin Club president in the year 1953, the club's 25th anniversary.
The ANA convention was held in Dallas in August of that year, too. Schermerhorn had a passion for collecting large size notes. In fact, his name is listed as a previous owner to approximately 450 notes in United States Paper Money Records compiled by Martin Gengerke. He was also one of the few Americans who travelled to Cairo to participate in the auction of The King Farouk Collection that was held in Cairo in 1954. He died on August 28, 1957 at the age of 49. Local collectors William Philpott and Harry Bass were able to purchase items from the Schermerhorn estate.

This note did not reappear publicly until a fixed price listing in 1989. Auction stops were in 1993, 2005, and it last traded hands in 2018 for $150,000. We auctioned a PMG VF 30 with comments for $90,000 in May 2024 and a PCGS 55PPQ for $216,000 in September 2024. As our comment free current offering has to be one of the best, if not the best at this third party grade, we feel confident that a proper estimate should be in the middle of those two figures.
Starting Bid: $75,000

22087 Fr. 172 $100 1880 Legal Tender PMG Very Fine 20.
It was not until the beginning of the 21st century that this comment free $100 Legal participated in its first auction. That occurred at our May 2001 Spring Auction held at Rosemont, IL. At the time, there were a dozen known. Today, Track & Price has accounted for eleven examples (a twelfth piece resides in the ANA Museum) and of those eleven, two of those are in the FRB of San Francisco collection. That leaves a scant nine notes for collectors to pursue. This is a very odd Friedberg number when it comes to grades; five of the eleven examples known grade CU or better, while the other six range in grade from VG to VF, with two of the circulated examples locked away at the FRB of San Francisco. The $100 in this lot was the last circulated Fr. 172 to cross the auction block. That was in 2021 and it brought $17,400. Bidders should look for our conservative estimate to be surpassed when the gavel falls.

Single Finest Known Fr. 174 1880 $100 Legal Tender

22088 Fr. 174 $100 1880 Legal Tender PMG Choice Uncirculated 64.
William Rosecrans and Conrad Jordan were in office together for just one year and eleven months between 1885 and 1887. Thus, there was a small issuing window that produced this Fr. 172. Few notes were issued in that time period, and the heavy use that Silver Certificates and other metal backed notes received left the rest subject to heavy attrition. Six of the 18 known survivors are permanently impounded in institutional collections, including the Smithsonian, ANA, and multiple Federal Reserve Collections. The Fr. 174 is set apart from the others of the type, as there is no question which survivor is finest. This note is the lowest serial number in the census and happens to have the longest pedigree. It was first recorded as part of a Harley L. Freeman inventory, was then offered by B. Max Mehl in 1953, and resided in the heralded Amon Carter collection. No other survivors are known above the Extremely Fine grade, making this stunning and attractive outlier an unquestioned trophy note for Large Size specialists.

22089 Fr. 179 $100 1880 Legal Tender PMG Very Fine 25.
Hundred Dollar Legals are all rare, and this one, with a Track & Price census of a little over two dozen examples known, is the second most common after Fr. 181, with 46 known. The note is decently margined and mention is made of restoration which appears near the bottom at right of center. Otherwise, the note has an excellent overall appearance, with bright colors and no problems save even circulation. An elusive piece that will prove quite pleasing to its new owner. Very Fine always seem to realize in the high teens, in part because of the demand for $100s and known survivors for the entire type.

22090 Fr. 204 Hessler 1143FD 1863 $100 Interest Bearing Note Face Proof PMG Choice Extremely Fine 45.
Interest Bearing Notes were a powerful tool of the Union to raise money to fund the Civil War. Two Year Interest Bearing Treasury Notes were authorized under the Act of March 3, 1863 in denominations of $50, $100, $500, and $1,000. They paid interest at 5% per annum, payable at maturity, two years after the issue date. The only documented issued $100 of this design in private hands was discovered in 1961 and was offered at our February 2005 auction of The Taylor Family Collection. It last sold for $900,000 in 2018. As a unique note, and one that is prices in the stratosphere, this is the most likely opportunity to acquire the design which is still limited to rare occasions when Proofs or Specimens make it to market. The Face Proof example offered tonight differs quite significantly from the issued $100 note in its terms. The approach for paying interest envisioned when this issue was designed was much closer to that employed for bonds in that three 'coupons' were attached to the right side of the note. Six, twelve, and eighteen months after the date of issue, the coupons were cut from the note and interest (in the case of this note, $2.50) was paid. Finally, 24 months after the original issue date, the note itself served as the fourth coupon and was redeemed for its face value plus the final $2.50 in interest. The note is adorned with three striking vignettes, Farmer and Mechanic on the left, an oval vignette of the Treasury Building in the middle, and a great Civil War vignette on the right, In the Turret, featuring naval gunners. This piece has four small POCs in the printed signatures and one small POC on each of the coupons. It resides in a comment free third party holder. It is listed on page 80 of U.S. Essay, Proof and Specimen Notes second edition by Gene Hessler. Now is the time for this significant rarity to grace another top drawer collection. The market for rarities has only grown stronger in the intervening years and therefore prospective bidders should expect serious competition.

Single Highest Graded Fr. 215

22091 Fr. 215 $1 1886 Silver Certificate PCGS Banknote Superb Gem Unc 67 PPQ.
A beautiful plate letter D Martha representing the first Friedberg number for the design, this piece has full margins, excellent white paper and color, plus bull's-eye accurate face to back registration. This is the highest graded example by PCGS Banknote with no equals. A look at the PMG Population Report informs us that the highest graded Fr. 215 that they have examined is a 66 EPQ. We last auctioned our current offering in January 2013 when it realized $7,050. It was in a PCGS Currency first generation holder at that time and graded 67PPQ. Since then it has changed grading services and retained its Superb Gem grade. Since 2013, quality "top pop" notes have commanded only higher prices and we see no reason why the five-figure barrier will not at least be challenged, if not broken, by this beauty.

Striking Highest Graded Martha

22092 Fr. 223 $1 1891 Silver Certificate PMG Superb Gem Unc 67 EPQ.
This note checks all of the boxes for its grade including excellent paper with original surfaces, deep vibrant colors, and excellent margins and face-to-back registration. The 1891 design featured a simpler back design with more white space that focused attention on just a few design areas rather than a complex design that covered every square inch of the note's back. It was believed that this would deter counterfeiting efforts. Of the 1126 Fr. 223 examples currently registered in the PMG Population Report, only this and eight other notes are tied for the "top pop" position.

While by no means a rare type, this Black Eagle Silver Certificate presently is one of five examples achieving this grade. It shares the top position in the PCGS Banknote population numbers with one other note out of a total population of 179 notes. It would be in the same position in the PMG population, which currently numbers 967 examples of this Friedberg number, if it were to receive the equivalent grade from that service. The rarity of this grade is attested to by the fact that we have only offered one other example in this condition. That piece crossed the auction block for $22,800 in our 2015 FUN Currency Signature Auction. Our conservative estimate should allow the market to determine its present worth in today's environment.

Not surprisingly, it is the the sole finest graded by either service for the Fr. 232 stars. Not quite two years ago, we auctioned a PMG Choice 64 (no EPQ) replacement note which realized $4,800.

A spectacular star example, this is one of only two Fr. 236 stars, Mule and non-Mule, to be graded at the 66 level by PMG with none finer. It is as nice, or nicer, than the other PMG 66 EPQ-graded replacement note that we auctioned a dozen years ago which brought $9,400. Gem Black Eagle stars are always popular, and this final signature combination piece is sure to please.

While non-Mule stars for this Friedberg number are decidedly common, that is not the case with Mule stars, as fewer than a dozen pieces are reported. This offering is tied with just one other example as the finest graded by PMG and the only one of that pair to have received the EPQ designation. Pedigreed to the famed Doug Murray collection of star notes, this replacement note displays bright paper, bold ink colors, and fully original paper surfaces.

22105 Fr. 238★ $1 1923 Silver Certificate Star PMG Gem Uncirculated 66 EPQ.
A wonderful example of this Woods-White $1 Silver star, this note is tied for the finest graded by either service. Bold embossing of the overprint can be easily detected through the holder, with Gem-sized margins framing the design. This is the first 66-graded example of this star to make a public appearance since we auctioned this very note in our 2014 FUN auction.

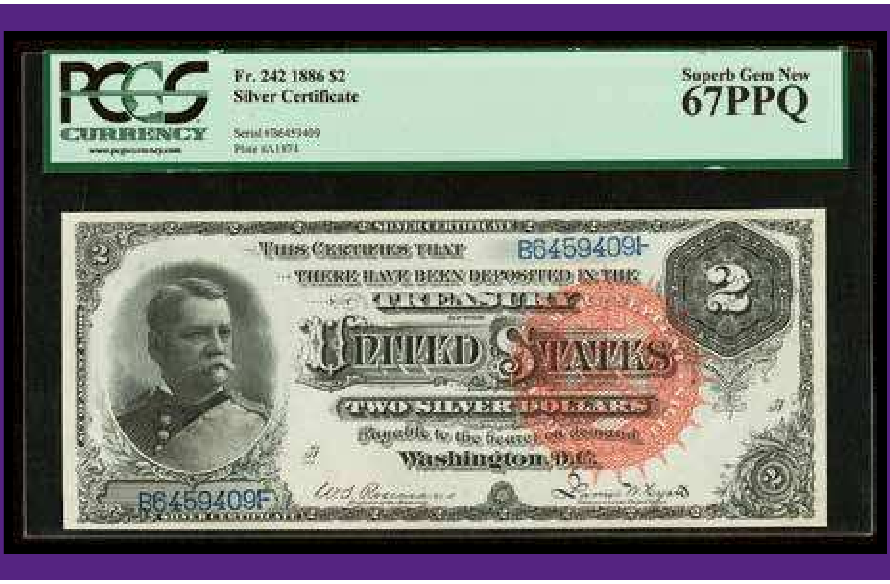
66PPQ Small Red Seal Hancock Deuce

22106 Fr. 240 $2 1886 Silver Certificate PCGS Gem New 66PPQ.
Normally when one comes across a near superb graded Hancock Deuce, it is the much more available Fr. 242. This example, which is the much more elusive Fr. 240, is a different story and quite difficult to acquire at this grade level. This Friedberg features the Rosecrans-Hyatt signature combination and a small red seal. We have offered only a handful of 66 graded Fr. 240 notes over the past two decades. The example presented in this lot is well deserving of the grade and shows off four large margins alongside great color and strong embossing. Last January, we auctioned an equivalently graded PCGS example for over $5,000.
Starting Bid: $2,500



Superb Gem - Only Four Graded Higher

22107 Fr. 242 $2 1886 Silver Certificate PCGS Superb Gem New 67PPQ.
We entertained this Superb Gem Hancock Deuce for the first time in January 1996. At that time, serial number B6459409 was the first note of a cut sheet of four that we graded as Superb Gem New. Our current assessment of this plate letter A note is the same as it was 29 years ago when we inspected it without a third party holder. We see once again a spanking fresh original example with perfect centering within balanced margins to the naked eye. The last Fr. 242 that we auctioned in this third party grade was a PMG 67 EPQ example that realized $13,200 in May 2024. Our current offering should make a strong run at that figure.

Phenomenal Gem New 66PPQ Hancock Deuce

22108 Fr. 242 $2 1886 Silver Certificate PCGS Gem New 66PPQ.
General Winfield Scott Hancock is certainly proud to be featured on this lovely and iconic 1886 $2 Silver Certificate that has earned a near-Superb grade. PCGS awarded the Gem New 66PPQ grade to this Hancock Deuce that has the look of an even higher grade. Four massive margins are found on each side of this popular type note alongside a large spiked red seal that is a collector favorite. Last year, we auctioned an equivalently graded PMG example for over $8,000.

22109 Fr. 242 $2 1886 Silver Certificate PMG Gem Uncirculated 66 EPQ.
A wonderful, well preserved $2 that formerly was part of The Mike Coltrane Collection, this example is more than praiseworthy. The margins are wide on this plate letter C Hancock Deuce and the color is ideal, too. The year 2024 delivered strong prices in our auctions for PMG 66 EPQ Fr. 242 notes with results in the $7,200 to $8,400 range. Our current excellent offering should continue that trend.

Long considered America's most beautiful notes, the Series 1896 Educational notes were popular with the public from the time of issue providing for a large number of survivors. However, despite a sizable population, few have remained in the well preserved condition of this offering. This piece has sizable margins, bright, white paper, and beautiful ink colors. It is certainly at least the equal of the PCGS Banknote Gem 65 PPQ example that we offered in our last FUN auction which realized $17,400.

A fully margined, well preserved plate letter C $2 Educational, this offering made its first recorded numismatic appearance on a 1976 fixed price list. Its first and last recorded auction appearance was almost 40 years later in 2015. PCGS Banknote has graded five Fr. 248 notes at the 66 PPQ grade level, with just three higher. PMG has examined only nine graded higher and all by a single grade point. The note in this lot has serial number 12087779 and comes from a run of well preserved Uncirculated examples. The last PCGS Banknote 66 PPQ example that we auctioned had serial number 12087717 and realized $16,200 at our May 2024 CSNS auction. Tied For Finest Known Fr. 261 $5 1886 Silver

From a small run of five serial numbers (B15049691 - B15049695) that has provided high grade examples of this popular type for decades, this note served as a memorial to President Ulysses S. Grant who had died in July 1885 and featured five silver dollars as part of the back design. The note is quite colorful with a striking large red spiked Treasury seal, blue serial numbers, and a detailed green back. The paper is bright and has good margins and registration. Of the 251 examples inspected, this note is currently in the "top pop" spot in the PMG Population Report, sharing that distinction with two other examples. PMG mentions a minor restoration which was identified in 2015 as located at top right near the serial number. It is virtually impossible to locate through the holder and has little impact on this note's desirability.

We last saw serial B33196559 in our January 1996 auction as lot 1479. First Sketch Submitted by Walter Shirlaw for $5 Educational Design 22125 "Sepia Photograph" of Early Design Proposed by Walter Shirlaw $5 ND (1896) Silver Certificate Hessler UNL PMG Encapsulation Not Graded.

Penned on the back of this sepia photograph on cardstock is, "First sketch submitted by Walter Shirlaw for $5 Silver Certificate." This sketch is only of the central vignette of Electricity Presenting Light to the World. The reference, U.S. Essay, Proof and Specimen Notes, by Gene Hessler does not list this exact item, but various original pencil sketches of portions of this design for the $5 Educational by Shirlaw are plated on pages 105-07. The dimensions for the piece in this lot are approximately 6.5 by 3 inches. While, the central vignette is complete, any design elements such as denominations or counters have been omitted.

This item formerly resided in The Harry W. Bass, Jr. Collection. Oilman and entrepreneur Bass purchased it and other items in December 1971 out of the estate of fellow Dallas Coin Club member and oilman Robert F. Schermerhorn. This item is listed as HBCC-5025 on page 466 of The Harry W. Bass, Jr. Museum Sylloge. It is encapsulated by PMG, but not third party graded. This example is a glimpse into the very beginnings of a banknote design, and in the case of this famous design, it is one held in high esteem.

Hand Printed Informational Card for 1896 $5 Companion Piece to Harry W. Bass Jr. Item Numbers HBCC-5029, 5031, and 5033 - Brief History of Walter Shirlaw's Design Proposal Sketches ND Not Graded.
A sepia photograph on paper of approximate banknote size without margins and mounted to cardstock of Walter Shirlaw's first proposed design for a new $5 Silver Certificate. The central vignette is of Electricity Presenting Light to the World. This item is similar to SCE10 on page 105 in Gene Hessler's second edition of U.S. Essay, Proof and Specimen Notes. Penned/annotated in brown ink in the front lower margin is, "Original design by Walter Shirlaw," artist, designer, and engraver at the BEP during this time period. Also, the back of the cardstock is endorsed/annotated in bold pencil with "G.F.C. Smillie," an accomplished picture and plate engraver at the BEP from 1894-1922. The basic vignette is very similar to the issued note, while scrollwork and certain design elements were either added, moved, or deleted. A charming, early developmental item from the Harry W. Bass, Jr. Collection. Bass purchased it and other items out of the estate of fellow Dallas Coin Club member Robert F. Schermerhorn in December 1971. This item is listed as HBCC-5026 on page 466 of The Harry W. Bass, Jr. Museum Sylloge. It is encapsulated by PMG, but not third party graded. There is toning around the edges. A few ink droplets on both sides do not come into contact with the design image that is one of the most famous in the field of United States paper money.

Included with this lot is a handwritten informational card of a brief history of Walter Shirlaw's design proposal sketches of the $5 Educational design. This card is listed as HBCC-5028 in The Harry W. Bass, Jr. Museum Sylloge on page 467 and is associated with items HBCC-5029, 5031, and 5033 on pages 468-70. These three items are further refinements of the $5 Educational design and are not included in this lot. The handwritten card tells us in brief that Shirlaw used live models for the vignette design and that Chief of the Engraving Division of the BEP Thomas F. Morris, Sr. worked on much of the remaining design. This card originally appeared in William P. Donlon's November 15, 1974 auction as part of lot 928. Many items from the Thomas F. Morris, Sr. estate were in this lot. It has been encapsulated by PMG, but is not third party graded. It is a nice collateral item concerning the history of this famous design. (Total: 2 items)

When we first gazed upon this $5 Educational, we said to ourselves, “Plate letter D example.” Yes, it is, with broad, balanced margins encircling this lovely, well preserved note. Furthermore, we measured the back margins with a ruler and the observed result was that the face to back registration is around only 2 mm from staking a claim on perfection. A $5 Educational from a run of similarly graded, nicely preserved notes, this piece made its recorded debut on a December 1976 fixed price list. Its next foray into the numismatic marketplace was an auction appearance in 1996. This example next crossed our auction block in September 2004. It was not third party graded at that time and we were able to hold it in our hands. We described it as, “A strictly original, beautifully bright, pristine surface Five Dollar Ed. If the bottom margin of this B position note were equal in breadth to the top, it would be absolutely Superb. As it stands, it’s Very Choice by anyone’s standards.” The same rings true today for this Fr. 268 that has three wide margins. Bold 1896 $5 Silver with Stunning Eye Appeal

A gorgeous $5 Educational from a short run of Gem examples, this plate letter D note is broad margined with excellent color and is in an excellent state of preservation. It has made only two auction appearances in the last 45 years. The earliest participation at auction we could find was a 1980 appearance, and the second and last was a 2013 appearance. PCGS Banknote has graded only one Fr. 269 equal and three higher, and PMG has graded just two higher. The last Fr. 269 that we offered in a third party grade of 66 EPQ/PPQ was in May 2022 and that PMG 66 EPQ example realized $30,000. We have not offered another Fr. 269 graded PCGS Banknote 66 PPQ, but we did offer two pieces in the grade of 65 PPQ and they brought $13,200 and $16,200 respectively in April 2021. The extra grade point of the note in this lot should help it crack the $20,000 barrier, if not go even higher.

Wonderful $5 Educational

22132 Fr. 269 $5 1896 Silver Certificate PMG Choice Uncirculated 64 EPQ.

There is a lot going on in the highly allegorical face design of the $5 Educational Silver Certificate. Formally known as Electricity Presenting Light to the World, the center vignette elicited conversation and occasionally shock and outrage by Victorians who objected to the lack of proper clothing for Electricity. Disrobed or partially robed allegorical women (and men) were certainly a traditional part of bank note design throughout the 19th century, making this reaction rather unexpected. The back features portraits of Grant, in civilian dress and General Philip Sheridan, a key Civil War cavalry figure who was promoted to General of the Army shortly before his death in 1888. This note checks all of the boxes for this grade, with excellent colors, boldly printed design details, and great margins and face-to-back registration - a nice addition to any large size type collection.

Always Popular 1896 $5 Silver Certificate

22133 Fr. 269 $5 1896 Silver Certificate PCGS Very Choice New 64PPQ.
The always popular Educational series $5 has an amazingly detailed allegorical face design whose scantily clad figure of Electricity sent shockwaves across the nation. The design weathered this storm and has remained perhaps one of the most popular type notes with collectors today. The supply of premium quality examples is fixed and availability is in decline as demand continues. The note is well printed, with excellent color and paper surfaces. The top and bottom margins are cut slightly out of square with the design, likely accounting for the grade. In any case, this is an awesome and very popular type that should attract significant bidding attention tonight

Bright and Attractive 1896 $5 Educational

22134 Fr. 269 $5 1896 Silver Certificate PCGS Banknote Unc 62 PPQ.
Always popular with collectors due to the fantastic panoramic vignette of Electricity Presenting Light to the World spanning almost the entire width of the note. This beautiful vignette caused quite an uproar when it first appeared in public due to Electricity's rather scanty dress. The back takes a much more conservative approach with portraits of Grant and Sheridan separated by a winged female head said to have a great resemblance to the wife of Thomas F. Morris who designed the back. The note is well printed on bright paper with excellent colors. The note's grade reflects the fact that the top margin is cut a bit too tight on this otherwise striking note.

Well Margined $5 Educational with Natural Paper Wave

The faintest of handling is all that keeps this well margined, natural paper wave plate letter C $5 Ed from the Uncirculated ranks. This note's first auction appearance was in 1979. It was followed by a 1988 fixed price listing. Our first encounter with this note occurred at our January 2016 FUN auction. Friedberg 269 is the second of three Friedberg numbers for the design and second in population figures according to Track & Price. Offerings at the AU 58 grade for Fr. 269 have been sparse at best, with approximately one auction appearance every year dating back to 2020. This may have been the root cause for a PMG 58 EPQ example receiving a winning bid of $14,400 in 2023. The piece in this lot does not have the EPQ grade modifier, but a strong run at that figure would not be surprising.

Gem $5 Educational

The Educational $5 is, without question, one of the most consistently popular currency designs issued in the United States. While even circulated examples attract attention when they cross the auction block, Gem examples such as this have the ability to steal the show. This note has a lot going for it. The design, of course, includes an amazing vignette titled Electricity Presenting Light to the World featuring a scantily clad winged allegorical figure, Electricity, holding aloft a light bulb, surrounded by Fame and another allegorical woman with Jupiter in the background. This panoramic vignette occupies almost all of the face of the note and reveals new details almost every time it is inspected. The back contains portraits of Grant and Sheridan. The note is darkly inked, sharply printed and framed by four boardwalk margins, tipped by four razor sharp corners. Gems such as this are often placed into tightly held collections, causing the collecting community to take note when one is finally offered at public auction. A fabulous note worthy of the finest collections, it is the third highest graded example in the relatively small PCGS Banknote population of 25 notes at present. As a point of reference, had this note received the equivalent grade from PMG it would currently be tied for the second highest graded note out of the 372 examples of this Friedberg number presently in the PMG Population Report.

Very seldom offered at the Gem level and above, the Fr. 273 has always been a challenge for collectors looking for examples at this difficult grade level. The assigned grade of Gem Uncirculated 66 EPQ by PMG is certainly well deserved, as the note has the look of an even higher grade. The massive margins found speak for themselves, and pair very nicely with the deep blue colors and strong embossing that is visible through the holder. It has now been nearly half a decade since we last offered a Vernon-Treat 1899 $5 Silver at this level, so expect to see plenty of bidding activity on this incredible Silver Certificate.

Scarce Napier-Thompson Chief

22141 Fr. 276 $5 1899 Silver Certificate PCGS About New 53.
The Napier-Thompson Chief is by far the scarcest Friedberg number of the type, with only 74 notes reported in Track & Price. Just one finer example has been offered in the last decade, and just two Uncirculated examples have crossed the auction block, making this a note worthy of strong consideration for Chief enthusiasts. This well margined and boldly inked example shows only minimal traces of circulation.

22142 Fr. 277 $5 1899 Silver Certificate PCGS Banknote Gem Unc 66 PPQ.
Many state notes before the Civil War depicted Native Americans. However, this note type is the most prominent and, in fact, the only post war note to prominently portray a Native American as the central feature. Over the years, there have been several schools of thought as to the subject of the portrait on the face, with the most commonly accepted one that it depicts Chief Tatoka-Inyanka (Running Antelope) of the Hunkpapa Sioux. The note is darkly printed on top-quality paper with original surfaces and retains its deep blue, green, and black colors. Margins are well matched and face-to-back registration is also quite good. At present, this note and one other are atop the PCGS Banknote population which totals 91 examples for this Friedberg number. Of the 611 examples of this number presently residing in the PMG database, only three notes would out grade this example if it received the equivalent PMG grade.

High Grade 1880 Stephen Decatur $20 Silver Certificate

22157 Fr. 311 $20 1880 Silver Certificate PMG About Uncirculated 53.
The design for this Silver Certificate is rather unique in that it is bereft of the usual green color for any part of the note including the unusual back design which goes to great pains to state that this is a SILVER CERTIFICATE. The ink used for the backs on series 1878 and 1880 Silver Certificates of all denominations was a black-brown color, high in iron oxide, which was used on no other issues. The only color incorporated is on the large brown Treasury seal and XX protector on the face which also features a portrait of Naval Commander Stephen Decatur prepared by Charles Schlecht. The present Track & Price census numbers 162 examples for this Friedberg number, which is rarely offered in higher grades. In fact, it has been nearly two decades since we last offered a higher grade example of this note. Of the 90 examples currently recorded in the PMG Population Report, only two have higher grades than this note.

Attractive Decatur $20 Silver Certificate

22158 Fr. 311 $20 1880 Silver Certificate PMG Very Fine 30.
Friedberg 311 is the number usually chosen to represent this type that carries a particularly life-like engraved portrait of Stephen Decatur, the nation's first post-Revolutionary War hero. Decatur distinguished himself during the Barbary Wars and the War of 1812. He was the youngest to attain the rank of Captain in the U.S. Navy and later became a Commodore. Following a duel with Commodore James Barron, he died on March 22, 1820 at the age of 41. The attractive example in this lot has the appearance of a higher grade and was listed as such on fixed price lists and auction catalogues in the late 1970s and early 1980s. The margins have been trimmed. This note last traded hands at our January 2023 FUN auction where it realized $7,200.

22161 Fr. 330 $50 1891 Silver Certificate PMG Choice Fine 15.
This is the first type for $50 1891 Silver Certificates and a significant rarity. The face layout differs from the 1880, but Edward Everett remains as the right-side portrait alongside a small red treasury seal. Just eight pieces, including this example, are reported for this Friedberg number, one of which is ensconced in the San Francisco Federal Reserve Bank collection. Unlike some of its counterparts, this example is a problem free, moderately circulated piece with nice color for the grade. If you are the collector looking for a nice, unimpaired example of this rare Friedberg number, this is the note for you.

Edward Everett $50 1891 Silver Certificate

22162 Fr. 331 $50 1891 Silver Certificate PMG Very Fine 30.
A very scarce Friedberg number in all grades, with just 27 examples listed in the census, a number which has not changed for several years. This offering, which is one of that small number reported, is a bright and nicely margined mid-grade example. Save for what PMG describes as a minor restoration, which cannot be seen through the holder, this is an attractive note which appears perfect for the grade.

A mere 200,000 1891 $50 Silver Certificates with the Vernon-Treat signature combination were printed. Silver Certificates were backed by the millions of Morgan Silver Dollars piling up in Treasury vaults, the result of an aggressive government silver buying program. This bright, boldly printed offering is a new addition to the mere 48 pieces in the Track & Price census. It displays wonderful color with little evidence of handling. Two years ago, we auctioned a PMG Extremely Fine 45 example which realized $10,800.

A well margined and sharply inked example of this popular type. Edwin Stanton peers out from the Series 1890 $1 Coin Note which could be redeemed in either silver or gold coin at the discretion of the Secretary of the Treasury. This particular Friedberg number incorporates a striking large brown spiked Treasury seal as well as a very ornate green back, incorporating a huge dark green ONE. The note is boldly printed on very bright paper with original surfaces, excellent even margins, and good face-to-back registration—certainly checking all of the boxes for this grade and then some. Of the 376 Fr. 347s recorded in the PMG Population Report, only one note has a higher grade than this note (which is tied with twelve other notes).

Gem McPherson Deuce

22167 Fr. 353 $2 1890 Treasury Note PMG Gem Uncirculated 65 EPQ.
The Series 1890/1891 Coin Notes gave the Treasury Department an opportunity to take a belated victory lap for winning the Civil War with a number of Civil War political figures and generals being honored on a number of the denominations. General James B. McPherson was chosen to appear on the $2. McPherson was a key figure in the Vicksburg campaign, but was killed in action on July 22, 1864 during the Atlanta campaign. This note also features a striking large brown spiked Treasury seal and a very ornate green back that is always popular. The note is well printed on excellent, bright paper with good colors and margins. In the current PMG Population Report, which records 162 examples of this Friedberg number, only four notes outshine this example (which is tied with three others) in terms of grade.

Highly Desirable $2 McPherson Open Back Fr. 356

22168 Fr. 356 $2 1891 Treasury Note PMG Gem Uncirculated 65 EPQ.
A truly striking example with bright white paper, original surfaces, embossing, and equally nice margins and centering, this note displays the vibrant colors of its design elements to their best advantage. As do many Series 1890 and 1891 Coin Notes, this $2 honors a Union military hero, General James B. McPherson. Killed in action during the Atlanta campaign, he was the highest ranking Union officer to die in combat. The back has lots of white space. The philosophy was that fewer design details would deter counterfeiting because attention could be more focused on them. While not a "top pop" note, this example (and eleven others tied with it) is in the top reaches of the recorded population of 130 notes of this type in the PMG Population Report. Only three notes are recorded in higher grades at present.

Top Condition $5 Coin Note

22169 Fr. 364 $5 1891 Treasury Note PCGS Superb Gem New 67PPQ.
With a couple of exceptions, the series 1890 and 1891 Coin Notes featured portraits of Union military officers. The $5 featured General George H. Thomas, best remembered as the "Rock of Chickamauga" for his stout defensive stand which saved the Union Army from a complete rout at the Battle of Chickamauga in 1863. The face of the note features a large portrait of Thomas while the back has a fair amount of white space focusing attention on three medallions. This reflected the design philosophy of the day that such focus would allow easier detection of counterfeits. The note itself is spectacular with bright paper, possessing original surfaces. The black, green, and red colors are as vibrant as the day the note was printed. The note also possesses excellent margins and face-to-back registration. It has checked all of the boxes required to qualify for its lofty grade and comes from a consecutive run that has long furnished collectors with high end Uncirculated examples. As a frame of reference, were this note to receive the equivalent grade from either PCGS Banknote or PMG it would presently share the "top pop" position in those databases.

This is a lovely example of this Large Brown Seal Sheridan Ten that represents by far the rarest Friedberg number for the $10 Treasury Notes. One of just 41 pieces reported for this number, it is from a small high-grade run of these scarce notes that allows collectors to set aside a quality example at a less than exorbitant (albeit not inexpensive) price. Tonight's offering, which features blazing ink colors and fully original surfaces, is only held back in grade by its margins. In last year's FUN auction, we auctioned an identically graded piece for $13,800.

Many of the 1890 and 1891 Coin Notes portrayed Union military figures from the Civil War. This $10 is no exception, having a portrait of Philip Sheridan, noted cavalry officer during the war and, at the time of his death in 1888, General of the Army. The note features an open design on the back, intentionally done to focus attention on fewer design elements in the hopes of discouraging counterfeiting. While not a “top pop” contender, the new owner will not need to make any apologies for this attractive note that is well printed on solid paper with original surfaces and whose colors remain vibrant. Were it not for a tight top margin, this note would likely attain an even higher grade.

22174 Fr. 375 $20 1891 Treasury Note PCGS Banknote Choice Unc 64 Details.
A well margined example with excellent color and white paper. The Series 1891 Treasury Notes retained the faces of the Series 1890 notes, but the ornate backs were redesigned to be more open. This new open design allowed for two vertical columns of red and blue silk fibers to be added to the paper and be visible on both sides. Minor restoration, which is very difficult to discern through the third party holder, is mentioned on the back label. However, when we originally auctioned this Fr. 375 in a PCGS Currency holder in April 2017, they described the well executed minor restoration as being at left near the portrait. The skill of the restorer in this case has preserved a highly attractive type note.

Choice $20 1891 Coin Note

22175 Fr. 375 $20 1891 Treasury Note PMG Choice Uncirculated 63.
The $20 Coin Note was a bit unique in that it carried a portrait of John Marshall, best remembered as fourth Chief Justice of the United States Supreme Court, rather than that of a Union Civil War military officer. Like other series 1891 issues, the back design has a large amount of white space, focusing attention on just a few design elements. This was thought, at the time, to discourage counterfeiting. This example is well printed on good paper with original colors as well as decent margins and face-to-back registration. Surprisingly, of the 209 examples registered in the PMG Population Report, over half have grades higher than Choice Uncirculated 63. That, however, takes nothing away from the visual appeal of this striking example.

A magnificent, broad margined, and well embossed Boston Battleship Deuce, this piece features serial number A11687917A that we can trace back to The Willis O. Crosswhite Collection. Mr. Crosswhite was elected president of the Cincinnati Numismatic Association in 1934. He died in 1948 and his collection was auctioned on April 24, 1954 by New Netherlands Coin Co. He is the main United States paper money consignor for this outstanding sale of the 1950s. This $2 was lot 480 with the serial number listed in the description. The note was catalogued as possessing "attractive margins." Its next auction appearance did not occur until our October 1995 St. Louis auction where it was lot 1571. We described it then as being "very bright and with extraordinary margins." Today, it is the highest graded Fr. 749 by itself at PCGS Banknote. A look at the PMG Population Report finds that they have graded only two Fr. 749 notes equal with none higher. This is simply a great note in this lot and one of the finest for the type.

Everybody loves the $2 Battleship FRBNs. And what is not to love? The back has a dynamic detailed vignette of the battleship New York, veteran of both World Wars. Delightful Minneapolis Battleship

22190 Fr. 772 $2 1918 Federal Reserve Bank Note PCGS Gem New 66PPQ.
A delightful Fr. 772 that has had two previous auction appearances and both by us. We were able to examine it in hand for our September 1997 Fall Auction and described it as Gem New and "very well margined, bright, and original." For its second auction appearance in April 2015, it had been third party graded and encapsulated in the same holder that it is in today. At that time we stated that it was a "well margined and bright Minneapolis Battleship with great embossing and exceptional eye appeal which easily merits its PCGS assigned 66PPQ grade." Nothing has changed in the intervening years and we whole heartedly agree with our earlier observations.

He was the cashier at the Lumbermans National Bank of Houston charter number 8645 from 1911-14. The FRB governor on this deuce is R(ichard) L. Van Zandt. Mr. Van Zandt was the second head of the Federal Reserve Bank of Dallas, serving as its governor from April 13, 1915 to January 15, 1922. His first job in the banking business was at the Fort Worth NB, charter number 3131, until 1900. Van Zandt's next position was in the Philippines working for the US Treasury Department. In 1904, he resigned from this overseas post and became the receiver of the Farmer's National Bank in Henrietta, Texas. From 1905 to 1914, he served as a national bank examiner in Texas, Louisiana, Tennessee, and Arkansas. He then helped organize the Eleventh Federal Reserve District. Van Zandt served as the first deputy governor of the Dallas FRB from 1914 to 1915. Following the resignation of Oscar Wells, the Dallas Fed's first governor, Van Zandt was elected governor of the Federal Reserve Bank of Dallas.

Nicely Preserved Dallas Battleship $2

22192 Fr. 777 $2 1918 Federal Reserve Bank Note PMG Choice Uncirculated 64.
A nicely preserved Dallas Battleship, this is one of only 50 Fr. 777 notes listed in Track & Price. Its first public appearance was in the 1998 Memphis International Paper Money Show auction. This example, bearing serial number K1168390A, is currently tied for the tenth highest graded by PMG. Serial number K1168324A in the exact same PMG grade realized $5,520 in 2024. Excellent color and serial number embossing are observed, along with the tiniest spot at lower left along the edge. It remains a quality note for a new owner to enjoy.

Gem $5 New York FRBN

22193 Fr. 782 $5 1918 Federal Reserve Bank Note PCGS Gem New 66PPQ.
Serial number B4446734A in this lot is making its first auction appearance. It is printed on bright paper with boldly inked design details that retain their original colors. The margins and centering are also commensurate with the assigned grade which is the highest recorded to date for the Friedberg number as Track & Price lists only three examples equal and none higher that have been examined by the major grading services. The last Fr. 782 at this third party grade level to cross the auction block occurred in 2019 when a PMG 66 EPQ graded piece realized $4,320.

Well Preserved and Margined Serial 63 Philadelphia $5 FRBN

22194 Low Serial 63 Fr. 783 $5 1918 Federal Reserve Bank Note PMG Gem Uncirculated 65 EPQ.
Serial number C63A adorns this well preserved and margined Philadelphia $5 FRBN that made its auction debut at the 1999 Memphis International Paper Money Show. The winning bidder back then was Tom Flynn. We had the privilege to auction Tom's landmark collection in April 2008. At that time, PMG had graded 41 examples of Fr. 783. Almost 17 years later, they have now graded 42 examples and of those 42, none are graded equal and only one higher, by a single grade point, to the beauty we present tonight. The back label states, "Exceptional Paper Quality & Embossing."

An incredible example of this very rare Chicago $5 FRBN that is not only one of just fourteen pieces reported for the Friedberg number, but is also easily the finest known, with its closest competitor at the XF 40 level. It is a very fresh looking note with balanced margins and tremendous color. It realized over $15,000 in our 2013 FUN auction and, considering it is just as rare and desirable today as it was a dozen years ago, it could certainly approach that number again.

White paper and bold inks really stand out on this well preserved San Francisco FRBN. If not for the width of the top margin, a Gem grade would easily have been achieved. San Francisco FRBNs (Fr. 808 and 809) bear a date of May 20, 1914 rather than the standard May 18, 1914 date used on the notes of all other districts. Track & Price has recorded a mere 40 examples of this Friedberg number.

Highest Grade of Eight Fr. 811 Notes Available to Collectors

22200 Fr. 811 $10 1915 Federal Reserve Bank Note PMG Extremely Fine 40.
A rare Atlanta $10 note with serial number F3776A, this piece has appeared twice before at auction, both times auctioned by us. We offered it for the first time in April 2008 as part of The Tom Flynn Collection when it closed at $28,750, a record high price for the Friedberg number. The second time it went under the gavel was in April 2013. The market had drastically changed between 2008 and 2013, but it still fetched $19,975, the second highest winning bid for the Friedberg number. The reason for the strong bids is because this is the highest graded Fr. 811 of the seven inspected by PMG. Also, it is tied with one other note with the highest grade of the nine enumerated in Track & Price. Only eight are available for collectors to vie for as serial F35474A is in the FRB of San Francisco collection. The other “40” note is “silked,” and has not been seen since we auctioned it in January 1998. In comparison, our current PMG XF 40 offering is a much superior note in a comment free third party holder. Friedberg 811 is an important type note because the notes were printed by the BEP without signatures. The signatures of Cashier M.H. Bell and Governor W.B. Wellborn were rubberstamped in blue ink at the BEP. Later, Fr. 812 had the signatures of Bell-Wellborn engraved on to the printing plates. If you want the highest grade on a rare note, here is your opportunity.

Fr. 818 - One of Five Known in Collector Hands

22204 Fr. 818 $10 1915 Federal Reserve Bank Note PMG Very Fine 30.
Only six surviving notes are known with the Helm-Miller signatures from the 1915 $10 Kansas City FRBN issue, with one of these in permanently in government hands. The note is well printed on bright paper with good colors. The top margin is a bit tight and there is a small rust spot in the lower right corner outside of the framelines. Highest Graded Dallas Fr. 819 $10 FRBN Without Equal 22205 Fr. 819 $10 1915 Federal Reserve Bank Note PCGS Gem New 65.

We looked up Fr. 819 in Track & Price and found a recorded population of 55 for this Dallas $10 FRBN. A study of the serial numbers and other references found that two serials are beyond the pursuit of collectors as both K75897A and K105222A are locked away in The Federal Reserve Bank of Kansas City Collection. Serial K58323A in this lot sits all alone on top of the grade apex in Track & Price with the closest competition being two 63s that have not been heard from since one example crossed the auction block in 1993. Also, the highest grade in the PMG Population Report is a solitary 63. We first entertained the note in this lot at our January 1992 Winter auction followed by an encore at our January 2011 FUN auction. We graded it as Gem New in the pre-third party encapsulation days and it still exhibits embossing in the unprinted area at center on the back. We had a PMG 40 bring $4,320 in June 2021 and fell that this Gem 65 should easily attain five figures.

Ex: Grinnell Atlanta Fr. 823 $20 FRBN

22206 Fr. 823 $20 1918 Federal Reserve Bank Note PMG Choice About Unc 58.
A $20 Atlanta FRBN with serial number F42153A, this was lot number 4674 in Part VI of the Albert A. Grinnell auction that was held on June 29, 1946. Luckily, the numeric part of the serial number is listed in the Barney Bluestone description. We see embossing of the upper right serial number on the back of this fully margined example that also sports excellent color. PMG has graded no other equal and only a single piece higher, a 64, out of the 29 that they have examined. A closer look at every Fr. 823 in the PMG Population Report reveals that they have not bestowed the EPQ grade modifier upon a single example. Further scrutiny of the Track & Price census expands upon our PMG findings. T&P has enumerated a total of 52 Fr. 823 notes with none equal and just one third party graded note higher, the previously mentioned 64. This 64 note turns out to be the F1A note with minor restoration. Therefore, our current offering is the highest third party comment free example. Our consignor acquired this note for $10,575 out of our April 2013 CSNS auction. Due to the rarity, quality, and history of this note, that figure should be surpassed tonight.

Choice Fr. 824 $20 FRBN

22207 Fr. 824 $20 1915 Federal Reserve Bank Note PMG Choice Uncirculated 63.

This choice Chicago $20 Blue Seal FRBN features a portrait of Grover Cleveland on the face while the back depicts all forms of modern transportation represented by an ocean liner leaving New York Harbor with the Statue of Liberty in the distance and an interesting vignette of a touring car seeming to race a passenger train with an early biplane in the distant sky. The car seems to be too small in scale compared to the immense locomotive. This is the first and last United States bank note design to portray an airplane. The note is well printed on bright paper with excellent color and margins. This is a scarce note, with only 38 examples recorded in the Track & Price census. While not a contender for the "top pop" spot, with six other notes having higher grades in the PMG Population Report out of 17 listed, this is still a premium quality note with great visual appeal.

Sole Finest Dallas Fr. 829 $20 FRBN

22209 Fr. 829 $20 1915 Federal Reserve Bank Note PMG Choice Extremely Fine 45.
Serial number K96519A in this lot is a new serial for Track & Price as they list only seven serials as of this writing. Also, with the grade of PMG 45, it will become the sole finest enumerated in Track & Price. It is also the sole finest graded by PMG. We see that none of the Fr. 829 notes reside inside government or institution collections. This piece has recently crossed over from a PCGS 45 holder to a PMG 45 holder. Further examination finds traces of embossing in the unprinted area on the back, natural paper ripple, and excellent color. The highest grade to cross the auction block previously was a PMG 35 that received a winning bid of $12,650 in 2014. Our current offering is only the second Fr. 829 to appear at auction since 2014.

St. Louis 1918 $50 FRBN One of 53 Known

22210 Fr. 831 $50 1918 Federal Reserve Bank Note PCGS Banknote Choice AU 58.
The $50 1918 FRBN denomination was only issued by the St. Louis District with a scant total of 4,000 issued. The number of survivors has held constant at 53 notes for the last two decades. This relatively high survival rate is credited to the efforts of William A. Philpott, Jr. who was able to obtain numerous examples as they were presented to Federal Reserve banks. This note is crisply printed on bright paper with excellent colors and good margins. At first glance it has many of the features of a higher grade note. We last auctioned this note in 2017 at our CSNS Currency Signature Auction for $35,250, but more recently auctioned another three digit serial number example in the same grade for $42,000 in our 2024 FUN Currency Signature Auction.

Few can say that they have held the pinnacle of US Currency collecting and felt the weight of history in their hands. Those that would make such a bold statement almost certainly held this fantastic assemblage of Federal Reserve Note Proofs. The offering comprises both face and back Proofs of Series 1914 and 1918 Federal Reserve notes of each denomination: $5, $10, $20, $50, $100, $500, $1000, $5000, and $10,000, all housed in a specially prepared, custom binder believed to be contemporary to Grinnell himself, who first collected these.

On December 23, 1913, President Woodrow Wilson signed into law the Federal Reserve Act, which transformed the American monetary system and made way for a new banknote design. Various prototypes were produced and considered until a standardized design was finalized in the fall of 1914. As a part of this process, a small quantity of Proof notes was produced. These Proofs were printed from the actual currency plates onto cardstock. The Treasury seal and solid zero serial numbers were glued on by hand by the pressman. Though the 1916 Annual Report of the Bureau of Engraving and Printing described two sets of the $5 to $100 denominations produced, we know of additional (perhaps five) sets of Series 1914 Proofs that were presented by Secretary of the Treasury, William G. McAdoo, to select officials in late 1914.

As the Federal Reserve system provided for secure transfer of large amounts of cash between banks, using larger denominations was most practical. The Series 1918 Federal Reserve Notes were printed only in the $500, $1,000, $5,000, and $10,000 denominations. In the design process, Proofs were prepared for each of the denominations above. This is the crux of historical significance in this set.

By 1926, rules were included in the process for handling Proofs mandating their destruction after use to prevent any Proofs from being distributed outside the Bureau. While Specimens were still printed and distributed, these may be the last Proofs to have made their way out of the Bureau of Engraving and Printing, as none of the Series 1923 notes have appeared in any Proof form.

This bound archive, with its eighteen uniface Proofs, traces its history back to none other than Albert Grinnell, who most likely acquired this phenomenal set of Proofs from one of his many friends and contacts within the Treasury Department. This set was the crowning highlight of the entire seven-part Grinnell Collection sale conducted by Barney Bluestone. It appeared in Part VI of the sale on June 29, 1946 as Lot 4871, and sold for a higher price than any of the other 5,897 lots in the entire seven-part auction. The Grinnell provenance certainly adds value, as some other pieces of Grinnell's collection have realized well into seven figures in the last decade, including a Grand Watermelon, which currently tops the list of most expensive banknotes ever sold at auction, after realizing $3,290,000 in our 2014 FUN US Currency Signature Auction.

Bluestone had the opportunity to discuss with Mr. Grinnell his great pride in owning this set as he described in the auction's catalog: "I can remember when Mr. Grinnell showed me his collection several years ago that he reserved this lot of Specimens, or engraver's impressions, until the very end. He felt that it was the crowning masterpiece of his successful achievement as a collector, and a fitting climax to his extensive and magnificent collection. He was respectably and justly proud of this possession and valued it highly." What Bluestone wrote next is as true today as it was in 1946: "Without doubt this is a prize that will bring much joy to the heart of some collector. It is unique and, as stated previously, I do not believe its companion exists."

After selling for $4,050 in 1946, this archive has made several public auction appearances, including Coins & Currency's August 7, 1969 sale, lot 1760; Forman & Taxay's December 6, 1974 sale, lot 250; New England Rare Coin Auction's March 26, 1976 sale, lot 9; NASCA's Brookdale Collection November 12, 1979 sale, lot 2230; Stack's J.W. Thompson March 14, 1991 sale, lot 2136, where it was purchased by the Levenson Family, with a multi-generational history in banking, followed by our consignor who acquired this magnificent historical set out of our Dallas U.S. Currency Signature Auction Platinum Night Session held on August 3, 2020, lot 20063.

Hessler Corrections:

Hessler numbers 1370 ($500) and 1429 ($1,000) are incorrectly noted as Red Seals on page 200 of U.S. Essay, Proof and Specimen Notes second edition by Gene Hessler. However, these two FRN denominations were only produced with Blue Seals as presented in our current offering.

The Notes:
Each Proof appears to be printed on both sides of the cardstock, although previous examples of similar notes have been uniface. We decided to maintain the integrity of the original holders and did not disassemble them to verify this. The Hessler numbers used herein are for double-sided impressions. On notes of this stature, this perhaps makes little difference. The notes are printed on cardstock and mounted in custom 6-1/2″ x 9-1/2″ frames that have been sealed on all four sides and fitted in a special leather binder that is believed to be contemporary to Mr. Grinnell. Extended and close inspections of the impressions lead us to believe that archival practices were followed in creating the holders, as no paper deterioration or toning has been noted. While these notes have not been graded, we believe each to be equal to, or better than, similar notes that have been graded in the past. In short, we believe that these notes will easily be seen as as-printed Gem New examples.
The lower denomination notes ($5 through $100) are series 1914 Red Seal designs from the New York District. The black ink plate was used in each case to produce the base face impression with the red serial numbers and Treasury seal, and the black District seal and District number (2-B), all pasted in place. The serial number is B0000000A on each example. The engraved signatures are those of Burke and McAdoo. Both the face and back designs are the same as was used for production notes. Each note has SAMPLE stamped on the face.

The higher denomination notes ($500 through $10,000) are series 1918 Blue seal designs from the New York District. Again, the face Proofs were produced using the black ink plate to produce the basic face impression, with the blue Treasury seal, black District seal, black District number (2-B), and blue serial number (0000000) pasted in place. The engraved signatures are of Burke and Glass. All of the face and back designs are like those used for production. Each note has SPECIMEN stamped on the face. Hessler numbers 1370 ($500) and 1429 ($1,000) are incorrectly noted as Red Seals, which were not produced, and are in fact the Blue Seals presented here. Examined as a whole, these notes are far better preserved than any of the other large size Federal Reserve Proofs in collector circles. Greater care seems to have been taken in the printing, cutting, and application of the seals and serial numbers, all of which have much bolder impressions and richer colors than the examples in other sets.

While the McAdoo presentation sets of $5 to $100 Red Seals are undeniably historically valuable and rare, it is the Blue Seal high denomination notes completing this set that ensure that this is unquestionably the most important set of Proof notes in United States monetary history. The $500 and $1,000 values are, of course, rare and difficult to acquire, but the $5,000 and $10,000 are only collectable as part of this set. There are no examples of either denomination in private hands. The five examples of each outstanding denomination have been ensconced in either the Smithsonian or in one of the Federal Reserve Bank collections. To own two federal notes that are unique in any form in private hands, and to add your name to the illustrious provenance for this fabulous set will be indeed the pinnacle of US Currency collecting for tonight's winning bidder. The palpable history, unique $5,000 and $10,000 impressions, and standout auction results have established this set as one of the most important collectible rarities in all of US numismatics.

Aside from a PCGS Banknote 67 PPQ example which crossed the auction block for $14,400 in our 2021 CSNS Currency Signature Auction, we are unaware of any higher graded examples, with the highest recorded PMG-graded note receiving a Choice Uncirculated 64 designation. One of just 48 pieces reported for this number, it is also one of just two notes graded at this lofty level by PMG with none finer. Both of the historic vignettes on the back, Columbus Discovery of Land and Landing of the Pilgrims, were borrowed from other federal issues. Of the 125 examples of this Friedberg number reported in the PMG Population Report currently, only one note has been assigned a higher grade than this note and three other examples are tied for grade. Nicely Preserved Dallas 1914 $5 Red Seal FRN

22217 Fr. 842b $5 1914 Red Seal Federal Reserve Note PMG Choice Uncirculated 63 EPQ.
A nicely preserved $5 Dallas Red Seal FRN of the "b" variety with the small "11-K" below and to the immediate right of McAdoo's printed signature. Both serial numbers exhibit embossing on this example. PMG has graded none equal and only a solitary piece higher and that by a single grade point. We looked at Track & Price and their census for Fr. 842b shows that they have enumerated only one equal and one higher by a single grade point, too. Our conclusion is that the note in this lot is one of the very best for the Friedberg number and the highest third party graded example to participate in our auctions. We auctioned it in April 2013 for $10,575 and since then prices at auction for better notes with quality have only gotten firmer.

1914 $10 Red Seal Atlanta FRN with Serial Number F4A

22220 Fr. 897a $10 1914 Red Seal Federal Reserve Note PCGS Gem New 66PPQ.
While not particularly rare as a type, this note has two things going for it. Its grade, PCGS Gem New 66PPQ, would place it in the "top pop" position (tied with one other note) in the PMG Population Report if it received the equivalent grade from that service. The grade has been earned, with sharply printed design details printed on excellent paper with original surfaces and excellent margins. The other even more important thing is that it sports serial number F4A. This note, which traces its lineage back to the Albert A. Grinnell Collection that was auctioned by Barney Bluestone as lot 4449 in the sixth session on June 29, 1946 with a price realized of $28.50, traded hands three times in public auctions between 1999 and 2012 and then disappeared from public view. It last crossed the auction block in 2012 for $17,250 and we expect active bidding to meet or beat that more than a decade-old price level.

Highest Third Party Graded Fr. 900a to Appear at Auction Since 2011

22222 Fr. 900a $10 1914 Red Seal Federal Reserve Note PMG Gem Uncirculated 65 EPQ.
A beautiful Minneapolis $10 Red Seal FRN with embossing of both serial numbers and natural paper wave, this piece also possesses excellent inks and white paper. We originally offered this Gem plate letter A example as lot 1594 in our Winter January 1996 Orlando auction as part of a cut sheet of four. That tells us that this note and its three sheet mates were put aside almost immediately when they first came into contact with human hands. Since that auction, almost three decades ago, the foursome has been broken up and the notes have been scattered to the four winds. The example in this lot did make one more auction appearance when it participated in our October 2012 ANA auction where it commanded a winning bid of $10,575. That was the last time a Gem 65 EPQ/PPQ or higher grade Fr. 900a appeared at auction. In fact, to find a higher graded example of this Friedberg number in an auction, you have to go back to 2011. That is not surprising, as PMG has not graded a single Fr. 900a equal and only two higher by a single grade point.

An ex: Jim Thompson Collection note, this is the sole finest by 10 grade points of the 16 that have been examined by PMG. Also, it is the second highest graded Fr. 902a of the 28 documented in Track & Price, with the finest being a raw 55. Our current offering has dark inks and white paper, plus natural paper ripples. Of the 28 listed in Track & Price, two are permanently locked away in the San Francisco Federal Reserve Bank holdings. We have auctioned this example twice before with the last time being in April 2013 when it realized $9,987. Since then, we have auctioned the second highest PMG graded example, a 40 EPQ, that realized $6,000 in January 2021. Very Rare Fr. 1016a Richmond $50 Red Seal 22238 Fr. 1016a $50 1914 Red Seal Federal Reserve Note PMG Very Fine 30.

This is an attractive, moderately circulated example of this very tough Richmond $50 Red Seal that is one of just 14 issued pieces reported, none of which have been graded above the XF 40 level. This well margined offering features bright paper, excellent color, and just a handful of light folds. We first saw this note when it was in our September 1999 Cincinnati auction. In hand, we graded it as Choice Very Fine.

22239 Fr. 1018b $50 1914 Red Seal Federal Reserve Note PMG About Uncirculated 50.
An attractive note with a large portrait of Grant and an allegorical representation of the Panama Canal on the back including what appears to be a battleship, this Chicago $50 retains bright paper, vibrant colors, and excellent margins, centering, and face-to-back registration. There are a scant 15 survivors of this Friedberg number enumerated by the Track & Price census, and this note is the "top pop" representative in the PMG Population Report which records 12 examples. This note last appeared in a public sale over twelve years ago when it garnered a winning bid of $36,800 in September 2012. We expect that price level to be tested again tonight.

Twenty-one examples of this note appear the the Track & Price census with two of those residing in the Federal Reserve Bank of New York and Federal Reserve Bank of San Francisco collections. This rare note is well printed with vibrant colors on bright paper with eight decent margins. At present, we are aware of only a single note having a verified higher grade (PMG 45 EPQ). While this note is not in the running for "top pop" designation, it is simply quite rare, with a total known population of just eight examples in the Track & Price census. While this note obviously spent some time in commerce, it still retains good color and has decent margins and centering with most of the evidence of circulation appearing on the back. While not a particularly rare or even scarce type, this Cleveland Blue Seal $50 is in top condition, printed on bright paper with original surfaces, vivid colors, and decent margins and face-to-back registration. Only a bottom face margin which is a but too tight keeps this note from attaining an even higher grade. As it is, the note is presently the highest graded example of the 208 notes of this Friedberg number that are currently recorded in the PMG Population Report. She is flanked by a passenger liner at left and a battleship at right suggesting the importance of the canal for both civilian and military purposes. The Panama Canal opened in August, 1914 just as the first shots of World War I were fired, making this somewhat of an unofficial commemorative issue. The note is well printed with vibrant colors on good paper with original surfaces, as well as decent margins and good face-to-back registration. 22248 Fr. 1059 $50 1914 Federal Reserve Note PMG Choice Very Fine 35.
Friedberg 1059 has a total population of a mere seven serial numbers in Track & Price. Serial number I145264A in this lot has a large lead over the two examples that share second place at the 15 grade level in Track & Price. It has been over eleven years since any Fr. 1059 has appeared at auction. Our current offering was once part of The Tom Flynn Collection that we auctioned in April 2008 to the tune of record prices with this note receiving a winning bid of $14,950. However, unlike many of the Flynn notes that saw their later prices realized backtrack, this Minneapolis $50 garnered a winning bid of $15,275 at its only post-Flynn auction appearance in April 2013. Only a small tear in the top margin to the left of center that stops at the outer frame line keeps this note from earning EPQ.

Highest Graded Fr. 1063 by a Large Margin

22249 Fr. 1063 $50 1914 Federal Reserve Note PMG About Uncirculated 55 EPQ.
Track & Price lists 21 serial numbers for Fr. 1063. The example in this lot with serial number J326574A is the sole highest graded piece by 15 grade points. A look at PMG's statistics shows an even wider gap, as this note's closest competitor trails by 20 grade points. Past auction catalog descriptions tell us that our current offering has held the title of the highest graded for this Friedberg number dating back to at least 2008. This Kansas City $50 was once briefly folded into thirds, and its two folds, serial number embossing, and natural paper wrinkle definitely reveal that it has not been tampered with in any fashion. It is simply a lovely AU that has yet to be challenged for the top grade.

This is a spectacular note, with deep, original embossing, broad, even margins and super visual appeal. Had it received the equivalent grade from PMG it would be the “top pop” note of the 34 listed in the PMG Population Report. This is the highest grade example we have offered in one of our public auctions. Valuing this note is a bit problematic because the last time it appeared in a public auction was over a decade ago when it crossed the auction block for $7,475. We believe that our conservative estimate will allow the market to determine its value in the present environment.

A spectacular, virtually perfect, $100 1914 Red Seal FRN, this example has been alone in the "top pop" position of both the old PCGS and PMG population reports for the better part of two decades. Until the appearance of a small run of spectacular Boston Red Seal Hundreds on the market, this was a type that had been unavailable in Gem condition to most collectors, as fewer than ten Uncirculated examples had been known for all districts combined. In the mid-1980's, this note appeared at the Memphis show as part of an 18-note consecutive run. It is deeply embossed, beautifully bright, and perfect in both the technical and visual contexts. This note last crossed the auction block over a decade ago in 2012 when it brought $74,750. The PMG 66 EPQ and PCGS 66PPQ examples from this same run have brought between $21,600 and $40,800 within the last twelve months. Given the longevity of this example as a "top pop" note, we believe that our conservative estimate will likely be tested or bested tonight.

Only Dallas $100 Fr. 1124★ Enumerated in Track & Price

22267 Fr. 1124★ $100 1914 Federal Reserve Star Note PCGS Banknote Very Fine 25.
A great star note that has been in several great collections over the years. With serial number K97★, it is the only Fr. 1124★ recorded in Track & Price. Also for the $100 Blue Seal 1914 FRNs, T&P lists a grand total of a mere 19 stars. The first recorded owner of this Dallas star $100 was Amon Carter, Jr. After Amon's death in 1982, its first auction appearance was in Hickman-Oakes June 1988 auction as lot 684. At that auction, it was purchased by early star note promoter Tom Conklin. Tom was a major contributor to the first two of three editions of The Comprehensive Catalog of United States Large Size Star Notes 1910-1929 by Doug Murray. We offered this Dallas star for the first time as lot 1332 in October 1995 at our St. Louis Tenth Annual National and World Paper Money Convention auction held at the now demolished Ramada Henry VIII Hotel. Our 1995 description read in part, "One of the crown jewels of The Conklin Collection, and a note truly worth whatever it takes to bring it home." This wonderful star note combines rarity, condition, and provenance.

An attractive and rare mid-grade $500, this example bears low serial number D134A. This serial is the second lowest for this Friedberg number, but the lowest available to collectors. Serial number D1A is in the Smithsonian. Fourteen pieces are documented in the Track & Price database for Fr. 1132-D, which includes the Smithsonian example. This piece is still in its unrestored and original condition, with the same pinholes and minor edge splits present during our previous two offerings. It last realized $24,000, which is likely to be repeated again tonight.

High Grade $500 1918 Kansas City FRN

22269 Fr. 1132-J $500 1918 Federal Reserve Note PCGS Banknote About Unc 55.
Not surprisingly, this Kansas City District $500 1918 FRN is represented by only fifteen surviving examples in the Track & Price census, a number that has grown by only one note since 2006. This example is the only one in the PCGS Banknote database at present and would be alone in second place to a PMG 58 note if it were to receive the equivalent 55 grade from that service. This note last crossed the auction block in 2017 as part of our CSNS Currency Signature Auction where it realized $51,700. More recent sales of the PMG 58 graded example between 2022 and 2024 for $90,000 and $49,200 respectively would seem to support our conservative low estimate for this note.

1918 $1,000s offered at any grade level always make a special occasion. However, it is even more special whenever examples graded Choice Very Fine and up come to market. Such is the case with the New York district example in this lot, as this large size high denomination note faces up very nicely for the assigned Choice Very Fine 35 grade from PMG. Even though this district issued more of these than the other districts (nearly 125,0000, fewer than three dozen of these desirable notes are known to the collecting community today. Although a professionally executed restoration is mentioned on the holder, this takes nothing away from the appeal and beauty of this lovely 1918 $1,000.

Attractive Large Size Cleveland $1,000

22271 Fr. 1133-D $1,000 1918 Federal Reserve Note PMG Very Fine 30.
The $1,000 Series of 1918 layout is simple, with large amounts of white space intentionally used to focus attention on the note's two main elements; a large portrait of Alexander Hamilton engraved by G.F.C. Smillie on the face and a dynamic vignette of an eagle engraved by Marcus W. Baldwin on the back. Needless to say, not many $1,000s went unredeemed due to their high face value. PMG mentions a minor repair that does not provide any significant distraction. The current Track & Price census sits at fourteen notes from this district out of around a total of 192 examples from all districts at present. Of those fourteen, one note is retained by the Federal Reserve Bank of San Francisco. Another example in a comparable grade crossed the auction block for $22,800 in our 2024 Long Beach Expo Currency Signature Auction.

This always popular 1918 $1,000 type comes from the rather scarce Cleveland district, where there are not many candidates to choose from. The latest Track & Price census lists only a meager fourteen examples reported, seven of which have passed through the hands of PMG. One of those fourteen is permanently locked away in the holdings of the Federal Reserve Bank of San Francisco. 22273 Fr. 1133-F $1,000 1918 Federal Reserve Note PMG Very Fine 25.
It goes without saying that the vast majority of these $1,000 notes were redeemed, with very few outstanding notes remaining. The Track & Price census for this Friedberg number totals eleven pieces, with PMG reporting a total of seven examples in its population report. This note is tied for the second highest grade, with only a single note graded higher. PMG notes minor restoration at the top left. A circulated but still appealing example, this piece will upgrade any collection to which it is added. Much rarer than the Chicago or San Francisco pieces, and should be valued as such.

This simple but elegantly designed $10 Gold Certificate features lots of white space on both sides of the note, intentionally done that way to attract attention to the limited design features that appear, including the portrait of Michael Hillegas, first Treasurer of the United States on the face and a small vignette of the Great Seal of the United States on the back. The note is boldly printed on excellent paper with original surfaces and has wonderful colors as well as well matched margins and face-to-back registration. This note is tied with one other for the top position in the PCGS Banknote population of fourteen notes for this Friedberg number. As a frame of reference, the PMG Population Report currently has one Fr. 1167 note in the equivalent grade to this example that tops the population of 174 graded examples.

Only the second auction appearance for this embossed $10 Gold and the first since 2014 that we can document for this note. It is well preserved, with ideal color, and resides within balanced margins. PMG has graded six equal and six higher, all by a single grade point. The last four years have seen only three Fr. 1171 notes graded 65 EPQ/PPQ or higher offered at auction. The last of that trio was a PMG 65 EPQ that earned a winning bid of $5,400 in 2024. This beautiful right off the press example should eclipse that result.

The note was originally intended as a memorial of sorts to President James Garfield who was assassinated in 1881. The face, which includes a large portrait of him at right, features a small brown scalloped Treasury seal as well as serial number tablets and the word GOLD printed in gold ink. The back has a large eagle vignette engraved by George Baldwin, titled Ocean Telegraph, that was originally executed to commemorate the completion of the Atlantic Cable in 1858. The note is well printed on bright paper with gorgeous original colors and good margins and registration. A rare Friedberg number with a scant 29 examples presently recorded in the Track & Price census. The PMG Population Report presently records this as the "top pop" note by a very wide margin.

Only thirty-five surviving examples of this rare Friedberg number are recorded in the Track & Price census and this one is certainly one of the nicer ones known, with only two notes besting this one in the PMG Population Report at present. The note is printed on bright paper with original surfaces. The colors of the large brown spiked Treasury seal, the word GOLD and serial number panels printed in gold, as well as the orange back are as vibrant as the day the note was printed. The portrait at front served as a memorial of sorts to President Garfield who had been assassinated in September 1881, while the back commemorates the laying of the Atlantic Cable via a bold vignette of an American Bald Eagle holding a cable in its talons. This note last crossed the auction block in 2014, a decade ago, for $55,812. While not a particularly rare type, this note has a lot going for it. It is sharply printed on bright paper with original surfaces and displays its black, orange, red, and gold colors in their original hues. The note has excellent well proportioned margins and very nice face-to-back registration. And as if that was not enough, it sports serial number A6. This note is in the upper reaches of the PMG Population Report, with only 10 of the included 225 examples at present having higher grades. Its provenance has been traced back to Frank Limpert, a collector from the 1930s and '40s who sold his collection at Stack's September 24, 1955 sale. This note was not in that sale, but research shows that this note did belong to Dr. Limpert. This marks the third appearance of this note in the last decade, with both previous offerings crossing the auction block for $70,500. We believe that this appearance will test or best that level tonight.

Rare Triple Signature 1882 $50 Gold Certificate

22287 Fr. 1189a $50 1882 Gold Certificate PMG Choice Very Fine 35.
A significant Triple Signature Gold Certificate rarity. This earlier 1882 $50 Gold Certificate has an additional engraved signature of Thomas C. Acton. This sub-type replaced the initial 9,000-note printing that required Acton to hand-sign each one; none of those are known today. There are 16 examples currently documented from the additional 231,000 notes authorized with his engraved signature. One of the 16 pieces recorded in the Track & Price census, this example is making its third public appearance after having been sold as part of The Levitan Collection in 1988 for $88,000 and exchanging hands again in 2014 for an impressive $164,500. It features the portrait of Silas Wright (1795-1847) who served in the House of Representatives (1827-29), United States Senate (1833-44), and as Governor of New York (1844-46) on the face and an American bald eagle on the colorful back. A pleasant evenly circulated example with good paper, colors, and margins on both the face and back. This note is presently the third highest graded example in the PMG Population Report.

Silas Wright, who served in the House of Representatives (1827-29), United States Senate (1833-44), and as Governor of New York (1844-46) appears on this very rare note. The note is sharply printed on bright paper with excellent colors and decent margins. It is one of just 22 examples currently recorded in the Track & Price census. Of these, four are in institutional collections (the Federal Reserve Banks of Richmond, San Francisco (2), and the Smithsonian Institution) and thus unavailable to the collector market. As a point of reference, this note would easily outdistance all of the notes presently recorded in the PMG population numbers if it were to receive the equivalent grade from that service. A decade ago this note sold in a public sale for $188,000. Our conservative estimate will allow the market to determine its worth in today's environment.

A rare large brown Treasury seal $50 Gold is offered here, with a population of a meager 23 serial numbers listed in Track & Price. Four of the known examples are held by the Federal Reserve Bank of San Francisco (2), the Federal Reserve Bank of Richmond, and the Smithsonian Institution. This note's provenance dates back to the auction of The James Thompson Collection in 1990. It is a very nice example for the grade which was folded into eighths with the back on the outside at one point in its life. This plate letter B piece also has ample margins on all four sides. The highest grade known or graded is a 45 followed by a lone 35. The PCGS 45 PPQ was offered in 2014 and realized $188,000. That is a monstrous price, when you consider this PMG Very Fine 30 is a condition census piece, for a fraction of the price. The back label informs us of minor repairs. They are indeed minor as we were hard pressed to find them. In conclusion, we are offering a condition census note for this elusive Friedberg number.

22290 Fr. 1200 $50 1922 Gold Certificate PCGS Banknote Superb Gem Unc 67 PPQ.
For a frame of reference, were this note to have received the same grade from PMG, it would be tied with one other note for the "top pop" position out of the 942 examples of this Friedberg number currently in the PMG Population Report. This is confirmed by the Track & Price census that lists this note and one graded by PMG as the two highest graded notes, with no notes above 66 PPQ presently recorded by PCGS Banknote. The last time we auctioned this note, which possesses great paper originality, vibrant colors, and is boldly printed with virtually perfect margins, nearly a decade ago in our 2016 CSNS Currency Signature Auction, it crossed the auction block at $79,312. Two years ago we auctioned the PMG graded example for $102,000 at our 2022 Long Beach Expo US Currency Signature Auction. We believe this amazing note is very comparable and will test these price levels again.

22291 Fr. 1200★ $50 1922 Gold Certificate Star PMG Very Fine 25.
A very elusive $50 Gold star, this replacement note is one of just 15 pieces reported for this Friedberg number. Of that small group, this star bears the lowest serial number in the census. It features excellent color for the grade on both face and back with just minor repairs noted by PMG. This is only the second auction appearance for this star with serial number *1017B. Its first enumeration was in June 1983 by star note researcher Doug Murray, who published three volumes of United States Large Size Star Notes 1910-1929. Its first auction appearance was when we auctioned Doug's collection in January 2018 and it realized $5,040.

Lovely Fr. 1208 1882 $100 Gold Certificate - Ex: Grinnell

This great note was lot 555 in the March 10, 1945 session of The Albert A. Grinnell Collection. It made another Grinnell appearance at the "clean-up" session of March 8, 1947 as lot 216. The example in this lot is one of the nicest you will find on this rare Friedberg number that has a population of only 34 in Track & Price with just 30 of those in private hands. Neither major service has graded an example above the 58 level making this lightly handled offering just about the finest known.

Finest Known Fr. 1210 $100 Gold Certificate

22293 Fr. 1210 $100 1882 Gold Certificate PMG Choice Extremely Fine 45.

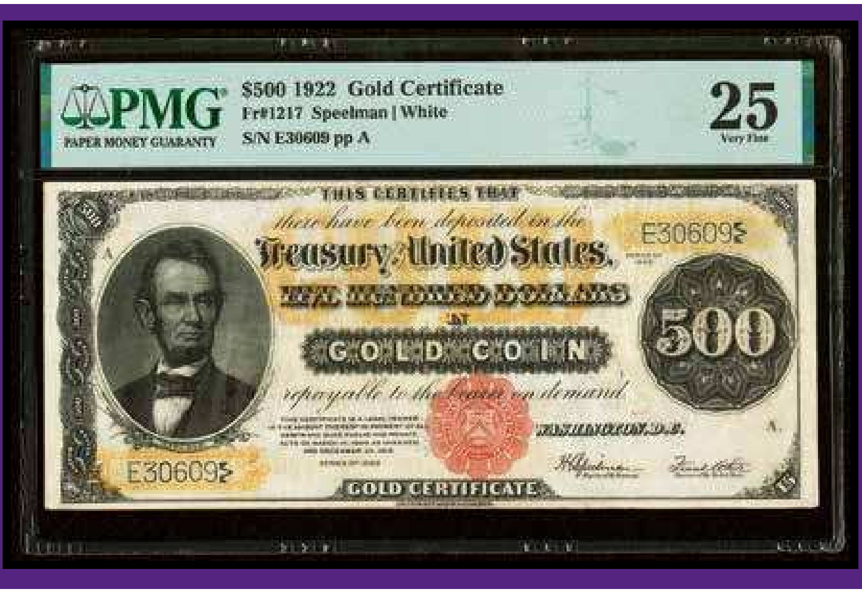
Evenly Circulated $500 1882 Gold Certificate

22294 Fr. 1216a $500 1882 Gold Certificate PMG Very Fine 25.
The Fr. 1216a has the unique honor of having been delivered for only two days. Delivery began on March 18, 1914 and ended on March 19, 1914 ensuring a low population of this note type. Fewer than three dozen examples are known, and this is a rather attractive example of the Parker-Burke Signature combination. The margins are adequate and the colors, though certainly not perfect, are typical for the 25 grade. It is evenly circulated and with the comments, stains, and spindle hole.
Starting Bid: $7,500



Attractive Mid-Grade $500 Gold

22295 Fr. 1217 $500 1922 Gold Certificate PMG Very Fine 25.
An attractive mid-grade $500 Gold, this note was not listed in the census and has not been offered at auction previously as far as we can tell. The folds on the back show the originality of this majestic note that sports nice color for the grade. The third party back label mentions pinholes which are in the vicinity of the Treasury Seal. The pinholes have been partially closed and are visible when the note is backlit. At present, Track & Price enumerates 66 serial numbers for Fr. 1217. However, five of those notes are locked away in the collections of the ANA, the Smithsonian Institution, and the Federal Reserve Banks of Philadelphia, Chicago, and San Francisco. The year 2024 saw five Fr. 1217 PMG 25 examples with comments trade hands in our auctions in the $13,200 to $16,000 range. As the example in this lot has the minor foible of pinholes, we would expect our current offering to at the very least hammer at or near the upper figure.

$1,000 Gold Off the Market for Over Three Decades

22297 Fr. 1219e $1,000 1907 Gold Certificate PMG Very Fine 30.
A regal $1,000 Gold with serial number D82926, this is one of the few of this Friedberg number to have a five-digit serial number. Track & Price has recorded 49 serial numbers for Fr. 1219e, however, nearly a third are permanently impounded in collections of the Federal Reserve Banks, the Smithsonian Institution, the ANA, or have never appeared at public auction. Our current offering made its first foray into the numismatic world at large by being listed on a couple of fixed price lists in the early 1990s, then quickly followed by a couple of auction appearances, with the last occurring in 1992. Since then, it has been held by our consignor. It finally returns to the marketplace to be enjoyed by a new generation of collectors. It has the comment of minor restoration on the PMG back label, but backlighting the note reveals nothing obvious through the third party holder. The last PMG 30 example to visit the auction block was offered by us last September. It had minor repairs and realized $28,800. We feel that the same, or more, will be in order this time, too.

High Grade Old Post Office Fire Survivor

22298 Fr. 1225h $10,000 1900 Gold Certificate PMG Choice Uncirculated 64.
An unredeemable note that is not currently listed in Track & Price, this piece falls within a run of similarly graded examples. The inks remain bold on this Fr. 1225h that also exhibits a large amount of embossing on the unprinted back. The usual roulette cancel for this Friedberg number is present with a "9 13 (19)16." date. The penned name of the Assistant Treasurer of the US has greatly faded, therefore this example was probably a survivor of the five alarm fire that broke out in the Washington, D.C. "Old Post Office" on December 13, 1935. This was where many cancelled notes of this issue were stored. Firefighters tossed these notes, along with other combustible material, from the windows of a large filing room on the sixth floor so that they would not feed the conflagration. Lucky onlookers on the street below were able to pick the notes up and spirit them away. Being unredeemable, they are not an obligation of the United States. In 2024, we auctioned four PMG 64 examples which each closed in the $6,612 to $7,800 range.

Gorgeous PMG Gem 65 EPQ 1928 $1 Legal Star

23001 Fr. 1500★ $1 1928 Legal Tender Star Note. PMG Gem Uncirculated 65 EPQ.
A beautiful example of one of the great star note rarities, this piece is the sole replacement note graded at the 65 level by PMG. That service has also graded one other star a single point finer, but that replacement note has never appeared at public sale, according to Track & Price. Tonight's offering, which traces its provenance to The D. Brent Pogue Collection, is, therefore, the sole opportunity for one serious collector to obtain this rare star in an unquestioned Gem grade. In its last public appearance, this well margined and crackling fresh beauty fetched $38,400 at auction, and considering its rarity and desirability, is certainly capable of achieving that realization again.

23004 Fr. 1502★ $2 1928A Legal Tender Star Note. PMG Gem Uncirculated 65 EPQ.
We know of three great collections that this well preserved blockbuster star $2 has resided in. The first was Jim Thompson's, the second was Tom Flynn's, and the third is our current consignor's. It is now destined to find its way into a fourth great collection. The broad margins of this plate letter D note contain two paper guide line markers, one at top center and a second at upper right. Serial number and Treasury Seal embossing and excellent color are also traits of this gorgeous example. Our current offering is the sole finest Fr. 1502★ examined at PMG. They have inspected 41 Fr. 1502★ notes and almost 83% of them are in the 8-25 grade range. If you are wondering about the PMG 66 EPQ example as listed in Track & Price, there is no need for concern, as this other note's Friedberg number was incorrectly listed in a 2017 auction catalog and is actually a Fr. 1501★. This listing will be corrected in the next T&P update. Nonetheless, those that demand the finest, will be completely satisfied with the small size condition rarity in this lot.

One of the classic star rarities, with only about ten examples known in all grades combined. While each of the major services has graded one replacement note in Gem, neither of those pieces has ever appeared at public sale, according to Track & Price and, in fact, no example above the 25 grade has ever crossed the public auction block. We last handled this bright mid-grade star, which has nice color and even wear, in our 2017 Central States auction where it fetched $17,625. Earlier the gorgeous deuce in this lot was in a PCGS 69PPQ holder and recently successfully crossed over into a PCGS Banknote 69 PPQ holder. Serial number and Treasury Seal embossing is bold in the unprinted areas on the back. The note possesses an abundant amount of natural paper wave that traverses the back, too. A gorgeous example, this Z-B block Experimental features natural paper wave, bold serial number embossing, and excellent centering. This BEP experiment was the first for small size notes and occurred during the years 1932-34. It consisted of the X-B and Y-B blocks of the 1928A and 1928B Series (these two series were on the presses at the same time) testing different rag content in the paper, while the regular paper Z-B block for these two series was used as the control block. This offering from the Z-B block is the sole finest graded by PMG for this block.

An impressive trio of these popular Experimental notes with each note bearing low single digit serial number 00000007. The X-B and Y-B groups were printed with differing amounts of rag content in the paper, while the Z-B group was the control. All three notes are well embossed, though the Z-B block note has minor paper pulls. This is the first time a set of these low serial number Experimentals has appeared on the market in quite some time. (Total: 3 notes)

23020 Fr. 1700 $10 1933 Silver Certificate. PMG Gem Uncirculated 66 EPQ.
A beautiful and entirely original note from a small run of similarly well preserved examples. This $10 Silver sports four broad margins, ideal color, natural paper wrinkles, and embossing of the serial numbers and Treasury seal. PMG has graded three pieces equal and only two higher, with both of the latter within a single grade point. Serial number A00023531A in this lot is from the February 23, 1934 release of 1933 $10 Silvers into circulation. These notes either went to the Treasury Department Cash Room or a local Washington, DC bank where they possibly were put aside by a teller. This action would account for the note's high grade. Our current offering crossed the auction block for the first and only time in January 2015 with a winning bid of $70,500. The market has had a readjustment and a resurgence since then, therefore our estimate may prove to be conservative when the bidding closes.

23023 Fr. 1860-L $10 1929 Federal Reserve Bank Note. PCGS Gem New 65PPQ.
A rare opportunity is presented in this lot, as this remarkable San Francisco 1929 $10 Federal Reserve Bank Note is tied for the highest graded example across all grading services. In fact, only a handful of these Fr. 1860-L notes have been graded Uncirculated. PCGS Banknote has graded only a 63 alongside the tied 65 PPQ, while PMG has awarded an Uncirculated grade twice as well, which includes a 63 and 64 EPQ. This beauty is another old friend of ours, as we last offered it exactly a decade ago during our 2015 FUN Signature Auction, where it brought a grand total of $15,275. For the collector looking for the best of the best, your Fr. 1860-L representative is found in this lot.

23024 Fr. 1880-K $50 1929 Federal Reserve Bank Note. PMG Gem Uncirculated 66 EPQ.
A true rarity at this grade level, the Dallas $50 FRBN presented in this lot is tied for the highest graded example across all grading services. Just two others are tied at this level in the PMG Population Report, together this trio represents the only Gems, since there are none at the 65 EPQ level. It has now been exactly a decade since we offered this Friedberg at the 66 level, when we offered this exact note during our 2015 FUN Auction. That offering resulted in a realization of nearly $10,000 ten years ago, so expect to see that price eclipsed when the gavel falls on this impressive Dallas $50.

23025 Fr. 1880-L $50 1929 Federal Reserve Bank Note. PCGS Banknote Superb Gem Unc 67 PPQ.
A jaw-dropping example of a 1929 San Francisco district $50 Federal Reserve Bank Note, this piece is tied for the highest graded example across all grading services. This is the only example graded by PCGS Banknote to earn the lofty 67 PPQ grade, and the statistics at PMG are equal, as they have only graded a single 67 EPQ. We offered that PMG graded Fr. 1880-L during our 2017 Long Beach Signature Auction, where it brought $7,800. It has now been seven years since that offering, and collectors who are searching for the finest of examples have a chance to add this Friedberg at the 67 level.

Single Finest Known 1929 Kansas City $100 FRBN Replacement

23026 Fr. 1890-J★ $100 1929 Federal Reserve Bank Note. PCGS Banknote Gem Unc 65 PPQ.
We are pleased to offer an incredible 1929 $100 Federal Reserve Bank Note that is the single finest known replacement across all grading services. Graded by PCGS Banknote as Gem Unc 65 PPQ, this piece sits atop PCGS Banknote's population guide and PMG has not graded a single example at this grade level. As a result, this note lays claim to being the highest graded example, and one can certainly see why, as this Kansas City replacement is home to wonderful margins, deep brown colors, and embossing that is easily observed through the holder.

It is always a pleasure to find an ex: Grinnell note and that is the case with the Atlanta Serial Number 1 in this lot. This $5, with serial F00000001A, was lot 4978 in Part VII of the auction of The Albert A. Grinnell Collection held on November 30, 1946. Serial number and Treasury Seal embossing is strong on this lovely note that has been well preserved. Albert Avery Grinnell was born on June 12, 1865 in Shelby, New York. Grinnell, as a child, collected coins from the till of his father's general store. He was the founder in 1924 and the second president of the Detroit Coin Club. The coin club honored Grinnell with a gold medal in 1941. He also was life member number 20 of the ANA. His collection of coins and paper money was sold first by B. Max Mehl and then Barney Bluestone during 1943-47. We recently auctioned Grinnell's Serial Number 1 $20 1928 FRN, which realized $21,600 in our September 2024 Long Beach Signature Auction. We expect this Serial Number 1 $5 1928 FRN to do equally well.

Sole Finest Known $5 Boston Star

23030 Fr. 1951-A★ $5 1928A Federal Reserve Star Note. PMG Gem Uncirculated 65 EPQ.
When we auctioned this extraordinary piece in April 2013 for $12,925, we stated that it was "the only 1928A Boston district $5 Fed star graded higher than About New by either grading service." When examining the Track & Price census today, it can be determined that this splendid note still remains the sole finest listed in the reference. Similarly, the PMG Population Report discloses that our current offering is the highest graded example they have certified by a large margin. As Arthur and Ira Friedberg, the authors of Paper Money of the United States, affirm, FRNs from the 1928 and 1928A series were redeemable in gold. The Gold Reserve Act was signed into law in 1933, therefore putting an end to the "redeemable in gold" clause. Crackling fresh paper, stunning color, and balanced margins are all traits of this example.

23032 Fr. 1951-I $5 1928A Federal Reserve Note. PMG Gem Uncirculated 65 EPQ.
The 1928A $5s from Minneapolis are easily the rarest from the 1928A Series with only 652,800 printed and issued. Tonight's offering is the sole example to have received a Gem grade from either of the major services. It is a beautiful note with four more than ample margins, vibrant color, and fully original surfaces. By way of comparison, we recently auctioned a PMG 64 EPQ note for $3,360.

Extremely Rare 1928B Minneapolis $5 Star Note

23033 Fr. 1952-I★ $5 1928B Federal Reserve Star Note. PMG Choice Uncirculated 64 EPQ.
A fantastic small size rarity, this is the only star listed in both Track & Price and the PMG Population Report for this series and district. Also, the tenth edition of Schwartz-Lindquist lists the note in this lot with serial I00101208★ as the recorded low, while the high serial number listed in that reference is I00101557★. Our current offering was last on the market in our auction of The Taylor Family Collection in 2005, it is now available for one fortunate bidder to enjoy today. It is a well margined and embossed star with just a streak of as-made green ink on the back. Estimating a note of this extreme rarity is always difficult, so we will be conservative and let the bidders decide what it will take to bring home this rare Minneapolis $5 star tonight.

Near Gem 1928C Atlanta Light Green Seal $5

23034 Fr. 1953-F $5 1928C Light Green Seal Federal Reserve Note. PMG Choice Uncirculated 64 EPQ.
This is a beautiful example from this extremely scarce series that was printed for the Cleveland, Atlanta, and San Francisco districts, but apparently, only released by the Atlanta FRB. Over 5.5 million pieces were printed, but only 1.2 million were released with the entire printing occurring during the lame duck period at the end of the Hoover administration and before the advent of the Roosevelt administration in early 1933. While well circulated examples are not rare, almost none were saved when released, as the entire issue was sent to Atlanta during the very depths of the Depression and were released in the poorest section of the country during an acute cash shortage. This lovely note is one of just three graded at the 64 EPQ level by PMG who has also graded just one piece a single point finer, a note which we auctioned almost five years ago for $15,000. This is a crackling fresh and well embossed piece that is only held back from a higher grade by its centering.

A boldly inked and well margined example, this small size rarity still displays plenty of originality and has sustained only light handling. This short lived series was issued only by the Atlanta district in 1933, and was quickly supplanted by the Series 1934 Federal Reserve Notes which had the "Redeemable in Gold on Demand" clause removed. One could create a lengthy list of positive qualities and traits that this lovely 1934 Kansas City $5 lays claim to. Perhaps what is most notable is the low serial number J00000003A that adorns this spectacular $5. This is the lowest reported serial number for this Friedberg and is one of two known single digit serials. The other single digit known is serial number J00000005A that resides in a PMG 63 EPQ holder, which we auctioned in 2019 for $3,600. This example has a far superior grade of Gem Uncirculated 66 EPQ. Dallas Serial Number 1 Series 1928 $10 Surfaces After 30 Years

23039 Serial Number 1 Fr. 2000-K $10 1928 Federal Reserve Note. PMG Choice Uncirculated 63 EPQ.
This Serial Number 1 Dallas 1928 $10 FRN was acquired by our consignor out of a 1994 auction. The example in this lot is the very first small size $10 for the Dallas Federal Reserve District. The first Series 1928 sheet for Dallas $10 FRNs was cut, and the twelve notes were dispersed to dignitaries when the changeover to small size notes occurred in 1929. The only other example from the first sheet that is known is serial number K00000010A that made its way into The Albert A. Grinnell Collection. It was lot 5028 in session seven of the Grinnell Collection that crossed the auction block on November 30, 1946. Our nicely preserved current offering sports dark inks, white paper, serial number and Treasury Seal embossing, and natural paper wave. The only other Series 1928 Serial Number 1 FRNs that we have auctioned previously are the Dallas $5 in PMG 66 EPQ that realized $40,800 in September 2024 and the Atlanta $20 in PMG 63 that commanded a winning bid of $21,600 on a $15,000 and up estimate also in September 2024. We will base our current estimate on the latter, knowing full well that the winning bid may climb to somewhere in the middle of the two September 2024 results.

PMG has examined a dozen of these Boston stars with the example in this lot earning the solitary highest grade and it also has the sole highest grade in Track & Price amongst eight recorded Fr. 2001-A★ notes. Serial number embossing is strong and the color is ideal on this nicely preserved example. This $10 star last crossed the auction block in 2013. At that time it was in a PCGS 64PPQ holder and realized $27,600. Since then, it has been regraded as a PMG 64 EPQ and there have been nine Fr. 2001-A★ auction appearances with all of the notes grading in the 25-40 range. In fact, the second highest graded example of this Friedberg number, a PMG 63, was last offered at our September 2009 Long Beach auction where it brought $14,950 and has not returned to the market place. This "top pop" example could certainly repeat its 2013 price, but we will keep our estimate conservative.

This offering is a great small size rarity as it is one of only four stars graded for this series and district by PMG. Only five different districts in the midst of the Great Depression issued Series 1928C $10s, and a mere two of those districts issued stars, Cleveland and Chicago. There is only one example known of the Chicago 1928C $10, which means that only the Cleveland district provides a realistic option for most collectors to obtain a star from this rare series. The serial number 77 trio in this lot were lots 4949, 4950, and 4951 in denomination order in Part VII of the Barney Bluestone auction of The Albert A. Grinnell Collection held on November 30, 1946. Our consignor brought these three notes together from different sources as the $5 is not currently listed in Track & Price. Each nicely preserved example displays paper originality that includes embossing and excellent color. The last one of these three to cross the auction block was the Gem $10 which realized $3,995 in our January 2015 FUN auction.

Embossing, dark inks, and white paper define this attractive Serial Number 1 note that is the very first small size $20 for the Dallas district. It was acquired by our consignor out of the same 1994 auction that he purchased the Dallas Serial Number 1 Series 1928 $10 in this auction session. Both of these Dallas Serial Number 1 notes have been together a long time and perhaps the winner of the $10 tonight can repeat that feat when the hammer falls on its companion $20. To have two historical first small size notes in a single collection would be a monumental achievement.

Track & Price has recorded five different examples of this rare Cleveland star, and of those five, this is the highest graded example by 34 grade points. The PMG Population Report shows that they have graded nine Fr. 2051-D★ stars, and the gulf between the star in this lot and its closest competitor has shrunk to 29 grade points. As far as PCGS Banknote goes, our search shows they have not examined a single example at the time of cataloging. This well margined plate letter J star possesses two paper guide line markers, serial number embossing, excellent color, and last crossed the auction block at our April 2013 Central States auction where it realized $14,100.

A penciled teller name of Greer followed by a date of "8-8-31" are observed on this post-BEP generic bank band. All 100 notes are encapsulated within a thick encasement. Pack grading is available for US Small Size notes in the quantities of a complete full pack of 100 notes or half packs of 50. All notes in the pack are examined by graders, and a single grade is granted as a composite for the entire pack. The Boston district $50 is the key to completing a set of 1928 fifties, as it is by far the most difficult to find in any grade, and especially in top condition. This note is actually an old friend of ours, as we last offered it over a decade ago during our 2013 FUN US Currency Signature Auction. An attractive and bright 1928 Cleveland $500 that has the appearance of an Uncirculated note. Just light handling has led to the assigned PMG 55 EPQ grade, although the most important attribute of this note is that it has earned the coveted EPQ designation. 1928 $500's are oftentimes found without the Exceptional Paper Quality designation, yet this About Uncirculated beauty has held on to its originality. In fact, according to the PMG Population Report, only six examples of the Fr. 2200-D are graded higher that have the EPQ designator. Last September, we auctioned a PMG 58 EPQ example which realized $5,400.

23063 Fr. 2200-F $500 1928 Federal Reserve Note. PMG Gem Uncirculated 66 EPQ.
A remarkable $500 from the sixth district of Atlanta, this 1928 series high denomination has the look, the grade, and the statistics to make it one of the greatest 1928 $500s one can own. The PMG Population Report speaks for itself, as this is the single highest graded, and one of just four examples to reach the Uncirculated level. Out of those four, this beauty is also the only one to carry the EPQ designator, with the other notes receiving grades of 61, 63, and 64. Anytime we offer a $500 at the 66 EPQ level, it is a real treat, and this Atlanta note is no exception. This note is tied for the finest known, since PCGS Banknote has graded a single example as 66 PPQ. We offered that PCGS graded note during our 2024 Long Beach Signature Auction, where it brought nearly $23,000. Expect to see that realization matched and exceeded when the gavel falls on this legendary $500.

Serial number G00000680★ in this lot is the highest PCGS Banknote graded 1928 $500 Chicago star with not a single equal. We also see that the PMG Population Report does not list a single Fr. 2200-G★. We wanted to find out next how many Series 1928 $500 stars there are across all districts. We consulted Track & Price, the tenth edition of Schwartz-Lindquist, and the second edition of Small Sized High Denomination Notes by Stephen M. Sullivan. The seven examples we can confirm amongst the three references are Philadelphia (2), Cleveland, Chicago (2), and St. Louis (2). The second Chicago $500 is serial number G00000064★, but it does not have any recent history and its whereabouts are unknown. Our current offering is a nice representative for the grade and received a details grade for having a small edge tear at top center sealed. Nonetheless, it remains an extremely rare 1928 $500 star not only for the Chicago district, but for the entire series.

Second Highest PMG Graded Fr. 2201-H $500 DGS

23077 Fr. 2201-H $500 1934 Federal Reserve Note. PMG Choice Uncirculated 64 EPQ.
This St. Louis $500 possesses serial number and Treasury Seal embossing, plus undulating natural paper surfaces on the back from the drying process. This plate letter I example has two paper guide line markers in the bottom margin on the face and a third on the back at lower left. Serial number H00066927A in this lot is a new serial number for Track & Price. A few of the districts for Series 1934 $500s are scarcer as Dark Green Seal notes than Light Green Seal notes. St. Louis is one of those cases, as PMG has graded a measly 24 DGS examples compared to 271 LGS notes. A closer look at the high-end of the PMG Population Report reveals that they have not graded any other DGS notes equal and only a solitary DGS example higher and that by a single grade point. Our current offering is easily the nicest Fr. 2201-H DGS that we have ever auctioned. Our estimate may prove to be too conservative when the gavel falls.

A Minneapolis district $500 that boasts the highly coveted PMG 66 EPQ grade not often found on this Friedberg, this beauty is, in fact, one of only six examples to reach this grade level according to the PMG Population Report. A tough district for high denominations in general, this near Superb-Gem beauty is the finest PMG graded example that we have offered since our 2024 FUN Signature Auction, when we offered an equivalently graded note that brought nearly $15,000.

Excessively Rare Minneapolis $500 1934 Star - The Nicer of Two Known

23079 Fr. 2201-I★ $500 1934 Federal Reserve Star Note. PMG Extremely Fine 40.
When we first auctioned this high denomination replacement note in our September 2005 auction, we said it was one of two stars listed in the census from this district in the 1934 series and that it was also the finer of the pair with excellent color and just light, even wear. Since that time, the other known piece has not made a public appearance, leaving this beautiful star as the only option for today's collectors. If rarity is any criterion, this $500 star will see considerable bidding activity before the hammer falls tonight.

Well Preserved Light Green Seal Kansas City $500

23080 Fr. 2201-J $500 1934 Light Green Seal Federal Reserve Note. PCGS Superb Gem New 67PPQ.
Serial number J00015437A in this lot is not listed in Track & Price, but when it is listed in that census, it will become the sole highest major third party graded example. Embossing is observed behind both serial numbers and the Treasury Seal on this well preserved Kansas City $500. There are also natural paper ripples on the back due to the paper drying process. We auctioned a Fr. 2201-G Light Green Seal graded 67 PPQ by PCGS Banknote in May 2024. It realized $19,200 on a $17,500 and up estimate. Bidders can expect a similar result tonight when the auctioneer announces, “sold.”

Values have only increased since then for $500s, and especially so for quality examples. This is reflected in the fact that the latest Fr. 2202-L in this third party grade that we auctioned was a PMG 66 EPQ piece that realized $10,800 in January 2024. That earlier note has serial number L00109404A, while our current offering sports a serial just 15 notes removed, L00109419A. 23106 Fr. 2210-L $1,000 1928 Federal Reserve Note. PMG About Uncirculated 53.
A Series 1928 San Francisco Dark Green Seal $1,000 note that was last offered as lot 1007 in our January 1999 Winter Auction. The handling is light and consists of a hard to detect center fold on this piece. Our examination noticed not only serial number and Treasury Seal embossing, but an excellent note for type. Also, the paper is white on this plate letter B note that has four full margins with the top margin being very broad. It has been over twelve years since an example of this Friedberg number in this third-party grade has crossed the auction block. However, we auctioned a PMG 55 for $4,560 in October 2021, and since then winning bids for 1928 $1,000 FRNs have only increased as seen by the winning bid in September 2024 of $4,560 for a PMG 40 Fr. 2210-B DGS example.

23107 Fr. 2211-A $1,000 1934 Light Green Seal Federal Reserve Note. PMG Choice Uncirculated 64 EPQ.
Among the finest Light Green Seal Boston $1,000s is this incredible beauty that has earned a high grade of Choice Uncirculated 64 EPQ from PMG. Out of the 157 total examples of this Friedberg graded by PMG, only a meager seven have earned a higher grade than this lovely note. Just a hair away from a fully Gem grade, this Boston high denomination boasts blazing color, bright paper, and strike-through embossing. During last year's FUN Signature Auction, we offered a PMG 65 EPQ graded example that realized nearly $22,000.

23108 Fr. 2211-C $1,000 1934 Light Green Seal Federal Reserve Note. PMG Choice Uncirculated 63 EPQ.
Hailing from a district where 1934 Light Green Seal $1,000s are difficult to locate in high grades, this lovely Philadelphia high denomination checks all of the boxes. Taking a look at the PMG Population Report, this example is bested by just six examples, which consist of three 64's and three 64 EPQ's. With that being said, this beauty is certainly among the highest graded examples available to collectors. Had it not been for a tight top margin, this Philadelphia high denom would've certainly earned a 64 EPQ grade at the least. The high denomination market is still hot, so expect to see this LGS bring plenty of bidding activity.

A simply stunning example, this LGS Cleveland 1934 $1,000 is among the finest known for the Friedberg. Taking a glance at the PMG Population Report shows us that only one single example has earned a higher grade. Aside from that, this beauty is one of only 14 PMG examples at the Uncirculated level, however out of that group only six carry the coveted and always important Exceptional Paper Quality designator. During our 2024 FUN Signature Auction, we offered a lower graded PMG 63 EPQ that brought nearly $9,000. With this note being a step up, a realization of five figures is certainly in store.

Single Finest Known Across All Grading Services

Referring to this Richmond $1,000 as incredible would certainly be an understatement, as this high denomination note has earned an improbable grade that has only been awarded to a minuscule number of Light Green Seal $1,000 FRNs. Out of the 41 examples of this Friedberg that PMG has graded, this stands alone at the top, boasting a Gem Uncirculated 66 EPQ grade. Only two other have even reached the Uncirculated level, with those being a single 63 EPQ and a 64 EPQ, so this beauty is also the only Gem graded by PMG as well. This grade has not been matched by any other grading service, so this example is the single highest graded. Our consignor purchased this note out of our CSNS auction nearly a decade ago, when it brought exactly $47,000. This Richmond beauty, home to incredible margins, blazing color, and a fancy serial number E00000555A, is fit for the most advanced and finest of collections.

Out of the 255 notes graded by PMG of this Friedberg number, just 19 have been preserved in grades Choice AU 58 EPQ or higher. Examples of high denomination FRNs that have achieved lofty grades are always in demand, but they are tightly held by collectors. Our current offering possesses splendid color and has received PMG's coveted "Exceptional Paper Quality" designation for wholly original paper surfaces. Very little evidence of handling can be distinguished through the holder. Exemplary serial number embossing is also a trait. The last comparable piece we offered was a PMG 65 EPQ★, which realized $11,400 in our October 2021 Long Beach auction. It would be not at all surprising if the note in this lot approached that figure. PMG mentions that this example was once the third sequential note in a set of three, but that trio has since been broken apart.

Exceptionally difficult to locate in higher grades, and nearly impossible at the Uncirculated level, the Minneapolis 1934A $1,000 FRNs have made a name for themselves as the challenge for high denomination collectors. Among the meager five dozen that PMG has handled across all grade levels, only five have earned an Uncirculated grade. The lovely 55 EPQ graded note found in this lot is one of only four examples at the AU level that also have the EPQ designation, which is a vital attribute to maintain. Last July, we auctioned a PMG 55 flat that brought over $5,500. A rare denomination and even more so in such a high state of preservation. Punch-through embossing of the upper right serial number is easily observed on the back of this high-grade Chicago $5,000. It is a fully margined plate letter D note with paper guide line markers at top center and upper right. It was purchased at auction by our consignor in 2003 and is not listed in Track & Price. It is listed in the 2008 second edition of Stephen M. Sullivan's Small Sized High Denomination Notes. It is the sole finest Fr. 2220-G graded by PMG, but more importantly, PMG has graded 22 Series 1928 $5,000 notes with only one earning a higher or equal grade, a PMG 65 EPQ Fr. 2220-E. We auctioned the Richmond example for $780,000 in September 2024. Our current nicely preserved example should make a strong run at that figure.

Unique Dallas 1928 $5,000 FRN

23131 Fr. 2220-K $5,000 1928 Federal Reserve Note. PMG Very Fine 25.

This Dallas 1928 $5,000 with serial K00000031A was unique when we first offered it as a new discovery in January 2011. Fourteen years later, it has withstood the test of time and remains unique to this day. It is also one of only 20 1928 $5,000 notes listed in Track & Price. Dallas had by far the lowest 1928 printing for the $5,000 FRN denomination with a total of only 360 notes printed by the BEP. Chances for survival are minuscule at best with such a low printing and we are fortunate that our current offering has lasted all these years. It has a uniform appearance on both sides with the comment of restoration on the PMG back label. When this note entered our premises in 2011, it resided in a PCGS third party holder with a comment of edges frayed. We are pleased to announce that that peccadillo has been expertly taken care of. Unique notes are always hard to estimate, but with the current upward trend for this ultra-high denomination, our estimate may prove to be very conservative.

Newly Discovered Richmond $5,000

23132 Fr. 2221-E $5,000 1934 Federal Reserve Note. PMG About Uncirculated 55.
New entrants to the ultra high denomination census are infrequent. This example comes from the vault cash holdings of an Eastern Seaboard bank, not too far from Richmond. Just 2,400 notes were printed for this district, and just more than a dozen are known extant. These Richmond $5,000s seem to have been printed in two waves, or serial numbered at two different intervals. Serial Numbers 77 and below feature a lighter hued, but pine-green color. The higher numbers feature this vivid lime green seal and serial number. Some well executed restorations are noted, but the overall eye appeal is exceptional. In the holder, it appears bright and and Uncirculated with bright white paper, incredible margins on front and back, topped with the vivid light green overprint. It easily bests the example in the exact same grade that we offered in our May Central States Signature Auction that realized $198,000.

23133 Fr. 2221-H $5,000 1934 Federal Reserve Note. PMG Choice Uncirculated 64 EPQ.
Excellent color and full margins helped propel this beautiful St. Louis $5,000 with serial number H00000428A to the 64 EPQ grade level. For this Friedberg number, PMG has graded a mere two equal and only one higher and that by a single grade point. The total population for Fr. 2221-H graded by PMG is only eleven. A broader view that includes the entire Series 1934 for the $5,000 denomination reveals that PMG has graded a grand total of 110 pieces. Eight of those are equal in grade to the example in this lot, while just five are higher and every note in that lofty quintet earned a grade of 65 EPQ. Our recent auction appearances of high grade Series 1934 $5,000 notes includes a winning bid of $312,000 for a Fr. 2221-K in PMG 64 EPQ in January 2022 and a bid of $384,000 in May 2024 in order to take a PMG 65 EPQ Fr. 2221-J home. The general trend, and we see that continuing, is for quality $5,000 notes to be won at ever increasing prices at auction.

Attractive Mid-Grade Series 1928 Atlanta $10,000

23134 Fr. 2230-F $10,000 1928 Federal Reserve Note. PMG Choice Very Fine 35.
A new serial number for the census, yet an old friend for us, as serial F00000100A was the very first Series 1928 $10,000 that Currency Auctions of America ever offered. It was lot 1043 in our September 1996 Secaucus auction where it was won by our consignor. It was not third party graded back then and we graded it in its raw state as Very Fine-Extremely Fine. It has three vertical folds and minor horizontal handling, while the inks remain dark. PMG has graded from among all districts only seven Series 1928 $10,000 notes: Richmond (2), Atlanta (4), and Kansas City, compared to 113 Series 1934 $10,000s. We know that the 1934 population figure is underreported, as many of the 100 Binion Hoard $10,000 notes from the New York district have not made their way to PMG. However, combining the Stephen M. Sullivan census found in Small Sized High Denomination Notes, 2nd Edition with Track & Price population figures, we found only a total of ten Series 1928 representatives from all districts combined. Even that small number is deceiving, as the lone New York and San Francisco examples are both locked away in the collection of the Federal Reserve Bank of San Francisco. That leaves only eight from all districts combined in the possession of collectors, and creates some hot competition for any that come to market. Overall, our current offering is an attractive mid-grade rarity that will command serious attention.

23135 Fr. 2231-K $10,000 1934 Federal Reserve Note Face Specimen PCGS Banknote Gem Unc 66 PPQ. This fantastic piece was first offered by Heritage as part of the The Taylor Family Collection that crossed the auction block in February 2005. It was the only $10,000 FRN Specimen or Proof found in that massive collection, which was known for its extraordinary depth of Ultra High Denominations. It has four extra wide margins on all sides, bright paper, and prominent embossing. Printed in silver ink on the back is, "Specimen / Not Negotiable." We offered it in 2021, when the market for $5,000 and $10,000 notes was just starting it record run. It realized $28,800 in that market, which could easily be bested this evening. This is a great note for the Dallas collector or Ultra specialist, though its realized price will be far less than what an issued example would bring.

WORLD WAR II EMERGENCY NOTES

23136 Fr. 2300 $1 1935A Hawaii Silver Certificates Uncut Sheet of Twelve PCGS Very Choice New 64PPQ.
The tenth edition of the Standard Guide to Small-Size U.S. Paper Money by John Schwartz and Scott Lindquist lists 21 examples of this rare and desirable uncut sheet and that number does include the example in this lot. Twenty-five uncut sheets of $1 Hawaiis were originally issued by the Treasury Department. Track & Price has recorded only 20 auction appearances since 2001 of this wartime Friedberg number in uncut sheet form. All Fr. 2300 uncut sheets are from the F-C block with serial numbers from 41964001 through 41967996, but all serials are not represented within that range. Hawaii and North Africa $1 Silver uncut sheets use a numbering scheme unlike any other in our nation's paper money history. Each column of six is consecutive, but all twelve notes on a sheet are not consecutive. The sheet in this lot has a left column with serial numbers 41964043-48 and the right column has serials 41966041-46. The Hawaii notes were first issued in June 1942 in the Territory of Hawaii along with the islands of Midway, Johnston, and Palmyra. These emergency notes were a protective financial measure against a possible invasion by the Japanese. After July 15, 1942, no other United States paper money could be held or used on these islands without a special license that was obtainable through the office of the governor of the Territory of Hawaii. The governor at this time was Joseph B. Poindexter from March 1934 to August 1942. The first proclamations concerning series of Hawaii notes were made in Poindexter's name and in the name of the military governor of Hawaii, Brigadier General Thomas H. Green. All restrictions for possessing non-Hawaii notes were removed on October 21, 1944. This example has been nicely preserved and is in a comment free third party holder. It has been over a decade since a Fr. 2300 uncut sheet was auctioned at this third party grade level. However, a 65PPQ example graded by the same third party grading company realized $31,200 in 2023. With that in mind, our estimate may well prove to be conservative. Nonetheless in the final analysis, this is a rare World War II uncut sheet of emergency notes fit for the finest of collections.

Gorgeous PCGS Superb 68 PPQ Hawaii $10 - Tied for the Finest Graded

23137 Fr. 2303 $10 1934A Hawaii Federal Reserve Note. PCGS Banknote Superb Gem Unc 68 PPQ.
An incredible note that is tied for the finest graded Hawaii $10 by either service. It features ideal centering, vibrant ink colors and embossing, and pristine paper surfaces. The first 68-graded example to appear on the market in eight years since we auctioned a note in an "old" PCGS 68PPQ holder for almost $6,500, this offering too is destined to reside in a high-end registry set.

Incredibly Rare $20 Hawaii Replacement

23138 Fr. 2304★ $20 1934 Hawaii Federal Reserve Note. PCGS Apparent About New 53.
An exceptionally rare replacement that we have only offered three times in the past two and a half decades. It has now been exactly a decade since we last offered an example of the rare Fr. 2304★, which was during our 2015 FUN Signature Auction when this exact note brought over $7,300. The 1934 $20 Hawaii non-mule replacement is considerably more difficult to locate than its mule counterpart. In fact, we know of only a meager five examples that have been graded by a third party. Three of those notes are graded by PCGS (which includes this example), two by PMG, and none by PCGS Banknote. The example in this lot is the finest by a long mile, and even though there is a professionally restored edge tear at the top margin, it takes little away from the significance and sheer rarity of this incredible WWII emergency note.

Four broad margins encircle this plate letter A monetary veteran of the Pacific Theatre of World War II. This beautiful$20 was able to avoid all signs of circulation, while retaining embossing on the face of portions of the large HAWAII printed on the back. The color is also ideal, making for one highly desirable note. Recently, serial number L69740215A successfully crossed over from a PCGS 67PPQ holder to a PCGS Banknote 67 PPQ holder. PCGS Banknote has graded one equal and none higher, while PMG has graded three equal and none higher. Highest PMG Graded North Africa $1 Sheet Offered at Auction

23141 Fr. 2306 $1 1935A North Africa Silver Certificates Uncut Sheet of Twelve PMG Choice Uncirculated 64 EPQ.
The Schwartz-Lindquist tenth edition enumerates only 16 examples of this elusive emergency wartime uncut sheet and the example in this lot is included in that figure. The Treasury Department originally issued only 25 uncut sheets of $1 North Africas. Track & Price has recorded 20 auction appearances for uncut sheets since 2006. The F-C block was used not only for $1 Hawaii uncut sheets, but also for $1 North Africa uncut sheets. The sheet in this lot has serial numbers 41952067-72 in the left column and 41954065-70 in the right column. This issue was printed at the request of the War Department for use by American troops in North Africa. Later, they would be used during the advancement in the Mediterranean Theatre. After V-E Day, the yellow seal notes were paid to soldiers who were shipped from Europe to the Pacific Theatre. Only two sheets listed in T&P have been third party graded by PMG. Of that pair, the example in this lot is not only the highest graded, but it is also the only one to have earned the coveted EPQ grade modifier. None of the PMG graded sheets have crossed the auction block since we originally auctioned our current offering in January 2013 for $17,265. A dozen years later, we would prefer to err on the side of caution with our estimate. However, this wonderful historic numismatic artifact graded by PMG is poised to climb above that figure.

A gorgeous B-A block face plate number 126 Gem example with a serial number of B07560556A that is closing in on the observed high for this World War II emergency issue. It possesses paper originality throughout, plus excellent color. It is a plate letter D note and since it was once part of a twelve subject sheet, there would have been a paper guide line marker for cutting purposes between the plate letter C and D notes directly above "Silver" in "Silver Certificate." In this case, the cutting blade landed directly on the paper guide line marker producing a small area of edge roughness that further reinforces the fact that this note has been well preserved since being printed, cut, and shipped to the European Theatre. From there, it may have been paid to troops being transferred to the Pacific Theatre after V-E Day. PMG has graded just two equal and three higher with the latter all being only a single grade point more. The last PMG 65 EPQ example that we auctioned was in January 2016. It was only two serial numbers removed from our current offering and realized $25,850. After nine years, our estimate on this small size trophy note may prove to be conservative.

A truly rare and spectacular note in this state of preservation is offered here, with PMG having graded only one other at this level and only three higher by just one grade point. For PCGS Banknote, we cannot find a single appearance at auction for a Fr. 2405 above 63 PPQ. Having the PCGS Banknote verification number from that note tells us that they have graded seven higher than 63 PPQ, but not the individual grades of that septet. However, our archives reveal more. We have auctioned two examples graded PMG 65 EPQ and they are separated by ten years. The first offering is this exact note won by our consignor and it received a winning bid of $38,187 out of our August 2014 ANA auction. The second was in January 2024 at our FUN auction and that piece soared to $40,800. Broad margins that reveal two paper guide line markers, serial number embossing, white paper, and a dark orange overprint will surely propel the winning bid of our current offering to the 2024 figure, if not higher.

Serial number M1497951 is the first inverted back error that we have auctioned on Fr. 277. That is not surprising as Stephen Sullivan in his second edition of US Error Note Encyclopedia reports a solitary serial number in his census on page 129. It is serial number M12411774 and grades a raw VG. It has appeared at auction only once and brought $1,265 in 2004. Our current offering is a much nicer example in a comment free holder. In September 2024, we offered an inverted back Fr. 271 Chief in PMG 35 with comments which realized $5,280. Friedberg 271 is easily the most "common" Chief to find with an inverted back, with at least eleven examples known to us. This much rarer Friedberg number for inverted backs should bring a considerable amount more than our conservative estimate.

Series 1929 Mismatched Charter Number Error
One of Two Known on the Bank

23155 Mismatched Charter Number Error Ashland, VA - $5 1929 Ty. 2 The First National Bank Ch. # 11978/11878 PMG Very Fine 20. An excessively rare mismatched charter number error type, this is one of just two known error examples from this Hanover County financial institution. Both brown ink charter numbers of "11878" on this Type 2 $5 are incorrect, as the correct charter number of "11978" is found twice in black ink. Charter number "11878" was the charter number of the Superior NB & TC of Cleveland, Ohio, which did not issue any notes and was liquidated on December 31, 1920. The two notes known on the FNB of Ashland with incorrect charter numbers are A001752 and A002332. Documented notes before and after this serial number range have the correct charter numbers. Don C. Kelly on page 545 of the fourth edition of National Bank Notes A Guide With Prices lists just two banks that have mismatched charter numbers on their Series 1929 small size notes, the Ashland bank in this lot and the First NB of Tigerton, Wisconsin, with the latter bank represented by a single note. Also, the Tigerton example only has the upper right brown charter number as being incorrect. These two banks are also the only two listed in the 2015 fourth edition of United States Paper Money Errors by Dr. Frederick J. Bart on page 203 as having this error type on Series 1929 small size notes.

We auctioned the other $5 note from Ashland with this mismatched charter number error in January 2023. It graded PMG VF 25 and realized $15,600. Both error notes are very similar in appearance and our current offering with serial number A001752 could even surpass the 2023 result due to the fact that there are only two Series 1929 small size notes that have both brown charter numbers incorrect. If you are a serious collector of National Bank Note errors, our current offering should not be overlooked.

New to the Census - Rare Error Replacement Note

23156 Inverted Back Error Fr. 1950-D★ $5 1928 Federal Reserve Star Note. PMG Choice Extremely Fine 45.
An early $5 FRN with an inverted back, this piece displays a considerable eye appeal. Adding another layer of desirability for this error, the T&P census enumerates nine star notes for the Cleveland district and does not include this note. It will indeed find a treasured position in the winning bidder's collection.

Dramatic Double Print Error 1999 $1 Federal Reserve Note

23157 Doubled Print Error Fr. 1924-B $1 1999 Federal Reserve Note. PMG Very Fine 30.
The Treasury overprint has been doubled leaving the note with two distinct serial numbers, and a doubled Treasury Seal creating a dramatic error. The separate serial numbers occur when a sheet already printed reenters the printing press on top of another sheet. While most of these errors are quickly set aside, this note spent some time in circulation, leaving it with some light soiling. In the past, we have auctioned the well known Cleveland $2s with the same error, this is the first $1 that we have had the opportunity to auction. It is expected that this note will realize five figures.

Terms and Conditions of Auction

Auctioneer and Auction:

1. This Auction is presented by Heritage Auctions, a d/b/a/ of Heritage Auctioneers & Galleries, Inc., Heritage Auctions, Inc., Heritage Collectibles, Inc., Heritage Luxury Property Auctions, Inc., Heritage Numismatic Auctions, Inc., Heritage Vintage Sports Auctions, Inc., Currency Auctions of America, Inc., Heritage Auctions (HK) Limited, or Heritage Auctions – Europe Cooperatief U.A. as identified with the applicable licensing information on the title page of the catalog or on the HA.com Internet site (the "Auctioneer"). The Auction is conducted under these Terms and Conditions of Auction and applicable state and local law. Announcements and corrections from the podium and those made through the Terms and Conditions of Auctions appearing on the Internet at HA.com supersede those in the printed catalog.

Buyer's Premium:

2. All bids are subject to a Buyer's Premium which is in addition to the placed successful bid. The Buyer's Premium for each Auction is published by Auctioneer in the printed catalog and on the Internet. In addition to the Buyer's Premium, all successful bids placed through third-party platforms including LiveAuctioneers.com, Invaluable.com, or similar third-party platforms shall be assessed a fee of five percent (5%) of the Hammer Price ("Third-Party Platform Fee").

Bidders:

3. Any person participating or registering for the Auction agrees to be bound by and accepts these Terms and Conditions of Auction ("Bidder(s)").
4. All Bidders must meet Auctioneer's qualifications to bid. Any Bidder who is not a client in good standing of the Auctioneer may be disqualified at Auctioneer's sole option and will not be awarded lots. Such determination may be made by Auctioneer in its sole and unlimited discretion, at any time prior to, during, or even after the close of the Auction. Auctioneer reserves the right to exclude any person from the auction.
5. If an entity places a bid, then the person executing the bid on behalf of the entity agrees to personally guarantee payment for any successful bid.

Credit:

6. In order to place bids, Bidders who have not established credit with the Auctioneer must either furnish satisfactory credit information (including two collectibles-related business references) or supply valid payment card information along with a social security number, well in advance of the Auction. Internet bids will only be accepted from pre-registered Bidders. Bidders who are not members of HA.com or affiliates should preregister at least 48 hours before the start of the first session (exclusive of holidays or weekends) to allow adequate time to contact references. Credit will be granted at the discretion of Auctioneer. Auctioneer may, in its sole discretion, require a deposit in good funds of twenty-five percent (25%) of the amount of each bid prior to acceptance of the bid. Additionally Bidders who have not previously established credit or who wish to bid in excess of their established credit history may be required to provide their social security so a credit check may be performed prior to Auctioneer's acceptance of a bid. Settlement via check and immediate delivery of merchandise may also be determined by pre-approval of credit based on a combination of: HA.com history, related industry references, bank verification, a credit bureau report and/or a personal guarantee for a corporate or partnership entity in advance of the auction.

Bidding Options:

7. Auctioneer accepts bids from the Internet, telephone, fax, mail, floor, and HeritageLive! from registered clients.
8. Bids in Signature® Auctions may be placed as set forth in the printed catalog section entitled "Choose your bidding method." For auctions held solely on the Internet, see the alternatives on HA.com. Review at http://www.ha.com/c/ref/web-tips.zx#biddingTutorial.
9. Presentment of Bids: Non-Internet bids (including but not limited to podium, fax, phone and mail bids) and floor bids must be on-increment or at a half increment ("Cut Bid"). Any podium, fax, phone, or mail bids that do not conform to a full or half increment will be rounded up or down to the nearest full or half increment and this revised amount will be considered your high bid.
10. Auctioneer's Execution of Certain Bids. Auctioneer cannot be responsible for your errors in bidding or entry of bids. When identical mail or fax bids are submitted, preference is given to the first received. To ensure the greatest accuracy, written bids should be entered on the standard printed bid sheet and received by Auctioneer at least two business days prior to Auction start. Auctioneer is not responsible for executing mail bids or fax bids received on or after the day the first lot is sold, nor Internet bids submitted after the published closing time; nor is Auctioneer responsible for proper execution of bids submitted by telephone, mail, fax, email, Internet, or in person once Auction begins. Bids placed electronically via the internet may not be withdrawn until your written request is received and acknowledged by Auctioneer (FAX: 214-409-1425); such requests must state the reason, and may constitute grounds for withdrawal of bidding privileges. Lots won by mail Bidders will not be delivered at the Auction unless prearranged.
11. Bid Increments. Bid increments (over the current bid level) determine the lowest amount you may bid on a particular lot. Bids greater than one increment over the current bid can be any whole dollar amount. It is possible under several circumstances for winning bids to be between increments, sometimes only $1 above the previous increment. Please see: "How can I lose by less than an increment?" on our website. Bids will be accepted in whole dollar amounts only. No "buy" or "unlimited" bids will be accepted.

   Current bidding increments (see HA.com/c/ref/web-tips.zx#guidelines-increments) are:

Current Bid	Bid Increment	Current Bid	Bid Increment
< $100	$5	$20,000 - $49,999	$2,000
$100 - $199	$10	$50,000 - $99,999	$5,000
$200 - $499	$20	$100,000 - $199,999	$10,000
$500 - $999	$50	$200,000 - $499,999	$20,000
$1,000 - $1,999	$100	$500,000 - $999,999	$25,000
$2,000 - $4,999	$200	$1,000,000 - $1,999,999	$50,000
$5,000 - $9,999	$500	$2,000,000 - $9,999,999	$100,000
$10,000 - $19,999	$1,000	≥ $10,000,000	$200,000

12. If Auctioneer calls for a full increment, Bidder may request Auctioneer to accept a Cut Bid only once per lot. After offering a Cut Bid, Bidder may continue to bid on lot only at full increments. Off-increment bids may be accepted by the Auctioneer at Signature® Auctions. Bids solicited by Auctioneer at other than the expected increment will not be considered Cut Bids.

Conducting the Auction:

13. Notice of the consignor's liberty to place bids on his lots in the Auction is hereby made in accordance with Article 2 of the Texas Business and Commercial Code. A "Minimum Bid" is an amount below which the lot will not sell. THE CONSIGNOR OF PROPERTY MAY PLACE WRITTEN "Minimum Bids" ON HIS LOTS IN ADVANCE OF THE AUCTION; ON SUCH LOTS, IF THE HAMMER PRICE DOES NOT MEET THE "Minimum Bid", THE CONSIGNOR MAY PAY A REDUCED COMMISSION ON THOSE LOTS. "Minimum Bids" are generally posted online several days prior to the Auction closing. Any successful bid placed by a consignor on his property on the Auction floor, by any means during the live session, or after the "Minimum Bid" for an Auction have been posted, will require the consignor to pay full Buyer's Premium and Seller's Commissions on such lot. Auctioneer or its affiliates expressly reserve the right to modify any such bids at any time prior to the hammer based upon data made known to the Auctioneer or its affiliates.
14. The highest qualified Bidder recognized by the Auctioneer shall be the Buyer. In the event of a tie bid, the earliest bid received or recognized wins. In the event of any dispute between any Bidders at an Auction, Auctioneer may at his sole discretion reoffer the lot. Auctioneer's decision and declaration of the winning Bidder shall be final and binding upon all Bidders. Bids properly offered, whether by floor Bidder or other means of bidding, may on occasion be missed or go unrecognized; in such cases, the Auctioneer may declare the recognized bid accepted as the winning bid, regardless of whether a competing bid may have been higher. Auctioneer reserves the right after the hammer fall to accept bids and reopen bidding for bids placed through the Internet or otherwise. Regardless of placed bids, Auctioneer reserves the right to withdraw any lot, or any part of a lot, from Auction at any time prior to the opening of any such lot by the auctioneer (crier), or in the case of Internet-only auctions when the bid opens for either live Internet bidding or the beginning of any extended period.
15. Auctioneer reserves the right to refuse to honor any bid or to limit the amount of any bid, in its sole discretion. A bid is considered not made in "Good Faith" when made by an insolvent or irresponsible person, a person under the age of eighteen, or is not supported by satisfactory credit, references, or otherwise. Regardless of the disclosure of his identity, any bid by a consignor or his agent on a lot consigned by him is deemed to be made in "Good Faith." Any person apparently appearing on the OFAC list is not eligible to bid.
16. Nominal Bids. The Auctioneer in its sole discretion may reject nominal bids, small opening bids, or very nominal advances.
17. Lots bearing bidding estimates shall open at Auctioneer's discretion (generally 40%-60% of the low estimate). In the event that no bid meets or exceeds that opening amount, the lot shall pass as unsold or the Auctioneer may place a protective bid on behalf of the consignor.
18. All items are to be purchased per lot as numerically indicated and no lots will be broken.
19. Auctioneer reserves the right to rescind the sale in the event of nonpayment, breach of a warranty, disputed ownership, auctioneer's clerical error or omission in exercising bids and reserves, or for any other reason and in Auctioneer's sole discretion.
20. Auctioneer occasionally experiences Internet and/or Server service outages, and Auctioneer periodically schedules system downtime for maintenance and other purposes, during which Bidders cannot participate or place bids. If such outages occur, bidding may be extended at Auctioneer's discretion. Bidders unable to place their bids through the Internet are directed to contact Client Services at 877-HERITAGE (437-4824).
21. From time to time, the Auctioneer, its affiliates, or their employees may consign items to be sold in the Auction.
22. From time to time, the Auctioneer, its affiliates, or their employees may place bids on lots in the Auction.
23. The Auctioneer may extend advances, guarantees, or loans to certain consignors.
24. The Auctioneer has the right to sell certain unsold items after the close of the Auction. Such lots shall be considered sold during the Auction and all these Terms and Conditions shall apply to such sales including but not limited to the Buyer's Premium, return rights, and disclaimers.

Payment:

25. All sales are strictly for cash in United States dollars (including U.S. currency, bank wire, cashier checks, travelers checks, eChecks, and bank money orders, and are subject to all reporting requirements). All deliveries are subject to good funds; funds being received in Auctioneer's account before delivery of the merchandise; and all payments are subject to a clearing period. Auctioneer reserves the right to determine if a check constitutes "good funds": checks drawn on a U.S. bank are subject to a ten business day hold, thirty days when drawn on an international bank. Clients with pre-arranged credit may receive immediate credit for payments via eCheck, personal, or corporate checks. All others will be subject to a hold of 5 business days, or more, for the funds to clear prior to releasing merchandise. (Ref. T&C item 7 Credit for additional information.) Payments can be made 24-48 hours post auction from the My Orders page of the HA.com website. Payment via card (Visa, Mastercard, and Discover) will be accepted upon prior approval by Auctioneer. All payments by card will incur a surcharge of 2.9%. Payment by eCheck, wire transfer, or check will not incur a surcharge. This fee only applies to credit transactions, and does not exceed Auctioneer's cost of processing.
26. Payment is due upon closing of the Auction session, or upon presentment of an invoice. Auctioneer reserves the right to void an invoice if payment in full is not received within 7 days after Auction close. In cases of nonpayment, Auctioneer's election to void a sale does not relieve the Bidder from their obligation to pay Auctioneer its fees (seller's and buyer's premium) on the lot and any other damages pertaining to the lot or Auctioneer. Alternatively, Auctioneer at its sole option, may charge a twenty (20%) fee based on the amount of the purchase. In either case the Auctioneer may offset amount of its claim against any monies owing to the Bidder or secure its claim against any of the Bidder's properties held by the Auctioneer.
27. Purchased lots may be subject to taxes or fees imposed by various foreign taxing agencies. Buyer is responsible for paying all foreign imposed taxes whether VAT, GST, etc. prior to delivery unless other arrangements are made in writing. Lots delivered to Buyer, or Buyer's representative are subject to all applicable state and local taxes, unless appropriate permits are on file with Auctioneer. Should state sales tax become applicable in the state for delivery prior to delivery of the property on the invoice, Buyer agrees to pay all applicable state sales tax as required by the delivery state as of the shipping date. Buyer agrees to pay Auctioneer the actual amount of tax due in the event that sales tax is not properly collected due to: 1) an expired, inaccurate, or inappropriate tax certificate or declaration, 2) an incorrect interpretation of the applicable statute, 3) or any other reason. The appropriate form or certificate must be on file at and verified by Auctioneer five days prior to Auction, or tax must be paid; only if such form or certificate is received by Auctioneer within 4 days after Auction can a refund of tax paid be made. Lots from different Auctions may not be aggregated for sales tax purposes.
28. In the event that Buyer's payment is dishonored upon presentment(s), Buyer shall pay the maximum statutory processing fee set by applicable state law. If Buyer attempts to pay via eCheck and Buyer's financial institution denies this bank account, or the payment cannot be completed using the selected funding source, Buyer agrees to complete payment using your card on file (subject to the surcharge detailed in paragraph 25).
29. If any Auction invoice submitted by Auctioneer is not paid in full when due, the unpaid balance will bear interest at the highest rate permitted by law from the date of invoice until paid. Any invoice not paid when due will bear a three percent (3%) late fee on the invoice amount. If the Auctioneer refers any invoice to an attorney for collection, Buyer agrees to pay attorney's fees, court costs, and other collection costs incurred by Auctioneer. If Auctioneer assigns collection to its in-house legal staff, such attorney's time expended on the matter shall be compensated at a rate comparable to the hourly rate of independent attorneys.
30. In the event Buyer fails to pay any amounts due, Buyer authorizes Auctioneer to charge the Buyer's card on file with Auctioneer in the amount required to pay the invoice in full or sell the lot(s) securing the invoice to any underbidders in the Auction that the lot(s) appeared, or at subsequent private or public sale, or relist the lot(s) in a future auction conducted by Auctioneer. A defaulting Buyer agrees to pay for the reasonable costs of resale (including a 15% seller's commission, if consigned to an auction conducted by Auctioneer). The defaulting Buyer is liable to pay any difference between his total original invoice for the lot(s), plus any applicable interest, and the net proceeds for the lot(s) if sold at private sale or the subsequent hammer price of the lot(s) less the 15% seller's commissions, if sold at an Auctioneer's auction.
31. Title shall not pass to Buyer until all invoices are paid in full. Auctioneer shall have a lien against the merchandise purchased by Buyer to secure payment of any and all outstanding Auction invoices. Auctioneer is further granted a lien and the right to retain possession of any other property of Buyer then held by Auctioneer or its affiliates to secure payment of any Auction invoice or any other amounts due Auctioneer or affiliates from Buyer. With respect to these lien rights, Auctioneer shall have all the rights of a secured creditor under Article 9 of the Texas Uniform Commercial Code, including but not limited to the right of sale (including a 15% seller's commission, if consigned to an auction conducted by Auctioneer). Any Heritage foreclosure auction venue is deemed a reasonably commercial sale. In addition, with respect to payment of the Auction invoice(s), Buyer waives any and all rights of offset he might otherwise have against Auctioneer and the consignor of the merchandise included on the invoice. If Buyer owes Auctioneer or its affiliates on any account, Auctioneer and its affiliates shall have the right to offset such unpaid account by any credit balance due Buyer, and it may secure by possessory lien any unpaid amount by any of the Buyer's property in their possession.

Delivery; Shipping; and Handling Charges:

32. Buyer is liable for all shipping, handling, registration, and renewal fees, if any. Auctioneer is unable to combine purchases from other auctions or affiliates into one package for shipping purposes. Merchandise will be shipped in a commercially reasonable time after payment in good funds for the merchandise and the shipping fees is received or credit extended, except when third-party shipment occurs. Buyer on lots designated for third-party shipment must designate the common carrier, accept risk of loss, and prepay shipping costs. Buyer agrees that Service and Handling charges related to shipping items which are not pre-paid may be charged to the card on file with Auctioneer (subject to the surcharge detailed in paragraph 25).

33. Successful international Bidders shall provide written shipping instructions, including specified customs declarations, to Auctioneer for any lots to be delivered outside of the United States. NOTE: Declaration value shall be the item'(s) hammer price together with its buyer's premium and Auctioneer shall use the correct harmonized code for the lot.
34. On all shipments in which Auctioneer charges the Delivery, Handling, and Transit Fee infra, any risk of loss during shipment will be borne by Auctioneer until the common carrier's confirmation of delivery to the address of record in Auctioneer's file, this is the "Secure Location". A common carrier's confirmation is conclusive to prove delivery to Buyer; if the client has a Signature release on file or redirects with the carrier, the package is considered delivered without Signature. Auctioneer shall arrange, select, and engage common carriers and other transportation vendors on your behalf. Transit services are subject to the following terms and conditions:
    a. Scope of Transit Services: Merchandise for transit will be insured under one or more insurance policies issued by an authorized broker to Auctioneer. The merchandise will be insured for the invoice price of the properties (hammer price plus Buyer's Premium) ("Insured Value"). For each shipment, Buyer will provide a Secure Location to which the items will be delivered. NOTICE: Auctioneer is neither an insurance company nor a common carrier of any type.
    b. Auctioneer's Compensation for Transit Services: Auctioneer will provide transit services to Buyer for ¾ of 1% of the Insured Value, plus packaging and handling fees and fees for the common carrier (collectively, "Delivery, Handling, and Transit Fee"). Buyer agrees to pay Delivery, Handling, and Transit Fee and comply with all terms of payment as set forth herein.
    c. Auctioneer's Limitation of Liability for Transit Services: Buyer understands and agrees that Auctioneer's liability for loss of or damage to the items, if any, ends when the items have been delivered to the Secure Location, and Auctioneer has received evidence of delivery. Any claim that property has sustained loss or damage during transit must be reported to Auctioneer within seventy-two (72) hours of the delivery date. Any recovery for loss of or damage to any merchandise is limited to the lesser of actual cash value of the merchandise or the Insured Value. Under no circumstances is Auctioneer liable for consequential or punitive damages.
35. It shall be the responsibility for Buyer to arrange pick-up or shipping in a timely manner (within 10 days). Merchandise will be subject to storage and moving charges, including a $100 administration fee plus $10 daily storage for larger items and $5 daily for smaller items (storage fee per item) after 35 days. In the event the merchandise is not removed within ninety days, the merchandise may be offered for sale to recover any past due storage or moving fees, including a 25% Seller's Commission.
36. A. IMPORTATION RESTRICTIONS AND COMPLIANCE: Please be aware that local laws as to ownership and/or import restrictions may apply on any item auctioned by Auctioneer. It is the Buyer's responsibility to ensure compliance with all applicable regulations and verify that the item may be legally imported and owned by Buyer. While Auctioneer makes a good faith attempt to include in its descriptions any specifications that may affect local laws on ownership and/or import restrictions, Auctioneer makes no representation as to the rights of anyone to own or import any item into any state or country and is not liable if any such restrictions apply to the Buyer. By placing a bid, the bidder acknowledges that he or she is aware of any restriction in their country or place of residence and takes responsibility for: 1) obtaining all information on such restricted items for both export and import; 2) obtaining all such licenses and/or permits; and 3) providing Auctioneer with a shipping address at which it is legal for Auctioneer to deliver the item. The Buyer shall indemnify Auctioneer against any costs incurred, including but not limited to penalties, monetary judgments and attorney's fees, should the shipping instructions provided to Auctioneer be contrary to local laws or import restrictions. Delay, failure, or incapacity to complete delivery due to local laws or import restrictions do not relieve the buyer of timely payment or afford them the capacity to void their purchase or payment.
36. B. The purchase of items made from protected species: Any property made of or incorporating endangered or protected species or wildlife may have import and/or export restrictions, including but not limited to those established by the Convention of International Trade in Endangered Species of Wild Fauna and Flora (CITES) in various countries and domestically. Plant and animal properties include (but are not limited to) items made of (or including) Brazilian rosewood, ivory, whalebone, turtle shell, coral, crocodile, alligator, lizard, wild bird eggs, or other wildlife. These items may not be available to ship internationally or, in some cases, domestically. Auctioneer makes no representation as to the rights of anyone to import any item into any state or country that restricts the importation of items made from protected species. Delay, failure, or incapacity to obtain any such license or permit does not relieve the buyer of timely payment or afford them the capacity to void their purchase or payment. Lots containing potentially regulated wildlife material are noted in the description as a convenience to our clients, to the extent of Heritage's knowledge. Heritage Auctions does not accept liability for errors or failure to mark lots containing protected or regulated species. Domestic bans and restrictions exist in these states: 1) California state law prohibits the importation of any product containing Python skin into the State of California, thus no lot containing Python skin will be shipped to or invoiced to a person or company in California. 2) Fossil Ivory is currently banned or restricted in 5 U.S. states: New York, New Jersey, California, Hawaii, and New Mexico. For further assistance, please contact client services at 1-800-872-6467.
36. C. California State law prohibits the importation of any product containing Python skin into the State of California. No merchandise containing Python skin will be shipped to or invoiced to a person or company in California.
36. D. Auctioneer shall not be liable for any loss caused by or resulting from:
    a. Seizure or destruction under quarantine or Customs regulation, or confiscation by order of any Government or public authority, or risks of contraband or illegal transportation of trade, or
    b. Breakage of statuary, marble, glassware, bric-a-brac, porcelains, jewelry, and similar fragile articles.
37. Any request for shipping verification for undelivered packages must be made within 30 days of shipment by Auctioneer.

Cataloging, Warranties, and Disclaimers:

38. NO WARRANTY, WHETHER EXPRESSED OR IMPLIED, IS MADE WITH RESPECT TO ANY DESCRIPTION CONTAINED IN THIS AUCTION OR ANY SECOND OPINE. Any description of merchandise or second opine contained in this Auction is for the sole purpose of identifying merchandise for those Bidders who do not have the opportunity to view merchandise prior to bidding, and no description of merchandise has been made part of the basis of the bargain or has created any express warranty that merchandise would conform to any description made by Auctioneer. Color variations can be expected in any electronic or printed imaging, and are not grounds for the return of any lot. NOTE: Auctioneer, in specified auction venues, e.g. Fine Art, may have express written warranties and Bidder is referred to those specific terms and conditions.
39. Auctioneer is selling only such right or title to merchandise being sold as Auctioneer may have by virtue of consignment agreements on the date of auction and disclaims any warranty of title to the merchandise. Auctioneer disclaims any warranty of merchantability or fitness for any particular purposes. All images, descriptions, sales data, and archival records are the exclusive property of Auctioneer, and may be used by Auctioneer for advertising, promotion, archival records, and any other uses deemed appropriate.
40. Translations of foreign language documents may be provided as a convenience to interested parties. Auctioneer makes no representation as to the accuracy of those translations and will not be held responsible for errors in bidding arising from inaccuracies in translation.
41. Auctioneer disclaims all liability for damages, consequential or otherwise, arising out of or in connection with the sale of any merchandise by Auctioneer to Bidder. No third party may rely on any benefit of these Terms and Conditions and any rights, if any, established hereunder are personal to Bidder and may not be assigned. Any statement made by the Auctioneer is an opinion and does not constitute a warranty or representation. No employee of Auctioneer may alter these Terms and Conditions, and, unless signed by a principal of Auctioneer, any such alteration is null and void.
42. Auctioneer shall not be liable for damage to frames, frame glass, cases, holders, or third-party grading encapsulations that do not affect the condition of the merchandise presented for auction. Such defects shall not be a basis for return, repair, or reduction in purchase price.

Release:

43. In consideration of participation in Auction and the placing of a bid, Bidder expressly releases Auctioneer, its officers, directors and employees, its affiliates, and its outside experts that provide second opines, from any and all claims, cause of action, chose of action, whether at law or equity or any arbitration or mediation rights existing under the rules of any professional society or affiliation based upon the assigned description, or a derivative theory, breach of warranty express or implied, representation or other matter set forth within these Terms and Conditions of Auction or otherwise. In the event of a claim, Bidder agrees that such rights and privileges conferred therein are strictly construed as specifically declared herein, and are the exclusive remedy. Bidder, by non-compliance to these express terms of a granted remedy, shall waive any claim against Auctioneer.
44. Notice: Some merchandise sold by Auctioneer is inherently dangerous e.g. firearms, cannons, and small items that may be swallowed or ingested or may have latent defects all of which may cause harm to a person. Buyer accepts all risk of loss or damage from its purchase of these items and Auctioneer disclaims any liability whether under contract or tort for damages and losses, direct or inconsequential, and expressly disclaims any warranty as to safety or usage of any lot sold.

Dispute Resolution, Arbitration, and Remedies:

By placing a bid or otherwise participating in Auction, Bidder accepts these Terms and Conditions of Auction, and specifically agrees to the dispute resolution provided herein.

45. Exclusive Dispute Resolution Process: All claims, disputes, or controversies in connection with, relating to, and/or arising out of Bidder's participation in Auction or purchase of any lot, any interpretation of the Terms and Conditions of Sale or any amendments thereto, any description of any lot or condition report, any damage to any lot, any alleged verbal modification of any term of sale or condition report or description, and/or any purported settlement whether asserted in contract, tort, under Federal or State statute or regulation, or any claim made by Bidder of a lot or Bidder's participation in Auction involving the auction or a specific lot involving a warranty or representation of a consignor or other person or entity including Auctioneer {which claim Bidder consents to be made a party} (collectively, "Claim") shall be exclusively heard by, and the claimant (or respondent) and Auctioneer each consent to the Claim being presented in a confidential binding arbitration before a single arbitrator administrated by and conducted under the rules of, the American Arbitration Association. The locale for all such arbitrations shall be Dallas, Texas. The arbitrator's award may be enforced in any court of competent jurisdiction. In the event that any Claim needs to be litigated, including actions to compel arbitration, construe the agreement, actions in aid of arbitration, or otherwise, such litigation shall be exclusively in the Courts of the State of Texas, in Dallas County, Texas, and if necessary the corresponding appellate courts. If a Claim involves a consumer, exclusive subject matter jurisdiction for the Claim is in the State District Courts of Dallas County, Texas and the consumer consents to subject matter and in personam jurisdiction; further CONSUMER EXPRESSLY WAIVES ANY RIGHT TO TRIAL BY JURY. A consumer may elect arbitration as specified above. Any claim involving the purchase or sale of numismatic or related items may be submitted through binding PNG arbitration. A Claim is not subject to class certification.
46. Choice of Law: Agreement and any Claim shall be determined and construed under Texas law. For auctions conducted by Heritage Auctions (HK) Limited, any Agreement and any Claim shall be determined and construed under Hong Kong law.
47. Fees and Costs: The prevailing party (a party that is awarded substantial and material relief on its damage claim based on damages sought versus awarded or the successful defense of a Claim based on damages sought versus awarded) may be awarded reasonable attorneys' fees and costs.
48. Remedies: Any Claim must be brought within two (2) years of the alleged breach, default or misrepresentation or the Claim is waived. After one (1) year has elapsed, Auctioneer's maximum liability shall be limited to any commissions and fees Auctioneer earned on that lot. Auctioneer in no event shall be responsible for consequential damages, incidental damages, compensatory damages, or any other damages arising or claimed to be arising from the auction of any lot. Exemplary or punitive damages are not permitted and are waived. In the event that Auctioneer cannot deliver the lot or subsequently it is established that the lot lacks title, or other transfer or condition issue is claimed, in such cases the sole remedy shall be limited to rescission of sale and refund of the amount paid by Buyer; in no case shall Auctioneer's maximum liability exceed the high bid on that lot, which bid shall be deemed for all purposes the value of the lot. In the event of an attribution error, Auctioneer may at its sole discretion, correct the error on the Internet, or, if discovered at a later date, refund Buyer's purchase price without further obligation. Nothing herein shall be construed to extend the time of return or conditions and restrictions for return.
49. These Terms & Conditions provide specific remedies for occurrences in the auction and delivery process. Where such remedies are afforded, they shall be interpreted strictly. Bidder agrees that any claim shall utilize such remedies; Bidder making a claim in excess of those remedies provided in these Terms and Conditions agrees that in no case whatsoever shall Auctioneer's maximum liability exceed the high bid on that lot, which bid shall be deemed for all purposes the value of the lot.

Miscellaneous:

50. Agreements between Bidders and consignors to effectuate a non-sale of an item at Auction, inhibit bidding on a consigned item to enter into a private sale agreement for said item, or to utilize Auctioneer's Auction to obtain sales for non-selling consigned items subsequent to Auction, are strictly prohibited. If a subsequent sale of a previously consigned item occurs in violation of this provision, Auctioneer reserves the right to charge Bidder the applicable Buyer's Premium and consignor a Seller's Commission as determined for each auction venue and by the terms of the seller's agreement.
51. Acceptance of these Terms and Conditions qualifies Bidder as a client who has consented to be contacted by Heritage in the future. In conformity with "do-not-call" regulations promulgated by the Federal or State regulatory agencies, participation by Bidder is affirmative consent to being contacted at the phone number shown in his application and this consent shall remain in effect until it is revoked in writing. Heritage may from time to time contact Bidder concerning sale, purchase, and auction opportunities available through Heritage and its affiliates and subsidiaries.
52. Rules of Construction: Auctioneer presents properties in a number of collectible fields, and as such, specific venues have promulgated supplemental Terms and Conditions. Nothing herein shall be construed to waive the general Terms and Conditions of Auction by these additional rules and shall be construed to give force and effect to the rules in their entirety.

Additional Terms & Conditions:
COINS & CURRENCY

COINS & CURRENCY TERM A: Signature® Auctions are not on approval. No certified material may be returned because of possible differences of opinion with respect to the grade offered by any third-party organization, dealer, or service. No guarantee of grade is offered for uncertified Property sold and subsequently submitted to a third-party grading service. There are absolutely no exceptions to this policy. Under extremely limited circumstances, (e.g. gross cataloging error) a purchaser, who did not bid from the floor, may request Auctioneer to evaluate voiding a sale: such request must be made in writing detailing the alleged gross error; submission of the lot to the Auctioneer must be pre-approved by the Auctioneer; and bidder must notify Ron Brackemyre (1-800-872-6467 Ext. 1312) in writing of such request within three (3) days of the non-floor bidder's receipt of the lot. Any lot that is to be evaluated must be in our offices within 30 days after Auction. Grading or method of manufacture do not qualify for this evaluation process nor do such complaints constitute a basis to challenge the authenticity of a lot. AFTER THAT 30-DAY PERIOD, NO LOTS MAY BE RETURNED FOR REASONS OTHER THAN AUTHENTICITY. Lots returned must be housed intact in their original holder. No lots purchased by floor Bidders may be returned (including those Bidders acting as agents for others) except for authenticity. Late remittance for purchases may be considered just cause to revoke all return privileges.

COINS & CURRENCY TERM B: Auctions conducted solely on the Internet THREE (3) DAY RETURN POLICY: Certified Coin and Uncertified and Certified Currency lots paid for within seven days of the Auction closing are sold with a three (3) day return privilege unless otherwise noted in the description as "Sold As Is, No Return Lot". You may return lots under the following conditions: Within three days of receipt of the lot, you must first notify Auctioneer by contacting Client Service by phone (877-HERITAGE (437-4824)) or e-mail (Bid@HA.com), and immediately ship the lot(s) fully insured to the attention of Returns, Heritage Auctions, 2801 W. Airport Freeway, Dallas TX 75261. Lots must be housed intact in their original holder and condition. You are responsible for the insured, safe delivery of any lots. A non-negotiable return fee of 5% of the purchase price ($10 per lot minimum) will be deducted from the refund for each returned lot or billed directly. Postage and handling fees are not refunded. After the three-day period (from receipt), no items may be returned for any reason. Late remittance for purchases revokes these Return privileges.

COINS & CURRENCY TERM C: Bidders who have inspected the lots prior to any Auction, or attended the Auction, or bid through an Agent, will not be granted any return privileges, except for reasons of authenticity.

COINS & CURRENCY TERM D: Coins sold referencing a third-party grading service are sold "as is" without any express or implied warranty, except for a guarantee by Auctioneer that they are genuine. Certain warranties may be available from the grading services and the Bidder is referred to them for further details: Numismatic Guaranty Corporation (NGC), P.O. Box 4776, Sarasota, FL 34230, http://www.ngccoin.com/ services/writtenguarantee.asp; Professional Coin Grading Service (PCGS), PO Box 9458, Newport Beach, CA 92658, http://www.pcgs.com/guarantee.html; ANACS, 6555 S. Kenton St. Ste. 303, Englewood, CO 80111; and Independent Coin Grading Co. (ICG), 7901 East Belleview Ave., Suite 50, Englewood, CO 80111.

COINS & CURRENCY TERM E: Notes sold referencing a third-party grading service are sold "as is" without any express or implied warranty, except for guarantee by Auctioneer that they are genuine. Grading, condition or other attributes of any lot may have a material effect on its value, and the opinion of others, including third-party grading services such as PCGS Currency and PMG may differ with that of Auctioneer. Auctioneer shall not be bound by any prior or subsequent opinion, determination, or certification by any grading service. Bidder specifically waives any claim to right of return of any item because of the opinion, determination, or certification, or lack thereof, by any grading service. Certain warranties may be available from the grading services and the Bidder is referred to them for further details: Paper Money Guaranty (PMG), PO Box 4711, Sarasota FL 34230; PCGS Currency, PO Box 10470, Peoria, IL 61612-0470; PCGS Gold Shield, PO Box 9458, Newport Beach, CA 92658. Third-party graded notes are not returnable for any reason whatsoever.

COINS & CURRENCY TERM F: Notes graded by PCGS Currency between February 4, 2009 and January 30, 2019 were graded and authenticated by K3B, Inc. under license from Collectors Universe, Inc. K3B, Inc., now operating as Legacy Currency Grading, has expressed in writing that notes graded under the license during this time period will still be covered by the full written guaranty of PCGS Currency. Warranties may be available from Collectors Universe, Inc. for all PCGS Currency notes graded prior to February 4, 2009.

COINS & CURRENCY TERM G: Since we cannot examine encapsulated coins or notes, they are sold "as is" without our grading opinion, and may not be returned for any reason. Auctioneer shall not be liable for any patent or latent defect or controversy pertaining to or arising from any encapsulated collectible. In any such instance, purchaser's remedy, if any, shall be solely against the service certifying the collectible.

COINS & CURRENCY TERM H: Due to changing grading standards over time, differing interpretations, and to possible mishandling of items by subsequent owners, Auctioneer reserves the right to grade items differently than shown on certificates from any grading service that accompany the items. Auctioneer also reserves the right to grade items differently than the grades shown in the prior catalog should such items be reconsigned to any future auction.

COINS & CURRENCY TERM I: Although consensus grading is employed by most grading services, it should be noted as aforesaid that grading is not an exact science. In fact, it is entirely possible that if a lot is broken out of a plastic holder and resubmitted to another grading service or even to the same service, the lot could come back with a different grade assigned.

COINS & CURRENCY TERM J: Certification does not guarantee protection against the normal risks associated with potentially volatile markets. The degree of liquidity for certified coins and collectibles will vary according to general market conditions and the particular lot involved. For some lots there may be no active market at all at certain points in time.

COINS & CURRENCY TERM K: All non-certified coins and currency are guaranteed genuine, but are not guaranteed as to grade, since grading is a matter of opinion, an art and not a science, and therefore the opinion rendered by the Auctioneer or any third party grading service may not agree with the opinion of others (including trained experts), and the same expert may not grade the same item with the same grade at two different times. Auctioneer has graded the noncertified numismatic items, in the Auctioneer's opinion, to their current interpretation of the American Numismatic Association's standards as of the date the catalog was prepared. There is no guarantee or warranty implied or expressed that the grading standards utilized by the Auctioneer will meet the standards of any grading service at any time in the future.

COINS & CURRENCY TERM L: Storage of purchased coins and currency: Purchasers are advised that certain types of plastic may react with a coin's metal or transfer plasticizer to notes and may cause damage. Caution should be used to avoid storage in materials that are not inert.

COINS & CURRENCY TERM M: NOTE: Purchasers of rare coins or currency through Heritage have available the option of arbitration by the Professional Numismatists Guild (PNG); if an election is not made within ten (10) days of an unresolved dispute, Auctioneer may elect either PNG or A.A.A. Arbitration.

COINS & CURRENCY TERM N: For more information regarding Canadian lots attributed to the Charlton reference guides, please contact: Charlton International, PO Box 820, Station Willowdale B, North York, Ontario M2K 2R1 Canada.

COINS & CURRENCY TERM O: Financing. Auctioneer offers various extended payment options to qualified pre-approved persons and companies. The options include Extended Payment Programs (EPP) Flexible Payment Program (FPP) and Dealer Terms. Each program has its specific terms and conditions and such terms and conditions are strictly enforced. Each program has to be executed by the purchaser. Auctioneer reserves the right to alter or deny credit and in such case these auction terms shall control.
